

GIANTS WIN FIRST GAME

Greatest Baseball Series In History Has Begun Today

New York Dejeats Athletics In First Game Of Series

Thousands of Yelling Fans Pour Forth to See First Struggle of Great Race For World Championship.

A Full Report of The Game by Innings — Mathewson in Box For New York; Bender For Athletics.

By Associated Press. New York, Oct. 14.—It was announced that Bender and Thomas would be the batter for the Athletics and Mathewson and Meyers for the Giants.

FIRST INNING. Lord struck out. Mathewson's control was perfect and Oldring fanned. Collins fled out to Devore.

SECOND INNING. Baker singled to right. Murphy sacrificed. Mathewson to Merkle. On a passed ball Baker took third.

THIRD INNING. Bender out, Mathewson to Merkle. Lord flied out to Murray. Oldring doubled to left. Collins walked. Baker struck out.

FOURTH INNING. The game so far resolved itself into a pitching duel, and while the play was in progress there were long moments of intense silence.

FIFTH INNING. Thomas drove a long fly to left which Devore captured after a smart run. Bender singled solidly to center.

SIXTH INNING. Baker caught a fadeaway on the end of his bat and sent it to center for a single.

single. It was the sixth hit made against Mathewson. Baker started to steal but Murphy spoiled the play by fouling into the grandstand.

SEVENTH INNING. Barry struck out. Thomas flied out to Snodgrass. Bender went out. Fletcher to Merkle.

EIGHTH INNING. Lord fanned. Oldring flied to Devore. Collins out. Mathewson to Merkle.

NINTH INNING. Baker grounded to Merkle. Murphy flied out to Meyers. Davis out, Fletcher to Merkle.

TOTAL SCORE: ATHLETICS, 1. NEW YORK, 2. New York00010010-2 Philadelphia . . .01000000-1

Blind Tiger Almost Within City Limits. Special to The News. Atlanta, Oct. 14.—To the intense surprise of honest residents of the locality a big moonshiner still was discovered yesterday after noon by the revenue officers in the woods of West End Park, not 50 yards from the Atlanta city limits.

Automobile Race Holds Spectators From Court Room—McNamaras Prepare For Long Siege—500 Witnesses Will Be Sworn.

By Associated Press. Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 14.—Further argument as to whether Z. T. Nelson should be sworn in as a juror in the trial of James B. McNamara, indicted for the murder of Charles Haggerty, a victim of the Times explosion, occupied a brief session of court today.

Decision Monday. On Monday Judge Walter Bordwell will render a decision as to whether bias or prejudice is contained in Nelson's admissions on the stand that he had formed certain opinions concerning the blowing up of the Times building which caused the deaths of a score of men and on which the indictments for murder against James B. McNamara and his brother, John T. McNamara, are based.

Arguments Concluded. Attorney G. Ray Horton concluded the argument of the state that Nelson, though admitting he held opinions about the case, had shown his impartiality by announcing that he would waive these opinions in lieu of evidence introduced.

Few Spectators Today. Few persons were in the court room today, the automobile race at Santa Monica attracting the curious. As a matter of fact, the audience in the chamber has been comparatively sparse since the trial began.

Several Hundred Witnesses. Extensive preparations are being made for the bringing of several hundred witnesses to Los Angeles. Both sides have informed those whom they wish to testify that at least a week's notice will be given each before they are called.

John R. Walsh, Associate Justice of the Supreme Court, is shown in a portrait. He is wearing a suit and tie, and has a serious expression.

Lawyers Wrangling Over a Talesman In McNamara Trial

Judge Bordwell Will Render Decision Monday as to Whether Nelson's Admissions Show Bias or Prejudice—Prosecution Wants Him.

his own theories too, by personal investigation that the Times building was blown up by dynamite. The defense considers the question of the cause of the explosion a moot point and will argue that it was due to gas.

Interest in Ruling. With keen interest the ruling of the court will be awaited and it was said today that an elaborate opinion from Judge Bordwell will be forthcoming Monday. The weights of the opinion, it is considered, will be felt throughout the preliminary stages of the trial in the empanelling of a jury.

Range of Questioning. Judge Bordwell, though not ready to explain the decision, the categorical announcement of acceptance or rejection of the talesman being regarded as sufficient, it is predicted, will set forth at length the limitations which counsel can reach in future interrogation of talesmen. The range which may be traversed by the attorneys in seeking to learn a talesman's views on labor warfare also is likely to be settled by the ruling of Judge Bordwell.

Several Hundred Witnesses. Extensive preparations are being made for the bringing of several hundred witnesses to Los Angeles. Both sides have informed those whom they wish to testify that at least a week's notice will be given each before they are called.

Several Hundred Witnesses. Extensive preparations are being made for the bringing of several hundred witnesses to Los Angeles. Both sides have informed those whom they wish to testify that at least a week's notice will be given each before they are called.

OLDEST MEMBER OF SUPREME COURT PASSES

Associate Justice Harlan Succumbs to Attack of Bronchitis—His Associates Did not Realize the Seriousness of His Condition.

Sat on Bench Last Monday—His Long Record of Public Service Almost Unparalleled—Review of Notable Career.

By Associated Press. Washington, Oct. 14.—Associate Justice John M. Harlan, oldest member of the supreme court of the United States, for years conspicuous in Kentucky politics, once candidate for the republican nomination for vice president of the United States, a foremost constitutional authority and prominent in the councils of the Presbyterian church, died at his home in this city today. He was 78 years old last June.

Justice Harlan had been ill with acute bronchitis less than a week. He sat on the bench last Monday when he court heard arguments on the so-called anthracite coal trust case. The following morning Chief Justice White announced that Justice Harlan was "slightly ill" and yesterday asked attorneys to consider their cases although not physically present.

Justice Harlan, however, was in a much more serious condition than his colleagues in the court realized. Despite his advanced age, he was robust and ordinarily enjoyed the best of health. He was rarely absent from the bench an attack of influenza a few years ago being almost the only illness from which he had suffered for a long period.

The sudden death of Associate Justice Brewer very much affected Justice Harlan. Chief Justice Fuller's death in the summer of 1910 also was a great shock to the venerable jurist. Justice Harlan continued to perform his share of the work of the court. His great ambition was to serve until next June, when he would have exceeded the service of any other man who ever sat on that bench.

Mr. Field's was the longest service—34 years, six months and ten days; Mr. Marshall's 34 years 8 months, and five days; Mr. Harlan's 33 years 10 months and 25 days. His service did not exceed that of Justice Story, who was on the bench 33 years 9 months and 22 days.

It was while on the bench Monday that Justice Harlan first felt the attack of bronchitis. He asked then for such simple remedies as were at hand but remained on the bench. By Tuesday considerable fever was manifest. On Wednesday he was markedly weaker and his condition grew worse although it was not understood at the supreme court that his condition was at all alarming.

Prepared for Long Siege. Both James B. McNamara and his brother John, secretary of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers, have prepared for a long siege. James B., who is on trial, is looked upon as a man of his older brother, whose chances for a daily strike on the way to and from the court room will not come for some time as his trial is not likely to begin for many months.

Why is that? he was asked. "He's supposed to be going to confer with the district attorney, but I understand they take him around the parks, and over the boulevards, too." The brothers live on the second floor of the jail in separate cells across a narrow corridor that bisects a steel cage enclosing four cells.

They are being examined also are getting a taste of confinement. They went to breakfast, however, today in a sight-seeing automobile, the only conveyance available in which they could be kept together as required.

Several Hundred Witnesses. Extensive preparations are being made for the bringing of several hundred witnesses to Los Angeles. Both sides have informed those whom they wish to testify that at least a week's notice will be given each before they are called.

Several Hundred Witnesses. Extensive preparations are being made for the bringing of several hundred witnesses to Los Angeles. Both sides have informed those whom they wish to testify that at least a week's notice will be given each before they are called.

John R. Walsh Secures Parole

By Associated Press. Leavenworth, Kas., Oct. 14.—An order from Washington paroling John R. Walsh, the former Chicago banker and railway president, was received at the federal prison here this morning. The prisoner at once began preparations for the start home.

The order of parole arrived from Washington this morning. When told that he was to be released the aged prisoner plainly showed his pleasure. Later it was announced the ex-banker's son would arrive from Chicago during the day and that the start for home probably would be made late this afternoon.

Mr. Walsh went before the parole board on September 26 and presented his petition. Members of the board made their secret conclusions in the cases a few days later. On September 30, Chairman Ladew went East to submit his report to Attorney General Wickersham. Walsh went back to work at his desk in the newspaper clipping bureau. He improved in spirits from the time he knew definitely that he was to have an opportunity to present his petition.

When the prisoner was notified that a parole finally had been granted he was overwhelmed. He had been anxiously awaiting the arrival of a favorable reply. However when it failed to come yesterday noon, hours after he had expected, he passively gave up hope.

The last obstacle to the granting of the parole for John R. Walsh was removed in August when the United States district attorney at Chicago requested that the remaining indictments against the aged banker be dismissed.

December 16, 1905.—The Chicago National Bank, of which Walsh was president, was closed. January, 1907.—Walsh indicted on 182 counts charging him with misconduct in managing the finances of the bank.

November 12, 1907.—Trial of Walsh began in the United States district court at Chicago. November 20, 1907.—Federal prosecutors charged that approximately two million dollars illegally were transferred by Walsh from the bank to the co-officers of his railroad enterprises.

January 19, 1910.—Walsh arrived at the Federal prison. May 24, 1911.—President Taft declines to issue a pardon for Walsh. September 18, 1911, finishes one third of sentence, making him eligible to parole.

Mule is Revenged Verdict Rendered. The superior court has settled the case of the mule. The case of Wells vs. Stroup for damage for killing one mule, said mule alleged to have been an outlaw, was settled this morning in the superior court by the awarding to the plaintiff damage amounting to the sum of $125.

School Children Make A Rush for Fair Tickets. Tuesday, October 24, is opening day at the fair and is also children's day, admission free to the grounds that day being free to all the school children of the city and county. Prof. Cochran has been busy the last few days handing out tickets for the children of the county schools. They are going like hot cakes, Prof. Cochran says.

County Pay Day. County Treasurer Jim Stinson is one of the busiest officials at the court house today, it being county pay-day. Dozens of people to whom the county is indebted for work of various kinds have been thronging the treasurer's office all morning with bills of various size and the treasurer has been handing the mazzama over the counter in one, two, three style.

Thousands of Fans From all Parts of Nation Almost Fight for Admission to Grounds—Counterfeit Tickets Presented.

Forty Thousand Spectators Estimated—Both Teams in Good Form and Managers Confident—Luck Will Play Big Part Says Mathewson.

Camp All Night. Thousands of enthusiasts from all parts of the nation almost fought at times for admission to the stands.

Cold Weather. The thermometer at the Polo Grounds registered 51 degrees at 7 o'clock and the early crowds flocking northward over elevated and subway lines carried overcoats and furs.

Countertfeit Tickets. Scores of persons appeared at the grounds with counterfeit tickets, which they had purchased from speculators. They were turned away by the police.

NEW YORK: Devore, 1f. Doyle, 2b. Snodgrass, cf. Murray, rf. Merkle, 1b. Herzog, 3b. Fletcher, ss. Meyers, c. Mathewson, p.

PHILADELPHIA: Lord, 1f. Oldring, cf. Collins, 2b. Baker, 3b. Murphy, rf. Davis, 1b. Barry, ss. Thorne, c. Bender, p.

Umpires: Klem and Brennan—(National League). Connolly and Dinneen—(American League). Many Policemen on Hand. By 7 o'clock 700 persons were in line behind the vanguard, which had endured the all-night vigil. Ten policemen, who had been on duty all night, were joined at 7 o'clock this morning by 20 additional patrolmen. There was no disorder.

Giants Fit. All of McGraw's men reported at the club house in fine condition. The players were confident but they were not making any boasts.

Giants Fit. All of McGraw's men reported at the club house in fine condition. The players were confident but they were not making any boasts.

Giants Fit. All of McGraw's men reported at the club house in fine condition. The players were confident but they were not making any boasts.

Giants Fit. All of McGraw's men reported at the club house in fine condition. The players were confident but they were not making any boasts.

Giants Fit. All of McGraw's men reported at the club house in fine condition. The players were confident but they were not making any boasts.

Giants Fit. All of McGraw's men reported at the club house in fine condition. The players were confident but they were not making any boasts.