Bound Over For Stealing Hay

Rufe Riggins, Reecy Anderson and Dave Settle, all colored, were this morning bound over to the present term of superior court under a $100 bond each for the larceny of a bale of hay from Mr. J. W. Campbell.

Rufe Riggins did the hauling of the hay, while Reecy Anderson alleged that she paid him $1.25 to purchase the hay with, the detailed account of the transaction in no way satisfying the court. Rufe maintained that he merely "found" the hay and this was not in accord with Reecy's statement. Dave Little was also a party to the transaction, however it happened, and all three defendants will be heard in superior court.

Mr. Thompson Of Concord To Speak

As was predicted, the meeting for boys at the Y. M. C. A. last Sunday afternoon was one of the largest of the series, but it is expected that the meeting this week will be even larger. Mr. Thompson comes to the city purpose to address the meeting and should be heard by a large number of boys.

A special number on the musical program which will add much to the interest of the meeting will be a selection by a male quartet. A special invitation is extended to all boys of the city, whether members of the association or not to attend this meeting.

Sermons On "Law Enforcement"

Plans are forming looking to the preaching of a series of sermons by the pastors of the Charlotte churches on "Law Enforcement." To this end it is probable that a meeting of the Ministerial Alliance will be held Monday afternoon, of evening, at which time the matter may be threshed out. It is planned that this series of sermons, possibly a score, will be preached under the auspices of the Law and Order League of the city, and that they will deal intimately with the temperance question.

JACK KNIVES.

What are they made of, where do they grow? That's something I'd like very much to know!

I'm only a wee little boy of five, But just as surely as I'm alive, If I could find out the bush or tree Where jackknives grow, I would try and see

If I couldn't gather enough to last Until I'm a man, and I'm growing fast; Then I wouldn't ask papa, or uncle, or Zeke,

For a new jack-knife every single week.

The last time I asked my uncle, he said,

Smiling and patting me on my head: "Another one lost? Well, I really must say,

If they all take root, there'll be lots some day."

Now, if these grow, and uncle tells true,

Some time or other, they must have grown!

If I knew where I lost 'em, I'd find 'em out.

Just what they look like when they sprout;

But if I knew that, they wouldn't be lost.

Oh, dear, I wonder what jack-knives cost?

Pop says I'm a spendthrift, whatever that means,

And will ruin him quite ere I get in my teens.

To make me more careful he says I shall go

A whole month without one! How, I don't know;

Mamma says 'twill give my hands time to get well;

How I cut all my fingers, I'm sure I can't tell.

Grandma says papa cut his, when a boy.

"Yet he loved to whittle, and made many a toy,

Just like little Charley; it's really too bad

That you can't have a jack-knife, my poor little lad."

So saying, she kisses and whispers, don't tell!

But, grandma, you know, loves the little one's well,

And out of her pocket she brings to my sight

A dear little jack-knife, all shining and bright.

"I picked it up, Charlie, all wet with the dew

Right under the tree where, I guess, that it grew!"

It looks like my old one exactly, to me,

So I think that it grew on the very same tree.

When I want a new jack-knife again, I will go

Right straight to my grandma, she knows where they grew.

AYCOCK—POE ENGAGEMENT.

The announcement yesterday of the engagement of Miss Alice Aycock and Mr. Clarence Poe, was heard with keen interest here where both are delightfully known. The marriage, which occurs May 29, will be an event of interest throughout the South, for Miss Aycock and Mr. Poe are both prominently known the former not only for her charming self, but also as being the daughter of ex-Governor Chas. B. Aycock, of North Carolina, one of the state's foremost statesmen; and the latter as being one of the ablest young men of his day and generation. As editor of The Progressive Farmer, and author of "A Southerner in Europe," he is widely known.

For a year the intimate friends of Miss Aycock and Mr. Poe have known that an understanding, if not engagement, existed between them. The formal announcement according to the Raleigh Times, was made at a luncheon given by Mrs. Albert Anderson Wednesday afternoon at her home in Raleigh, in speaking of the marriage The Times says:

"No social event in the capital city will be of wider interest than the marriage of these two young people. Both are well known, and Mr. Poe has a national reputation as editor, speaker and writer. Miss Aycock is the gifted daughter of Governor and Mrs. E. T. Aycock."

THREE BEAUTY AIDS WOMEN SHOULD KNOW

(From French Beauty Monthly.)

"Any woman who wants to have lovely and beautiful hair can do so if she will use a dry shampoo once a week. Just put a cupful of cornmeal in a fruit jar and mix with it an original package of therox; sprinkle a little on the head, and brush out. It brushes out easily, taking all dirt with it, and leaving the hair clean, bright, wavy and full of life. This treatment causes hair to grow.

"To avoid enlarged pores, dark and discolored blotches, wrinkles, superfluous hairs and blemishes of complexion stop using fancy cosmetics and apply each morning only the simple lotion made by dissolving an original package of mayatone in half a pint of witch hazel. Do this, and your complexion soon will be soft, smooth and altogether charming.

"Worry is a beauty destroyer. If there are children in your home, don't borrow trouble, but prepare for emergencies by keeping at hand a jar of Mother's Salve. The world never saw its equal as a healer of cuts, burns, bruises, sores, sprains and aches. It is splendid for sore throat or croup, too."
