

400-200-100 - WHAT DOES IT MEAN?

THE NEWS WANT ADS

BUY
SELL
RENT
FIND GET SECURE
FILL

ONE CENT PER WORD.

That The Charlotte News will give away FOUR HUNDRED THEATRE TICKETS TO TWO HUNDRED PEOPLE WITHIN ONE HUNDRED DAYS and will announce daily in its Want Ad Columns the names of two people who will be offered the four tickets the following days. Those parties making application for the tickets will be given the option of selecting either The Edisonia or Amuseyou--two of Charlotte's popular little theatres.

Of the great number of replies received to the advertisement not a single one was correct and, as was announced in the News Friday and Saturday, the $5.00 WILL BE AWARDED TO THE ASSOCIATED CHARITIES.

This is one of the many methods planned by the News to create more interest in its Want Ad Page. It already carries more classified advertisements than any North Carolina paper. The results from these advertisements are surprising; and the cost low.

Attach a small advertisement to your ticket Coupon. It will be inserted one time FREE. Watch the results. The Want Ad Columns of The News find lost articles, rent vacant houses, sell anything, get you a position, find you a cook or servant, swap and trade merchandise. They are the peoples market place.

COUPON.

Good for two tickets to Edisonia or Amuseyou when properly filled in. Also good for one 15-word Classified Advertisement to be inserted FREE in The News want Ad Column, one time if advertisement is attached to this coupon.

NAME.....

ADDRESS.....

Cut out and mail or send to News Office.

Tickets will be Awarded Wednesday, See Want Ad Page.

IN TAR HEEL SOCIAL CIRCLES

Raleigh

Special to The Sunday News.
Jan. 21.—One of the most social functions during the season of the general assembly will be the reception to be given at the Raleigh Hotel Wednesday evening, January 22, in honor of the members of the legislature and they are looking forward to it with many pleasant anticipations.
Anderson N. Colin Hughes and family arrived here and will make their home in Raleigh, on North Fayetteville street. They will be welcome additions to the social and religious life of the city.
A goodly number of music lovers recently enjoyed an splendid program followed by Miss Beard, of the music faculty of Peace Institute, Monday evening.
Miss Edith Poul informally entertained a number of friends at bridge Sunday morning in honor of her mother, Miss Annie Thrie Poul, of Raleigh, and Miss Isabelle Simons, of Newbern, who is the guest of Mrs. Graham Andrews.
Miss Lucille Marshall entertained twenty of her friends from the Raleigh College Saturday afternoon, the event proving to be most charming. Miss Marshall also entertained a merry company of friends complimentary to Miss Hattie Poe Johnson, whose marriage took place Thursday at the home of Shelby. Miss Johnson was also the guest of honor at a brilliant reception given by Mrs. Clarence Johnson, at her home on South Beulah avenue.
Mrs. W. A. Leslie, of Morganton, and Mrs. Moran Berry, of Norfolk, who are visiting Mrs. Clarence Johnson, were guests of honor at a delightful morning bridge party given by Mrs. Will West.
Mrs. Alfred Williams gave an enjoyable "at home" Wednesday from 10 to 11 in honor of Mrs. Edwin H. Jordan, a large number of friends gathering the snow storm and enjoying the gracious hospitality of Mrs. Williams.
Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Jordan, who have come here from Newbern to make this city their home, will be formally welcomed by the people of Raleigh. Mrs. Jordan was formerly Miss Isabelle Bryan, daughter of Mrs. H. R. Bryan, of Newbern, and has many friends in this city, where she has frequently visited.
Miss Lindsay Patterson, Mrs. Will Reynolds and Miss Adelaide Adams of Winston-Salem, met with the alumnae of Salem College living in Raleigh Friday and organized the Raleigh chapter with Miss Jane Ward as president. Twenty members were enrolled.
The Raleigh Chapter of Peace Institute Alumnae met with Mrs. Joseph Daniels Friday afternoon and elected the following officers: President, Miss Sadie Duncan; vice-president, Mrs. J. W. Harden; secretary, Treasurer, Mrs. C. V. Albright; corresponding secretary, Mrs. J. T. Alderman. These officers and the following compose the executive board: Mrs. J. D. Boushall, Mrs. Mamie B. Terrell, Mrs. Frank Jolly.
A large number of friends of Mr. Jacques Busbee gathered in his studio Wednesday from three to six and enjoyed a studio tea, the occasion proving interesting and enjoyable.
Miss Belle Andrews was the gracious hostess of a bridge party which she gave Saturday afternoon in compliment to her guest, Miss Elizabeth Robinson, of Fayetteville. She had as her guest the members of her bridge club and a few invited friends.
Saturday evening Mayor and Mrs. J. S. Wynne had as their guests for an elegant dinner Governor and Mrs. W. W. Kitchin, Rev. and Mrs. F. M. Harper, Mr. and Mrs. Franklin McNeill, Rev. H. M. North and Miss Colton.
The members of the Capitol Club played host Wednesday evening at a delightful smoker given in honor of the members of the general assembly and all who were fortunate enough to be present greatly enjoyed the evening. The informality of the reception rendered it all the more enjoyable.
Mrs. A. W. Knox entertained the Johnsonian Book Club Thursday afternoon, there being a large attendance and an interesting program carried out.
The education department of the Woman's Club held one of its best meetings Thursday afternoon and carried out a program of unusual interest. One of the speakers of the afternoon was Miss Mary O. Graham, of the State Normal College. The honored founder of the club, Mrs. E. Moffitt, who is visiting in the city, attended the meeting. At the conclusion of the program tea was served and an opportunity given to meet Mrs. Graham and to greet Mrs. Moffitt.

Roasts in Fall With Lamp.
Reading, Pa., Jan. 21.—Mrs. John Clemmer, 27 years old, tripped and fell down a flight of stairs at her home at Bally, this county, with a lighted coal oil lamp, which exploded, and a few hours afterward she died of her burns.
The burning oil was thrown all over her body; she cried for help, and her husband and his father, Daniel Clemmer, were burned about the hands in extinguishing the fire that resulted.

Eyes Failing Former Ruler.
New York, Jan. 21.—Bernadino Costa, 20 years ago, president of Costa Rica, took his last sight Thursday of the city to which he came six weeks ago, hoping to be cured of creeping blindness. He sailed for home Thursday via Kingston, carrying with him the unanimous verdict of the best specialists in New York that within the year he will be totally blind. He is accompanied by a brother.

Greensboro

Special to The Sunday News.
Greensboro, N. C., Jan. 21.—The art department of the Woman's Club met Thursday afternoon at the library and a very instructive as well as interesting meeting was held.
At G. F. College on Tuesday night, the most entertaining program of the year was rendered by the faculty of music and expression. In spite of the inclemency of the weather many of the music lovers of the city were present and each number was thoroughly appreciated.
On Wednesday afternoon at her home on South Eugene street, Mrs. J. B. Ellington delightfully entertained the Sorosis Club, progressing flinch being the game of the afternoon.
In honor of two of the season's brides, Mrs. Audrey L. Brooks, and Mrs. Cummins Mehane, Mrs. Harry R. Bush gave a brilliant reception on Wednesday afternoon at her handsome residence on Edgeworth street. During the afternoon more than one hundred and fifty guests called and the whole affair was marked by elegance and good taste.
Mrs. P. F. Jeffries was given a surprise dinner party on Wednesday in honor of her seventieth birthday, which was thoroughly enjoyed by the whole family, who had taken this event for a reunion.
Promptly at high noon on Wednesday at the home of the bride's mother on South Eugene street, a number of their friends witnessed a beautiful home wedding when Miss Pearl Reeves became the bride of Mr. Royce E. Rackley. Rev. Murphy Williams, pastor of the Church of the Covenant performed the ceremony.
Immediately after the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Rackley left for Richmond where they will spend several days, after which they will make their home here on Eugene street.
The bride is the charming daughter of Mrs. Ida Reeves and is very popular here. Mr. Rackley is connected with the Huntley-Stockton-Hill Company.
At two o'clock Thursday afternoon Mr. B. F. Idol and Miss Lottie Smith, both of Kernansville were united in marriage in the office of Justice of the Peace Collins, who officiated. Following the ceremony the happy couple returned to their home at Kernansville.
At the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Jesse Wynick, Mrs. Alice Hopkins Speight and Mr. Alvis D. Miller were united in marriage Thursday evening at 9 o'clock the Rev. D. I. Craig, of Reidsville, performing the ceremony.
Following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Miller left for their home at Reidsville.

Rock Blast Bowls Him to Fate.
Altoona, Pa., Jan. 21.—Struck on the head by a large rock thrown by a blast, Frank Carran, aged 22, employed in the stone quarries at Gannister, was knocked over a 30-foot cliff and sustained four broken bones. He cannot recover.

Durham

Special to The Sunday News.
Durham, N. C., Jan. 21.—Tuesday afternoon Miss Eleanor Green was hostess to the Tuesday Afternoon Bridge Club. There were six tables of progressive bridge. The highest score made among the club members was that made by Miss Louise Carr.
A delightful card party was given Saturday afternoon by Mrs. Harris King in honor of her guests, Miss Henry of East Orange, N. J., and Miss Walker of Richmond, Va.
Miss Henry of East Orange, N. J., and Miss Walker of Richmond, Va., the very charming guests of Mrs. Harris King, were again the honorees at a pretty card party given by Mrs. E. L. Brooks at her home in West Durham.
Mrs. Q. E. Rawls and Mrs. Alphonso Cobb have issued invitations to a reception for Friday afternoon with Mrs. Holman Rawls as the honored guest.
Wednesday night Miss Nonie Carlington entertained at cards with Miss Fay Henry and Miss Mary Walker as the special guests of honor. The hall and parlor were thrown into one large room where the tables were set for the players. There were four tables of progressive bridge.
Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Woodleaf and two children, Virgil and Virginia, left Thursday morning for Henderson, N. C., where they will live.
Thursday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Marks, Miss Annie Marks and Mr. Henry Boone were united in marriage, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Victor Marshall, pastor of the Edgemont Baptist church. Only relatives and a few invited friends were present.
Mr. and Mrs. T. Harris and Mrs. T. R. Cozart, Messrs. G. S. Nuzum, T. C. White, G. G. Tetric, and H. M. Heavens of Clarkburg, West Virginia, who have been here several days in their tour of the Southern states, divided yesterday and went to their several homes.
The social feature of Rev. Dr. John E. White's visit here was the banquet Friday night, which was given to the directors and officers of the association with Dr. White as the special guest.
The ladies of the association, had charge of the banquet, made out the menu and did all the work. About forty people sat down to one of the most elaborate luncheons the association has ever had.
At the Trinity Methodist church parsonage Thursday afternoon Miss Ora Thomas became the bride of Mr. C. M. Fordham, of Greensboro, Rev. C. C. Craven, officiating. The wedding was solemnized in the presence of a very few friends and there were no attendants.
Mrs. P. W. Vaughan, Misses Lida Carr and Annie Louise Vaughan, Miss Roberts, Henshaw and Mr. W. L. Foushee left Saturday for Loch Lily to spend the week-end. The party went to Roxboro, taking riding habits and mounting horses there, they rode to the club house, seven miles away, while he was working on the state. There are annually killed in Africa a minimum of 65,000 elephants, yielding a quantity of raw ivory, the selling of which is $4,250,000.

Gaffney

Special to The Sunday News.
Gaffney, S. C., Jan. 21.—The following invitations were sent out in this city on last Tuesday:
Dr. and Mrs. John Freeman Garrett request the pleasure of your company at the wedding reception of their daughter, Lulu Olivia and Mr. Douglas Cloud Anderson, on Wednesday evening, February 1st, at half after eight o'clock, at home, Gaffney, South Carolina.
On Monday afternoon Miss Wynne Davenport gave a delightful "miscellaneous shower" at her home on Linnetone street for Miss Lula Garrett, who will be married on the first of next month to Mr. Douglas Cloud Anderson, of Dayton, O.
The United Daughters of the Confederacy held their regular meeting at the home of Mrs. E. Felix Lipscomb on Thursday afternoon.
The Embroidery Club was charmingly entertained by Mrs. T. C. Pettit at her home on Race street on Wednesday afternoon.
Invitations have been issued by Mrs. William Phillips to a large number of her friends for a birthday party which she will give at her home on Jeffries street on next Tuesday, the 24th.
The Trimble Club was most enjoyably entertained on Thursday afternoon by Mrs. A. W. Doggett at her home on Depot street.
Miss Mabel Gaines has returned to her home at Rock Hill after a visit of a few weeks to Miss Alice Gaines in this city.
Mr. and Mrs. Ed McArthur have returned to this city where they will make their home. They have been spending a few months in Georgia.
The members of the Epworth League of the Buford Street Methodist church had charge of the motion picture show in this city last night for the benefit of certain worthy undertakings of that organization.
Dancing, which has been on the wane in Gaffney for some time, has secured a new lease on life and is now becoming quite popular among the young people of the city.

Stole to Save Baby's Life.
Philadelphia, Jan. 21.—To save his 3-month-old baby from starvation, Charles Coveland, stole a bottle of milk, after the family, consisting of his wife and the infant, had suffered from hunger for three days. This was the man's statement to Magistrate Briggs when he appeared to defend himself on the charge of theft. A policeman had seen Coveland take the bottle of milk from a doorstep early in the morning and placed him under arrest. The prisoner told the magistrate there had not been a morsel of food in the house for three days and that he had been driven to desperation by fear that the infant would die from starvation. The magistrate believed the tale, and when Coveland further declared that he had searched the city for employment without success, said that he would obtain a place for the man, whom he thereupon discharged.

Asheville

Special to The Sunday News.
Asheville, Jan. 21.—The wedding of Miss Jessie Hattener and Mr. William Basil Valentine, which occurred Monday at St. John's Episcopal church in Montgomery, Ala., came as quite a surprise to Asheville people. The engagement had not been announced although friends of the couple believed the happy event would occur in the spring. Mr. and Mrs. Valentine are now in Atlanta and will later arrive here to make their home.
Miss Cameron Drummond, formerly of this city, but now residing in Georgia, has been the guest at a house party given by Bruce Crabtree in Chattanooga. Mr. Crabtree was a popular Bingham boy some years ago. Miss Drummond is now the guest of her sister, Miss Allee Drummond in Sevanee.
Miss Alice Devenish entertained Thursday evening with a large bridge party, the guests including many of the younger set.
The Woman's Club met Monday afternoon with Mrs. Charles Malcolm Platt at her home on Haywood street when the reading of "Henry IV." was completed. Mrs. Charles Platt is to prepare a paper on "Buncombe county" to be presented at a later meeting. This is to be one of the papers submitted in the state federation contest of "The History of the county in which you live."
A number of the friends of Miss Pearl Shope gave her a surprise party at her home Saturday evening. Mrs. Shope has gone to visit friends in South Carolina.
Mrs. J. L. Alexander entertained Monday with an elaborate bridge luncheon at her home on Montford avenue. Her guests included a number of the prominent visitors in the city who are at the Battery Park hotel for the winter.
Mrs. J. A. Burroughs, Miss Bessie Reynolds and Miss Georgia Dennis left yesterday for New York. Mrs. Burroughs and Miss Reynolds sail shortly for Europe, where they will join Mrs. Herbert Reynolds for a year's stay abroad.
Miss Louise Tannahill and Mrs. Samuel Tannahill will leave shortly for Greenville, Tenn., for a short visit and will later go to Augusta.
Mrs. H. T. Collins and her daughter, Mrs. Wallace Rollins, have gone to Philadelphia and New York.
Miss Jennie Sharp has returned from a visit to Memphis.
Mrs. D. C. Waddell, Jr., has gone to Clearfield, Fla., where she will join Mr. Waddell, who is the guest of Col. T. F. Davidson, who with Mrs. Davidson, are in Florida for the winter.
Miss Katherine Cartmell has gone to Richmond to visit her sister, Mrs. Galloway Williamson.
Mrs. Phillip S. Henry entertained Thursday with a bridge luncheon at her handsome home, Lealadia lodge.
An engagement of interest to friends in this city is that of Miss Lockhart and John Davis, both of Paris, Ky. Miss Lockhart spent last summer here as the guest of Miss Lalage Oates.
Mrs. Robert Bingham entertained

Shelby

Special to The Sunday News.
Shelby, Jan. 21.—The officers of Aileen Rebecca Lodge I. O. O. F., were installed at the regular meeting last Thursday night. They are: Miss Fan Barnett, past grand; Miss Ora Eskridge, noble grand; Miss Elva Wray, vice grand; Misses Margaret Black and Ollie Hamrick, right and left supporters to the noble grand; Ruth Wells and Ora Rudisill, right and left supporters to the vice grand; Miss Nancy Tiddy, secretary; Miss Orland Washburn, secretary; Mrs. E. A. Rudisill, chaplain; Miss Tonce Walker, conductor; Miss Mama Jones, warden; Miss Tillie Baber, inside guardian. This lodge has only been organized about eight months, and has about thirty members.
Mrs. Henry Kendall was "at home" Friday afternoon complimentary to her sister, Miss Williewe Wiseman, and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Plumber Wiseman, of Danville, Va. Mrs. Kendall is at all times a most charming hostess.
Mr. and Mrs. John D. Lineberger left this week for Fort Pierce and other points in Florida, where they go to build up the health of Mr. Lineberger.
Miss Laura Douglass, who has for some time been the charming guest of Miss Laura Burton Miller, leaves at an early date for her home in Winnsboro, S. C.
Miss Veve Belle McFarland leaves next week to spend some time with her sister, Mrs. John E. Miller, in Griffin, Ga., and Mrs. A. C. Levy, of Columbus, Ga.
Mr. and Mrs. Barney A. Barber, announce the engagement of their daughter, Tillie, to Mr. John R. McClure, wedding to take place next month.
Mr. McClure for several years associated with the Shelby Machine and Supply Company, is now located in Euflaula, Ala., and is a young man of splendid qualities.
Miss Baber for three years clerk in the postoffice is a very popular and most charming young lady. The wedding will be very quiet, but will be awaited with much interest.

Scolded Jurors Were Right.
Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Jan. 21.—Seaward was convicted in court of assault and battery and carrying concealed weapons. Before being sentenced he confessed that he was the man who stabbed a fellow-countryman two years ago, for which crime John Materno was hanged.
The jury acquitted Materno, and Judge Ferris scored the 12 men in the box for what was termed "an unjust verdict," and the names of the jurors were taken from the wheel.