THE YULE TIDE SEASON

Upon us once again is the season of the year that is closest to the hearts of us all. Yes, Christmas is just around the corner.

We, the staff of the Collegian, feel as if we owe many thanks to all of our readers. It has been a wonderful privilege to publish the Charlotte Collegian for you this quarter.

Also at this time of the year I think it appropriate to point out a couple of unsung heroines. First, let us acknowledge the fine job Kanela Maydanis has done for us as Business Manager of the paper. Kanela's drive has been a relentless one and we are all very proud of the job she is doing.

Margaret Faulkenberg is also one young lady that is going to be missed terribly down here at C. C. next quarter. Margaret has been our gossip column writer this year and needless to say she has done a great job. Margaret finishes up down here at C. C. this quarter and she will be missed by all of us.

Last, but certainly far from least, is Patsy Hartsell. You probably haven't seen Patsy's name in the paper a single time this year, but believe me without her we wouldn't ever have a newspaper. We are proud to say that Patsy will officially become a member of our staff next quarter.

Thanks to all of you for helping with this year's "Charlotte Collegian." Here's wishing each and every one of you a very Merry Christmas and a prosperous New Year.

EXAMS

Well, we've been through about three months of schooling, and now it is time to see how much we've learned.

This, man, is the week that none of us have been waiting for. This is the week of final fall quarter exams down here at Charlotte College.

As we look back over these three months we are tempted to second guess a little bit. No doubt this writer can think of many chances that he muffed during this quarter. Nevertheless, all of this is history and we have next quarter to look forward to.

I believe that all the newcomers at Charlotte College will agree with us oldtimers when we say that to pass at C. C. you have got to study and study hard.

After exams we have two weeks of leisure before we start back in January. Here's hoping all of you have a big Christmas and Santa, I'm sure, will bring you nothing but straight "A's."

FINANCIAL REPORT — DECEMBER, 1954

About the first of October, the Student Council approved a budget for this quarter totaling $575.00.

$225.00 was allotted to the newspaper, $225.00 to the Social Committee for the Hallowe'en Dance and for the Christmas Dance. The Publicity Committee was granted $25.00 and the Athletic Committee was allotted $100.00.

By December 3, the newspaper had spent $149.20 with one issue of the paper yet to be published and to be paid for. The Social Committee has spent $141.89 with the Christmas Dance yet to be paid for also. However, the Council later (since October) allocated $25.00 to the Social Committee in addition to the original $225.00. The Athletic Committee has spent $99.17 so far. It is highly possible that more money will have to be allocated to them because only part of the new uniforms have been paid for ($61.90 for uniforms so far) and two more out-of-town games have been scheduled to be played this quarter.

We have on hand now a total of $1137.03, with $693.30 of this belonging to the Annual, leaving $443.73 for the remaining expenses of the quarter.

FRESHMAN CLASS ORGANIZED

November 4 was election day at C. C. for the Freshman Class officers. Running were: Frank Robinson and Jerry Crocker for President, David Sherer and Bobby Gregg for Vice-President, Martha Voyles and Pat Faulkner for Secretary-Treasurer. The votes were counted and the winners were David Sherer, Vice-President, and Martha Voyles, Secretary-Treasurer. The decision for President was not quite as simple as that. There had to be a run-off between Frank Robinson and Jerry Crocker. The count was close, but Frank came out on top to be the Freshman Class President for 1954-55.

The officers are now busy setting up committees and looking for willing and capable committee chairmen. If you know anyone who you think would make a dependable chairman please contact any of the above officers and submit your suggestion. We need all the help we can get in appointing these chairmen.

The Freshman Class now has an advisor. I'm sure that you all will be glad to learn that Miss Mary Denny has consented to advise us during our trials and tribulations.

This year we want everyone to join us in making this year the biggest and finest yet in the history of Charlotte College. In order to do this we must all participate in as many activities as possible. These activities include basketball games as well as dances and other social affairs. We have several Freshmen on the team and we should support our fellow classmates. If you've ever wondered why an affair was a flop, you can usually pin it down to the people who weren't there. Let's not let this happen to us. Let's all participate and make everything we do this year a whopping success so we can know that we had a big part in making it the success it was.

FUTURE TEACHERS ENTERTAINED

Future teachers from Queens and Charlotte Colleges were entertained by the Kappa Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma Society at tea on Saturday afternoon, December 11 at the home of Miss Jeanne Whisnant.

Charlotte College students who attended were Louella Robinson, Margaret Falkenberg, Mrs. Gwyn Rowe, Patsy Hartsell, Joanne Hovis, Kanela Maydanis, June Sherill, and Martha Voyles.

Mrs. Edith F. Wingham of our Charlotte College faculty is the President of the local chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma, the National Honor Society of Women Educators.

WED AT YORK

Charlotte College students and faculty were pleased and surprised by the recent announcement of the marriage of its acting president, Donald Nalle Payne, and Peggy Joyce Almond on Saturday evening, November 27 at York, South Carolina.

The bride was graduated from Hartsell High School in Concord in 1953 and attended Appalachian State Teachers College. The bridegroom was graduated from Harding High School in 1948, spent two years in the armed services and entered Charlotte College in the fall of 1952. He has been one of the most diligent and enthusiastic supporters of the college, serving as chairman of the social committee, a member of the student council, and is now carrying the duties and responsibilities of the president of the student body. The young couple are making their home at 3610 Kentucky Avenue. Everyone wishes Don and Peggy a very happy future together.

WINTER REGISTRATION SET

Registration for the winter quarter of Charlotte College will be held on Monday, January 3, from nine until seven o'clock in the evening at Central High School building. Regular class work will begin on Tuesday, January 4 at four o'clock. All classes are held in the Central building in the evenings from four until ten o'clock, Monday through Friday.

In the general college work, two-year courses in all major fields are being offered. For freshmen wishing to begin their college work at this time, beginning classes are scheduled in English, mathematics, physics, social science, zoology, and geography.

In addition to the general courses, the college is offering a wide variety of classes in adult education in the following fields: business education classes in shorthand and typewriting; ceramics and painting; conversational French; conversational Spanish; woodworking; principles of investment securities; blueprint reading; and reading improvement.
