BRIEFS.

—Mr. O. M. Stiles, of Davidson, was down yesterday on business. —The county board of education will meet tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock in their regular monthly session.

Statesville

Statesville, N. C., Dec. 2.—Misses Mabel and Maude Guy entertained a large party of their young friends Tuesday evening from 6 to 9 at their home on Kelly street. Various games were played and in an interesting "candle blowing" contest Miss Martha McLaughlin received the first prize, a pretty silver purse, while the second prize, a pair of gold pins, went to Miss Hassey Miller. After much merriment at game-playing the guests where punch, cakes and candy were served by Mrs. Guy, assisted by Mrs. R. O. Deltz and Miss Laura Guy. The dining room was beautifully decorated in honor of the many visitors of the evening. Another source of entertainment were piano selections by Misses Bride Alexander and Janie Leonard.

The Entre Nous ladies and quite a number of other friends enjoyed a pleasant meeting with Miss Minnie Sherrill Friday afternoon at her home on Davia avenue. Special guests for the occasion were Mrs. E. R. Rankin, of Tryon; Miss Eva Schwing, of Greenville, S. C., and Miss Lila May Parker, of Birmingham, Ala. Progressive domino was played and Miss Lillie Mae Tomlin won the prize, a hand-made shirtwaist. Following the game a salad course was served.

Mrs. F. H. Conger was hostess to the Woman's Twentieth Century Club and quite a number of other guests Tuesday afternoon at her magnificent home on Broad street, special out-of-town guests being Miss Miller, of Winston-Salem, sister of Mrs. R. P. Allison, president of the club, and Miss Mary Lazenby, who has just returned from a stay of three years in the Argentine Republic and Chili. The literary program for the afternoon consisted of "Athens of Today," by Mrs. Allison, followed by Latin classics of Horace by each member. Miss Lazenby gave an interesting description of her trip to Chili via the Horn, thence to Buenos Ayres via the new trans-continental railroad and return, thence via Panama, and her exquisite souvenirs showed the wonderfully fine texture of the handicraft of the South American women. "Pompeii," was the closing subject, well given by Mrs. Q. A. Steverson. There were a number of vocal selections by Mrs. R. E. Clapp. The guests were then invited to the spacious dining room, beautiful with its decorations of chrysanthemums and ferns, where little Misses Gertrude Conger and Ruth Pressly served a delicious collation.

Friday afternoon Mrs. G. E. Hughey and Miss Willie Nicholson were at home to the members of the G. G. G. and Why Not Clubs and other friends at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Nicholson on Front street. What all the guests had arrived and dainty score cards had been distributed a merry game of progressive hearts was participated in. At the close of the game pretty hand-embroidered handkerchiefs, the handiwork of the hostesses, were presented to Mrs. E. S. Pogram, the highest scorer, and to Miss Corrie Copeland, who cut highest for the consolation. A delicious salad course with coffee and crystallized ginger was served, after which the guests very reluctantly left the attractively decorated rooms with their glowing fires and went their way homeward through the bitter cold. Among the out-of-town guests of the afternoon were Misses Eva Schwing, of Greenville; Isabella Waide, Farmington, Mo.; Latona Turner, of Knoxville, Fla.; Miss Lila May Parker, of Birmingham.

Mrs. W. H. Allison and two children are visiting at Wadesboro. Mrs. W. R. Mills and little son have been in Winston the past few days as guests of Mrs. Holbrooks. Mrs. D. F. Jenkins has returned from a visit to her daughter, Mrs. W. W. Hanks, in Charlotte. Miss Jessie English, of Spruce Pine, is the guest of Miss Lucy Davidson. Mrs. L. White is visiting friends at Davidson. Mrs. A. Whitlock, of Asheville, is spending a few days here with her daughter, Mrs. William Wallace. She is en route home from New York. Miss Nita Davis, who visited Statesville friends, has gone to Hickory to spend a while before going to her home in Waxhuc.

Miss Mary Lewis has been in Shelby the past few days visiting friends and Miss Flora Lewis has been the guest of Miss McBrayer, in Asheville.

Move to Enfranchise North Carolina Women Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 2.—What is believed to have been the first real movement for the enfranchising of women in North Carolina was made here today when the North Carolina Teachers' Assembly appointed a committee to investigate the right of women teachers as to holding administrative office in both city and county. They demanded to know if they are "teachers or just females."

A moving van, my children, can A paradox instill; For it can be a moving van, And still be standing still.
