Dear Sirs:-

It is indeed a great comfort to me to know that you will again supply Knabe planes for this, my third, American Concert Tour.

The Knabe piano has always been my ideal instrument; its tone, mellow, rich and sympathetic alike in Uprights and Grands, is an unending joy, and these characteristics add much to the brilliance of my concerts,

I wish particularly to compliment you on your LITTLE MIGNONETT GRAND, which is a wonderful achievement.

Yours very truly,

The Knabe piano has been pronounced best by three generations of eminent artists and connoisseurs. Note the exquisite tone qualities of the Knabe used this evening. It is furnished by
