

OLD LADIES' HOME WAS ACCEPTED

Building Received Yesterday Afternoon by Board of Managers from Contractor J. A. Newton—Notable Event in Life of Belmont, Northern Suburb of the City—A Splendid Building.

Next to the opening of the public schools some years ago, Belmont, one of Charlotte's best suburbs to the north, yesterday witnessed its most notable event—the receiving by the board of managers of the Old Ladies' Home. The hour was set for 4 o'clock.

The Home is the former public school, and sits "on a hill" to give light and comfort and invitation to the aged woman who knoweth no fireside of her own. To receive the building from the contractor, Mr. J. A. Newton, the officers, board of management, and advisory board met at the Home yesterday together with a score or more of friends interested in the cause, and a larger part of the population of Belmont. A line of automobiles and carriages directed the stranger to the Home. Before the formal presentation of the building by Contractor Newton, and the formal acceptance by Mr. Heriot Clarkson representing the management, the visitors went over and through the building from roof to cellar.

A large square building of 12 big rooms, the remodeling of the house had taken no inch from the dimensions, but added thereunto a sun parlor, a promenade roof which is continuous around the second story; steam heat, electric lights, bath and every other convenience.

In the basement is an enormous kitchen with all things necessary for comfort; a laundry with stationary tubs, coal house, etc. On the first floor beside several bed rooms is a big cheery living room with fire-place and four windows. In rear of this is the dining room, also large and convenient in arrangement. A wide hall extends through the building. The exterior and view are fine, and the situation ideal. Immediately in rear of the building is the old Phifer spring, the dividing line between the Phifer and Orr property in former years.

Many and general were the felicitations upon the completion of the house, Contractor Newton was commended for his fine work, the paint, yelow with brown as contrast—and everybody was happy and congratulatory over the finishing of the building. The remodeling will cost about $9,000. The next thing is the furnishing. To this task the managers bend to the car, asking the help—at the banquet tomorrow and at the cabaret supper—April—of the public.

"TRUSTING IN GOD" BISHOP KILGO'S MORNING THEME

Bishop Kilgo at 11 o'clock this morning delivered another of his series of sermons. The church was filled with an appreciative audience.

The sermon was based on the 125th Psalm, the subject being "Trusting in God." The bishop in opening stated that this Psalm which he was going to read was one which he had used on many occasions. It was seemingly addressed to young converts particularly.

"The first thing to be considered," said the bishop, "was man's willingness to trust. That trust was essential to every life. No man can say he is lacking in trust. That the audience if it were lacking in trust would not be in their seats at this time."

"It is not the difficulty found in trusting, but in having the right object of our trust. A great difficulty Christians found was to get everything out of their life but God and him alone. They would persist in grouping things around Christ."

"Satan will always be against fanaticism or great zeal. He can, thus, sometimes keep us from having God before us. You will notice he does not warn against fanaticism for evil."

"The campaigns which are some times conducted in churches where great publicity is given to the events will work harm. Some churches start a campaign, employ a big choir and get a man, expect in drawing crowds to conduct the meetings and construct a wall between them and Christ."

"There is great danger in a Christian trying to get influence. They divide their trust between God and man; Trusting in worldly things can, also, put a wall between you and God. I know men who are working themselves harm by putting too much trust in the saints."

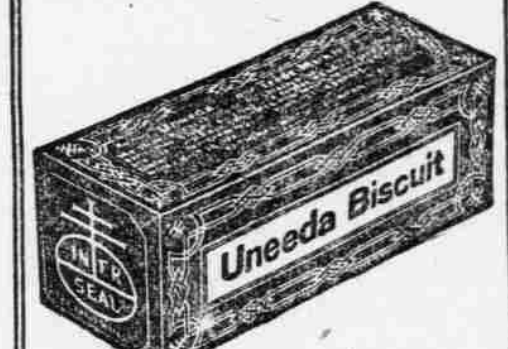

"Those who sometimes feel that they can not live acceptably to God, the bishop exhorted to remember always that the pardoning God is a keeping God and through trusting Him they can keep his presence. But he warned them against trusting theories, trusting the church, trusting themselves and mistaking that for their trust in God. "Anybody here got a compound of 60 trust in God, 10 per cent trust in self, 10 per cent trust in theories and the balance nonsense? If you have done it out and get an unmitigated trust in God."

His sermon tonight especially for young men, with the general public invited of course, Bishop Kilgo will preach. Bishop Kilgo was president of Trinity College for more than 15 years and his experience with young men has been to give him a broad knowledge of and sympathy for them. The morning service Saturday will be particularly for children, the general public being invited to this service also.

UNITED LENTEN SERVICES, THIS WEEK AND NEXT WEEK

The speakers at the United Lenten Services this week have been Rev. Frances M. Osborne, and Rev. Robert L. Patterson, and on Saturday a repetition of the plan which was carried out two weeks ago will be adopted, in order that the boys and girls, as well as the grown people, may see the masterpieces of sacred art, which are being exhibited at these services at the Piedmont theater.

Fifty in all, with descriptive Bible readings, will be thrown on the screen. These will portray the life of Jesus Christ from infancy to His crucifixion. In addition to the pictures shown two weeks ago, a dozen new ones, setting forth of Passion, will be used. New selections of hymns have also been secured.

Next week, these services will be under the auspices of the Bible Institute and Mrs. Chafer and Scofield will make the addresses. The services are daily at 12:30 and close promptly at 1.

WELL KNOWN MEN HELD IN SALISBURY FOR CAR ROBBERY

Special to The News. Salisbury, March 20.—A trial which attracted considerable attention yesterday in Judge Kluttz's court was the preliminary hearing of Howard Jones and Dr. L. Beasley charged with being implicated in car robbing from the Southern Railway. Both are well known men in East Spencer, Beasley having been formerly a deputy sheriff. The alleged robbery occurred the same night a dwelling house near the railroad was destroyed by fire and the contention is that the goods were not wanted were burned with the building. About $700 worth of goods were taken from the car. Beasley and Jones were held for May term of court in $500 bonds.

"SMASHING VICE TRUST" DRAWS WELL-SCENES OF HUMAN INTEREST

"Smashing the Vice Trust," a moving picture representation of the wives and ways of the "white slaver," together with the dramatic incidents in connection with the breaking up of the "trust" by District Attorney Whitman and his associates in New York, is the subject of a highly interesting exhibition at the Academy of Music the last three days of this week. For a convincing and instructive depiction of the subject it would be hard to find anything more striking. The scenes must be very true to life. The subject is given in six parts. District Attorney Whitman, who has gained so much fame since he prosecuted Chas. Becker, the New York police lieutenant for instigating the death of the gambler Herman Rosenthal and his accomplices and for numerous spectacular prosecutions since that time, is shown at work in his office and actively engaged in smashing the "trust." There is very little of the objectionable features that have made some de-claim against the presentation of the picture. The situations are so delicately handled that the most fastidious taste need not be shocked.

ASK IMPEACHMENT OF JAPANESE CABINET.

Tokio, Japan, March 20.—Impeachment of the Japanese cabinet on account of the recent naval scandals in connection with the receipt of illicit commissions by naval officers was asked today in an address to the throne introduced in the chamber of deputies by the opposition parties. The address declares that the "scandals are a stain on the newly-begun reign of the emperor, and are harmful to the prestige of the Japanese navy both at home and abroad."

Portsmouth, O., March 20.—The joint council of the United Shoe Workers of America called a strike today in the factories operated by the Shelby, Drew and Excelsior Companies in this city. The joint council met after the abrogation by the manufacturers of the working agreement between the employers and employees and state industrial commission which resulted in a settlement of a recent strike affecting the same companies.

Would Stamp Out Typhoid Among Seamen

Washington, March 20.—Surgeon General Blue of the public health service today wrote to ship managers and masters calling attention to prevalence of typhoid fever among seamen of American merchant vessels and urging co-operation to stamp out the disease. He presents statistics to show there were admitted to the marine hospitals during the year ending last June 392 cases of typhoid fever among the personnel of the merchant marine in addition to many others treated at public hospitals and at home. These 392 cases, according to Dr. Blue, represent in the aggregate a loss of 80 years in actual working time of the seamen and of $44,000 in wages, in terms of dollars and cents alone," he says, "this is a rather heavy price to pay for an entirely preventable disease." The surgeon general strongly urges that all shipping interests recommend and encourage their seamen to immunize themselves against infection.

SENATOR PHARR NOT TO RUN AGAIN, BUT MR. JUSTICE WILL

Senator Neill H. Pharr, who has served Mecklenburg county in the state senate for five terms—1903, 1907, 1909, 1911 and 1913—will not be a candidate for re-election to that position, he announced to a reporter for The News today. At the same time Mr. A. B. Justice announces that he will be a candidate for the place.

Mr. Pharr's term of service constitutes one of the longest in the recent history of the county and it is regretted by many of his friends that he has declined to be in the race again. He served as president of the senate during the last two terms and in every way reflected lustre on the county he represented and was one of the most conspicuous figures there, according to all who are familiar with the working of the body.

Mr. Justice has been mentioned for both the senate and the lower house during the past few weeks, as well as chairman of the county democratic executive committee, which will meet tomorrow to elect a chairman and a secretary and appoint a date for the county primary. Mr. Justice has been a member of the successful law firm of McIninch & Justice since the formation in the city and has taken an active interest in all public questions. He has been attorney for the local Merchants' Association for eleven years. He took a very active part in the recent freight rate fight which has ended victoriously. It is claimed for him that he is not only well fitted by reason of his familiarity with public events and his admitted skill as a parliamentarian, but that he possesses qualities that ought to make him a candidate acceptable to every class of voters.

The name of Mr. John A. McRae has also been mentioned for the state senate. So has that of Mr. Chase Brenizer, city attorney. Mr. McRae has also been suggested for the lower house. Neither Mr. Brenizer nor Mr. McRae have said definitely whether they will be candidates or not. It is well known, however, that they have both been urged to enter the race and they each have the matter under advisement. Mr. McRae served as a member of the house of representatives from Anson county once and has always taken a leading part in all public questions of a local nature, as well as those of state and nation. He was also city attorney for a time. Mr. Brenizer is recognized as one of the foremost members of the local bar and has been city attorney for both terms of Dr. Bland's two administrations. His ready grasp of the essentials of a question and the keenness and penetration of his intellect, as well as his parliamentary ability, it is claimed by his friends, make him a likely candidate for the place.
