them. With that machine that makes sumption. 25,000 pressed brick per day, R. A. depot brick yard, from which bricks a celebration. for Patterson's new store and the Cannon factory addition were obtained. On Tuesday evening he moved again, Doctor. his machinery to Forest Hill, where he assists the Messrs. Cecil in making bricks for the bag factory.

church in this place, has received a ternoon at 5 o'clock. call to the pastorate of several churches near Durham. We are glad that Mr. Newton has decided to remain with us and continue his labors with the good people whom he has so acceptably served for more than a year. His brother, Rev. C. C. Newton, of Durham, will at an early day go as missionary to Africa.

Short Hay Crop. The "first cutting" will prove a small one in the hay business in this county. A trip into the country a few days ago revealed to us the fact that many meadows and clover-grass have a short and considerably dried coat of grass and clover. Our peoand more every year, and this partial him yet. failure will evidently dampen the bear a good crop of hav.

The Owner Found.

made in last week's STANDARD, has of the Concord Female Academy been claimed. This money, three were dispensed with. twenty-dollar bills, was rolled towhen finding it, called his father, Charlotte post-office. Stanly county, came in and proved car-load of mowers. Ephraim Carter deserves no honor for reporting his find, but wouldn't this country be a glorious one if all the young men were of Ephraim's

A Short Speech. A nicely-dressed gentleman, with a "good face on him," stopping at the St. Cloud last week, made quite a short speech at the Cannon factory Thursday night. In the midst of his oration (soliciting hands to go to Tennessee to work in a mill) Mr. J. W. Cannon, the secretary and treasurer of the company, walked in. It was not long until the silver-tongued acted. orator stepped down from his mounted position and, taking to his heels, was soon lost in the shadows of the Thursday in No. 5. An old fashion woods near by.

The operators at the factory, of of a host of friends. course, are satisfied with their situation, and listened to this man only Rev. Mr. Price's preaching, last week, through mere respect.

Deaths. Last Friday, at her home in No. 4 foreign missionaries. tis, died. Mrs. Furr was aged thir- Schools in Charlotte Monday night. ty-three years, nine months and Mr. John M. Walker, a local reporter band and four children. Her re- assistant. preaching the funeral.

Coleman, of this place, breathed her Hall, at 3 o'clock. Business of imlast. She was about fifty-five years portance. old. For a number of years she had been a great sufferer from can- Forest Hill now. Two brick macer. Her remains were interred in chines are in operation, and already the Presbyterian graveyard on Sun-the foundations for forty cottages day, Rev. Mr. Page conducting the have been built. It looks like a funeral. city on a hill.

Mr. Charles Allen Caldwell, of this place, died Wednesday last about noon, in the sixty-fourth year of his the Road Law, and much of our age. He had been seriously sick for several weeks, and his death had been expected for some time. He was stricken with paralysis about two years ago, and had never fully recovered. The body was buried at Back Creek church, Mecklenburg county, yesterday, of which church been a member. The remains were road. No one hurt. accompanied to their last restingplace by a delegation from Stokes has a novel way of foretelling events

1862, and was engaged in merchan- will not happen. This is of fredising until about 1870, and since quent occurence, too. that time has been a contractor. He -Salisbury had a big hail storm

SHORT LOCALS

-Yesterday was Ascension Day. -There are 1.816 Alliances in he State

-The County Commissioners meet next Monday. -The Concord Male Academy

closes to-day. -Early May wheat and some oats are being cut.

-The usual prevalence of summer complaints is reported. -Mr. Pearson, the evangelist, is doing a big work in Greensboro. tion to the consideration of other -The bumble-bee is having a matters that may be brought before hard time of it-cotton so small.

-Mr. John Kirksey, of No. 3 township, died last Monday of con-

Brown has completed his work at the up to Salisbury yesterday to join in country being represented, ing letter. Let us hear from you has established an office at the St.

Cloud Hotel office. -There will be preaching at the Rev. J. D. Newton, of the Baptist Baptist church on next Sunday af-

-Misses Lilly Long, Kate Ship and Emma Hall, Charlotte teachers, have gone to Europe. -Mr. C. G. Montgomery has been suffering for several days with a severe boil in his throat. -Vaughan Brothers have opened a new candy store in the room formerly occupied by THE STANDARD.

ship, called upon us last week. His have been crowned with most splen- move in and take possession. Guess ple are taking to grass raising more eighty-four years rest lightly upon did success.

-The force on the street railway enthusiasm of many, but with a are doing some heavy work. They sick list. good season these same lands will yet are now near the residence of Mr. G. G. Richmond.

-Owing to the death of Mary The money, of which a note was Payne, the commencement exercises

-It is said that Mr. Mark Morrigether and found in Mr. R. A. Car- son, formerly with Hoover, Lore & ter's store by his son Ephraim, who, Co., is to be the delivery clerk in the who at once was satisfied that it be- Notwithstanding the injurious longed to some one else. Last Tues- effects of dry weather, Yorke & day Mr. George W. Whitley, of Wadsworth have ordered their second his property. Stanly county farmers -In our editorial last week, by a surely have money. By the way "lapsus penna," we were made to say a "sheep in wolf's clothing," instead of vice versa.

-Our local prophets expected great things of the change of the moon on the 29th in bringing rain. It didn't come. What next?

-One of the merits of the electric lights, says a faithful, student, is, "they relieve me of the annoy- brother-in-law, Esq. R. W. Allison.

ance of bugs and candle flies." -The stockholders of the Concord Female Academy will meet at W. M. Smith's office next Monday, Business of importance will be trans-

-Mr. W. E. Best and Miss Florence Brantly were married last it is said that three of our young old Love. ladies have offered themselves as township, Mrs. Burt Furr. after a -Prof. A. Graham was re-elected short illness with fever and bronchi- Superintendent of the Graded mains were buried at Poplar Tent -We are requested by the presion Saturday, Rev. M. V. Sherrill dent, John Fink, to announce that the Hose and Reel Company will Last Sunday morning Mrs. Monroe meet next Tuesday night, in Town Fifteen Thousand.

-There is considerable life about

-We surrender much of our editorial space to the publication of local page to county correspondence, which we think to be of special interest to our readers.

-Masters Gus Thies and Earle Brown had quite an experience last ed near here would prove paying in- emphatically declares that he heard we been so forcibly impressed with Saturday. The horse they were vestments. driving ran away, spilling them in a Mr. Caldwell had for many years promischous heap on the side of the Required a Gan.

-One of our prominent citizens Lodge, A., F. and A. M., of Concord. -by dreams. If he dreams a thing Mr. Caldwell moved to Concord in happens, that is a sure sign that it was well and favorably known as on Sunday. Window glass suffered animal, he gave the bull the full summer; one intends to walk through the mountains to Knoxville, Tenn.

-As we go to press the indica- Hotel Arrivals. ions are that we will have a refresh-

-Messrs. J. P. Allison, McNinch, John Leslie, Dolph Lentz and Robert Keistler accompanied Mr. Payne to H. H. Bartlett, R. C. Inompson, day due.
M. H. Auston, C. Parks, J. Oppenheimer, L. Frayser, C. E. Wyer, J.

table. It contains a handsome steel engraving of the building and Witlpen.

W. J. Sherwood, W. H. Sloanon, I. Shound, I.

-D. S. Harmon, a graduate of 30th, 1889: several towns of North Carolina.

-The young gentlemen of our town will do a handsome thing next CORRESPONDENCE Monday evening in giving a banquet at the St. Cloud complimentary to the young ladies who have been with us for nearly a year-Miss Lina Mc- just at this time-Donald, Misses Lillian and Abbie STANDARD returns thanks for an to your town-

-Rev. S. S. Rahn, a former Pro- house last Sunday night. He will fessor of Latin in North Carolina soon organize a church here. -Charlotte is taking steps for a College, Mt. Pleasant, having rebig exposition this fail. It is a good signed the charge at Sandy Run, will deliver the literary address idea and we wish them much success. S. C., will, in July, assume the duties Wednesday of commencement; Rev. -The newly appointed magistrates of pastor of the Lutheran church J. C. Rowe, our former pastor, will lots, which promised bountiful crops, a few days yet in which to qualify. many friends in this county who

Mr. John C. Leslie has been on the ton, was here Tuseday.

Wednesday from Washington. Miss Julia Magruder, the author- month or two.

ess, is visiting at Mr. R. E. Gibson's. Mr. W. E. Loesser, of Charlotte, will open a jewelry business here in a few days.

Mr. J. M. Moore, who has been was here last Monday. quite sick for the past week, is able to be about again.

Miss Hattie Davidson, of Hope- with L. J. Foil. well, Mecklenburg county, is visiting Miss Isabel Montgomery.

Dr. J. P. Gibson has been missed at his drug store for several dayssickness keeping him confined.

Mr. Chas. Overman, of Charlotte, s spending several days with his "Uncle" Jake Stirewalt, of Mill

Hill, was here Wednesday. Though growing old he is active and full of business.

Miss Orilla Bost returned from Newton Saturday last, where she had remind him of the head-lights of a been visiting relatives. She was accompanied by her brother.

Mr. Moses A. Foil, son of Mr. "belling" expressed the best wishes Edmond Foil, of Mt. Pleasant, passed and a very pleasant time. through Monday from Catawba Col--As one of the good results of lege, where he graduated last week. He will read medicine.

J. "Noon" Ingram, whose departure for South America was noted in THE STANDARD several weeks ago, who left for his home last Saturday. "changed his mind" when he got to Charlotte. He is now in Washington tralia. May he succeed. Mr. Ingram knows all about that country, and Mr. Harrison would do himself an honor by appointing Mr. Ingram.

Our mention of the big factory in last week's issue brought to light the fact that for the use of our factories week, so come prepared to keeu cool, will be required per year. This is a feel good. by half, than is sold in this market. With more and other enterprises a market will be created here in which Shimpock and will commence buildcan be sold, to advantage, everything ing in July.

kin, of Mill Hill, had quite a narrow old man and boys. He butted Mr. escape. While doing some work in Tucker down and severely bruised a pasture in which he had his cattle a bull showed fight, and Mr. Rankin, to report that Mr. Tucker is improvknowing the danger and uncertainty ing. of a flat-footed run from the beast,

The following are the arrivals at the St. Cloud Hotel for the week ending May 30th, 1889:

T. R. Bartlett, R. C. Thompson, Winston, where his daughter Mary F. Anderson, J. B. Dawson, C. M. was buried Tuesday.

Thombson, E. C. Grasswick, R. M. —The commencement exercises of Oats, D. S. Harmon, J. G. Neal, J. Y. Hall, V. O. Willis, W. S. Nash, C. S. the Virginia Dare Institute at Caton's Preston, W. J. McNutt, H.W. Butter-Hall last night were very interesting worth, H. J. Leopold, Mrs. Pharr and and entertaining. The final exercises will be held to-night. We hope to give a fuller account of them port. give a fuller account of them next Bell, J. S. Mason, J. B. Sloan, R. S. eek. Young, L. M. Coggin, W. S. Bingham,

—The catalogue of Davidson Col. J. D. Fox, L. S. Flow, J. S. Harris, lege for the year 1888-'89 is on our W. J. Sherwood, W. H. Sloallon, H. Notwithstanding grounds. Ninety-six pupils are en- The following are the arivals at he has had for years. -The colored fire company went rolled-six States and one foreign the Morris House, H. McNamara, proprietor, for the week ending May

-Read Dr. J. W. Moose's interest- the St. Petersburg, Russia, College, Albert Sherrill, M. T. Nesbit, R. W. Pressly, M. H. Walter, H. T. J. Ludwig, Dr. F. M. Henderson, R. F. Cloud Hotel, where he can be con- Peterson, E. S. Shuman, L. M. Cog-—In a few days the telegraph office will be removed into the St. and eye-glasses. The gentleman is M. Cross, W. S. Hartsell, B. M. highly recommended by parties in Weadington, Henry Davis, S. C. Al-

Albemarle is a doubly dry town

Mr. J. R. Elkins and his son Paul Matson and Miss Ella Sechrist. THE left home Saturday for a short visit Rev. John Bennett, of the Ban-

Rev. C. W. Byrd, of Salisbury, wbo have not yet qualified have only in Wytheville, Va. Prof. Rahu nas preach on Tuesday before at 11 -Mr. John Allen, of No. 1 town- will be glad to learn that his labors In a few days the Republican post-master, John R. Burris, will he thinks that fortune, which eluded his grasp last fall, has, though tardy, at length rewarded him-We are soon to have a colored brass band. The Mt. Pleasant ne-

Mr. C. M. Thompson, of Lexing- gross after coming down and showing the Albemarle negroes how they Mr. George W. Patterson returned could blow, succeding in selling them their instruments, which are third hand, to be delivered in a

Mt. Pleasant Items,

Miss Mamie Crawford is having fine case of mumps. Rev. W. R. Brown of Organ church

The town commissioners have had pump put in the public well. Mrs. Luther Lentz and family, of Master Walter Daniels is now sell- come,"

Mt. Holly, passed through town ing tobacco for Gaskill of Salisbury. Rev. Heller, of Grace church, Rowan county, spent Saturday night Mr. Zeke Ketchie, having returned from a visit to Stanly, reports having had a fine time. A certain senior has been very restless for the past week on account of the departure of his "gyrl." Our boys have a new by-word since their visit to Charlotte. It is "has you got any cold beer in the cellar?" We must return our hearty thanks to the Professors of North Carolina College for their faithful services. "Long life to them." Our friend Billy says the eye glasses used by students of this day special freight train. Several of our boys visited Charlotte last Monday. They returned Tuesday, reporting a large crowd The ladies of the seminary will render on Wednesday evening, 5th they won't try to have any fun-inst., at 7½ o'clock, the beautiful cantata, "Queen of the Roses." It is with regret that we chronicle the departure of Mr. A. V. Sherrill, generally known as "Uncle Albert."

H. N. Miller, a student of the college, will remain in our midst nursing an application for an ap-during the summer vacation and twenty-four days. She leaves a hus- of the Chronicle, was elected first pointment, in some capacity, to Aus- teach a school just below Mount Pleasant.

We have been informed that the Rev. J. D. Shirey will preach the baccalaureate sermon. He is a man on every face. The people are drying of more than ordinary talent, and will no doubt deliver a fine sermon. The Ladies Aid Society of the in this place 15,000 bales of cotton feel good yourself and make others big item. It is far more than is The Frick Manufacturing Comraised in the county and even more, pany was organized at this place on last Friday. The company have bought fifteen acres of land in the Lutheran church will furnish re-northern part of town from Dr. A place on Buffalo Creek, known With a growing population, and as "Devil's Hole," is becoming quite the greater part not even having a conspicuous. Last Saturday there were at least twenty boys present. garden of any consequence, it ap- were at least twenty boys present pears that several truck farms start- ed in with his clothes on. He most the chains rattle. On last Monday Timothy Tucker had a vicious bull that became un-Last Saturday Mr. John A. Ran- manageable, and he whipped out the carried to the house. We are glad

The students of the college are called for his gun, and as he kept anxious for school to close. Many giving way before the approaching of them anticipate fine times this Bilesville Items.

Our water works seem to be the

Miss Bessie Sherrill spent Saturday and Sunday with Miss Ada Per- I promised my

We are anticipating having quitea and a drive of seventeen miles gay time on the fourth of July. We through rain and mud brought us to will tell you more anon.

We have never known butter so are being seriously entertained with bad company-tooth-ache.

Strawberries are very plentiful would rejoice.

once had a hardware store in your streams and hundreds of springs of town, died last Sabbath morning pure water. Good wells can be had He was a consistent member of New at from fifteen to fifty feet, and arte-Bethel Evangelical Lutheran church. Uncle Ivy has a remarkable good stand of corn, and as for gardens, they are almost a failure. Procrastination, though a "thief of time," tist church, preached in the court has for once in our life time, proved out the county and who drove the a benefit to many, for it rarely oc- stake in the center for the countycurs that a lazy man is rewarded.

> place on Monday morning. This time a little babe, the son of Mr. Jim Coggins. He died of cholera infantum, and was sick only a few the same disease but has recovered.

> > Clear Creek Items.

Book agents are among us-Frost on the 23rd inst-a big one.

Julius Garmon, Esq., is distilling sassafras roots into oil.

Wheat is excellent but the straw will be short. Oats no good. All who littered their Irish 'potanothing like cherry pie with sugar cool, thus insuring refreshing sleep. Rev. Jenkins continues to warn them to "Flee from the wrath to Uncle Allen said he saw ice on some old slabs just below the mill

The present indications are that the chintz bug crop will be smaller than for several years. There are seven grist mills in two tremely low with the typhoid fever to express our love and respect for her for the past six weeks, is recovering memory, be it rapidly. People about here get sick from them till they can't eat any more-The merchants have gobbled in about all the little pocket change in the country, and will do a monstrous business through the credit season. A few of our neighbors went to Charlotte the 20th, but most every

Mr. Frank Klontz, of Charlotte, moved into a vacant house near our post-office, but became dissatisfied and returned to Charlotte. He is suffering from rheumatism, and his family are also in bad health-

The refreshing rains which we

Many talk of planting their cotton fields in corn. As there is not a man rain enough. It seems the people have a chance of trying to see if they can't make some corn at home in-dismantled of his usual levity but looks doleful and restless, and has depicted in his face the sad story of disappointment. Never before have the harmony of all created nature. The same principle that infuses the elements of growth and expansion into the tiny blade of grass and brings the whole vegetable kingdom to a state of perfection that is traly him, so much so that he had to be sublime imparts to man a vigor, an increase of joy, and a power to surmount the obstacles to his temporal CORNCRACKER. A northern syndicate has bought 30,000 acres of land in Currituck county, N. C., and on the border of was well and favorably known as on Sunday. Window glass suffered one of Cabarrus' good citizens, and his familiar face will be much missed on our streets. The bereaved family have our kindest sympathies.

On Sunday. Window glass suffered animal, he gave the bull the full benefit of two loads of shot. The summary on Sunday. Window glass suffered animal, he gave the bull the full benefit of two loads of shot. The benefit of two loads of shot. The samultains to Knoxville, Tenn., his former home. We hear that summal, while not at all hurt, allowed animal, the gave the bull the full the mountains to Knoxville, Tenn., his former home. We hear that summal, while not at all hurt, allowed animal, he gave the bull the full the mountains to Knoxville, Tenn., his former home. We hear that summal, while not at all hurt, allowed animal, he gave the bull the full the mountains to Knoxville, Tenn., his former home. Stanly is going to send quite a delegation of students next term; hurtain animal, while not at all hurt, allowed an

Letter from Texas

Springtown, Texas, May 23d, 1889.

I promised my friends that I would let them hear from me when I got Miss Casper has been visiting to Texas, and as it would be impos-Miss Lizzie Culp during the past sible for me to write a letter to each, I take this means of writing to all. At 1 o'clock, A. M., February 26th, I Grove, spent a day or two here the cord, N. C., and on the 28th at 10 A. M. we arrived at Weatherford, Texas, the artesian city, Springtown. This We had a severe frost one night place is in the northeast portion of now in course of construction. Parker county in 1870 had a population of 3,500; now it has 23,500, about one per cent. of which is colored. It has an area of 576,000 acres, about two-fifths of which is covered with timber and three-fifths is prairie. The soil embraces several varieties-the black waxy, the "Brazos red loam," the black sandy, &c. It is adapted to corn, cotton, small grain and all the varieties of vegetables. It is easily cultivated, and there is no necessity for fertilizers in this country, as the soil is from sixarrangements are being made to Mr. Charles Ritchie, the grand-fa- work it on a large scale. The county ther of the young man Ritchie who is very well watered by numerous > sian water at less than one hundred feet, which flows continually. On last Sunday I was called to see a daughter of a gentleman now living who bore the chain in surveying seat, Weatherford, which has a population of 5,000 and three banks, two railroads and an entensive trade and manufacturing interests. The climate of Parker county is very fine. Most commonly the windays. Mr. Will Ritchie's little child pleasant. The health is very good was quite sick for a day or two with far better than many other places not possessed of like natural advantages. The rainfall is somewhat uncertain, yet there has always been plenty to make the crops except in 1886 and 1887, when the great drought struck this country, and there may never be another such a one. It does not take as much rain here to make a crop as in your old red hills. The land is open, and it takes up the water and holds it for vegetation to grow from. There is fine grass, and stock get fat and live gents. Best in the market. without much feed throughout the entire winter. There are few storms

> I will let you hear from me again as I learn more of the country and the people. Yours truly, Dr. John W. Moose.

Resolutions of Respect.

The teachers and pupils of cord Female Academy assembled in their New Home improved machines painted in antique oak; they are by far their chapel Monday morning, May their chapel Monday morning, May the neatest machines ever offered in Con-27th, and adopted the following cord. Buy the New Home improved ma-preamble and resolutions: Whereas it hath pleased God to call from our school and earthly associations our beloved pupil and companion, MARY AUGUSTA PAYNE; and whereas we desire

Resolved, That we hold a fitting memorial service at her home this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in testimony of the affec-tionate regard in which she is held by all our loving sympathy in their bereave-ment, and invoke the divine consolations of our father through the Gospel for them in this hour of trial.

Resolved, That as a further tribute to her memory we dispense with the public closing exercises of the school. Resolved, That a copy of these resolu-tions be given the family of our deceased friend and pupil, and that a copy be sent to THE STANDARD and the Times for Misses Bessent and Fetzer. Miss Lina McDonald, Teachers. Mrs. J. J. Fray, Miss Ella Sechrist, Laura Leslie, Carrie Mehaffey, Katie Archibald, Committee. Fannie Rogers, Esther Erwin, Lizzie Bost, IN MEMORIAM.

Fell asleep in Jesus, Sunday, May 26th, at 10:30 P. M., Mary Augusta, the loved daughter of Rev. and Mrs. C. M. Payne.

While Mary was but standing on the threshold of a promising girlhood the dear Lord called and angels beckoned her away from earth and loving hearts. She had early sought the Lord, and had been a member of his church on earth about two years. Hers was a consistent Christian life, a trustful walking in obe-dience and faith, and the brief but painful illness that ended it gave no sign of murmuring or fear. The golden bowl is broken, the silver cord is loosed; a loving, dutiful daughter, a gentle, pleasant companion—yea, a beautiful life—has gone from us to come no more. But in the I do now thou knowest not, but thou shalt know hereafter." And so trusting hearts may look beyond the gloom of separation and feel that it is well with the loved one. stillness we hear the Father's voice,

CONCORD MARKETS.

COTTON MARKET. Corrected weekly by D. F. CANNON.

 Stained
 $1@9

 Low Middling
 91

 Middling
 101

 Good Middling
 101

 PRODUCE MARKET. Corrected weekly by DOVE. BOST & PINK. Bacon, 10
Sugar cured hams, 15@18
Bulk meat sides, 10

 Bulk meat sides,
 18

 Beeswax,
 15@20

 Butter, 20@25

 Chickens, 60@65

BUSINESS LOCALS.

Call and see our $1.00 Kid Gloves for ents. Cannons & Fetzer. Wanted, by married couple, board in a strictly private family by the first of June. References exchanged. Address, L. E. W., care Standard.

FRESH CANDIES .- Vaughan Bros. have opened a candy manufactory in the room opposite the old post-office building, and will keep in stock all kinds of Plain and Fancy Candies. They also keep Ice-Cold Lemonade. The patronage of the public is solicited and satisfaction guar-

Pictures! Pictures! Don't forget to call at the old Post-office Building and have your Photo. made, W. J. Moose is now prepared to made, W. J. Moose is now prepared to do all kinds of work in his line. Satisfaction guaranteed. Prices to suit the MEISTERSCHAFT, German and French. Will the person who borrowed it of me please return the same? J. G. SCHAID. -ICE .- Ice for sale by F. V. Snell.

A lot of Fine Slippers on the bargain -Buy a Challie Dress from Hoover, Lore & Co., and keep cool.

—Straw Hats are selling rapidly, but it is not too late to buy a nice one from

Our 50 and 75c. Pants take the cake. If you want a sack of PURE, fresh-ground Flour that will make as good bread as you ever ate, and save you mo-ney, be sure you call at the "Farmers' Store." Bell. & Sims, Ag'ts.

ANOTHER VALUABLE CERTIFICATE—WHAT A PROMINENT MERCHANT SAYS.
WHAT A PROMINENT MERCHANT SAYS.
I have been suffering for the last four years; have been using glasses in the meantime, and for the last six months could find no glasses to fit. About a month ago I went to the most eminent Oculist in Baltimore and was unsuccessful in obtaining a pair to suit. I then took a pair of Dr. D. S.
Harmon's Pebble Glasses on trial, and can read better and with less pain than for the last two years. So well pleased was I that I have bought two pair for fear that I might get one pair broken. I have been acquainted with Dr. Harmon for two weeks, and find him a perfect gentleman. Yours truly,

J. D. SMITH.

—Comfort, Tasty, Elegance and Durage. ANOTHER VALUABLE CERTIFICATE

—Comfort, Tasty, Elegance and Dura-bility can all be found in our varied stock of Dress Goods. Hoover, Lore & Co.

Great bargains in Ladies' Slippers. Price from 50c. to $3.00, at Cannons & Fetzer's. Six thousand pounds of Hay for sale

-Hoover, Lore & Co., are selling a job lot of Lawns, Takools, &c., wonderfully $1 ONE DOLLAR $1 -Wanted immediately, 5500 white oak cross ties, eight feet long, seven inch face, seven inches thick.

J. P. Allison,
President Concord Street Railway Co. Call and see Cannons & Fetzer's $2.00 Button and Lace Shoes for ladies and Business is business. Don't wait unti August to buy a McCormick mower and we received this week a full car load of the latest improved McCormick mowers and a car load Thomas hay rakes. YORKE & WADSWORTH. You can always get E. P. Reed & Co.'s Shoes at $2.50 to $4.50.

horse rake; it cost no more to buy early Cannons & Fetzer. -Another new lot of Summer Ginghams at Hoover, Lore & Co. Have you Sewing machines, Sewing machines of Yorke and Wadsworth's. Go and see equal to it. Yorke and Wadsworth have the agency of the New Home machine for four or five counties and will sell you a machine on any reasonable terms.

YORKE & WADSWORTH. Subscribe Now

chine and don't buy a machine said to be

THE SECOND SERIES OF STOCK CONCORD

Perpetual Building and Loan ASSOCIATION

WILL BEGIN Saturday, June 8th.

Those who desire stock in this series may subscribe now, and it will be well for those desiring loans to file their ap-plications at once, as there is good demand or money at this season.
For full information apply to JOHN P. ALLISON, President, or JOHN C. LESLIE,

Secretary and Treasurer CORL'S

CONCORD, N.

I have moved into the stable late ly occupied by Brown Bros., near the courthouse. The best accommo-dations for drovers. Leave your orders at the stable or with J. L. Brown Porter for omnibus. Horses and mules for sale.
M. J. CORL,

Proprietor.

PAINTS, OILS,

SOAP, HAIR, TOOTH,

TOBACCO.

CIGARS,

COME,

BRUSHES

BUY FROM

NAIL

AND

PAINT

D. D. JOHNSON, brightness. Try them. DRUGGIST.

CATN

CANNONS

----AND----

FETZER'S

NOW ON SALE

150 best grade Seersucker

50 Stripe Chally Coats. 25 Men's Blue Chally will be delighted with our

Cottonade Pants 50c,

ONE HUNDRED PAIR

Moleskin Pants.

in elegant styles,

SPECIAL BARGAINS

-FOR-

We are over-stocked in Summer Cassimere Suits,

AND WE OFFER

25 Cas. Suits AT $6.50.

The goods that it takes to make one of these suits can't be bought for $6.50. We also make a SPECIAL

MEN'S TWEED, MELTON

AND CASSIMERE S-U-I-T-S.

30 Suits to close at $3 a suit, worth $6. These are good Tweed and Cassimere Suits, and can't be manufactured for the price we

25 Black Broadcloth Frock

-:0:-JUST RECEIVED

CHILDREN'S KNEE PANTS 25c. and 50c.

AT $1.50 TO $2 A SUIT.

The Half Has Not Been Told

CANNONS & FETZER'S

$2 SUN SHOE

and exceeds all other $2 shoes in quality, fit, comfort and durability as far as the sun exceeds the moon and stars in sell them at. Coats at $5.

CANNONS & FETZER.

BARGAIN in

Now, wonderful as all these things seem to be remember, and that is that

IS THE BEST IN THE STATE,

A Mr. Pless, from near China first of the week.

last week. A great many beans were Parker county and is on the Fort cut down, and sweet potato slips Worth and Albuquerque railroad, plentiful. The market is overrun. The best of butter can be engaged at fifteen cents per pound. We hope the readers of THE STAN-DARD will excuse us this time as we Weadington, Henry Davis, S. C. Al-exander, George Culp, C. L. Erwin, G. C. Goodman.

Strawberres and can be bought, ready capped, at five cents per quart. If the price of sugar would only be reduced how we western portion of the county, and

We had another death in our

People are up with their farm toes will make some even if it don't and tornadoes, but there is nearly always a gentle wind, which renders Cherries are getting ripe; there is the shade pleasant and the nights

Tuesday morning

miles of here. The water mills have about spun out till it rains-Mr. H. R. Small, who has been ex-eating strawberries, but they love them so much they will keep eating of us.

Resolved, That we tender to her family body feels so bad about the dry weather and crop prospects that have always been used to having heretofore have ceased to come as in the days of yore, and the blighting effects of drought are not confined to crops and vegetation but the heavy lines of care are written in this section who has a stand of cotton and no prospect for one, it occurs to us that all such cotton lands should be planted in corn at once. The extra condition of cotton land with the fertilizer would insure a good corn crop if it were to stead of buying it from the North.

They had better make the effort.

The sturdy old farmer seems to be

Coats and Vests at Suits.

BIG MEN!

SIZES 40 AND 42,

and we guarantee them TO BE WORTH $12.50.

These are fine coats, and $5 is not half price for them.

Also a lot of CHILDREN'S COTTONADE SUITS at 75c. a

One thing you must always