DEAD

That's what the papers are going to say about you some day-Mr. Man-and when they do, what about your life insurance policy? Do you know, that when a man dies, before his wife can collect his insurance sometimes a lot of "red tape" has to be gone through. Most insurance companies send out blanks after a man's death-and on these blanks a man's wife has to furnish affidavit as beneficiary-then one from the doctor-one from the preacher-one from the undertaker, and others from friends-to prove that you are DEAD. I handle all such papers, and relieve a man's family of all such trouble, and its not necessary to pay any one else for doing a thing to them to collect your money. Even if you have some advisor—your papers have got to be sworn to before a Notary Public anyway. My fee for such services is $1. Say-Bear this in mind before you "leave"-It may save your family a lot of trouble, and expense, too.
