

Reciprocity Issue Reaches Senate For Discussion

Finance Committee Reports Canadian Reciprocity Bill With Root Amendment Attached—Bill Was Presented Without Recommendation.

In House Underwood Tariff Revision Bill Was Considered—May Not Agree to Bristol Amendment to Direct Election Bill

By Associated Press. Washington, D. C., June 13.—In the senate today Canadian reciprocity finally reached the floor, the finance committee reporting it with the Root amendment attached, but without recommendation.

In the house discussion of the Underwood tariff revision bill was expected to take up the whole day, while the "sun" trust and steel trust investigating committees renewed their inquiries.

Mother of Governor Stokes Is Dead

By Associated Press. Millsville, N. J., June 13.—Mrs. E. H. Stokes, mother of former Governor Stokes of New Jersey, died at her home here early today. Last Thursday the former governor and his father sailed from New York on the steamer America for Europe and for the past 24 hours efforts have been made to reach them by wireless.

SENATE PASSES DIRECT ELECTION PROPOSITION.

By Associated Press. Washington, June 13.—The senate last night by 64 to 24, passed the resolution amending the constitution to provide for election of senators by direct popular vote.

Missionary Tells Of Her Work

By Associated Press. Asheville, June 13.—Much interest was given to the session of the Southern Conference of the Y. W. C. A. when Miss Welby A. Honsinger, a returned missionary from China, described the many dangers and hardships encountered during her ten years' of missionary work in China.

Secretary Knox Must Explain

By Associated Press. Washington, June 13.—A subpoena for Secretary of State Knox to appear and explain the payment to Frederick Hink, son of former Senator Eugene Hink, of $5,000 from the Canadian land of the state department was heard today by the house committee on expenditures in the state department.

Bride of Five Days Meets Tragic End

By Associated Press. Colorado Springs, Col., June 13.—Mrs. T. B. Cavendar, of Denver, a bride of five days, received injuries from which she died without regaining consciousness and nine others were seriously hurt when the observation car on the Short Line train from Cripple Creek yesterday left the rails while rounding a curve in North Cheyenne canyon, nine miles west of this city, and turned completely over. Mrs. Cavendar, accompanied by her husband, was on her honeymoon. The husband was only slightly injured.

Opening Day Of Coronation Meeting

By Associated Press. Ascot Heath, England, June 13.—Never has Ascot looked better than on this, the opening day of the coronation meeting. The weather was rather uncertain, but not sufficiently so to have any effect on the attendance, which was the greatest in years.

MAY TAKE OVER THE CHINCHELD RAILROAD

By Associated Press. Spartanburg, S. C., June 13.—The persistent rumors of the last few months that the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad was to lease or acquire control of the Carolina, Clinchfield and Ohio railway, was practically confirmed with the amendment that the Seaboard Air Line is also interested in the deal, upon the arrival in Spartanburg over the Clinchfield road Sunday night of a party, including Edwin Hawley, Frank A. Vanderlip, President George W. Stevens, Vice-President Decatur Axtell, Frank Trumbull, chairman of the board, and other directors of the Chesapeake and Ohio, and S. D. Warfield, formerly one of the receivers of the Seaboard Air Line. They were accompanied by M. J. Caples, vice-president and general manager, and L. H. Phetteplace, general superintendent of the Clinchfield.

MOBILIZATION OF TROOPS CONSIDERED

By Associated Press. Lisbon, June 13.—The cabinet yesterday considered the question of mobilizing the army. It was decided to reinforce the troops on the frontier and in the province of Algarve in case of necessity.

MANY DELEGATES AT GROCERS MEET.

By Associated Press. Denver, June 13.—Nearly 1,500 visitors, including 500 accredited delegates, are attending the tenth annual convention of the National Retail Grocers' Association, which opened here today.

MILLION DOLLAR DAMAGE SUIT IS COMMENCED

Special to The News. Raleigh, N. C., June 13.—The Ware-Kramer Company vs. the American Tobacco Company, the million-dollar damage suit, was begun in the federal court today, Judge H. G. Conner presiding.

IT SEEMS AS IF HE'LL NEVER LEARN.

Sugar Trust Still On The Rack Of Investigation

By Associated Press. Washington, June 13.—An effort to discover whether non-competitive forces had been established by the American Sugar Refining Co. in an effort to control prices, marked the resumption of the "sugar trust" inquiry today. Edwin F. Atkins, acting head of the sugar corporation, declared the American Sugar Refining Co. actually owned a majority of stock in the sugar refineries in California and that it did not attempt to compete with them.

By Associated Press. Spreckles family owned the other 50 per cent. The American also owned 49 per cent in the Alameda Sugar Co. What the purpose of the purchase of this stock was, Mr. Atkins was unable to tell the committee.

By Associated Press. Mobile, Ala., June 13.—The Norwegian steamer Harold sailed this morning for Ceiba, Honduras, with, as part of a general cargo, several cases of rifles, bayonets and ammunition. The clearance papers show that the vessel is bound for no other port and that the arms are for the Honduran government.

By Associated Press. Cincinnati, O., June 13.—Ruling out testimony of clerks of the Big Four Railway as to the contents of cash books of the road that have been destroyed, Judge Charles T. Hunt, presiding at the trial of Edgar S. Cooke, for alleged embezzlement of $24,000 from the Big Four Railroad, caused interest in the case to reach a high pitch today.

By Associated Press. A strange feature of the shipment of arms, and one which has not been explained, is that the rifles of which there are about 1,000, are of a pattern not usually purchased by governments.

By Associated Press. New Orleans, La., June 13.—Sixty applicants—Italians, Russians, Turks, and almost every other nationality—were anxious to swear allegiance to Uncle Sam, appeared before the board of naturalization yesterday.

By Associated Press. Rome, June 13.—Frey, the German aviator, started at 6:55 o'clock this morning on the last stage of the Paris-Rome-Turin aeroplane race.

By Associated Press. Rome, June 13.—Frey, the German aviator, started at 6:55 o'clock this morning on the last stage of the Paris-Rome-Turin aeroplane race.

By Associated Press. Rome, June 13.—Frey, the German aviator, started at 6:55 o'clock this morning on the last stage of the Paris-Rome-Turin aeroplane race.

Recorder Smith Lays Heavy Penalty On The Club Manager

SIDNEY ALLEN IS CONVICTED OF PERJURY

Man Who was Connected with Noted Counterfeiting Case Gets Long Sentence and Fine on Perjury Charge in Greensboro this Morning.

Marks the Last Chapter of Carolina's Greatest Counterfeiting Cases—Operative Thomas Secures Conviction—Appeal to Be Taken by Allen.

Special to The News. Greensboro, N. C., June 13.—Judge Boyd, in the federal court this morning sentenced Sidney Allen, convicted last night of perjury, to two and a half years in the federal prison at Atlanta and fined him $500.

By Associated Press. Washington, June 13.—Organization of the United States Steel Corporation in 1901 put an end to pools and agreements in the steel industry.

W. T. J. Blackman Manager, and E. L. Johnson, Employee, of Commercial Club Severely Dealt With by Recorder Smith.

Can Pay $250 and Costs And Discontinue Business, or $500 Each And Go to Jail for Four Months—Under $1,000 Bond.

In the recorder's court this morning W. T. J. Blackman, manager of the Commercial Club, on South College street, and E. L. Johnson, an employee of the club, were each found guilty on a charge of retailing and maintaining a club where liquors are kept for sale.

Blackman is the manager of the club while Johnson is employed at the club as an assistant. The warrant charged them with maintaining a club where liquors are kept for sale.

They have had the dragnet out for some time and there is now no telling what a day may bring forth as the result.

GALEY SAYS THERE ARE NO POOLS IN STEEL INDUSTRY

By Associated Press. Washington, June 13.—Organization of the United States Steel Corporation in 1901 put an end to pools and agreements in the steel industry.

Mr. Galey declared that for a long time before 1897 the price of steel rails was practically uniform at $28 a ton.

When asked who could explain the agreements and fines, Mr. Galey said he presumed Charles M. Schwab, the president or E. A. Peacock, the vice-president of the Carnegie Company, could tell.

Mr. Galey further admitted that before 1900 there were agreements as to the proportion of business each manufacturer was to have.

Church Union Is Valid. Nashville, Tenn., June 13.—John M. Gaut, attorney of this city, this morning received a telegram stating that the Mississippi supreme court had affirmed the chancellor in the case of Gathers vs. Moseley, involving the validity of the union of the Cumberland Presbyterian and U. S. A. Presbyterian churches. The chancellor upheld the validity of the union.

CLERKS OF BIG 4 NOT ALLOWED TO TESTIFY

By Associated Press. Cincinnati, O., June 13.—Ruling out testimony of clerks of the Big Four Railway as to the contents of cash books of the road that have been destroyed, Judge Charles T. Hunt, presiding at the trial of Edgar S. Cooke, for alleged embezzlement of $24,000 from the Big Four Railroad, caused interest in the case to reach a high pitch today.

BOAT CARRIED MUNITIONS OF WAR ABROAD

By Associated Press. Mobile, Ala., June 13.—The Norwegian steamer Harold sailed this morning for Ceiba, Honduras, with, as part of a general cargo, several cases of rifles, bayonets and ammunition.

ON LAST STAGE OF AEROPLANE RACE.

By Associated Press. Rome, June 13.—Frey, the German aviator, started at 6:55 o'clock this morning on the last stage of the Paris-Rome-Turin aeroplane race.

A Knowing Bunch Was Thus

By Associated Press. New Orleans, La., June 13.—Sixty applicants—Italians, Russians, Turks, and almost every other nationality—were anxious to swear allegiance to Uncle Sam, appeared before the board of naturalization yesterday.