Preliminary contests in the various school districts will be held March 20.

Miss Lois Sharpe was called to her home at Stony Point to attend the funeral of her uncle, Mr. Thomas Sharpe.

After these gentlemen had explained the principles for which Woodcraft stands, the large audience was served with oysters and other good things in spite of the disagreeable weather, the crowd was large and good humored.

The literary societies of the high school are rehearsing a play which will be given in a short time.

Deputy Sheriff Charles Clark, of Irwell county, has moved to Troutman. His former home was at Enflala.
