THE STANDARD. WE DO ALL KINDS OF

TOBWORK IN THE-VEATEST MANNER -AND AT-

THE LOWEST RATES.

STANDARD NOTES.

The merchants may have to settle the Force Bill before any other.

In a year like this-election year new leaders are born, if only to live but a few months.

Tillan will be to South Carolina what Mahone has been to Virginia. Mark you.

The Atlanta Constitution is red hot over the Force Bill. It is stirring things up with a burning pole;

Jus. G. Blaine is thought to be young city in the Tar Heel Compresidentially inclined. He had the monwealth! same disease in 1884.

have since. He was an editor, bright is still moving on. There is more gomery, H. C. Herring, W. J. Swink. Theodore F. Pharr, of Concord, and industrious.

Wr. Ben. Harrison, the President of the United States, is a member State, of a land speculating syndicate.

only twenty-seven.

tax of 120 per cent on tinplates that every body uses, and yet there is not every body uses, and yet there is not it: there is no doubt that Capt. Ala single industry of that kind in exander missed some, and any body America.

and even accurate calculation. He says that between 36,000,000 and vear-an infant enterprise.

It is said in the North that the growth and the prosperity of the partments, J. M. Odell is president Force Bill will be defeated; if it is, people, who hang on to a nickle and and J. W. Cannon is secretary and Force Bill will be defeated; if it is, alright. If not, the South can drink it, if it is bitter; but she re-drink it, if it is bitter; but she reserves the right to say how much of when their time comes. The men bales of cotton are used annually. business and by itenerant merchants the vile stuff shall go down our who have no money and can control it The capital stock is $126,000. throats.

Congressman Bunn was renominated on the first ballot, defeating did not occur to us until 11 A M system of water works that cost ness of our merchants would be gone. have hit me hard." "Hit you? What Scarborough and Stroud, both Alli- that it would be wise to enumerate $11,000. The water comes from a I hope I may be pardoned for sug- Ocean. Scarborough is the some of our enterprises, hence our spring that has a daily capacity of gesting a plan which perhaps may ance men. former State Superintendent of time in gathering facts was very 40,000 gallons. There are two be worthy of consideration. limited. We would not have our tanks, one for fire that holds 30,000 Public Instruction. The defeated readers to suppose that the facts gallons, and one for domestic purcandidates endorsed, in speeches, the below cover the entire business of poses that holds 25,000 gallons. nerve," is said to be very sensitive, "and a galaxy would carry the dirty things." Gets a quarter. the town-far from it. THE Y. M. C. A. If there is a man in North Caro-The Y. M. C. A. was organized in has who can foretell the movements 1890. The rooms are handsomely of the various elements in the com- furnished. There are 105 members. the State. ing campaign, if he can realize the Officers: D B Coltrane, president extent and depth of the determina- C Fink, treasurer; B E Harris, section and result of the plans and retary. and operations of a class heretofore LIVERY, SALE AND FEED STABLES. Brown Brothers keep, on an financial reporter. taking but little interest in politics -that man is wiser than a Soloman. average, 40 horses and 36 vehicles. A big business in buying and selling Mr. E. A. Grier, president of the is done. M. J. Corl keeps a sale, feed and Alliance of Mecklenburg county, in livery stable; he has, on an average, the convention held in Charlotte on is secretary. about 20 horses and 18 vehicles. the 25th, offered this resolution: "Re-PRINTING HOUSES.

4.166. STREET RAILWAY. freight and passengers. Officers: J. P. Allison, Pres.; J. B. Sherrill, CONCORD IS THE MOST RAPIDLY Sect'y.; D. B. Coltrane, Treas. Start-GROWING TOWN IN NORTH ed in 1889.

St. James Hotel is owned and kept by Mrs. Mollie Dusenbury. In 1880 we had 1264 and in 1890 we Have Over 3 1-4 Times as Many People-The Growth Since the Census Will Make it 4.225-We are Satisfied With the Census Takers' Work. stock company; capital $15,000. Nome Enterprises, etc. D. F. Cannon, president; G. M. Lore,

CAROLINA

VOL. III.---NO. 29.

The biggest town in the State; the most thrifty town in North Caroliproprietor. na; the busiest and most hustling good, hard business sense and push and P. B. Fetzer.

to the square inch in Concord than can be found in any town of the

When you remember that the increase in her population has been, in purpose of erecting a suitable build-It is positively untrue that Editor I aderwood, of Georgia, is the father then realize her rapid growth. No increase. Our growth, too, is substantial; it is not like that of a else would have done the same. Owing to the natural increase and par- president and W. R. Odell is secre-One of the ablest mathematicians ties moving in, we believe that our tary and treaswrer. This company in America has made a very difficult population will number 4,225 at operates four mills. Capital stock this very time.

money, invest it in enterprises that bales of cotton are used per year. 26,057,000 babies are born every give work and employment to hundreds of people. There are a few old moss backs, blind to Cencord's ing its capacity in the different de-are helping to build up the town.-THE WATER WORKS. Below we give some of the enterprises. In the main the statements are not 1 per cent from right. It handed, constructed for the town a

The town cemetery does not fill Capital stock $15,000; hauls up rapidly. There is a Building and Loan there!- Boston Post. Association that does a big business. The women are all good looking, and the men are industrious. HOTELS.

Everybody is welcome to the town. THE CONCORD DAILY STANDARD

THE STANDAR

CONCORD, N. C., FRIDAY, AUGUST 1, 1890.

Atchison Globe.

Citizen.

calling?"

ciub.-IAtchison Globe.

washed. "--[Lippincott's.

in.-[Boston Commonwealth.

tily)-"Ma'am! I'm a gentleman!

ssociate with. "-[Texas Siftings.

is search .- [Elmira Free Pres .

loves everybody in town- and a great Morris House is owned by P. M. Morris and kept by J. M. Cross. St. Cloud Hotel is owned by a many out of town. SOME OF THE GUESSERS. A. M. Allman, of Mt. Pleasant, Sect'y. & Treas. This hotel was guessed the exact number of Con-opened in 1889. J. W. Clarke is core's population. W. M. Harris missed the number by only one; J. gelus? I guess I never heard of him. Whit Burkhead guessed three too Whit Burkhead guessed three too script. CHAMBER OF COUMERCE. The chamber was organized on many; A. L. Sappenfield guessed 34

The chamber was organized on many; A. L. Sappenfield guessed 34 the 1st of July. N. D. Fetzer, Presi-dent; Jas. P. Cook, Sect'y. & Treas. mediate and the discase in 1884. Hill Arp's son-ini-law, died a few lise was an editor bright lise active active and lise as an editor bright lise active a > having guessed 6,500, gets the tin- non-"I like it in Key West."-[Lowell FEMALE ACADEMY. cup, with his name engraved on it.

Recognizing the need of better facilities for female education, a Mayor Thompson on the Boycotting stock company was formed for the

Cor. of the News and Observer. RALEIGH, N. C., July 23 .- Not-Underwood, of Georgia, is the father then realize her rapid growth. No of thirty-seven children. He claims town in the State can show such an increase. Our growth, too, is subis vice president and Jno A Cline is advising a boycott of all Northern The Republicans want to put a blacksmith's bellows-it is solid, secretary and Treasurer of the Comgoods, it need not argue an entire ignorance of the question when one Mr. Brindle (speaking from, experience) holds that a boycott for the purpose

> THE ODELL MF'G, COMPANY. of defeating the Force bill would not Of this company, J. M. Odell is be wise or practicable.

With the present facility for reaching every hamlet in the South, it would be well nigh impossible to inis $500,000; 852 looms; 20,000 spin-The citizens of Concord who have dles; hands employed, 800; and 8,000 stitute a boycott that would be even partially successful. In the first What shall I do?" "Get a position in a CANNON ME'G. COMPANY. place, the merchants themselves bath house."-[Chicago Inter-Ocean. This factory is constantly enlarg- would not be a unite in favor of it, and if to a man they did undertake it, branch stores of Northern houses hasn't got onto this new smokeless powtablished. This would be further this carpet, I will give you something to who would go into every settlement in the South. The ead aimed at would not be attained but the busi-

The nerve, known as the "pocket that a gintleman of your quality would

There are eight double fire plugs, particularly so in the "Yankee."

TALK OF SHE DAY. "The oyster joke is now in season. R. caught one word-one whisper low-You can flatter the worst idler on earth

Have you heard the organ's tone grow dim At the closing of some grand old hymn. While echoed and tossed from arch to stone That sweet " Amen "when the hymn was done by telling him he is working too hard.-A bilious man hunting for something o get mad at is generally successful in

Fill the whole wild forest seemed to ring, As the golden sunlight swept the plain After a day of mist and of rain? It improves your memory to lend a friend $5, but it destroys the memory of your friend. - | New Orleans Picayune. Nature has wisely arranged matters so

Mrs. D'Arte-"The 'Angelus,' " I see," has gone to Canada. " Grubber-"An-

A WORD.

PADRE VERDUGO'S CATS.

Padre Mateo Verdugo was the vener ble priest in charge of an Indian mison near the coast of California. The nission is now a majestic ruin; but 60 Jackson-"What sort of a cigar is that years ago Padre Mateo was a busy man. you're smoking?" Joblot-"That's a One morning, while the sacristan Key West. How do you like it?" Jack- slept, Padre Mateo sat outside his door with a big book on his knees.

The padre had almost fallen asl on Somehow a man feels much worse the when, hearing the patter of bare feet. lay after he has lost an hour's sleep on he looked up to see dark skinned boys count of the baby than he does the day carrying a litter of kittens toward the after he has lost five hours' sleep at the creek.

"Que! Que!" cried the padre, rubbing is eyes. "Would you destroy the poor Had to be fast-A. "What a wondernis eyes. fully fast horse that Axtel is?" B. kittens?"

Round to be fast. Just look at the "Si, padre," replied one little Indian. "Para que ?" questioned the priest. gang at the race track he is ol liged to "They are too many, padre, "answered They all do it .- Young Brindle-"Pa. he little Indian, poking his great toe in can't I have a flannel shirt like yours?" the dust.

"But wait! The pretty things! They have not yet beheld the light of day. Give "My son, you may have this after it's them to me!" cried the benignant priest.

They shall not perish, for I will care for Prominent jewelers now affirm that them my-elf. Are they not pretty, my the diamond solitaire earring is going worthy Guadaloupe? Open thine eyes out. This will be cheering news to ears for one instant. that have never been able to get them

Had the sacristan foreseen the conse uences he would have made remon-Safe hiding place .- "I am about scared strance before the padre's passion to death. I hear that the anarchists strengthened; but being sleepy and sel-fish, Guadaloupe settled himself for an have sworn to kill me if they find me. other nap.

At the end of the second year Padre Ma Not yet universally adopted .- "What's eo's cats were the bane of the sacristan's that on your coat collar, Jack? Been "Ya-as. You see, my girl "Must I," thought he, with rising spleen. "I, who am 70 years old and have stitch in my back-must I. beside lusting the altar and ringing four heavy bells and 'tending the padre's housemust I do obedience to yowling cats? Es vergonzoso, indeed?" Had he not feared the nadre's maledic never beat my way. "-[Toledo Blade. Struck hard .- Wife-"What makes tion he would have murdered the creatvon sopale?" Husband-"I just dodged ures without compunction. The cats Hardup. If he had seen me he would flourished and the padre's fondness inhave hit me hard. " "Hit you? What creased, and Guadaloupe was scolded more frequently than ever. "Heart of none!" the priest would exclaim, "would

A silvery tongue.-Swell-"Very sorry, you let them starve? I am sure you gave my man. Got no coppers." Tramp-"Ab, thin! Would I be afther supposin' no milk to Carnainr's new kittens this day! and well you know she has not nourishment enough for them all! You gibberish is to the coffee colored chilshall do penance for your iniquities!"

"But, your excellency," the sacristan onstrate wit

WHOLE NO. 142.

"Nonsense!" roared the padre.

my cats!"

would flee?"

able padre, but first let me speak. I fear the creatures are not mere common HOW TO TRAIN CHILDREN. cats, else why did they conduct them selves so strangely in your absence?"

BY BREATHING RIGHT HE CAN HAVE DEALTH AND STRENGTH

Little Good in the Gymnasiums - To Breathe Correctly Mouns an Erect Body and a Graceful Carriage-Every Boy May Reach a Green Old Age. Edwin Checkley, a teacher of physical side into the air that the dust may not education in Brooklyn, N. Y., has some soil the altar cloth. What will your rev new ideas which he has given to the erence think when I reveal the wickedpublic in regard to the physical training of children.

ness of your reverence's cats? They are all devils, surely, else why should they "The present system is wrong front in run from the crucifix, as the evil one zinning to end," he said to a reporter. "Pick up a 6 month's old intant," he added, "hold him in an unstrained un-

"Nonsense!" roared the padre. "Call ny cats?" right position, and you will find that his

So the sacristan did as he was bid. "Now," said Padre_Mateo, trium ack is broad and flat and that his spine is perfectly straight. As soon as the hantly, when all the cats were scated child begins to walk the spine begins to about the table, "we will test this thing!

curve. Why? The weight of his ab-Kring in the crucifix!" lomen causes the lower, part of his back -the 'hollow of his back,' so called-to Without a word the wicked sacristan flew to the chapel, and returned holding the sacred emblem aloft before him. At sink forward and sag down. There is aror number one. Subsequent physical its appearance the unhappy cats gave a training takes no notice of it. discordant howl of despair and fled.

"Call

"You will find, too, that an infant in As the last swollen tail disappeared arms has the power, while sitting bolt the padre gave a gasp and caught the upright, of putting his foot, or at least a "Devils!" he wailed at last, wringing part of it, in his mouth. This is because his hip joint is perfect, y free and flexible.

his trembling hands. "Things of evil! Alas! alas! How ye have deceived me! He loses this flexibility almost from the moment he begins to walk. The ordinar Wy worthy Guadaloupe, thou hast spoken truly-but-oh! how I have system of athletic or calisthenic training takes no notice of this loss oved them! "Now, I claim that above all else a

"Get thy gun, my Guadaloupe. They child should be taught how to stand and are fiends! Get thy gun and rend their how to breathe. Next he should be inwicked hearts!"-[Amy Elizabeth Leigh. structed as to the proper way of using every muscle and joint. Teach him Queer Things About Wild Ducks." those things and he will be a graceful Charles B. Westcott, a well known healthy strong man. Neglect them and authority in such matters, says that while he may become temporarily strong ducks are becoming fewer and fewer his power is neither lasting nor conducive every year, especially coast ducks, and to long life and vigor.

he attributes it to the destruction of the "Nothing is more important than to eggs by professional egg hunters more than to the shooting of the ducks. teach children the general principles of right development. It is a mere make There is a peculiarity about the flight shift to bring forward calisthenics. Only of wild ducks which Mr. Westcott, in a small minority of the children in classeommon with other observing duck for physical training give any vigor or unters, has noticed. A flight of ducks neaning to the few insignificant moveming south on one day, if followed by ients of the arms. Most of the boys other flights in the same direction days and almost all of the girls make merely or weeks afterward, will not vary to ex-superficial movements, with no sense seed 25 feet from the path of the ducks the meaning and no feeling of exhilerawhich have preceded them, and they tion. If anything has been said to the will alight in almost the exact spot children about breathing no effect is viswhere preceding flights have settled. ble. If anything has been said about This is a coincidence of such continuous the carriage of the body the instruction occurrence as to reasonably establish has been confined to an injunction to the theory that the lines to be pursued 'keep back the shoulders.

and the resting or feeding places have "In a nervous effort to obey the latter been a matter of prearrangement, but how the plans were intelligibly comnjunction children are often found with hollowed lacks and shoulder bludes municated and followed through the driven in nealest the spine When the pathless air must remain a profound shoulders are violently and persidently mystery until the hunters become as thrown back the shoulder blades abnost familiar with the duck language as they meet. They press on the spine and jamare with the habits of the fowls, for the the upper part of it forward. This effect monotonous quack of the duck must be

s simply unavoidable. as full of meaning to it as the Chinese "If a child is sont to school at the aver of 5 or 6 the teacher should watch him dren of the Orient.-[Savaunah News. at his desk to make sure that he maintains an erect position. It will be found Wonders of the British Museum "Max O'Rell isn't con erect the chin is bound to draw up the this year," said Major J. B. Pond, "but breast hone. By helding the body erect Louis Fagan, the master of prints of the and straight the child will find it easy to British Museum, and the only living man breathe in the costal way-that is, with who can put his hand on every volume the upper part of the chest. This, I claim, in that wonderful collection, is coming is the proper way to breathe. to tell the people on this side of the it is not easy to learn all this at once, but water about the treasures of the museum, I had heard it said," quoth the a careful teacher, by taking pains, could soon bring her class into such a condu major, who is as brown as if he had been tion that they would find it casher to with Stanley in Africa, "that Mr. Fagan stand, walk, and sit right than wrong. could, in just two minutes after demand "It is not necessary to spend any special made on him, produce or locate any treas half hour a day in teaching these things. ure in his charge. It has also been said The instructor who is with children that everything worth keeping is kept the time is the one to keep them standing under the roof below which he reigns or sitting properly. Folding the arms, the present attitude of respectful attensupreme. When introduced to him I asked casually if he would let me bol tion, is one that cramps the chest and at a copy of the 'Vermont Farmers' Althe breathing apparatus. It should never manac,' a pamphlet I hadn't heard of be practiced. Let the teacher instruct since my boyhoood, and which I didn't her children to keep the upper point of suppose any Vermont farmer even had the forehead and the most prominent ever preserved. 'Certainly,' said he, part of the chest always uplifted, as if touching a bell and calling an old attendtrying to push up through the ceiling. ant, to whom he gave a slip of paper con A word now and again will soon incul taining the name of the thing desired and cate the right sort of carriage. Let all its location. In just 110 seconds the old bending forward be done from the hij attendant came back with a complete file joint-not from the waist. The backbone of that almanac." need not and should not be bent in stoop-

"But wait, your reverence. As you Have you heard the birds their carols sing reverence knows, it is my duty always, on a Thursday, to clean the candlesticks and the sacred crucifixes on the altar. Your reverence well remembers that it is my custom always to bring them out-Have you heard the bells at eventide

In the distance o'er the valley wide, And then stopped to catch the minor of Ora pro Nobis, sweet and faint? that a man can neither pat his own back nor kick himself .- [Lawrence American.

ts sweet as these came the answer "No." When he whispered softly, "Snall I gö?" --[Flaval Scott Miñes solved that we have full confidence in the integrity, ability and patriotism of the Hon, Z. B. Vance, and arge his re-election to the position he now fills with so much honor and ments. credit to himself and the State." It THE Daily and Weekly STANDARD, F. Reed. was unanimously adopted amid lond and does job work.

CONTAINS MORE READING MATTER THAN ANY OTHER

PAPER IN THIS SECTION.

THE STANDARD LARGEST PAPER -PUBLISHED IN CONCORD

applanse,

A great deal is being said throughout the South about boycotting the North. It cannot, and if it could, it should not be done. If boycotting is wrong in one instance, it is wrong in all. There was one time when such a thing was practicable when the whole South lived on firesides-but it is not now. You $15,000. The officers: P B Fetzer, company is $224,000. can't screw up the courage of our president; A B Young, secretary people (so many having become wedded to the tastes and deep love of modern living) to deprive themselves of actual necessities and pleasures. A remedy for the injury and insult of the Force Bill, if it becomes a law, must be had in measures other than boycotting.

A sixteen-year-old boy, near Greenville, S. C., hanged himself because "his girl" would not "have" him. There's something wrong with the character of our social system when boys not vet old enough to keep their noses clean, and certainly not old enough to be away from their mothers, are allowed to surround themselves with influences to marry. It's spoiling chances for making useful and industrious men, if not an open shame. Too many boys are becoming men (?) too soon. They need something more than a valued at $1,800. sweet-heart; they need education; they need trades; they need permanent employment; and a good many H. Page is pastor. of them need a frequent application of strap oil.

Godsboro Argus: Three bushe's of entirely red corn was carried to mill one day this week by our good triend, Mr. Asa B. Collier, of Pikeville township, and the meal thereto be fit for table use, so it had to much for the experiment

J. B. Sherrill's office-Publishes the Times (weekly), the outside of several other weeklies and does handsome job work in all its depart-Jas. P. Cook's office-Publishes BANK.

The Concord National Bank was opened for business on July 18, 1888. pany operates a bleachery (the only Capital stock $50,000; deposits from-$55,000 to $100,000; surplus $5,500. Janta) that has a capacity of 4 tons Officers: J M Odell, president; D F Cannon, vice-president; D B Coltrane, cashier.

THE WOOD AND IRON WORKS. This enterprise was started in vate matter. But the annual products of these machines would sack 1889. Do all kinds of wood work,and

RAILROAD, &C.*

COTTON.

OTHER NOTES.

Most of the business men factories has been increased.

or county.

erected.

open.

every year.

town during 1889.

and treasurer. NEW SOUTH CLUB. The rooms are commodious and pounds were shipped; 24,001,273 nicely furnished. Membership: 35. pounds shipped in-a great deal of Officers: George L Patterson, presi-Pharr, treasurer.

TOWN OFFICIES. Mayor, J. L. Boger; Aldermen:

P. B. Fetzer, G. M. Lore, W. R. Odell, M. L. Brown, W. C. Correll and J. C. Wadsworth; Jas. C. Fink, secretary and treasurer. MERCANTILE. There are about 40 places of business; several quite large ones. All do a thriving business. CHURCHES.

ing in town. Presbyterian church, Rev. C. M. Payne, D. D. pastor, with all its once so good that they had to kill a man to start a grave yard. and conditions that produce a desire property and fixtures cost $11,000. The Presbyterian Chapel, at Forest Hill, cost $800. The German Reformed church, behave themselves. Rev. P. M. Trexler, D. D. pastor, is The Methodist church and property are valued at $10,000. Rev. J raised in the country. We have a fine barber shop. The Lutheran cnurch and prop The express business is erty cost $12,500. Rev. W. G. Campbell is pastof. heavy. The public schools are, in town, Cannonville Lutheran church will cost, when completed, $1,100. three months long.

The Baptist church cost $1,200. Rev. J. D. Newton is pastor. Forest Hill M. E. Church cost from was so rough and dark as not $10,000. Rev. H. M. Blair is pastor. There are four churches for the he converted into stock feed Thus colored people; two of them are real hand some.

and it is probable that the system The Northern merchants are large will be extended. Mr. Fetzer has given to the town the best system of water works that can be found in about "election times." If every merchant in the South would write SOCIETIES. Magonie Lodge: W G Campbell, his correspondents in the North that der, sister; you know to-day is election, W M; C M Walter, secretary. Knights of Honor: J W Burk- general distraction and disturbance to have his say about something. head, director; John A Kimmons, of the country, incident to the pashibit speedy collections, and proba- along and grabbed me by the leg." L. O. O. F. The Independent Order of Odd bly prevent the gathering of the leg. I never dispute with a shark." Fellows was organized in 1890. N

Royal Arcanum: R E Gibson, tions would flow into the Senate from this?" Mrs. Cumso-"Well, I should be Regent; J F Williford, secretary; D the right direction that the bill sorry to think you would smoke as much L Bost, treasurer. would fail to become a law. This CABARRUS BLACK ROYS.

is practical and timely, and certainly This military company was organized in January 1889. It has 60 as effective as a boycott, while no ill studying the Welsh language last night, men in rank and file. Captain, Jro. will between the sections would be engendered.

KERR BAG MF'G. COMPANY. Very truly yours, Officers: J. M. Odell, president; ALF. A: THOMPSON. W. R. Odell, secretary and treasurer:

Care for the Boys. W. H. Kerr, manager. This com-

Down in the humblest home in one in the South except one in Atyour community, earning an humof cloth per day. The company also ble living, may be a boy, who is operates 10 bag machines (invented scarcely thought of by anyone save a by Mr. Kerr), the capacity of which mother, yet who has a brilliant incannot be found out as it is pri- tellect and who a the world will some day delight to honor. It need comparatively nothing and wore just the machinery for doing work in up the whole world-their work is not be said that such was the earlier what was manufactured around the iron is complete. Capital stock is immense. The capital stock of the advantages of Columbus, the explorer, of Clay, the statesman, and of

Jacob Astor, the money prince. Be-From the depot at this place dur- cause a boy is ragged do not cast ing the past 12 months, 7,407,652 him aside but help him to fight the battles of life and when he has gainthis was machinery to the factories, ed the victory he will reward you dent; L. D Coltrane, secretary; T F Nearly $21,000 from passenger farcs, with abundance of good will. He this of course does not include many may be like a neglected jewel, that 1,000-mile and 2,000-mile tickets. when the dust has been rubbed off, will shine with a brilliancy that Nearly 10,000 bales of cotton are will surprise the world. shipped from this depot; it is not as heavy now since the capacity of the Cannonville Notes.

Our sick people are all improving. We have no new cases of fever, and are hopeful that our end of town Not a single barroom in the town will again enjoy good health. There are ten white ministers liv Misses Ida and Mollie Hornbuckle, of Burlington, are visiting at their The health of this community was uncle's, Mr. J. P. Hornbuckle,

Mr. W. E. Bacon of Cannonville and Miss Nannie Robins, of Ran-

The streets are "tolerably" good. dolph' county, were married last Not many loafers; those we have Wednesday, at the home of the bride. Mr. W. C. Yorke attended the wed-A roller mill is likely to ding. Mr. and Mrs. Bacon will arrive on the noon train tomorrow, and make Concord their home. July 26

> News and Observer: It is reported that some of Raleigh's visitors at Cleveland Springs and surrounding country were taken for revenue officers a day or two ogo, and had a The guard house always stands thrilling and hair-breadth escape from the "moonshiners" in the About 4,000,000 bricks are mide mountains of that section.

Big preparations are being made Over 350 houses were erected in for the Mt. Holly fair.

"Will you divide the marbles with your creditors of the South, and nearly little brother with or without being whipped?" Bobby-"I 'spect I've got to all of this indebtedness matures divide, pa, but I'll take the lickin' first. -INew York Press. Xantippe-"I declare, how cheerful

Young American pluck

my hustand looks to-day." "No wonthe derangement of labor, and the and the poor man is naturally delighted |Fliegende Blaetter.

A wise course-"I fell over the rail," sage of the Lodge bill, would pro- said the sailor, "and the shark came "And what did you do?" "I let him have the D Fetzer is N. G.; W. G. Campbell largest crop of cotton ever produced A benevolent wish .- Cumso-"My by the South, such a flood of peti- dear, do you think that our occupations in the next world will be the same as in there as here. "--- [Life, Teacher-"What's the matter? You took all puffed up." Pupil-"I began and accidentally swallowed the word Dwff w chmu wffd dfrynnddyywch.' That's all."- New York Journal.

WHAT AILS THE BLACK MAN. ffe Has No Philosophy as a Rule and Lets

Itis Troubles Worry Illim. Out about four miles from Natch-z. says a Detroit Free Press man, I came across a colored man who had head d for town with a jag of wool on a one mule wagon. At a narrow spot in the road, where the mud was a foot deep, his old mule had given out and the wagon was stalled. The man sat on a log by the road -ide, smoking a corncob pipe and onjoying a sun lath, and after viewing the situation I asked; "Well, what are you goin ; to do?" "Nuffin', boss," he answered, "Going to leave the rig right there until is sinks out of sight? "Oh she's dun gone down about a . fur as she kin." "And you are in no hurry?" "No, sah. I'ze got all dis week to get to town."

must say." "Say, boss, jist set down he h half an hour an' see de filosophy of de thing, " he answered. "I'ze working a commo sense plan on dis difficulty. I got down and to k a seat, and i wasn't ten minutes before a cotton tea n

"Yo', dar-what's de rumpus?"

"Dun got stuck fast." "Oh-ho! Come along, boys, an' git dat ole mewl onter his trubble. They all got down, each took a wheel and with a "heave-o" the wagon was

"See de pint!" queried the owner of the rig, who hadn't lifted a pound himself.

"Dat's what ails de black man to-dayhan't got no filosophy. He-haw, now, Julius-git right up'n bend yore ole back-

It seems that the highwaymen down about Wilmington are "monarch of all they survey." A crippled negro was robbed and nearly beaten to death by them, near Wrightsville the other day.

Rev. Jas. R. Scroggs, of Randleman will succeed Rev. P. F. W. Trinity College District.

"I had no milk left after supplying the sick babe of the squaw who died last week. Surely the kittens can wait." "Wait ?" stormed the padre. "Are hey not wailing from hunger even now? Their cries pierce my heart. How can I leave them to your charge, and go away for eight long days-and go I

At these words hope sprang up anew in Guadaloupe's perfidious heart.

"Art thou going away, reverend adre?" he asked meekly. "Am I, inpadre?" he asked meekly. deed, to be left alone for eight days ?" "It is true," replied the priest sadly "I must go. 1 am summon ed to repo to my superior at San Luis Rev; and the journey will require eight days. But how can I go? The Indians can get along well enough, to be sure, but what, ask you, heart of wood, what will be come of my cats?"

Next day, as Padre Mateo trudged dowly down the road, a sardonic smile came upon the countenance of the wicked sacristan.

It was nearing midday. Already Ignatius, the oldest and leavest and hungriest of the cats, had appeared, sniffing, to learn if dinner was being cooke i.

"I will teach thee-villain!" muttere the sacristan, fiercely, as he busied him-self building a fire. "I will teach thee to sit and glower at me while I work till my body shakes with weariness! When the meal was ready Guadaloupe went to the door. Come, Carlotta, dear est! Come, my Pedro! Come, Carlos! he called tenderly. "Hasten within, for thy dinner waits! Be quick, then; all of

> When the cats were seated Guadaloupe after tightly closing the doors, hurried to the chapel. From the altar he selected the largest crucifix, and, bearing this in the left hand, and a great "whip behind him in his right hand, he returned to the padre's house.

H lding the crucifix before him, the acristan entered the room where the cats were assembled. "Now wretchest brutest villains!" he shouted-and at anch word came a cut from the whipfiends! monsters! ungrateful beastat Receive your punishment!" The astonished creatures leaped from their seats and tore madly about the little room, but they could not get beyond the reach of Guadaloupe's whip. He lashed right and left, still holding the crucifix before him, till at last he could no longer wield the whip.

Thrice each day a similar anacted, till at the sight of the crucifix the creatures would spring wildly from their seats and seek to escape.

Padre Mateo' returned at night, and was welcomed cordially by the prefidious acristan. In the morning Guadaloupe called the padre to the breakfast meal. "But-where are the cats?" asked Padre Mateo. Guadaloupe shrugged his shoulders with a look of sadness: "Speak not of hem, reverend padre !"

"But I want my cats!" "Your excellency-I fear you have been befooled."

"Where are my cats?" "Well, then, I will call them, vener-

A man named Shinall has myseriously disappeared from his home will not stop in Mocksville. Mr. J. near Mt. Airy. When last seen he A. Nichols, R. E., has just returned was in company with Percy Fry and from Washington with a corps of Joe Tilly at a church. Blood was surveyors, who are now making the found on the floor and pulpit of the final survey from here to Mooresville. church and it is thought they killed The grading force will not stop in him about a game of cards, and con-cealed his body. Moeksville, but will finish grading the road on to Mooresville at once.

The Texas Siftings of this week contains an engraving of M. E. Car-Stamey as presiding elder of the ter, Esq., of Asheville, as one of its series of leading Southern men.

He Stumped Out ing to pick up anything. Little Tommy was entertaining one of "Instead of wasting time over rods and his sister's admirers until .she appeared. vands, teachers should make the chil-"Don't you come to see my sister?" he dren learn how to hold their bodies and how to move the shoulders, hips, and

'Yes, Tommy; that's what I come other joints properly in the ordinary for." business of life. Children can get little "You like her immensely, don't you?

good from what they learn mechanically. "Of course, I like her very much. The youngster's interest must be aroused. Don't you think she's nice?" Teach him that not dumbbells, but the "Well, I have to, cause she's my sister knowledge he acquires in the carriage but she thumps me pretty hard someand deportment of his body, will make times. But let's see you open your mouth him agile and strong, and then his physionce. Now shut it tight until I count cal education will amount to something. ten. There-I knowed you could do it." Physical education is properly accomplished only through the mind. "Why, Tommy, who said I couldn't?" "The mere acquirement of muscular "Oh, nobody but sister!" tissue is not of so much importance as r "What did she say ?" good sheath of sound healthy agile bor

"Well, she said you hadn't sense enough to keep your mouth shut, and I bet her two big apples you had; and you This is what children need. The should ders should not be strained back of the hil have, haven't you? And you'll make her stump up the apples, won't you?" That young man did not wait to see joint. These two joints should be on the whether she would "stump up" or not.-

New York Ledger.

Insurance of Bables. One of the flourishing industries of New York is the insurance of babies. More than one company is engaged in the traffic, and it produces a lucrative income. The sum paid is usually 5 cents a week on each child, and collectors have health. Such training is abnormal. The to trot about in a lively fashion to make anything like a decent income. The sysit assures very poor people against being of hard exercise is hard muscles, and put to extremes in the event of a death hard muscles are had. It is in the conin the family. On the other hand, the one who is entirely at their mercy.

An Oversignt. Waiter-Haven't you forgotten so birthday. thing, sir?

Prohibitionist-Ah, yes; I had meant to give you a copy of the Voice. Here you are, sir.

It is now evident that our railroad der, and who have since been confin-

_Davie Times. A woman has been convicted of to the penitentiary.

must have prominence on its own account, and the shoulders when held back far enough to give the chest free development find a natural and comfortable center. I am no believer in the theory of extensive destruction in tissues and hurried rebuilding of them to secure cat, the horse, dog, tiger, and other lower animals keep their strength for the most tem is productive of good in so far that part with light exercise. The tendency servation of energy, and not in the prodpossible and even probable abuses are igal dissipation of energy, that the greatbyious, for it gives heartless parents a est strength and endurance of the body direct personal interest in the death of will always lie. Our bodies should remain firm but pliant, and in most parts soft. There is no reason why any of us should become inactive before our 80th covering. By that I mean elastic supple mony, directed by a well regulated mind same perpendicular line. The check tendons and muscles working in Whatever may be the case elsewhere, it stands to reason that an editor in his sanctum is the write man in the write

The Wilmington papers' announce that it is possible that some light may be thrown upon the murder of Mr. Nathan Fails. Arrests were made several days ago of persons suspected of complicity in the mur-

Wake county grapes are in debigamy in Catawba county and sent mand on the Northern markets. It is said they are the favorite.

ed in jail.

"I do " bone! Solong, white man-see yo' later! " i come," the lecturer began, And then came a gentle dough, For in the audience a man Irreverently said, "Come off!" -1New York Herald.

"Well, you take things pretty cool, I with four darkies perched on the bales.

came up from the rear. manded the driver as he checked his mul.s.

lifted out of the mud and was ready to go