THE STANDARD. WE DO ALL KINDS OF JOB WORK IN THE NEATEST MANNER—AND AT THE LOWEST RATES.

A KANSAS BLATHERSITE.

If, on the map of the world three or four towns are to be found which are blighted and dry rot entered and eaten; a town filled with peuners and law breakers; a town peopled with hats and scalawags generally—that place is Topeka, the capital of loutish stricken and plague haunted Kansas.

There is not all. This detestable sneak attempts to make a comparison of Kansas products with those of North Carolina. He says that the Kansas farmer has a corn to the acre than this state. What if? The Kansas farmer last year raised corn and could not sell it.

THE ODELL RESIDENCE.

The W. R. Odell house is now occupied. Wednesday night was the first. The whole family rested well, and Mr. Odell declares that the roof is a good one. The Standard has no object in writing about this handsome and magnificent house other than to show what North Carolina wood will do, what North Carolina house builders can do, and what North Carolina young men can do in painting and decorating.

Rev. E. L. Abernathy writes from Durham: "The Standard has given Dr. Pritchard's criticism of Rev. Jones, now here is what Dr. Abernathy has to say in favor of Jones: 'A man of these times, who can call together eight or ten thousand people from three or four hundred miles around, and hold them together under the most scorching, sarcastic language against all manner of sins committed by men and women, for ten days in succession, is a power in human form, not seen on this globe since the days of Jesus Christ.'

AT HOME.

Office Crowell and His Bride at Their Way-off Home.—He Writes About It—Too Hot Cold for Them. MOLINO DEL CARCARANA, Province de Santa Fe, Argentine Republic, S. A., Sept. 8, 1890. Editor Standard: I gave you an account of our trip from Concord to Rio Janeiro. I now give you the remainder of the trip to Carcarana.

DR. PRITCHARD On Rev. Sam Jones—His Criticisms, Etc., Etc. Below we give some clippings from Dr. Pritchard's criticism on Sam Jones, as published in Charity and Children. Dr. Pritchard is pretty severe in his criticisms, but he seems to be sincere. He speaks highly of the work Mr. Pearson did in Wilmington. Of course, while this is Dr. Pritchard's opinion, there are thousands who are strong believers in Sam Jones.

STATE NOTES.

Lincolnton Courier: Bishop Lyman confirmed 18 persons at the Episcopal church here last Sunday week, and 10 others in Rev. W. R. Wetmore's charge. Salisbury Watchman: The Piedmont Alliance and Industrial Fair has been postponed until the 18th, 19th and 20th of November. This postponement was found necessary owing to the managers not being able to get everything in readiness for the 21st of this month. Durham Sun: Faithful old Wade Hampton, the dog that belonged to the children of W. E. Foster, was laid to rest yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock in a plain but neat coffin.

THE LIME-KILN CLUB.

When the limen arrived at the hall Saturday afternoon to make ready for the meeting he found that the bear-trap guarding the second landing had been sprung. Looking about him, he found a shoe-heel, a piece of steel watch chain, a vest buckle and half a plug of tobacco, while he was no trouble in arriving at the conclusion that another attempt—the fourteenth—had been made to destroy Paradise Hall. He raised no alarm, however, and said not a word until Brother Gardner arrived. The result of their whispered conversation was that, after the meeting had been opened in due form, the President looked up and down the hall and queried: 'Air Brudder Clingsione Davis present tonight?' 'He am,' answered a voice, and the brother arose.

Columbus, Ohio, Oct. 21.—The House this morning adopted a resolution as the sense of that body that no slight or insult was intended on the part of the House in the refusal of the Speaker to accept the Governor's message yesterday evening, and appointing a committee to call upon the Governor and request that the message again be sent to the House. Governor Campbell complied with the request. The message is as follows: 'To the General Assembly: You were summoned here to perform a plain and imperative duty. After a special session of several days, having been unable to agree upon a form of relief for the city of Cincinnati, some further suggestions are in order. It is recommended that in lieu of the present board of public improvements a non partisan board be created, to be appointed by the Mayor, who, as the executive head of the city government, ought to be responsible for its boards, and having himself been elected by the people of that city such appointment would be in conformity to the doctrine of 'home rule.'

Will Rein them.

At a meeting of the N. C. Agricultural Society at Raleigh, Dr. Benbow, L. B. Holt, R. P. Reinhart and R. B. Caldwell, were constituted a committee to petition the legislature for a dog law.—Greensboro North Star. Executive Chamber, Oct. 21, 1890.
