Dr. and Mrs. Ferrell in Washington.
The following social item from the Washington Evening Star, will be read with interest here:

"Dr. John A. Ferrell, of Kenansville, N. C., and his bride are the recipients of many hospitalities at the national capital. January 25th he and Miss Lucille Deveraux Withers, a leading belle of Charlotte, N. C., were married at the home of the bride, and coming north on a bridal tour, are guests at the Raleigh Hotel. Ex-Senator and Mrs. Marion Butler gave a reception in their honor Monday evening and took them automobile Tuesday. Last evening, as the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Walter C. Murphy, they occupied a box at the theatre, and were afterwards entertained at dinner. Dr. Ferrell is a grandson of Dr. Hanson F. Murphy, who graduated from the medical department of the George Washington University in this city in 1841."

Sadler-Rion.
The Columbia, (S. C.) State contains the following account of the marriage of Mr. W. C. Rion, of this city, and Miss Kate Sadler, which occurred in Columbia last week and which will be read with much interest by many friends in this city:

"Of marked interest is the announcement of the marriage of Miss Lucia Kate Sadler to Mr. William Calhoun Rion, Monday evening at 8:30 o'clock at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. J. G. Sadler, on Washington street. This engagement was announced some time ago and the marriage was to have taken place in April, but it was decided Monday morning that there was no need for further delay and that Mr. Rion, who was here on a short visit, should take home his bride at once. Preparations were hurriedly made and the house gracefully decorated with exquisite cut flowers and palms. The relatives of the two families and a few intimate friends were notified and there were quite a number of guests present at the ceremony, which was performed by the Rev. Kirkman G. Finley.

"The charming bride was never more lovely than in her tailored gown of one of the soft new shades of wisteria worn with a black plumed picture hat. Her bouquet was of fragrant sweet peas with malden hair fern. There was an informal reception just after the ceremony when cake and wine were served the guest and immediately afterward the bride and groom left for Charlotte, where they will make their home.

"The bride, who is noted for her vivacious beauty and charm of manner, has a host of friends here in Columbia who wish her happiness. The groom, formerly of this city, for some time made his home in New York, where he was associated with the Standard Oil Company. During part of the past year he returned to Columbia and was last summer in Charlotte where he is still associated with the same company in their office there. He has many friends here and in different parts of the state to offer him sincere congratulations.

Law-Breakers Sent To Road

Judge Council Disposing of Docket With All Dispatch Possible—Many Cases Heard this Morning.

Judge Council is disposing of the criminal court docket with all the dispatch possible. Mostly minor cases have been considered so far. The case of Jas. Dunham, for the murder of Troy Sutton, has been set for Friday morning. A special venire of 50 men has been ordered for this case.

The case against Bob Springs for killing a negro named McKnight will come up Tuesday, a venire of 25 men being summoned. The other prominent case—in which Charles B. Kimbrell is charged with shooting his brother-in-law, Charles Thomas, last October, was set for Monday. The shooting did not prove fatal, though the victim's condition at one time seemed very serious.

The cases so far disposed of have been those involving minor charges, mostly retailing and carrying concealed weapons being the alleged offences in a majority of the cases tried. His honor seems determined to break up these forms of law-breaking as far as possible, and in every case of conviction imposes a sentence commensurate with his idea of justice and of law enforcement.

Sam Alexander, convicted of carrying concealed weapons, was sentenced to pay a fine of $20 and costs. Robert Wilson was sent to the roads for six months for larceny. Gambling forms the basis for a good many cases, also, and John Hart, for indulging in a little game, was sent to the roads for three months. Perry Johnson, for assault, was fined $25 and costs.

W. T. McClamrock, who was arrested sometime ago with a pistol and a pair of knuckles on his person, admitted the possession of them, but claimed that he had just moved and was carrying these things to his new abode. He offered to surrender the articles, saying he did not want them to get him in trouble again. He was fined $20 and costs and warned to be careful in the future.

John Brown, colored, answered to the charge of carrying concealed weapons, a pistol and a razor, and for this infringement of law John goes to the roads for three months.

Roscoe Starnes Escapes From The County Jail

Roscoe Starnes, a young white man in jail awaiting trial on a charge of larceny, made his escape this afternoon by jumping through a window, one of the bars of which had been broken.

The prisoner was standing in the corridor handcuffed to another prisoner, when the jailer turned his back for a moment and Starnes managed to unfasten the handcuffs from his wrist and slipped through the bars before the jailer could get to the window. One bar had been broken and this formed a space between the two bars about 6 inches wide.

Officers are on the escaped man's trail but so far no capture has been effected.

Fair Secretaries To Meet In Greensboro

Creswell, secretary of the Mecklenburg Fair Association left this afternoon for Greensboro where he will attend a meeting this evening of the secretaries of the Carolina-Virginia Circuit of Fair Associations. Another important matter to be considered will be the fixing of dates for the fall fairs. The associations in the circuit are Galax, Tazewell, Roanoke, Redford and Richmond, Va., Raleigh and Charlotte, N. C., and Columbia, S. C.

A SPLENDID SHOW.

"The Unwritten Law" By the Vernon Stock Company Witnessed by Big Audience.

The Vernon Stock Company began a week's engagement at the Academy of Music last night and presented "The Unwritten Law" for the opening bill. It was a splendid play, and was witnessed by a large and appreciative audience.

"The Unwritten Law" is a drama in four acts and is the work of Mark Swan, the celebrated playwright. Mr. B. B. Vernon as Paul Featherstone, an artist, was exceptionally good in the part and came in for lots of applause from the audience. Miss Bertha Fulton as Mrs. Featherstone, also made a splendid impression and enacted her part with much grace and ease. Miss Florence Rodinoff as Agnes Trevor, was one of the bright stars of the performance. The balance of the company is deserving of mention, in fact the performance as a whole was perfect in every particular.

The Vernon Stock Company is without doubt the best stock organization that has ever visited this city, and should draw crowded houses throughout their engagement in Charlotte.

THE PROWLING OF THE WOLF.

Ravens Teeth Threaten Two Toddlers Red Ridinghoods.

To keep the wolf from the door around which he very suddenly and unexpectedly began to prowl. Mrs. Brooks recently of St. Louis, Mo., will be glad to take in sewing. There are two tots, one of five years and the other of two months, who must be defended in some way from the sharp teeth of that ravening tooth. Mrs. Brooks lives upstairs over Lentz's store on North Tryon street. A tale of tragedy could be unfolded as to why the wolf lurks about this threshold but that would wound the sensibilities of a refined nature. Bring your, not aims, please.

BASKET BALL GAME.

Close and Exciting Game Friday Night is Expected.

That the basketball game Friday night at the local Young Men's Christian Association will be a very close and exciting one there is but little doubt. The teams to play at that time are the fast aggregation from Davidson and the Charlotte Y. M. C. A. team. This season Davidson has been playing some of the strongest teams in the South and this week alone they are scheduled to play three games, one with Wake Forest, one with Trinity, and the third with the local team. With such experience as meeting these big teams away from home gives them they ought to put up a star game and no doubt they will. The game will be called promptly at 8:30 o'clock.

CONFERENCE POSTPONED.
