About 30 members of the North Carolina Cotton Manufacturers' Association of North Carolina are in session at the Manufacturers' Club. Among those present are Mr. W. A. Erwin, of Durham, vice-president of the American Cotton Association, and next in line for the presidency of the associa-tion; Mr. C. B. Burns, president of the Wadesboro Cotton Mill; Mr. J. P. Mc-Rae, of Laurinburg, president of the Scotland. Dixon & Waverly Mills; Sheriff C. B. Armstrong, of Gastonia, of the Dunn and Clara Mills, of Gastonia, and the Monarch, at Dallas; Mr. W. A. Mauney, of the Bonney and Long Shoals Mills; Mr. D. Y. Cooper, of the Henderson and Hrariett Mill; Mr. J. W. Cannon, of the Cannon chain of mills; Mr. Ragan, of the Arlington Mills; Mr. J. L. Dixon, of Gastonia, Mr. Henry Wilson, of the Taylorsville

Mr. R. M. Miller, who has been president of the association for five years, tendered his resignation, but up to this hour, it remains unaccepted and consequently a successor un-elected. The matters so far discussed at the meeting are insurance and tariff. The election of a president and disafternoon members of the association would like fan.

The matter of insurance taken up was in regard to the Factory Insurance Freight Rates Association as against local insurance. State legislation favors the latter, but the association favors the former, even though it is at a higher rate. Later.

The tariff was discussed. The work of the National Association tariff committee, of which Mr. R. M. Miller, is a member, was commended. The number of spindles represent-

Do Your Cooking in the Cooking

A hot kitchen is little better than a prison in summer. But the range is there, so all the cooking and the washing must be done there, too.

What a relief it would be to move the range where you pleased. You can do this with a New Perfection Oil Cookstove—cook your dinner out on the porch, if you like. It is the only range that is really portable—that works equally well in any place. There are no connections to be made, as in a gas range; no wiring, as with an electric stove; no sooty flues and ash-filled grates, as with coal or wood.

The long, enameled chimneys carry the heat directly up to saucepans, oven or boiler; you get full value from your fuel, without waste.
