The information and suggestions in the letter are based upon a carefully drawn estimate from figures compiled by experts. The information covers the business condition of the country at large and is gotten out by the local bank for the benefit of their customers. It will be a monthly feature from this on.

Recorders Court This Morning

Ernest Miller Pleads Guilty to Theft of Money And Locket From Mrs. B. J. Brawley - Wife Beater Got 90 Days.

In recorder's court this morning Ernest Miller pleaded guilty to the charge of stealing fifty dollars, and a gold locket from Mrs. B. J. Brawley, while engaged in removing furniture from her house on North Pine street. Mrs. Brawley testified that she had had two twenty-dollar and one ten-dollar bills in a pocketbook which in turn was in a suit case. Her description of the denomination of the bills tallied with the bills found by Officer Elliott in the toe of the negro's shoe when he was searched at police headquarters.

Recorder Smith had no jurisdiction in the case, but in view of the fact that Mrs. Brawley is moving from Charlotte and would not be here to testify against Miller at the December term of court, he asked the negro if he would plead to a charge of forcible trespass.

Then followed a colloquy between Miller and the recorder. "I think you ought to let me off with de costs, long as I pleaded guilty," said the negro.

"I'll give you six months," said the recorder. "And that would be the least you would get in the higher court, besides laying in jail for two months before your trial."

Miller wanted to be let off on $50 bond, but Recorder declared the least he would consider would be three or four hundred dollars.

Any further remarks on the part of the negro, Miller, will, presumably, serve his six month's sentence.

Attorney McCall was present to represent the East Avenue Drug Company, charged with retailing, but City Solicitor yesterday announced that he would take a non pro in the case, as it was "just one negro's word against another's."

Louis Hasty, negro, charged with assault on his wife with chair and knife, was released under suspended judgment, when his wife appeared in court and testified that she needed him to support her. He treated her well except when he had those spells, she declared.

The case against Ralph Morrison for shooting Cliff Ellis several weeks ago, was continued until 3 o'clock Friday afternoon, at which time Ellis is expected to be able to be present and testify. Ellis is now in the hospital, but his condition is said to be improving very satisfactorily.

Court adjourned.

Large Enrollment Boys Night School

With the largest incoming class in its history, the boys night school at the Y. M. C., was successfully launched last night with an educational rally.

A large number of boys were present and were strongly impressed by the teaching of the evening, which gave them an idea of the work that is being done by the students of the past years, among whom are several of the most successful business men of the city, and of the opportunities and responsibilities which lie before them, as they take up the work.

Short inspirational addresses were made by Mr. Robert Glasgow, president of the association; Mr. W. F. Harding, Esq., Mr. Louis Hunter, who will teach the school, and by Mr. D. L. Probert, general secretary of the association.

Over forty boys enrolled for the school, and it is expected this number will be swelled to fifty before Wednesday night, when the first session of the school will be held.

Boys, who were unable to attend the rally last night, may register at any time now at the association building.

Cards From Winston-Salem

Cards announcing the marriage of Mr. John Harrell Schoolfield, Jr., and Miss Frank Hanes, both of Winston-Salem, have been received in the city. The announcements will be received with interest throughout the social realms of North Carolina, because of the prominence of the parties concerned. Both bride and groom-to-be, have many friends in Charlotte. The cards read as follows:

Mr. and Mrs. Pleasant Henderson Hanes request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their daughter, Frank, to Mr. John Harrell Schoolfield, Jr. on the evening of Tuesday, the seventeenth of October, at six o'clock at the Centenary Methodist Episcopal Church, South, Winston-Salem, North Carolina.

Tedards-Harding Marriage

A marriage that came as a great surprise to many friends of the contracting parties was that last night of Mr. John D. Tedards of Greenwood, S. C., to Miss Mayme Harding, of this city. The ceremony took place at the residence of Dr. H. H. Hulsten, pastor of the First Baptist church and was witnessed by a few intimate friends who had been let into the secret. Very few of the friends of the young couple had been informed of their intention to get married and the event therefore came as a distinct surprise to most of them.

Miss Harding is the daughter of Mr. R. C. Harding of this city and is one of the most popular and attractive young ladies of the city. Mr. Tedards is from Greenwood, S. C., originally, being a member of a prominent family in the Palmetto state. He is at present filling a responsible position in the civil service department of the United States government, with headquarters at Washington.

Will Remove to Philadelphia. Hosts of friends will regret that Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Player are to remove to Philadelphia. Mr. E. S. Player, who has been connected with the Indian Refining Company here in the capacity of manager, has been transferred to Philadelphia.

Superior Court For Civil Actions

Miss Susie Williams Sues Southern Railway for Damages Incurred Through Loss of Trunk - 126 Cases on Calendar.

The action of Miss Susie Williams against the Southern Railway for damages incurred on account of the loss of her trunk through the alleged negligence of the railroad company was begun in the civil term of superior court yesterday morning and will not be concluded until late this afternoon.

Miss Williams is a well known Charlotte lady, and this case has excited much interest. In a previous trial a verdict was given in favor of the railroad, but an appeal to the supreme court of the state, the case was sent back to the lower court for another hearing.

It is the contention of the railroad that they never received the trunk and the case has been hard fought on that issue. The jury has been sent out repeatedly, while the lawyers wrangled over some point of instructions and evidence.

Attorney Preston is chief counsel for Miss Williams. Argument on the case was begun at a late hour this morning.

The great volume of unsolicited testimony constantly pouring in proves conclusively that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a remarkable remedy for those distressing feminine ills from which so many women suffer.

Fire last night at the home of Mr. Shelby, 1202 North Davidson street, did damage to the property to the extent of $5. Ashes which fell out of the kitchen stove started the blaze, which burned and scorched the walls, coating in the room. The blaze was out when the fire company arrived.
