AMUSEMENTS

Mattice Stock Company. The Mattice Stock Company will bring their engagement at the Academy of Music to a close with a matpresenting "Midnight in Chinatown" this afternoon and "Money and the Woman" tonight, Both of these plays have enjoyed long runs in New York and Chicago and will be presented here for the first time. "The Girl of the Golden West" was offered last night to a good sized crowd and the audience roundly applauded the clever work of each member of the company in this play.

Henrietta Crosman in "The Tongues

In her latest success, "The Tongues of Men." the famous comedienne, Henrietta Crosman is said to have the best vehicle since "Sweet Kitty Bellairs," and is this season scoring the biggest hit of her career.

Miss Crosman has just closed her long engagement in this play in New York city and is coming to Charlotte almost direct from the metropolis, playing five nights between New Seats are now on sale at Hawley's.

"Broadway Jones." In present day theatricals when every producer is trying to out do the other, it takes an exceptionally good play to stamp itself firmly in the hearts of the theatregoers of New York, and on the face of the present situation too much cannot be said for George M. Cohan's latest success. 'Broadway Jones," which was the success of the year at the George M. Cohan's theatre last season. It has been called by the critics of New York, "A ripping success," "Cheerfulest play of the season," "A veritable gem," "Whirlwind of laughter," and many other complimentary

George L. Cohan has furnished many interesting entertainments for America's great army of amusementseekers, but it is conceded that in 'Broadway Jones" he has provided a play that will endure, for the reason that it breathes of real life, love and laughter amidst scenes that are enacted in an atmosphere of absolute

"Broadway Jones" will be seen here next Wednesday, matinee and night, at the Academy of Music.

"Polly of the Circus."

Little Elsie St. Leon, who has scored such a pronounced hit in the title role of "Polly of the Circus," owes much of her success to the tutelage of Mabel Taliaferro with whom the St. Leon family was associated during the first two seasons of "Polly of the Circus," when Mabel Taliaferro was playing the stellar charac-

Miss St. Leon was born with a cir cus in China, in 1892. She belongs to a circus family, and made her first appearance as a performer when she parents, she appeared with the various circuses including the Forepaughshows. "Rest Cure" Right At Home

It isn't necessary to travel to seek the rest cure. The change from a poor mattress to an Ostermoor will do more than a change of scene.

This has been proven. At the urgent request of the Ostermoor manufacturers, a prominent physician suggested the use of an Ostermoor Mattress to a patient, a lady unable to sleep and unable to travel, and he reported his astonishment and her delight and gratitude at the wonderful Cure effected.

The Ostermoor is an absolutely ideal, soothing soporific sleep inducer. Let us show you WHY.
