FOX HUNTING IN SCOTLAND.

(Laurinburg Exchange.)

Fox hunting is getting to be quite a fad hereabouts and almost every night one or more is captured. Early Monday morning Mr. E. L. Tillman went out for a chase and about five o'clock struck a trail that led the dogs a lively run for three hours. The fox was finally caught and it so happened that Mr. Tillman and others were close by when the dogs ran it down and the animal was caught unhurt and brought to town.

"BATTLE OF NEWTON."

(Newton Enterprise.)

There was a pitched battle Saturday afternoon in the street near the Newton Cotton Mill in which a dozen men and boys, more or less, were engaged. Knives, sticks and bottles figured in the fray but only one person was hurt. Mr. John Sigmon, who received a slight knife wound. Most of the combatants failed to turn up at the trial Tuesday morning. John Sigmon and Quint Aope were tried and fined ten dollars each and costs.

A bachelor's idea of real misery is being left alone with a noisy baby.

BUILDERS OF CHARACTERISTIC HOMES

Yes, Susan, We're The Cheese

We can't Tango, don't golf, a mighty poor hand at Bridge, but, if you want to start on the great highway to human happiness and win, you want to hitch your pocketbook to Ed Keesler's chariot, the Mutual Billy Malone.

YOU'VE GOT TO HAVE MONEY,

some money, a little money, to be even a little account in this old world. That sounds cold and "crool", but it's true, and why not? The fellow that's worth a hill of beans has a little something any old time. If you haven't a stake, you're not in the game, and you deserve your fate. True, for if you're half a man in this town you can soon have something through the Mutual.

I'VE GOT NO SYMPATHY

with a beggar, a howler, a no-account cuss in this neck of the woods, for it's usually his own fault if he's down and out.

WE'VE GOT THE MEANS

to make men and women who count for something in this old burg, but you can't expect to sit supinely still and have the golden fruit forced upon you.

NOW, THE NEW SERIES

is open, and the mourners are especially invited and urged to come in, and come any old day, but, if you don't do it, don't try to get ahead while we offer the way, don't hang around my apple tree and beg the fruit I've had to dig for, even though I enjoyed the sport.
