

SOPHOMORE ELECTION

Neither Jimmy Latane nor Wayne Therrell won a majority of the original ballot for vice president. They, too, wound up in a run-off with Latane barely edging out Therrell.

Elected on the first ticket as Sophomore Class secretary-treasurer was Vivian White.

Sophomore Class representatives who were seated after the first vote were Bobby Barbee, Pat Daniels, David Griehsbach, Laura Harris and Jerry Owens.

Sigma Tau Sigma Holds Dinner Meeting

Sigma Tau Sigma, national social science honor society, accepted 16 new members during an initiation dinner at the Stork Restaurant on Kings Drive, Sunday, May 22.

After an excellent steak dinner, members and guests of the fraternity enjoyed an informal talk by the director of Charlotte College, Miss Bonnie Cone, on the progress and plans of Charlotte College.

Miss Cone presented her talk in the form of a hypothetical conducted tour of the first two buildings which will be built. She used the latest sketches and floor plans of the buildings and gave her audience an excellent word-picture of classrooms, offices, and utilities.

James Russell LaRoach, president of the Charlotte College chapter of Sigma Tau Sigma, speaking for the society, presented the Charlotte College Library with two books. The books, "Calhoun Basic Documents And The Land Called Chicora" and "The Carolinas Under Spanish Rule," were presented in honor and memory of Miss Cone's mother, Mrs. Addie Hartes Cone.

After the dinner meeting, a business meeting was conducted during which the following new officers for the coming year were elected:

Robert Lee Blackwelder, president; Ester Ross Erwin, vice president; Paul Alexander Shinn, treasurer; and Martha Louise Moore, secretary.

New members accepting invitations to join Sigma Tau Sigma were: Julian Emmett Allen, Wayne Harold Allen, Robert Lee Blackwelder, Trula Sutton Booth, Richard Daniel Buckley, Russell Ernest Chappell, Helen Kay Combs, James Fraser Cornell, Jr., Linda Leete Harris, Willie Victor Harwell, Jr., Thomas Avery McNeely, Bobby Gene Mills, Kenneth Wayne Mulis, Paul Alexander Shinn, Howard Wayne Therrell, and Amzie Reid Wentz.

Sigma Lambda Chi Awards Scholarship

By DEAN GRIER STRATHDEE
Each year Sigma Lambda Chi Fraternity of Charlotte College awards to an entering freshman a scholarship of $100.

The Sigma Lambda Chi Scholarship was begun in 1951. The very first award enabled a deserving young man, Michel Palmer, to begin his college career. Mr. Palmer is now a teacher at Lenoir High School and is working on a master's degree in English at Chapel Hill.

This year, the Sigma Lambda Chi Scholarship is presented to Fitzhugh Lee Austin, II, a graduating senior at Garinger High School. Mr. Austin has maintained a high scholastic average in high school and will enter CC in the fall quarter of 1960 to study engineering.

Sigma Lambda Chi promotes several projects during the school term to earn funds for this scholarship.

The brothers wish to thank all those who patronize their projects this year.

SPRING DANCE

Among those attending the C C spring dance were: (foreground) Howard Payne and Jane Taylor, (background) Jere Thomas and Ann Hilton.

By ANN HILTON

"One-two cha cha cha," exclaimed one of Charlotte College's students at its annual Spring dance, Saturday, May 21.

The Charlotte Hotel Ballroom was arrayed with formals and dinner jackets and the Clemson Junglers played from 9 p. m. to 1 a. m. The rhythmic music ranged from "moonlight serenades" to Latin American interpretations.

The theme "Colonial Ball" was carried throughout the ballroom. The tables were decorated with miniature umbrellas. To complete the theme, everyone had a "ball."

Refreshments of cookies and punch were served during the break at 11 p. m.

As the last song ended, sighs of "Boy, do my feet hurt!" were chanted with last goodbyes.

Sigma Lambda Chi Initiates 5

By GARY IDOL

Sigma Lambda Chi fraternity initiated five new members at a meeting held May 18 at the home of Al Palmer. Ending a period of pledgedship, Roy Hartis, Jimmy Latane, Bill Hicks, Eddie Blanton and Ken Miller were accepted into full membership.

Invitations are extended to prospective members each quarter. These pledges are interviewed by the fraternity and voted on in secret ballot by what is known as a "black ball" vote.

Admission to the fraternity is limited to those men who receive unanimous approval. After preliminary admission, pledges must go through a week of initiation.

During this week they must conduct themselves according to rules and must carry a sign which identifies them as a "worm." The men are subjected to various episodes of a comical nature known only to the fraternity.

The Sigma Lambda Chi is proud to announce these new members and hope to have an even more successful year during the 1960-61 school year.

Tell the truth and laugh and nobody will believe you.

Phi Theta Kappa Awards Scholarship

By MARTHA MOORE

Christian Curtis Collins, a senior at Garinger High School, will receive the first scholarship awarded by the Iota Lambda Chapter of Phi Theta Kappa.

Funds for the scholarship were raised by a car wash sponsored by the group May 7.

The Chapter announced that the car wash was a financial success and wishes to thank all who patronized it.

The Iota Lambda Chapter of Phi Theta Kappa initiated four new members Sunday, May 1. They are: William Pike Davis, James William Grant, Lloyd Clifford Torrence, and Daniel Collins.

Parnassian

By JERRY RICH

The spring quarter edition of the Parnassian is due out soon. Editor Jerry Rich said the Writer's Club magazine will be a 12-page publication along the lines of the last issue.

"We hope to make this the best literary effort this school has seen since its beginning," Rich said.

New members invited to join the club this year are Vivian White, Jerry Owens, Jere Thomas and Jim Cornell. Officers for next year had not been announced at press time.
