SOLDIERS LEAVE -MEET NEXT IN THE CAPITAL CITY

The National Guard association of North Carolina held its final session yesterday afternoon.

The meeting voted its thanks for the presence of Capt. A. H. J. Dorritt, Thirtieth United Infantry, Capt. W. G. Peace, Coast Artillery corps and Capt. J. G. Ewing, Del. National Guards. These officers were at the meetings and delivered excellent addresses.

Raleigh Gets Next Convention. The capital asked for the next convention in the following telegram: "Raleigh, N. C., Jan. 31.

To President Dorritt, National Guard Association of N. C., in session at Charlotte:

"The city of Raleigh, through Mayor James I. Johnston, Chamber of Commerce through President Henry E. Litchfield and the Raleigh Merchants' Association through President J. B. Pearce, especially invites the North Carolina Guard Association to hold next annual meeting in Raleigh."

Greensboro and Washington also asked for the next meeting. Raleigh was voted for by the meeting and the executive board was asked to select that place because of the fact that the legislature will be in session and the association can present its claims direct to that body.

A rising vote was taken to express the thanks and hearty appreciation of the association for the hospitality shown by the clubs and other institutions of the city. Thanks were also

MAN, HORSE AND BUGGY ARE ALL GONE

Yesterday afternoon a man giving his name as J. H. Adkins, pulled himself into Police Gazette fame.

He called at the livery stable of J. C. Cochran and hired a horse and buggy to go to North Charlotte. Accordingly Mr. Cochran hitched up a small bay mare to a buggy. Last night Adkins did not return. Mr. Cochran became suspicious and reported the matter to Chief of Police Christenbury.

Mr. Frank Green and His Son. This morning after court two men came to the chief and asked about their case. Upon being told that there was no case against them, they told the following story:

"Yesterday afternoon a clean shaven, dark complexioned young man came up to my house and said, 'Is this Mr. Green?' I said yes.

"I am an officer," said Adkins, and have a warrant here for your arrest, charging you with running a blind tiger, your bond is $200. I went in the house to change my clothes to accompany him to town, not wanting to give bond. While I was in the house my son-in-law gave Adkins $2.50 to let me come later. He took the money and left.

It later developed that Adkins went further on down the Paw Creek road and tried the same trick on Mr. J. W. Kinley, who luckily saw through their raud and ran the man off his place.

Chief Christenbury has been busy today phoning to all of the near-by towns to keep a sharp lookout for the man. The police have no clue, other than the description given and the direction in which he was last heard from.

In the meantime Mr. Cochran is out a horse and buggy. He, too, is busy, not only over the phones, but in the advertising department of 'The News.

—Mr. William Bush, who for many years had his home with the late Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Clark, is located for the winter at Mrs. W. N. Mullen's, No. 17 North Poplar street. Mr. Bush expects to return North in the spring.

Paving Agreement Formally Signed

The agreement between the city and the Southern Power Company relative to the 30-inch paving by the power company and the lowering of the street car tracks to conform to the grade of the improved streets has been duly signed and attested by the Southern Power officials and nothing remains but the letting of the contracts for the actual work of lowering the street car tracks and paving the space between them and 30 inches on each side.

By the terms of the agreement, which was drawn some weeks ago, the street car company will pave the space between its tracks and 30 inches on each side. The street car company let the work to contractors under the company's supervision and the city will reimburse the company from time to time, until such time as the supreme court passes on the question as to whether the company shall be responsible for the entire 30 inches or only 14 inches on each side of the car tracks, as the company claims is all that should be required of it.

A WOMAN OF POWER.

There is in the city today, as a visitor, one of the most remarkable, and one of the ablest women in the state—Mrs. M. G. Grant, of Valdese (pronounced Vol-day-sey), the Waldensian settlement in Burke county, very near Morganton.

Mrs. Grant is of Swiss-Italian descent. She takes an active interest in the "gospel of work," as she calls it, being wrought out most wondrously by the wonderful people who live at Valdese—people who have made the barren ridge of Burke blossom as a rose.

Few men are so conversant with men and affairs, with the social and economic development of not only this country, but the country from which her people come, as she.

Mrs. Grant is deeply interested in having the products of the farms and vineyards of Valdese find a home market, instead of shipping them North or over seas.

In company with friends, she visited Mayor Bland today, also Rev. Dr. Bridges, editor pro tem of the Presbyterian Standard, both of whom were wonderfully interested in hearing of the work accomplished at Valdese, as well as charmed with the intellectuality and culture of the rector.

Mrs. Grant met several Presbyterians to day, who hope later to have her come and talk before the societies of the churches.

ST. MONICA'S BRANCH. St. Monica's Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary of St. Peter's Episcopal church, will meet with Mrs. Harris Mallinckrodt, No. 6 Garland Court, tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock. A large attendance is desired.

Puts An End to Stomach Misery

Indigestion, Gas, Heartburn and Dyspepsia go and you feel fine in five minutes.

Every family here ought to keep some Diapepsin in the house, as any one of you may have an attack of indigestion or stomach trouble at any time, day or night.

This harmless preparation will digest anything you eat and overcome a distressed, out-of-order stomach five minutes afterwards.

If your meals don't tempt you, or what little you do eat seems to fill you, or lays like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is a sign of indigestion.

Ask your Pharmacist for a 50-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin, and take a little just as soon as you can. There will be no sour undigested food mixed with acid, no stomach gas or heartburn, fullness or heavy feeling in the stomach, Nausea, Debilitating Headaches, Dizziness or intestinal griping. This will all go, and, besides, there will be no sour food left over in the stomach to poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Pape's Diapepsin is a certain cure for out-of-order stomachs, because it prevents fermentation and takes hold of your food and digests it just the same as if your stomach wasn't there.

Relief in five minutes from all stomach misery is at your drug store, waiting for you.

These large 50-cent cases of Pape's Diapepsin contain more than sufficient to cure any case of Dyspepsia, indigestion or any other Stomach trouble.

The various church societies, which are interested in the Indians, will be especially invited, but all women will be welcome and are cordially.
