PRESIDENT REFUSED TO BECOME A BANKER.

Hot Springs, Va., Nov. 4.—President Taft today declined an offer to go into the banking business. The offer came from a man in Connecticut, whose name was not revealed. He wished the president to start his banking career in a modest way, putting the presidential signature on the back of a $2,000 three year promissory note. He asked the president's endorsement for three reasons:

1—Read the letter; I wish to secure your signature to keep as long as I live and then destroy it; second, I need the money; third, I think it is more manly to get help this way.

The letter gave to the president the names of the general secretary and janitor of the Y. M. C. A. in the writer's town as references.

IS THE WORLD GROWING BETTER?

Many things go to prove that it is. The way thousands are trying to help their government is proof. Among them is Mrs. W. Gould, of Pittsfield, N. H. Finding good health by taking Electric Bitters, she now advises other sufferers, everywhere to take them. "Four years I suffered with stomach and kidney trouble," she writes. "Every medicine I used failed till I took Electric Bitters. But this great remedy helped me wonderfully. They'll help any woman. They're the best tonic and finest liver and kidney remedy that's made. Try them. You'll see. 50c. at W. L. Hand & Co's."

COTTON RECEIPTS.

The cotton receipts of yesterday still show that the farmers are holding their cotton. The receipts at the local platform yesterday were 240 bales at 8 3/4 cents as against 538 last year on the same date at 14 cents.

The World And Its Troubles

The grafters go on grafting and the bribers bribe away; The bosses still grow fatter and the people have to pay; Men with schemes that are unfair, Keep on thriving everywhere, But the world goes on contriving to get better day by day.

The thugs are busy shooting, and the gangster's arm is strong; The men we choose for office are inclined to wink at wrong; Though we do our best to drive Out the crooks and thieves, they thrive. But the world keeps bravely getting somewhat better right along.

The rich lawbreakers calmly keep purifying the old game; They are ever busy claiming what they have no right to claim; They take tribute day by day And the public has to pay. But the world, with all its troubles, keeps improving just the same.

The insurance agent has more troubles than anybody else, still he is willing to offer himself, a willing sacrifice upon the altar of "More business." You can get the best insurance on the market, at insurance headquarters.
