OUR FOUR NEW SISTERS.

The recent action of Congress assures the admission of four new States to the Union at an early day, thus making a sisterhood of 42. The new States are North and South Dakota, Washington and Mon- dispose of these cases ? tana.

There is no doubt that these new States would have been admitted some time ago, had it not been for the peculiar political status of the country. The fact that the popular tion of these territories is largely Republican was very much against their admission. It would have been a wonderful exhibition of patriotism if these territories had been admitted by a Democratic House of Representatives, when they knew that by so doing they practically signed the death warrant of the National Democratic party, And tho their admission is acceded to now by a Democratic House, it may be said that they merely do so with a sense that there is nothing to lose, as control of the National Government is practically lost to them for four farmers.
