N TAR HEEL SOCIAL CIRCLES

Wilmington

Wilmington, Nov. 4.—The Hallowe'en on Monday and Tuesday nights. No aspecial demonstration celebrated the 4 to 6. occasion, but the minor events were more numerous than usual.

First German Club Dance. The first dance of the L'Agile German Club was given in the regular ball dahlias and fern, and yellow dahlies room of the Masonic Temple. The affair was well attended by the membership and their friends, and was most brilliant indeed. There were sev. nie Mann and Hattie Richardt. eral visiting young ladies present and a number of army officers, who were here from Fort Caswell, and other parts of the country. The German was gracefully led by Mr. Ernest F. as follows

E. F. Peschau with Miss Delamar Burbank Louis T. Moore with Miss Jessie

Watt, Thomasville, Ga. J. N. Jacobs with Miss Elsie Emer Milton Gore with Miss Duralde Bor-

T. F. Wood with Miss Margaret Smith. P. M. Holmes with Miss Kate Mey-

Cantwell Lieut. A. E. Lukins with Miss Am-

oret Lord. Mr. and Mrs. Paul L. Cantwell. Rufus Hicks with Miss Charlotte

Meyers with Miss Margare Quince John Murchison with Miss Marianne Watt. Thomasville, Ga.

Chas. Hill with Miss Christine Stevensen

H. R. Furr. Norfolk, Va., with Miss Helen Williams.

Clayton Smoth, B. R. Dunn, Clyde Council and A. Emerson. Announcement.

Invitations reading as follows have been received here by friends: "Mr. and Mrs. Robert Coleman Thompson requests the honor of your presence the marriage of their daughter, Blanche Kelley, to Mr. Clarence Dudley Maffitt. Wednesday evening. November 15th, at 8:30 o'clock, three hundred and seven Brooks street, Charleston-on-Kanawha, W. Va." The invitation is read with much interest le very popular among a large circle evening at her home on Morgan street of friends.

this country from a visit of several Miss Margaret Mae McCullough, guest in the home of her brother, married on Thursday afternoon. Mr. C. N. Evans, here, before leaving for her home in Charlotte.

week in Charlotte.

and Mrs. H. C. Lacy, of Raleigh.

Mr. G. C. Huntington, state Y. M. C. with headquarters in Charlotte, were headquarters in Charlotte, were in the tily congratulated on the charming city this week conferring with the local secretary and board of directors of the Y. M. C. A. upon the project of a new association structure here.

Miss Sue Prince is visiting Miss Nancy Brown, of Charlotte, for a short

DOES GUN MAKE HUNTER? Novel Question to Come Before Dauphin County Court

Harrisburg, Nov. 4.—Is hunting rabbits with dogs for the purpose of training the dogs (the dog owners having no guns with them) "hunting" in the is spending the week end with her eye of the law? That is a question that parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Abermey have to be decided by the Dauphin may have to be decided by the Dauphin county court. Last Sunday four hunters from Harrisburg took their dogs to Germany Speculates the fields of Paxtang township to train them to hunt rabbits. They had no guns, and did not intend to catch or kill any mame. They were working the dogs finely on the numerous bunnles, when the farmer on whose place they were operating appeared and ordered them away. They declined to go, and kept on until they had given the dogs a lesson.

The farmer brought suit against the four men for hunting with dogs on Sunday, and the case came before Alderman Windsor, of the Fourth ward. Secretary Kalbfus, of the state game commission, was present, as was the deputy game warden, who made the arrest The plea was made that there was no bunting; but the state officers maintained that hunting was hunting, no matter whether the men carried guns or not. The Alderman took that view of the case and imposed a fine on the men, who at once appealed, and it will ro to court.

> DROPSY TREATED

Usually from the

Special to The Sunday News

High Point, Nov. 4.-Mrs. S. Haloccasion was appropriately celebrated stead Tomlinson was hostess Tuesday here. Unusual activity was shown in afternoon at one of the largest "at-roung people's social circles, and many homes" of the week. The honoree was roung people's social circles, and many homes" of the week. The honoree was parties were reported as taking place Mrs. Walter E. Blair, of Greensboro,

> The reception rooms of the lower floor were made beautiful by use of an abundance of red roses and fall foliage, pink roses and fern, pink

Music was furnished by Mrs. J. Harrell and Misses Edith Moore, Lin-There were about 200 callers.

Another large reception of the week was Friday afternoon when Mrs. Bas-Peschau, dancing with Miss Delamar com Hoskins and Mrs. Chas. Siceloff Burbank. Others participating were gave an "at home" in honor of Mrs. evening from 8:30 to 12 o'clock when hall in red roses and red candles. The red candles.

Saturday morning Mrs. C. M. Hau-Lee Pender with Miss Theresa Parsand the score was kept with long-stem yellow chrysanthemums. The prize was won by Mrs. T. J. Gold, and was a bunch of yellow chrysanthemums are bunch of yel out the same pretty affect.

Shelby

Special to The News. Shelby, N. C., Nov. 4 .- A beautifully simple home wedding was that of club members entertained their hus-Frank Holloway with Miss Ames Miss Hattle La Rue Martin and Mr. bands. Odin J. Hill, which occurred Saturday morning at 10 o'clock at the home of Lieut. H. W. Stovall with Miss Janet Martin, in Mooresboro, Rev. Mr. Lob- with her grandmother, Mrs. Mag John Mr. George Marks spent a day redell, of the Episcopal church, officiat- ston. Staggs: Lieut. Philip Ljungstedt, ing. The pair immediately left for a trip to New Orleans. Mr. Hill, came to Mooresboro frem lotte on Wednesday. Indiana and is connected with the dairy there, and stands very high indeed. The bride is a graduate of their fifty-eighth anniversary on Fri-Greensboro Normal and is an attrac- day. tive and intellectual young woman. For ent. more than two years she lived in Shelby

She taught one year in Marion, and one year in Dunn, N. C. Delightful Reception.

A delightful reception was tendered by Mrs. C. C. Roberts on Thursday complimentary to her son Mr. Colum-Evans has returned to bus C. Roberts and his bride, formerly months to European countries. She is Wilkinsville. S. C., to whom he was Receiving in the hall were: Mr. and Mrs. Martin Roberts, Mr. McCollough, Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Lee are again in Misses Pattie and Mamie Roberts; in the city after visiting relatives for a the parlor were Mrs. C. C. Roberts, Miss Edna Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Co-Mrs. L. V. Lacy and Miss Ada Yopp lumbus Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. James A. secretary, and Mr. H. G. Bowden, in the sitting room ice cream and cake. lieutenant, who had purposely ingratfield secretary of the Carolinas, both The decorations were pink and yellow. Mr. Roberts is quite well known the object of worming out her secrets.

> bride he had won. Merry Hallowe'en In response to uniquee invitations cleverly encased in walnut shells saying that on the evening of Tuesday, the 31st, Jack O. Lantern would make merry at Miss Mable McBrayers quite hind closed doors. In delivering sena large number of Shelby's young set tence, the court said it had been provenjoyed a most delightful Hallowe'en ed that the accused was not a French party there. Briefs. -Mr. Lee B. Weathers and bride, Danville, Va., came in Monday and have gone to house keeping.

-Mrs. Bird Kimbrell, of Charlotte,

Continued on Page 14.

careful financial policy followed sicne the war with Japan.

Moroccan Dispute The dangers of the Italo-Turkish conflict are small as compared with those of the Morocco dispute, for in the background of that question is Anglo-German antagonism, the only question that counts in the European situation today. The Moroccan broglio, however, is considered practically arranged in our political circles. The negotiators have settled the quality of the good that are to be delivered by Germany; it now remains only to agree on the price.

The Congo part of the understanding Among echoing rocks, will be relatively a smooth affair. Their waves forever flashing France gains too much by obtaining the Shereefan Empire to haggle over a few swamps near the Ubangi. Of course, there will be popular discon. Where oaken boughs are bending tent, both in Germany and in France, but when concluded the settlement will be approved in both countries, by 18 THE WORLD GROWING BETTER a same majority of the people as and short breath to the pre-Agadir unsettlement; issued, good health by taking Electric Bitters, rapidly disappear and in 15 to 45 days entire relief and should effect a cure in 20 to 60 days. man reapproachment, so much more used failed till I took Electric Bitters. Trial Treatment profitable than mutual suspicion. Morocco herself will be the greatest gain-timonials and a free er, for she will henceforth be able to They're the best tonic and finest liver

Mooresville

Special to The News.

Mooresville, N. C., Nov. 4 .- A very pretty wedding took place here Wed-Harris and Mr. G. F. Neal were united in marriage. The home was simply but prettily decorated for the occasby Rev. W. L. Wilson of the Presbyterian church in the presence of a few friends and relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Neal left immediately after the ceremony for his home in the country. The bride is an attractive young woman and has many friends here and throughout the county who will be interested in their marriage. The groom is the oldest son of Mr. James Neal of this place and is a well-to-do farmer. Hallowe'en Parties.

One of the most delightful parties lor was decorated in white roses. The ty at her home on First avenue. The candles. The dining room in pink car- and apples were eaten from strings nations and ferns and pink candles. Suspended from the ceiling in the cenwere played.

Hallowe'en party last night. Berta Ragan, who next week will wed e'en style, with ligted pumpkins, au-Dr. William Dinsmore. The tally cards tumn leaves and corn, apples were eat-Lee Pender with Miss Theresa Pars- and the score was kept with long-stem and various Hallowe'en games were afternoon in her beautiful room at the down last August, will resume bus-Commercial hotel the birde's mother, Mrs. Mary Albright Charlotte after a few days' visit here again.

against her.

Mlle. Thirion has lived for the last five years in Germany, and at the end of last year appeared in Cologne as a teacher of languages. She quickly teacher of languages. She quickly onto Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Davis. made herself popular in society in the ents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Davis. iated himself in her affections with in the city this week conferring with throughout the country and was hear. She was thereupon charged with at-supreme court who heard the case bespy, but a respectable teacher of languages, with the best credentials" and her arrest as a spy was the outcome of formerly Miss Williewee Wiseman of a misunderstanding. Nevertheless she must be sentenced under Paragraph 49a of the Imperial code because she once declared herself ready to undertake espionage, although this declaration was not made seriously.

The sentence of six months includes four months already spent in prison.

AFRAID OF FROST. Already poets tremble

Before the northern blast And some, who won't dissemble, Confess the truth at last, That nearly all are willing, As with one voice to say, While winter-time is thrilling, They wish again 'twere May.

They'd like to see the daisies Outcropping on the lawn, They'd like to sing the praises Of rosy-tinted Dawn; They'd like to paint the beauties Of Nature's gentlest mood-Combine with bardlike duties A ramble in the wood:

Give ear to streamlets dashing The hues the diamond mocks; With care-free footsteps wending Down lanes of leafy gloom, And violets shyly bloom.

Many things go to prove that it is. equitable and fair on the do ut des The way thousands are trying to help others is proof. Among them is Mrs. W The alternative would be a return W. Gould, of Pittsfield, N. H., Finding

Pineville

Special to The News.

Pineville, N. C., Nov. 4 .- Miss Mary Withers legt for Columbia last Wednesday evening at the home of the nesday to spend some time with her bride on Culp avenue, where Mrs. Dora brother, Mr. Will Withers, and incidentally to take in the state fair. Mrs. Ben Winget, of Gastonia, is > on Fisher street. Miss Mary Epps, of Fort Mill, was Main street, yesterdayfi

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Weeks were rian hospital, Charlotte, but who is bride. improving at present.

Mr. Moulten Ferris, of the vicinity, and Miss Eunice Kimball, of Pineof the season was given on last Friday evening from 8:30 to 12 o'clock when James S. Hilliard, of Cary. The parts. D. E. Turner gave a Hallowe'en parthe Presbyterian churche here. The the Rev. C. Kingsley, the sastor of house was beautifully decorated in young couple were accompanied on their happy mission by quite a numpunch room in pink roses and pink fall leaves, pumpkin faces, pop corn their nappy mission by quite a number of their friends and after the ceremony they returned to the home The den in red chrysanthemums with ter of the room and many funny games of theb ride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Kimball, on Polk street. The Mr. William Johnston entertained young people of the village turned number of his young friends at a out in force Tuesday evening and fallowe'en party last night. The ser gave a "42" party in honor of Miss house was decorated in real Hallow- the time honored style. Mr. and Mrs. Ferris left Wednesday morning for Columbia to attend the fair, accomwere adorned with chrysanthemums en from strings, fortunes were told panied by a large delegation from Pineville and vicinity. The best wish-> iness in a short time. The rumor is Sans Sonci Club

>
> Miss Cora Miller was at home on Wednesday to the Sans Sanci club and a few invited friends.
>
> Entertained Husbands.
>
> One of the most charming functions given in Mooresville for some time series and also a serewas that on Tuesday evening at Mrs. will be in evidence and also a sere John Huston's when the embroidery nade. Pinevillians will certainly be delighted to hear the whistles blowing nd the hum of machinery and their pleasure will be great to welcently with his parents, Mr. and of the meion to Mr. W. J. Taylor to land their fifty-eighth anniversary on Friday. There were seven children present.

Court Sentenced Woman;

Declared Her Innocent

Berlin, Nov. 4—The supreme court of the empire at Leipzig has sentenced the Frenchwoman Mile Renee Thirion, who was arrested in April last on a charge of attempted espionage, to six months' imprisonment, although the court declared at the same time that she was innocent of the same time that she was innocent of the same innocent of the freest both was innocent of the same time that she was innocent of the same inneced to the grounds which are prizes will be chief the freest flowers and the flower show in morths' imprisonment, although the court declared at the same time that she was innocent of the same time that months' imprisonment, although the court declared at the same time that she was innecent of the same time that she was innocent of the charge brought santhemums, both of which were grea greatly in evidence around the residences of the villagers.

Mrs. S. L. Hoover and daughter, There is general rejoiding at the of Greenville, S. C., and Miss McCollough, of Wilkinsville. In the dining lough, of Wilkinsville. In the dining room a salad course was served and as a spy by her sweetheart, a German cold snap has put a quietus on the constant song, also sting, of the mosquito, which has been a regular Pharaoh plague. She was thereupon charged with attempting to secure mobilization plans of the German army corps for the purpose of transmitting the information of the French was office.

After being kept four months in every season has its companied in After being kept four months in every season has its compensations, prison she was brought before the and after all, this world is a good old

Find it Hard to Chiasso, Nov. 4.—The difficulty of dealing effectively with cholera cases in unenlightened districts of Southern Italy is illustrated by incidents at Segni, thirty miles from Rome.

having been notified to the authorities, they had the patients isolated. This Morell Mackenzie, the English phyexasperated the inhabitants who to the sician who attended the Emperor number of 500 assembled in front of Frederick in his fatal illness. the town hall and attacked eight gen- Although the German physician Ger-burst open the doors and drawres, belief that it was a case of inflamation smashed the windows, and threw furniture and papers into the street. Then es that Sir Morell removed a piece of at the home of Miss Lillie Bostian they set fire to the building, and when the right vocal chord, which was unthe flames had got the masts, with ex- affected-instead of the left chord, They fought their way inside seized The operation per the cholera patients were the victims off to their homes shouting troumph. The town hall was almost completely destroyed by the flames, which were only extinguished after the arrival of 100 gendarmes from Rome. It appears that the ignorant inhabitants acted under the impression that the cholera pationts were the victims of a conspiracy of doctors and nurses, the Great have repented on the galwhom they believed to be in league to do away with them. The patients taken by force from hospitals are now in a precarious condition and one is at the point of death.

DUEL BETWEEN

Gaffney, S. C., Nov. 4 .-- One of the prettiest weddings of the season took place in the Wilkinsville section of Young People's Union of the First this county on Tuesday afternoon when Miss Margaret McCullouch be came the wife of Mr. Columbus C. Roberts, of Shelby, N. C. The cerevisiting her brother, Mr. J. C. Fisher mony took place at the home of the and the ceremony was performed and her sister, Mrs. J. H. Spencer, bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John R. McCullouch. The house was beautifully decorat> evergreens, both native and exotic. The guests were received and shown called to the bedside of their son, Mr. into the parlor by Mrs. Alice White R. B. Weeks, a few days ago, who of Yorkville, and Miss Mary McCulhas been quite ill at the Presbyte- louch, of Wilkinsville, aunts of the The wedding was a home affair and the guests, included only the friends and relatives of the contracting parties. The ceremony was performed by Rev. C. W. Payseur. Mrs. Roberts is one of Cherokee's women while the groom is a wealthy and progressive planter of Shelby, Club of Ten.

The Club of Ten was charmingly entertained by Miss Pearl Crawley her home on Jeffries street on Tuesday afternoon. This was a musical meeting and the entire afternoon was given over to this pleasant pastime. During the course of the evening's pleasures a delicious luncheon was served by Miss Eula Crawley. Epworth League.

On Tuesday evening Miss Christine Baker was hostess to the members of the Epworth League of the Buford Street Methodist church at their regular social meeting. The occasion was thoroughly enjoyable and not a minute of the evening lagged. A special musical program had been arranged and this was one of the features most enjoyed by the members present. The instrumental music by Miss Louie Potter and the duet by Misses Louise Johnson and Eloise Potter were highly enjoyed.

Question Club. The Question Club met at the home of Miss Nell Wood on Thursday afternoon. Games were played in the parlor during the afternoon. The re-Miss Irma Kistler has returned to come the Boyd family in their midst tively and tastefully decorated for the occasion, chrysanthemums in profusion being seen on every side while Mesdames E. W. Brawley and eGo. Mrs. Stephen Marks of Steel Creek, with a profusion of feathery ferns. C. Goodman visited friends in Charlotte on Wednesday.

58th Applyageant of Marks of Marks brought the seeds and course with coffee was served. of the melon to Mr. W. J. Taylor to by Misses Emma Wood and Parniece subject was read by Mrs. John Ro- Margaret Brawley. land Rolleson. A selection on the "Second Generation" was read by Mrs. Tom L. Brown. Music was fol-Mrs. L. V. Lacy and Miss Ada 1999 Idinious Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Game London, bave returned to their homes in this Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Game London, provincial town, and was a particular favorite with the officers of the gar-according to the first many and miss Ada 1999 Idinious Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Game London, provincial town, and was a particular favorite with the officers of the gar-according to the first many and miss Ada 1999 Idinious Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Game London, provincial town, and was a particular favorite with the officers of the gar-according to the first many and miss Ada 1999 Idinious Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Game London, provincial town, and was a particular favorite with the officers of the gar-according to the first many and miss Ada 1999 Idinious Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Game London, provincial town, and was a particular favorite with the officers of the gar-according to the first many and miss Ada 1999 Idinious Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Game London, provincial town, and was a particular favorite with the officers of the gar-according to the first many and miss Ada 1999 Idinious Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Game London, provincial town, and was a particular favorite with the officers of the gar-according to the first many and miss Ada 1999 Idinious Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Game London, provincial town, and was a particular favorite with the officers of the gar-according to the gar-according to the first many and the first many a

This club held a rummage sale on Saturday for the benefit of the city library and it was found at this meeting that the results had been all that could be expected.

Thimble Club. The Thimble Club held one of their most delightful meetings with Mrs. Boyd L. Hames at her home on West Frederick street Friday afternoon. Yellow and white chrysanthemums wereu sed for the decorations while templing course of refreshments was served during the afternoon.

Deal With Cholera Attacks Physician of Emperor Frederick

Ernest von Bergman, just published full of tall shapes and the boys had Several cases of suspected cholera revives a famous controversy and contains a severe attack on the late Sir hardt diagnises cancer at the very outdarmes on guard there.

The mob invaded the town hall, set. Sir Morel adhered to his original

The operation performed at San Remo in February 1888 on the Crown Prince as the Emperor Frederick than was—was postponed by Sir Morell as long as possible. While it was being carried out by a German surgeon Sir Morell looked on deathly pale and staggering. Dr. Bergmann adds that doctors who allowed matters to come to such a pass would under Frederick

DID FIND EXTRAVAGANCE

Controller Jacobs, of Montgomery Writes to Nail Lies. Landsdale, Pa., Nov. 4.—Great capi-HIGH-SCHOOL BOYS. tal has been made, politically, or at Garner. The secret remedy is bequeathleast banked on by the republican ma-chine in Montgomery county, as it are also given the testator's cigar bus-Berin, Nov. 4.—A pistol duel be-tween high school boys was fought at Teichel, near Rudolstadt. A 16-year-County controller, for the statement To his daughter Teichel, near Rudolstadt. A 16-year County controller, for the statement old lad named Von Necker was killed that he had found neither extravagance and his opponent, who was 18 was nor trace of it among his fellow-re-slightly wounded. publican county officeholders. Controll-grandson. Harold K. Fry. If the boy The latter, whose name was Dieter Jacobs today says it's all a lie. He should die before Mrs. zen, turned his weapon against nim- writes the following letter to the edishall inherit the money. self after the encounter and shot him- tor of The Landsdale Republican:

of the second second

Statesville

Statesville, Nov. 4.-A large number of members and friends of the Baptist church enjoyed a Hallowe'en party gaven Tuesday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Heinzerling by Misses Amy and Myrtle Heinzerling and Mr. Percy Hinzerling, members of the union. The home was the guest of Miss Maggie Withers, on ed for the occasion with flowers and beautifully and appropriately decorated for the event with autumn there on the walls wereb lack cats, witches, etc., while in the yard, on can be procured. the porch and in the hall were large pumpkin-head spooks. The hall, parlor and sitting room were filled with > Electic Book Club Mrs. A. L. Coble was hostess to the ting along nicely. Eclectic Book Club Thursday afternoon at her home on Walnut street. most charming and attractive young The literary program for the after- Nov. 8th, 9th and 10th. noon consisted of American subjects and the first was "Early American lightful meeting October 26th with followed by "Boston the Birthplace of the Nation," by Mrs. B. F. Long. about the Irish people, their language, Mrs. A. J. Evans read Kipling's new poem, "The Female of the Species," and Mrs. M. C. Wood sang two ballands. At the conclusion of the program nice refreshments were served. Mrs. Coble had as special guests for | the club. Delicious refreshments were the afternoon.a number of friends out> > side the club. Entre Nous Club. C. Scott Friday afternoon in the parlors of Statesville Female College. Scott had as special guests the college teachers and Mesdames R. C. gressive domino was the game of the won the prize, a huge bunch of beautiful yellow chrysanthemums. After the game seasonable refreshments were served.

Thursday Afternoon Club Last week's meeting of the Thursday Afternoon Club was held with Mrs. J. EF. Bowles at her home on West End avenue. The club is studying Holland and Mrs. S. L. Parks read the national hymn of Holland. There was also a literary selection by Mrs. Chas. A. Turner, following which refreshments were served by

The meeting was a most interesting Other features were the cutting of a one throughout the subject for dis- huge cake and the visit of a horse cussion being, "the Changes of a ghost. Apples, candy and nuts were Quarter Century." A paper on this served by Misses Allie Ramsey and Chrysanthemum Sunday. The First Baptist Sunday school will observe tomorrow as Chrysanthemum Sunday. Thec hurch will be decorated with chrysanthemums for the Sunday school service and in the afternoon the flowers will be taken to the cemetery and placed on the graves of members of the school who have died during the year. Last, fall there was only oneg rave to be dec-orated, while this year there are Mallowe'en Party. Mr. Jack Wycoff entertained a number of friends Tuesday night at the home of his mother, Mrs. J. H. Wycoff, and the guests report a pleasant evening. The house was decorated in autumn leaves, chrysanthemums and Hallowe'en lanterns. The girls appeared as "ghosts," and silently and slowly passing through the hall they seated themselves around the parlor, while the boys, with cards and pencils, spent a half hour guessing their Berlin, Nov. 4.—The biography of names. When the girls reappeared in the distinguished German surgeon their usual guise they found the hall disappeared, and they did some guessing. In the contest Miss Maud Guy won the ladies' prize and Mr. Leary Cashwell the gentleman's prize. Ice cream, cake and fruit were served.

Old-Fashioned Quilting. An old-fashioned quilting was held under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid and Missionary Societies of Front Street Presbyterian church Friday near town, and it was a delightful occasion of the old kind. By five o'clock in the afternoon two quilts were finished and these wil be sold, adding to the treasury of the societies. The ladies took baskets with them, but to save the bountiful dinner from being a cold lunch Miss Bostain added several steaming dishes from her own kitchen.

CURE FOR RABIES IN A WILL Secret Process is Bequeathed to the Invetor's Son. Norristown, Pa., Nov. 4.—"Fry's Hydrophobia Cure" does not die with William S. Fry, of Lansdale. This face became known when the will of the "hydrophobia doctor" was admitted to probate in the office of Register

To his daughter-in-law, Ella R. Fry, decedent bequeather $4,000, which is to grandson, Harold K. Fry. If the boy should die before Mrs. Fry then she or of The Landsdale Republican:

Newspapers reports put forth to the of his real estate and all of the houseself twice. One bullet pierced his lungs, and his condition is hopeless. There effect that I have found no extrava-hold goods, as well as to enjoy for life and his condition is hopeless. There effect that I have found no extrava-hold goods, as well as to enjoy for life and his condition is hopeless. treatment write
Dr. Greens Sons
Box O, Atlanta, Gs
They're the best tonic and finest liver and kidney remedy that's made. Try on account of insulting language used by Necker about a roung girl whom throughout the countries.

The lads are said to have quarrelled an not responsible for what appears to the contrary to his daughter-in-law, Ella N. Fry, and the remainder is to go to his son, fine the proceeds of the residue of his estate. At her death $6,000 is to be given on account of insulting language used by Necker about a roung girl whom throughout the country and I hope to the residue of his estate. At her death $6,000 is to be given by Necker about a roung girl whom throughout the country and I hope to the residue of his estate. At her death $6,000 is to be given by Necker about a roung girl whom throughout the country and I hope to his son, in the newspapers to the country and I hope to his son, in the newspa

Hickory

Hickory, N. C., Nov. 4 .- Mr. Bailey of the Hickory Chair aMnufacturing Co., is here this week from Elkin, seeing about moving his plant here. Mrs. Dr. Farrar, of St. Louis, Mo. is visiting her daughterd, Mrs. Dr.

Blackburn, oa 15th street. Mrs. Reginald Barker, who has been visiting her mother in Durham, has returned home. Miss Margaret McComb is supplying leaves and flowers, and here and a vacancy in the eighth grade of the graded school until another teacher

Col. Thornton, of the Electric Light and Power Co., has purchased C. D. Carpenter property on Main square. Mrs. O. M. Royster, who is at the Long Sanjtarium at Statesville, is get-

Hickory is making preparations for the street fair which is to be held

The Thursday Study Club held a de Path Finders," by Mrs. A. D. Cooper, Mrs. J. D. Harte as hostess. Quotations were on love. An interesting program etc., was given by different members. The Last Rose of Summer was sweetly sung by Mesdames Harte, Bost and Roy Abernathy. Mrs. Joe Abernathy was welcomed as a new member of served in three courses.

Mrs. Dr. Ramsay was the charming hostess of the Round Dozen Book A delightful meeting of the Entre club Nov. 1st. A round dozen respond-Nous Club was held with Miss Mary ed to roll call. After the usual discussion of books the hostess read some very interesting but not altogether In addition to the club members Miss | complimentary criticisms on her book "The Long Roll," also gave some interesting facts about the author. Mary Bunting, of Baltimore, and T. G. Faw- Johnson. After current events a delicette, of Mt. Airy, the two latter be- cious two-course luncheon was served ing former members of the club. Pro- in the dining room which was taste full decorated in scarlet sage, auoccasion and Miss Minnie Sherrill tumn leaves and Confederate flags suggested by her book.

> Some men are so considerate as to make fools of themselves just to save some woman the trouble of doing it.

Unselfishness is letting the selfish have everything.

POET LE GALLIENNE MARRIES

The upper picture is that of Mrs. Richard Le Gaillenne, formerly Mrs. Irma Perry, who divirced her first husband R. Hinton Perry, the well known sculptor. Below is that of Richard Le Gallienne, the poet, who was married to Mrs. Perry at Stamford, Conn. This is the poet's third wife, his first dying three years after their marriage, and his second wife who was Miss Julie Norregard, obtaining a divorce from her poet husband last July.

Retail. INTERIOR DECORATORS

Torrence Paint Company

Some Special Bargains in Short Lots. 10. N. Tryon . Phone 178