Arrangements for the arrival of the Montana surpass, in naval and military pomp, anything since the return of the Maine dead. President Wilson, if possible, Secretary of the Navy Danels, Secretary of War Garrison, Assistant Secretary of the Navy Roosevelt and Assistant Secretary of War Breckinridge, will represent the government in the services.

At sea, off the Delaware breakwater, three giant dreadnaughts, the Iowa, Indiana and Massachusetts will meet the Montana and act as an escort of honor to New York. The three convoys will sail from the Philadelphia navy yard. Not the least impressive of the ceremonies will be the scene at sea when the Montana, with her burden of death, is joined by her escorts.
