NEW YORK COTTON

New York, March 4.-An opening bles were lower than due on old crop Corn eased off with wheat and on positions and there was some further selling of late spring and summer months by houses with Liverpool connections. Offeringe were not so general as yesterday, however, and the market steadied shortly after the call on covering and a moderate demand from leading spot brokers. After selling about 3 points net higher the market became quiet surplus helped to steady wheat, around midd sy and sagged off to about yesterday's closing figures under scaltered realizing.

> The demand from shorts continued and at noon trading months were 7 to points net higher.

Rumors that private returns indicatd a total ginning for the season, excluding linters of 13,970,000 bales, failed to stimulate trading during the early afternoon and the market remained quiet within a point or two of yesterday's closing figures. New York Spot Cotton.
