

Elections: Maybe a last time emergency media board

In an emergency meeting Tuesday, the media voted to put Susanne Dean in the running, for the post of Journal editor.

Ms. Dean decided last week to seek the post, but was turned down by the elections board last Friday when she asked them to put her name on the ballot. The Board ruled that she must take her case to the Media Board.

A Media Board meeting was called for Monday, April 9, but when only two people showed up at the meeting an emergency session was called for Tuesday.

Steve Sox was elected Acting Chairman, and spoke against the move by Ms. Dean. Sox said that he felt she should not be able to come in at this late a date and announce her intentions of running.

David Freeman, proxying, said that Ms. Dean probably had a case if she wanted to pursue the matter to the Student Superior Court and that is this were the case the elections could drag on possibly through the fall.

The vote was four to zero, with two abstentions.
