

Athletics Take The Fourth Game

Fourth Game of Big Series Played At Last: Full Report

Philadelphia 0 0 0 3 1 0 0 0 x-4

BATTERIES:
Mathewson and Meyers; New York. Bender and Thomas; Philadelphia. Umpires: Dineen behind plate; Klem on bases; Connolly, right field; Brennan, left field.

FOURTH INNING.
First half:—Murray lifted a fly to Baker, Merkle after fouling off half a dozen balls, struck out, for the second time. Herzog hunted towards first, but was out by Davis, unassisted. No runs, no hits, no errors. Score: New York 2; Athletics, 0.

FIRST INNING.
First half:—Devore reached first on an infield single, Bender diverting the course of the ball but was too late for Barry to handle. Doyle drove the first ball pitched to right center for a triple scoring Devore. Snodgrass flied to Lord, Doyle scored. The New York rooters made the stands shake with their yells. Murray was retired, Davis unassisted. Merkle struck out on three pitched balls. Two runs. New York; two runs.

SECOND INNING.
First half:—Herzog lifted a fly to Oldring. Fletcher drove a single over Barry's head, his first hit of the series. Meyers' high fly drops safely between Baker, Bender and Thomas, but Fletcher was thrown out at second, Thomas to Collins. Mathewson rolled an easy grounder to Bender and was out at first. No runs, one hit, no errors.

THIRD INNING.
First half:—Devore lifted a fly to Oldring. Doyle hit a high one between home plate and third base, which Baker took care of. Snodgrass hit a bouncer to Barry and was out at first. No runs, no hits, no errors.

FOURTH INNING.
First half:—Murray lifted a fly to Baker, Merkle after fouling off half a dozen balls, struck out, for the second time. Herzog hunted towards first, but was out by Davis, unassisted. No runs, no hits, no errors. Score: New York 2; Athletics, 0.

FIFTH INNING.
First half:—On a wonderful pick-up and throw of a slow grounder Fletcher was retired at first by Baker to Davis. Meyers drove ball to the field for two bases. Meyers attempted to take third but was out on a beautiful throw, Thomas to Baker. Mathewson was given his base on balls, the first of the game. Devore raised a fly to Lord, and was an easy out. No runs, one hit, no errors.

SIXTH INNING.
Doyle was given his base on balls. Snodgrass was called out on strikes, not hitting at a single ball. On Murray's foul fly to Baker, Doyle was doubled up a first. It was a very stupid play by Doyle and was partly due to bad coaching. Barry was partly responsible for the play as he made a bluff to scoop an imaginary grounder. No runs, no hits, no errors.

SEVENTH INNING.
First half:—The Athletics had hit Mathewson for 10 hits, while the Indian had held New York to four. Merkle struck out for the third time. Herzog lifted a high fly to Oldring and sat down. Fletcher drove a single to center. Chief Meyers was an easy out, Collins to Davis. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Suffragettes, After Having Their Usual Family Row, Now Ready to Fight for Ballot
By Associated Press. Louisville, Ky., Oct. 24.—Having had their family disagreement and survived whole, delegates to the national American Woman Suffrage convention today turned their attention to the serious question of voting for their right to vote. Much of the day was taken up by the reports of committees, reports of national organizations, of state presidents and other officers of the association.

CRAFTY INDIAN TWIRLER. New York, Oct. 24.—From left to right are Christy Mathewson, the star Southpaw of the Giants, Charles Bender of the Athletics and "Rube" Marquard, of the Giants. The trio of twirlers are regarded as the hopes of their respective teams to land the world's championship, the first game of the series being played at the Polo grounds, October 14th.

SECOND HALF:—Fletcher fumbled Lord's grounder long enough to allow the batter to reach first. Oldring placed a pretty bunt down the first base line, out. Merkle to Doyle. Collins bunted and was out. Merkle unassisted. Baker again stepped to the plate and there was cheers for him to knock the ball over the fence. Four wide ones in succession were given to the Athletics' third baseman and he walked to first. Murphy drove a hard grounder to Merkle and was out. No runs, no hits, one error. Score: New York 2; Athletics 4.

EIGHTH INNING.
First half:—Becker went in to bat for Mathewson. Becker was thrown out, Collins to Davis, on an easy chance. Devore drove a beautiful single to left, and Captain Doyle stepped to the plate, his hit to Collins forcing Devore at second, Barry getting the put out. Baker momentarily fumbled Snodgrass' hard grounder and the runner was safe at first. Murray lifted a high foul which Thomas took care of. No runs, one hit, one error.

NINTH INNING.
First half:—Merkle up. Merkle after fouling one ball doubled to right. Herzog went out on a grounder, Baker to Davis, Merkle taking third. Fletcher lifted a fly, which Collins took care of. Meyers then stepped to the plate. He was out on the first ball pitched, Collins to Davis.

Government's Fifth Suit To Break Up Lumber Trust

Was Begun in United States Court at St. Paul To-day—The Case is Against Various Corporations and Individuals of Prominence.

Injunctions Are Asked Restraining Defendants From Continuing Various Acts Alleged in Bills of Complaint --Other Notable Suits.

By Associated Press. St. Paul, Minn., Oct. 24.—The government's fifth suit in its fight to break up the so-called lumber trust was begun in the United States court here today.

It is directed against the following: The Northwestern Lumberman's Association; the Lumber Secretary's Bureau of Information, an Illinois Corporation already under fire in another suit against the "trust" brought in Colorado.

Luke W. Boyce, owner of a private detective agency at Minneapolis, Minn., who is charged with spying upon independent lumber dealers who are said to have violated the trade "ethics" laid down by the alleged "trust."

The Lumberman Publishing Company, a Minnesota corporation which issues the Mississippi Valley Lumberman, a trade journal which the government charges has been the organ of the "trust" in that section.

Platt B. Walker, of Minneapolis, editor of that paper, is made a defendant as are also the following members, officers or directors in the Northwestern Lumberman's Association.

W. R. Woods, Parker, S. D.; Charles Webster, Waucoma, Iowa; William G. Hollis, Minneapolis; George E. Thompson, Minneapolis; C. M. Porter, Oskaloosa, Iowa; E. G. Flynn, Minneapolis; O. M. Botzford, Winona, Minn.; W. H. Day, jr., Dubuque, Iowa; M. L. McMahon, Fergus Falls, Minn.; C. A. Finkbine, Des Moines and John W. Barry, Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

Similar suits now pending against the Eastern States Retail Lumber Associations, the Michigan Retail Dealers' Association, the Colorado and Wyoming Lumber Dealers' Association and the Lumber Secretary's Bureau of Information, 14 members of the latter organization being under criminal indictments charging violation of the Sherman anti-trust law, the government alleges that the lumber trade has been unreasonably restrained by illegal agreements and understandings which prevent the consumer from buying of whom and where he will, which absolutely forbid competition for trade and which have divided the country into non-competitive territories. It also alleges that names of

Clear Weather Today Made Thousands of Baseball Fans Happy

DAY'S PROGRESS IN WORK OF SECURING JURY

By Associated Press. Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 24.—Ten men of the first venire of 125 in the McNamara murder trial answered to their names when Judge Bordwell opened court today. Except for nine others in the jury box, all the rest had been excused, either in the rapid fire preliminary examination made by Judge Bordwell before the trial opened or in subsequent battles between opposing counsel.

Of the nine in the box, Robert Bain, Seaborn H. Manning and F. D. Green had been provisionally accepted by both sides subject to peremptory challenge; George W. McKee was held there because Judge Bordwell yesterday refused to allow challenge for cause offered against him by the defense, and five others were to be examined. They are Walter L. Couard, George E. Anderson, Emil Rambeau, Charles E. Binder and F. J. Mullen.

When court opened Clerk George Monroe called veniremen to all three vacant seats, leaving only seven veniremen outside the rail. Ordinarily when a venire is reduced to ten men a new one is called. In this instance this is unnecessary at present because parts of two other venires are waiting in the other eleven branches of superior court of Los Angeles county and these, according to District Attorney Fredericks, may be used in the McNamara case.

After a Week of Rain And Enforced Rest the Athletics And Giants Resumed Championship Series on Wet Grounds.

Fans Were in Line Early This Morning—Cold Weather Bring Out Heavy Coats—Both Teams Fit—Wounded Players Back Again.

Philadelphia, Oct. 24.—Tens of thousands of baseball fans were made happy when they saw the clear weather today for the much postponed fourth game between the Philadelphia Athletics and the New York Giants in the series for the championship of the world.

There was no "flare back" of the weather of the last six days and after an enforced rest of a week the two champion ball teams will meet on Shibe park this afternoon. The playing field is still somewhat heavy.

While the day is fine, it is more fit for football than for baseball. There was a brisk wind blowing from the northwest that had a slight nip in it and made top coats comfortable.

At 8 a. m. the government weather bureau thermometer registered 50 degrees with the prospect that it would grow very little warmer.

Fans Out Early. The bright weather brought out the fans early. Before 8 o'clock there were several hundred in line at Shibe park waiting for the bleacher gates to open. The line grew longer every minute and by the time the gates were opened shortly after 8 there were about two thousand persons congregated about the entrance.

Both teams are in fit condition. The week's rest has turned up the men who were on the verge of staleness and has enabled the pitchers to get back their strength for strenuous box work.

The wounds inflicted upon Frank Baker, the sensational batsman of the Athletics, by Centerfielder Snodgrass, of the Giants, are almost healed and will give the third baseman no trouble today. The "Charley Horse" that first beset Merkle, of the New Yorkers, has been carrying around with him is also disappearing.

Batteries Today. The battery probabilities today are Mathewson and Meyers for New York, and Bender and Thomas for Philadelphia. There has been no indication from Manager Mack or Manager McGraw as to whom they will use. It is said that if the weather remains cold this afternoon Mack may switch from Bender to McCoombs, who is a good cold weather pitcher. In that event Lapp will be sent in to catch.

The series now stands 2 victories for the Athletics to 1 for New York and the baseball experts declare that today's game is more important to Philadelphia than to Philadelphia. Should the Athletics win they would have to get only one more victory to capture the championship while New York would have to take three games straight. A victory for New York today would place them on an even footing and greatly strengthen confidence of the team. The probable batting order:

NEW YORK. Devore, lf. Doyle, 2b. Snodgrass, cf. Merkle, 1b. Herzog, 3b. Fletcher, ss. Meyers, c. Mathewson, p. PHILADELPHIA. Lord, lf. Oldring, cf. Collins, 2b. Baker, 3b. Murphy, rf. Davis, 1b. Barry, ss. Thomas, c. Bender, p.

Devore Reported Ill. Left Fielder Devore, of the New Yorks, is reported sick today with a slight stomach trouble. It has not been announced whether he will be in or out of the game but several of the members of the team said that if Devore is unable to play, Becker, a utility man, would be sent to the outfield.

Bleachers Filled Rapidly. The bleachers began filling rapidly after 11 o'clock and as big a crowd as saw the first game here yesterday a week ago is expected. The police today ordered removed stands erected on roofs of houses surrounding the grounds. These stands were so crowded at the last game that the authorities feared an accident.

Glidden Tourists Leave Atlanta

By Associated Press. Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 24.—Full of enthusiasm, refreshed after a rest of two days in Atlanta, the Glidden tourists left this morning for Jacksonville, Fla., the end of their 1,462 mile journey from New York.

Today's run will terminate at Cordele, Ga., 167 miles from this city. Tomorrow the tourists will go as far as Live Oak, Fla., and on Thursday proceed to Jacksonville, where elaborate plans for their reception and entertainment have been perfected.

The run from here to Jacksonville is 424 miles. Governor Hoke Smith, of Georgia, who went on the tour from New York to Anderson, S. C., will continue with the Glidden party until the Florida line is reached.

SWORE AT WIFE IN SIGN LANGUAGE. By Associated Press. St. Joseph, Mo., Oct. 24.—Pleading guilty to swearing at his wife in the sign language, August Carrado, a deaf mute, was fined $10 yesterday in police court. He was charged with using "loud and profane" language, but when hailed in court it was learned he could not hear or speak. The word "loud" was stricken from the information and he pleaded guilty in writing to the charge of using "profane language" toward his wife, who is also a deaf mute. When he wrote the word "guilty" he wept.

Fair Weather Is Likely All Week. While the frost king did not appear in the nipping and blackening capacity predicted for him last night hereabout, he did appear. Weather Observer O. Raleigh also had a light frost. The point of main interest in the report handed out by Observer Atto this morning was that tomorrow will also be fair and clear even as today is, and that there are no signs visible anywhere of storms brewing or rains coming this way, which means that there is a probability of fine weather for the four days of the fair. This will be interesting information to the tribes tented at the fair grounds as well as to the thousands from this county and adjoining counties, who will take a look at the fair before it is over.

Second Victim of Boiler Explosion. By Associated Press. Charleston, S. C., Oct. 24.—J. S. Meyers, a white fireman, who was scalded and internally injured in the steam pipe explosion on the torpedo boat, Tingey, on Sunday, died this morning at the navy yard hospital. J. H. Gibbes, a water tender, died yesterday. The board of inquiry is trying to place the responsibility for the fatal accident. The Tingey is being repaired at the yard.

Kin Kiang Taken By The Rebels. By Associated Press. Shanghai, Oct. 24.—Kin Kiang in the province of Kiang Si, had fallen into the hands of the rebels. The government house was burned but there were no other disturbances.

Dry Good Stores Will Not Close

Owing to the fact that the managers of two of the dry goods stores would not sign the agreement to close tomorrow from 12 m. to 6 for Charlotte Day, the stores which signed have withdrawn from the agreement, so all of the stores will be open. This is to be regretted, as it is a hardship on the clerks as well as a detriment to the fair.

Twenty Blind Tigers Within Twenty Four Hours. Special to The News. At Atlanta, Oct. 24.—That prohibition has failed thus far to prohibit in Atlanta seemed to be shown by the arrest within the past 24 hours of 20 blind tigers, all of whom had been doing a prosperous business. The police are resolved to wipe out as many as they can.
