TRIBUTE TO WOMEN OF THE SOUTH.

There will be no lack of appreciation of the tributes which The News has published...

CUTICURA CURED CHIEF OF POLICE

Canadian Officer Poisoned by Weeds - Eczema Developed and Legs Became Scaly - Ankles Were Very Sore and Itchy - For Weeks He Could Not Wear Shoes.

FREED FROM ITCHING BY CUTICURA REMEDIES

"I have been successfully cured of dry eczema. I was inspecting the removal of noxious weeds, it being part of my duty, from the edge of a river and was covered in the dust from the weeds. At night I shook out my trousers and cleaned my limbs, but felt a prickly sensation. I paid no attention to it for two days, but I noticed a scum on my legs like fish scales. I could scrape it off, and yet I did not attend to it until it came to be too itchy and sore and began getting two burning sores. My ankles were all sore and scabby and I could not wear shoes. I had to use carpet and felt slippers for weeks. I was then on particular police duty and was compelled to be on duty. I got a cake of the Cuticura Soap and some Cuticura Ointment. In less than ten days I could put on my boots and in less than three weeks, though on duty all the time, I was free from the confounding itching. I tell you frankly that Cuticura saved me from what the doctors called a bad leg. Capt. George P. Bliss, Chief of Police, Morris, Manitoba, Mar. 20, 1907, and Sept. 24, 1908."

AMUSEMENTS

"THE DEVIL"

Good Crowd Witnesses Second Performance of "The Devil" in Charlotte. Franz Molner's sensational drama, "The Devil," was presented at the Academy of Music last night by the Vermon Stock Company, and every character was capably handled. J. A. Griffin as the Devil was very good. Robert Turner, as the artist, also came in for his share of applause, and Miss Florence Rodinoff gave a splendid portrayal of the wife. The minor parts were satisfactorily played. In spite of the rainy weather a good sized crowd attended the performance. There will be a matinee performance of "East Lyna" this afternoon, and tonight the laughable comedy, "A Runaway Match" will be presented.

The DeKoven Male Quartette.

A company of selected vocalists singing many of the old songs and singing them well. A male quartette and soprano soloist in ensemble work, interspersed with readings, vocal solos and a delightful literary interlude, "College Days." The individual members of the company have been selected with great care, they possess excellent voices and sympathetic natures, so essential in the ensemble work. The DeKoven Male Quartette are so well known in all sections of the country that words of introduction are entirely unnecessary. They have been returned year after year over some of the best lyceum courses. The personnel is unchanged.

The program this season will be stronger than before on account of the addition of Miss Smith who is not only a fine reader but a soprano as well. The famous sextette from Lucia has been arranged for the quartette and will be used on the program. The program will be given in three parts each with different costumes.

The DeKoven Male Quartette will be the eighth number of the series of ten attractions at the Academy of Music, Friday night of next week, their complete production of Mr. Clyde Fitch's most recent success, "The Blue Mouse."

"The Blue Mouse" has made a tremendous hit in New York and is now in its fourth month at the Lyric theatre, playing to capacity houses nightly. The Shuberts decided to organize a road company to present the play outside of New York for the balance of the season, and have engaged a cast of prominent players for the road production of this successful play.

"Clansman" for the White Race. Not many years ago the race problem was confined entirely to the South. At the present time it is the great throbbing question in every part of the United States. The tremendous increase of the negro population in the Northern states has confronted the white inhabitants of that section with the awful possibilities of this issue, while the encroachments of the yellow race in the Northwest and Pacific coast regions have aroused the entire nation to a realizing sense of the "yellow peril." No one appreciates the danger more than President Roosevelt and it is now universally admitted that his Far East was a warning to Japan not to go too far in her designs on Western civilization.

With the race problem such an all important, vital issue the popularity of "The Clansman," which is the only play dealing directly with this question, must not be wondered at. "The Clansman" teaches the lesson that this is a white man's country and that all other races, black or yellow, must be kept in their proper places. While teaching this lesson it presents a story thrilling and fascinating in the extreme. "The Clansman," which is now in its fourth year of unequalled success will be seen in this city at the Academy of Music, Saturday matinee and night, February 20th.

The Status Quo.

In the course of a lesson on the subject of Domestic Economy and Hygiene, a mistress got a singularly smart and apt answer from a girl. Speaking of milk and its importance as a food, the lady asked: "What is the best place wherein to keep the milk perfectly nice and fresh during, say, a hot summer day?" And one girl—evidently thinking it was an easy one—promptly answered: "Please, teacher, in the cow."
