BICYCLE CASE WAS HEARD AND DISMISSED

After going minutely into the complaint brought against Chief of Police Christenbury by Mr. J. P. Beatty, the city executive board last night by a vote of 11 to 1 dismissed the complaint. In connection with the complaint, which involved the disposition of unidentified property, committee consisting of Messrs. Garibaldi, Murphy and Davis, was appointed by Mayor Bland to draft a set of rules governing the disposition of unidentified property at the police station.

The hearing lasted from half-past eight to half-past ten. Twelve or fourteen witnesses were examined. Mr. Beatty was represented by Mr. Jake Newell. Recorder D. B. Smith appeared for Chief Christenbury, not as a paid attorney, as he explained, but merely as a friend of the chief's.

The complainant stated that he had been informed on the 16th of January by Clyde Earnhardt, son of Police-man Earnhardt, who was employed at Mr. Beatty's store, that Jack Christenbury, son of the chief, was riding Mr. Beatty's wheel, which had been stolen on January 2nd. He stated that as soon as he missed the wheel he phoned a description of it to the police station, where some one took down the description.

When he learned that the wheel was at the Christenbury home he took Clyde Earnhardt with him and went to the chief's home, where he saw Jack and stated to him that he had heard Jack had a wheel which corresponded with the one that he (Beatty) had lost. He got the wheel, but according to Jack Christenbury, used some pretty rough language in the presence of Mrs. Christenbury, her little daughter and other members of the family. He also, according to Jack Christenbury's testimony, was for taking the wheel by force, Jack stating that Beatty took hold of the wheel while Jack still held it, and said he'd be d—d if he wasn't going to have the wheel anyway.

Jack told him that he couldn't get the wheel until he had seen the chief about it. Jack let him have the wheel and he came on by the police station where, he said, he found the chief in a very bad humor.

The chief admitted that he was not in the best of humor, but that it was because his wife had phoned him, after eBeatty left the house, that a man had been there after a wheel and had used some very bad language. Mrs. Christenbury had told Jack to let Beatty have the wheel.

Mr. Beatty stated that the chief had him cited to appear at court next morning to answer a charge of profanity and disorderly conduct. He alleged also that the chief started back to his office with the wheel even after he had volunteered to swear positively it was his. He told the chief, he admitted, that he intended to have that wheel before he went home. He then went to Mr. Barnes' bicycle shop, where he had purchased the wheel and got the number. Then he came back and identified the wheel by number, whereupon the chief gave him the wheel.

Record Was Lost.
The evidence, after examination of Officers W. M. Earnhardt, W. A. Neal, Day, DeBart, J. M. Scullion, Night Desk-Sergeant T. M. Black and others, was that the message about the stolen wheel was received and the description duly recorded, as alleged by Mr. Beatty, but it was lost and no transcription of it ever made to the lost property ledger, as the custom is.

Officers Earnhardt, Neal and others were sitting in the night desk sergeant's office when the phone rang in the message and the description of the stolen wheel. Some one of those present according to regular rule and laid out the description down on a ticket on the sergeant's desk. Messrs. Earnhardt and Neal made note of the number and description of the wheel in their own memorandum books and went to look for it. Mr. Neal remembered seeing the descriptive ticket on the sergeant's desk.

Night Desk-Sergeant Black, who is also night turnkey said that frequently he was so busy attending the fires and attending to other routine duties that officers who happened to be in the room sometimes answered the phone. Sergeant Black had no recollection of having received a description of the Beatty wheel.

Chief Loaned Wheel to His Son.
Chief Christenbury stated that he told his son one evening that he could go back to the unidentified property room and get a wheel to ride while he was delivering groceries for Mr. W. E. Jarrell. He told his son to take care of it and bring it back when he got through with it. He didn't know what kind of a wheel the boy got.

Recorder D. B. Smith stated that at the beginning of the hearing that he appeared as a friend of Chief Christenbury and not as a paid attorney, but that since the chief is the executive officer of his court any reflection on the police department was a reflection of interest to him. He stated for the information of the executive board that the police records were admirably kept—better kept, in fact, than they ever were before; but that it was inevitable that a slip in the system would occur once in a while, as it would inevitably occur in the best regulated establishments of any kind now and then. He further stated that he didn't think the chief ought to allow even unidentified property taken out of the station for temporary use, but that the executive board had never made any rules to govern the disposal of unidentified property and that ever since there had been bicycles there had always been on hand a number of wheels at the police station and that they had frequently been made use of in emergency calls and the like.

At the end of the long hearing the board agreed that there should be more explicit directions for the governing of unidentified property and the committee, named above, was directed to draft these rules.

Catarrh of Stomach

Indigestion and Stomach Agony Quickly Ended.

If you went to thirty doctors and paid each his fee for a prescription for indigestion or stomach misery it is ten chances to one you wouldn't get such a good prescription as the one from which MIO-NA stomach tablets are made.

How can such a thing be? you naturally ask.

Simply because the man who wrote the prescription from which MIO-NA tablets are made knows more about stomach diseases than 96 per cent of all the physicians in America, and he gets paid for knowing.

And when you can get a large box of tablets made from this doctor's prescription for only 50 cents, are you going to continue to suffer? Sold by R. H. Jordan & Co., and druggists everywhere.
