along with your next door neighbor.

Open YOUR eyes, Owen, or get left behind. There is a hell of a lot to do regarding human rights, but Charlotte's people are some of the most open-minded you will find anywhere.

Charlotte

Dear Editor,
Dateline, UNCC, Friday, January 9, 1970: northeast lounge of the Union; a reception was held in honor of the Chakett Club of Chi Phi as a colony of Chi Phi National Social Fraternity. Those in attendance were Chancellor Dean Colvard, Dr. Bonnie Cone, Dean Donald McKay...

Dateline, UNCC, Thursday, January 15, 1970: Parquet Room, a memorial service to the Reverend Doctor Martin Luther King, Junior and to initiate action to proclaim January 15 a National "Working Holiday" in order that we might examine the role of the individual, the university, and local government in bringing about Peace; working to eradicate Hunger; working for the expulsion of Racism from our land and hearts. Those in attendance were Dean Donald McKay, Bill Billups.

Thank you kindly,
Humphrey Cummings

News Editor:
Your "The City Sleeps" EDITORIAL (?) puts you in the class of the lowest type of bigot. You sound like a human hater.

I know it would be asking too much of you to half-way open your mind to the fact that Charlotte has done more than 90% of the Northern schools to have open schools and freedom of choice.

So half of the whites or maybe more don't want their kids to go to school with blacks. So what? These same people at least resolve themselves to do what is right. They know it is in the interest of a human begin to give everyone an equal shake.

Owen, don't lower the dignity of most of these people who oppose this BUSING. These people are NOT racist. They oppose something that is 100% wrong. I say this with a complete open mind.

"BULLSHIT" Owen. If the city sleeps, you're dead.

I don't know if you are red, black, or white, but I'll bet you are prejudiced. I'll bet you are a racist. If being the News Editor of the JOURNAL is any indication of the intelligence of the average student in your school, I pity the average.

You want to be a civil rights hero? I wonder if you can get rambled on but was drown out by the tolling of the bells.... Charlotte, 2070.... By a voice vote, control and operation of the city's ambulance service was turned over to the Boy Scouts of America by the City Council. Reportedly, no ambulance would be manned except by scouts with an advanced merit badge in first aid. The only major problem appears to be finding Boy Scouts old enough to drive, but the Council quickly countered that by stating, "We've given the Chamber of Commerce the joy of preparing a report on that matter."

...Mecklenburg County, 2070.... Two pupils, ages eighty-five and eighty-nine respectively, graduated today from Chicken Private High School after enrolling in 1970 to avoid busing to desegregated public schools. One of the students commented from his wheel chair, "The real credit for this educational milestone goes to my parents and their desire to protect me from that long bus ride across town." The two new graduates immediately boarded a bus for the Concerned Parents Association Home for Aged School Graduates, located near Death Valley, California.
