THE CHARLOTTE NEWS, FEBRUARY 15, 1909.

10

who had dropped into his office, "and I'll tell you a civil war yarn; not a yarn either, for what I am going to tell really occurred halters, and the rein of each halter was prevent it from running off.

"The scene was about two and one half miles from Culpepper court house departed with the horses were requested by the chaplain to assemble in a beautiful cak grove nearby for services.

out one of the cavalry men said to another one, whose name I'll not give, 'let's go up to the court house.' There was a ready response and together they started off, the former riding his horse one of the best in the Virginia cavalry and the latter walking, having left his horse to graze. The people of Culpep per had all gone to church and when those two calvarymen arrived at the court house they met another comrade who invited them to go with him and he would get them some good brandy

"This not being in the days of pro hibition and blind tigers it did not require a long hunt to find the desired article which was stored back in the cellar. Several drinks were passed and then the accomodating friend filled three canteens for the two cavalrymen to carry back to camp with them, but after emerging from the cellar several other fellows came up and for a time when the time came for returning to light

"I didn't feel like walking two and a half miles," said the cavalryman who had left his horse behind, and his appearance gave truth to the statement. "Get up on that embankment," replied the ether, "and jump up behind me my horse will carry two.

ten astride and grabbed his friend around the waist than the horse, nucamp at full speed. Down the path he sped at the rate of a Southern mail train. Nothing could have stopped him religious services were being held was directly in the path of the flying horse, and onword he rushed. The soldiers hearing the clatter of hoofs, arose in a body to see who or what was approaching, Just then the frightened horse rushed into the crowd, suddenly wheeled to the left and dumped his

They were promptly arrested and taken to the guard house where they remained until the next day when they were arranged before the colonel on a charge of disturbing religious worship.

one of them said in defending himself "and if you'll excuse me this time I'll never go again," and I think he kept his word during the remainder of the war.

"The coionel reprimanded them after hearing the particulars and let them go without further punishment."

One of the cavalrymen was a Charlotte man and he lives here today.

W. M. Long, Pres. R. Wearn, V.-Pres

JNO. M. SCOTT, President.

F. C. ABBOTT & CO. 321/2 acre farm, 31/2 miles out, fine place for trucking, poultry and dairy,

Masons of Mississippi

Meridian, Biss., Feb. 15 .-- Many members of the Masonic order throughout Mississippi are arriving in Meridian to attend the grand lodge meetings and the sessions of the auxiliary bodies. Ample arrangements have been not only interest but principle as well, we invite you to become a patron of made for the entertainment of the vis-this bank. We pay 4 per cent on Savings Deposits and compound the initors, who will be in the city during terest four times a year. the greater part of the week.

No. Cordelia, the hand-maidens mentioned in the good book were not palmists.

W. L. Nicholson, Sec-Treas. "Everything in Real Estate."

A Place For Your Money

Southern Loan & Savings Bank

W. L. JENKINS, Cashier.

W. S. ALEXANDER, V. President.

If you are looking for a place to put your money where it will be safe, close price.

Also several other forms.

FOR SALE

4 per cent investment, new houses, fine location for renting. Also several beautiful dwellings and cottages from $2500 to $7500.00. Also a few cheaper cottages $750.00 to $2000.00.

Henderson Phone 529, i - with the stand 219 N. Tryon.

You Will be Hurt or Si some unexpectedly. Prepare for them now. Let us tell you the MARYLAND CASUALTY COMPANY'S Universal Disa Policy, covering EVERY DISEASE AND EVERY ACCULANT WITHOUT EXCEPTION and pays liberal sums for surgistion

3

6

HARVEY LAMBETH, Manager Insurance Department, American Trust Co.