WHITE MAN AND NEGRO MIX IN SCUFFLE AND NEGRO SUSTAINS CUTS

Robert Williams, colored, about 35 years old, lies wounded at the Good Samaritan hospital, with knife wounds about the head, one ear slashed almost in two, and other minor cuts, inflicted on him yesterday afternoon in front of Jamieson's store on West Trade street by Lon Hall, white, about 35 years of age. The white man, it is said, was conversing with a friend near the Southern depot when he saw Williams across the street staggering as if he were drunk. He was acquainted with the negro, it is said, and told his friend he was going over to persuade Williams to go home be fore he was locked up. He went to the negro, witnesses say, and caught him by the arm urging him to go home before ne was arrested for being drunk. The negro apparently became angry with the white man for interfering with him and attempted to strike him, but Hall caught his arm The negro then, it is said, reached in his pocket and drew forth a knife, which Hall wrenched from him. The negro pulled out another knife, which Hall also wrenched from him and started across the street to leave him According to witnesses, the negro followed Hall and asked the latter to ing at least.
