peace; in less than a year it allows floor. its citizens to break this solemn treaty, and if the government has any other kind of treaties beside solemn treaties, the Indian would

in almost every case war was brought like to try one."

The reason why the government has never succeeded in civilizing the Indian was because it had revertired the right means. It had always kept them on the move. It had let them get just in a ght of confization but never close enough to grasp in they had always been diven from civilization instead of towards it; they had been punched from the bend a tornas IN that is so ster The white near wests to civilize the Indian to: rapidly, and he is ex-

the other base to grave by pected to reach in twenty-five or thaty years a state of enlightenment tain. People do not change their

The corruption of government agents has been are of the main bars to progress. While the mis sionary was toiling and slowly building up, the agent cheated the Indians out of furs, sold them fire water, and did more harm in onwhen he is detected in his crime is simply discharged and let go un civilization. In the Indian Territory are 131 schools, 196 churches and 21s is 125,000, of whom one-third are The Cherokees are the only written Indian language in the was not reported by the papers .- worth the one thous indth part of a efit of the Old Soldiers Home. United States, and their alphabet is State Chronicle. composed of thirty-six characters. A newspaper, called the Cherokee Advocate, is published weekly, onehalf being printed in Cherokee and done if the authorities will but take moving wave of emigra ion. The eivilizing of this tribe was brought about largely through the efforts, heroic and untiring, of Missionary Buckner and wife. The discovery of gold, he said, had ever been a potent cause of war, and mentioned as a case in point the war of the Black Hills, in which Custer, the Silvernaired Chieftain," was killed. Hills was kept secret by the Indiana would never know that such a groto see them.

The secret by the Indiana would never know that such a groto see them.

We have had a long, dry, and the long to see them. gas at length made known emigrants by thousands began to pour Complaint was made by the troops were sent to prevent encroachments by the emigrants, but they turned their arms against the Indians, and a war ensued which cost the United States $40,000,000 and 300 men.

In short he said, if the govern-ment would but prevent the scum of civilization from coming into contact with the Indian first; would send as agents good and trust worthy men; observe their treaties; give the Indian justice and a perma literature, the government would among the wild Indians, and closed by explaining and demonstrating how to use the bow. Psa Wake Forest, March 4, 1891.

Raieigh's Street Railway. Raleigh is to have electric street cars, but on account of some reports having gone out, the News and Observer says: Conflicting reports are going around about the electric street railway, but as usual none of them are "We think the Democratic party law, broke into the smoke house of absolutely execrable. The most tercorrect. It is true that work has would better join the Alliance in a Rev. M. W. Boyles last Thursday rific snow storm for years prevailed construction and will probably not part in the inauguration of the next A search for the missing bacon the mud is only fordable by longbe continued under the present at President of the United States." rangements. The electric streat railway will however be built and no

THE STANDARD.

CONCORD, N. C., THURSDAY, MARCH 12, 1891. VOL. IV .--- NO. 9.

Angry Flames DESTROY MONROE HIGH SCHOOL

Two Students Perish...Fire of an In-cendiary Origin...Au 88,000 Three Story Brick Build-ing in Ashes. Special telegram to THE STANDARD | MONROE, N. C., March 5 .- Mon roe High School building was derus county, and Hurbert Rhodes, of Darlington, S. C., roomed on the third floor. Messrs Rhodes and Bost and the different tribes of Indians started down stairs, but the heat grew so intense that Rhodes, after being severely burned and nearly suffocated, turned back and made his escape at the other end of the building. Albert Bost was in advance, and becoming suffocuted, it is supposed, he perished in that point in on by the carelessness of the government in protecting the Iu lians from encroschments by the whites and securing to them the rights stipulated in the treaties.

"The government makes a solemn treaty that as long as the grass grows and sun shines and the tomalawk remains buried there shall be neace; in less than a year it allows

The building was a three story brick structure and cost over $8,000; it was partially covered by insur-

The fire is supposed to be of in cendiary origin.

Arrangements are being made to continue the school and to bave new buildings erected at an early day.

Bost, of No. 9, and a brother of Mrs Jas A. Cannon Athert was Louisiana and South Carolina would only about 17 years of age, and was the recognized. His conscious up

A Misnuderstanding.

burg county in regard to the statethat step by step it has taken the white man six thousand years to atsubstantially in the Chronicle, are mode of life in a day nor nations are these: That when the bill to make doubtless be to the President a val-6 per cent the legal rate of interest came upon its third reading, Mr. Williams walked over to Captain the late lamented Mr. Windom. Ardrey (who had opposed the bill on From G. T. Crowell. its second reading) and, shaking the Meckleuburg Times over his head, T. Crowell the Standard makes some said that Captain Ardrey did not extracts: day than the missionary could repair in a year. The agent is usually a third-rate politician who could fill not other place, and so he was sent West as an agent. The salary received by these agents is usually about $1,500, and in five years they about $1.500, and in five years they smass a fortune of from fifty to a mass a fortune of from fifty to a
mass a fortune of from fifty to a mass a fortune of the desk and read. Cap handred thousand, thus showing on tain Ardrey said "the article is writfizzled out. And, furthermore, its fizzled out. And, furthermore, its getting worse all the time. The transactions in word. One con to the condition of the dairy getting worse all the time. The handred thousand, thus showing on what a gigantic scale both government and Indian is swindled, and when he is detected in his crime is samply discharged and let go un supported the Third Party In the Indian Territory, where they have been best protect. I, some tribes, of which there are twenty he article referred to this incident, saying that the payer have reached a high state of the article referred to was written be a prosperous year for millers, or whom he had esteem, and he re- tering at present. are 131 schools, 196 churches and 216 pative preachers. They have a legistrature that meets on the 15th of every October. The total number of Indians in the Indian Territory is 125,000, of whom one-third are leading tribe. Their language is the explanation of Senator Ardrey's vote I have seen in numbers, if they were

The Congress Ended. The Congress, of which Boss soldiers pensions for two thousand Reed has been managing editor, has years besides.

What is to become of the poor this nation is worth $200,000, and the wealth of the nation per capita is $15,000, the greater part of which is, of course, land. He took this tribe as an example of what may be about rolling and we suppose the country will be about rolling and the same about rolling and the same and we suppose they will live and have their continual being. But about polities and we hope to say to me, with nothing but the wheat proper measures for preserving peace and protecting the Irdians from white renegades and the evermoving wave of emigra ion. The civilizing of this tribe was brought party of men who are represents. According to the history of the tives wreck it. The country will go on and on—growing grander and greater, and even if Colonel Doctor Mary J. Walker would happen to be disgusted with the state of affairs before that time. They are the same made president, the country would as the Kansas gra-shoppers that eat survive such a calamity, and we poor up everything some years ago I woman in the mountains got the been presented.

nent home; give Bibles for bayonets teen years of peace and four years the country as fast as possible. It and send missionaries and teachers of war. No State ever dismissed a takes a mint of money to buy whe t and send missionaries and teachers instead of soldiers; if the American peo le would cease to read and accept as good history yellow-backed literature, the government would down with more dignity, with a Wheat is worth $2.40 per bushel, or clearer conscience, with a brighter four cents per pound. better and more satisfactory than killing him.

He described the mode of life people. Wade Hampton will go vidually but collectively, as those This leaves us all well and having as whose mean greed and narrowness good time as possible. of soul made them despise the motives that move just and manly men. THE INAUGURATION.

----Hickory will not vote on water body need have any fears about that, works, AITTLE DROPS OF CHARLES POSTER, Tar, Pitch, Turpentine and Other Tar Secretary of United States Treasury Heel Products.

Charles Foster, the new Secretary of the Treasury, was born in Senece county, Ohio, April 12th, 1828. His father kept a country store and gave his son a good education. When he was fifteen years old his father's sickness compelled him to take charge of the store, and the busi-ness career then begun has been a roe High School building was destroyed by fire this morning. The building was first discovered burning between three and four o'clock.

Thomas E. Pemberton, of Little Rock, Ark., Albert Bost, of Cabarrus county, and Hurbert Rhodes, of given heavy majorities in favor of in the three congressional elections following—a remarkable proof of his pers nal popularity due to pubtic appreciation of his admirable character. In Congress he quickly made his mark. He had the credit The young man Bost, spoken of above, is the son of Mr. Martin L. Bost, of No. 9 and box of Mr. Martin L. a bright and promising young mas. eightn-as of character is recognized ov n by those who differ from him nost widety In 1879 he was elected Governor of The Coronicle hears that there is The Coronicle hears that there is Ohio by a plurality of 17,129 votes. some misunderstanding to Mecklen-He served with great distinction. Mr. Foster is sound upon al business experience and long study ticket." Afterward, when Captain ands of good men went to the wall by a gentleman in his county for at least the prospects are very flat-forced to make such allusions. The scription. But I will put it this way: cent, to buy the United States at its estimated value-namely sixty-eight thousand millions of so destructive until I had a chance of the Bible-"Talitha Cumi."

a great ortion of the evenly oal anced world very weary.—Durham Globe.

Globe.

Grees; but it is owing to the long, dry spell. With the exception of a few showers during the last two.

The Madison Leader was it.

The committee of Ashe ville to Anna B. Groesbeck, of Philadelphia. months, it has not rained since last ing been engaged in it during four- short and it is being shipped out if

I must close for want of time. I rema n your true friend,

G. T. CROWNLL.

That "Unknown" Had no Seuse, Some unknown person having chase. - Lexington Dispatch.

Caswell young wheat looks well, weather there.

Wood famine, Leaksville. Steam laundry for Greensboro.

Base ball has entered Davidson Eleven interments at Oakdale

Wilmington, February. New Berne Fair Association pays its premiums right along.

Evangelist Pearson, of Asheville, s preaching at Henderson, Ky. New Hanover bank shares sold for $28 at auction, Wilmington.

"Tiddlewink" has got as far as Rozboro, in Person, and they name condition, and may be saved. Asheville revives interest in a soanimals. Frank Riley, Gaston county, dropped dead Saturday while saddling his horse.

Richard Riddick shot and killed M. M. Gorman, in Brunswick. Both drinking.

Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley running about the largest freight trains in the State. Goldsboro region agitated on the effect of the cold snap on fruit and early crop vegetation. Cotton from the wrecked English steamer at Ocrackoke is being de- which he found twenty-four live livered at Morehead City. Work on the mutual land and manufacturing belt line railroad, began at Durham Tuesday.

Rush station, High Point and Ashebore Road, changed to Rankin, in honor of Conductor Kankin-Dr. Dixon, of Greensboro Female College, lectures in that place for the benefit of the Methodist church. Wilmington Star says the boys are laying in heavy stocks of cigarettes, against the day of prohibition to Memorial services for the late Juins A. Bon:tz were conducted in St. Paul's M. E. Church, Goldsboro, Monday evening.

ting Rife's automatic hydraulic en-gine or ram for affording a distribu-biggest time of anybody there. tion of water in the town.

Guilford College growing into a town. The new houses built in the past half year, and many more in rospective this summer:

Prof. Martin H. Holt, of Guil- The timber of this section is one of prospective this summer:

Legislature for H. G. Chatham, of 567,170; Indians, 1,571; Chinese, 15. Total, 1,617,948. The Charlotte Chronicle discuss-people for or against ratification shall not be allowed to vote.

It is though that the formal trans-clerk of the United States Court, in went to his employer for pay for all tion is needed. It may show them icks and out comes big results -they Charleston today or tomorrow. William Sprowles, a journeyman the contract. That man ever after adulterated may be the only harm-much grit or much plu tailor in Charlotte, a Federal sold.er went by the name of Bass good Sny-less part of the compound, and that must to have had "luck."

during the war, and who was present der. night of his capture, died Tuesday. Rev. Mr. Reed, Charlotte, said in his Sunday sermon, "The average christian is as ignorant of the teachings of the New Testament as the average editor is of the Confession little girl named "Tiudlewink," and Winston has a "Tube Rose."

The Progressive Farmer asks "if hottest summer that has ever been a State can borrow money to secure These alarmists who let their bus- known. The termometer stood as the prosperity of her people along iness go to the devil because they are high as 100 degrees for weeks at a one line of tevelopmen', why can afraid the country is not safe, make time, while other ummers it was a she not borrow it to secure the pros-grets its failure to appear last week, tion is an asssured fact.

A branch organization of the Building and Loan Association of Knoxville, Tenn., has been established at New Berne, with an authorized capital of $25,000,000. It is under the management of Odd Fel- secretary.

people. Wade Hampton will go gone up to a fabulous price, and into history a grand figure. The men he scorned too much to contend with will be remembered, not indi
The Goldsboro Argus says: Mer chants are enlarging their territory, manufactures are increasing their plants and there is a hopefulness.

I must close for want of time. people, that augurs well for the fubeautiful city.

The Progressive Farmer says: more love for meat than fear of the says that the weather in that city is the examiners. proved as fruitless as a wild goose legged men; and yet the Knoxville Journal has telegrams from Ashe-

Robins reported plenty in the Wake issued 33 marriage licenses n February. Only four interments at Greensporo cemetery in February.

Hillsboro threatens to put up a $150,000 cotton factory. Raleigh made 104 police arrests in February; 42 white, 62 colored.

The other revenue district of the State paid $70,704.69 in February. William Johnson, colored, Bugaboo Creek, Wilkes, shot and killed his wife, Friday night.

The British steamship Craigehead ashore at Ocrocoke, remains in good Five hundred able-bodied laborers are advertised for to work on the ciety for prevention of cruelty to streets of North Wilkesboro. Greensboro claims to be the place in the State for the Girls Training School, and confidently calculates on being chosen. Durham live people rejoice at prospect of a $25,000 graded school building authorized by the Legislature, after vote of the people.

Hornets Nest Riflemen, Charlotte, volunteer as a salvage corps in car ing for and protecting property during large fires in the city.

Moses Ford, nesr Forestville, owls and four flying squirrels.

not been wholly overlooked:

Johnson, colored, who shot his no disposition to escape.

They think over in Wilkes that Judge Bynum is a very fashionable city is at least as large and probably times.

In the Chron-larger." icle says the Judge has had the Sheriff teaching some of the fellows cians concerning the value of Koch's when and where to not wear their

The Chronicle tells that about ten Wilkesbor-ites attended the magnif. icent fair at New Berne, floated across the Neuse Creek in a box Leaksville is talking about adop- with a pole stuck in the end of it conclusions: The Wilkesboro Chronicle says Kirkpatrick of the Greensboro furniture Company has been up pros- of the patients, other than might be pecting. He purchased 25,000 feet ford College, was substituted by the its greatest sources of wealth.

stransactions in word. One con tion to the condition of the dairy trifling husband and maybe a scounwere conspicuous. This woodman difficulty, owing to the powerful op spared the oaks and hickory and position of the milk dealers. The Some men work hard and fer of the Three C's Railroad will others of hard texture, and cut work of the commission may con-

say "Basswood" to him again. sale of tuberculous milk here

Perhaps, Mr. Editor, an improvement in the quality of wood in this that he and his associates ha e very market might be obtained by letting decided opinions as to the danger of the name of the wood in which the infection from the milk of consumpseller speculates o the disadvantage tive cows. Why should they not of the buyer, where to the seller. cause an inquiry to be made con- all men are more or less selfish; it is survive such a catamity, and we poor never could believe that they were souls who are playing ou little parts never could believe that they were beautiful name of her daughter out What for a soubriquet would green cerning the actual condition of the hum a nature, may be, but selfishfield pine be?

> Two Items From Ashevile Citizen. A mortgage was filed in Register Mackey's office yesterday, executed by the school committee of Ashe

York Times.

A Squeezed Coon!

Baltimore Methodist Conference.

Washington, D. C., March 6 .-

Anna B. Groesbeck the sum of

W. West, chairman: D. T. Millard, separated, and he breathed again, but relieved in the end. H. A. Gudger and W. F. Randolph, and went on to Hendersonville last

Dr. Koch's lymph, valued at $50. size it up, but he may outgrow the gets and joys on as ever. The lymph was sent from New York habit of dying and be himself again. immediately after it was received by __Durham Globe. and buoyancy about the spirit of the importers. Dr. Grant is now people, that augurs well for the fu-ture growth and prosperity of our beautiful site. mended by the state board of medi- The Baltimore Methodist Confer-A gentleman of Asheville, who cal examiners. It will be dispensed ence at the meeting this morning has just returned from Knoxville, only to those who are so endorsed by settled the question as to whether women shall be allowed to go as

The Military Academy at West and without discussion defeated the heen temporarily suspended on the body, if it expects to take any joyful night, and took therefrom two hams. there on Friday and Saturday, and Point is to be rebuilt at a cost of question by a vote of 145 to 39

A printer employed on the Chat- for about a year, hence, when the tanooga News, Jim Compton, shot general conference, the supreme body wound is probably a fatal one.

WHOLE NO. 165.

partment of the University of Penn- sphere, the moving, turning, whirl-

State debran

CONSUMPTIVE COWS. SIME MOVES ON AND CHANGES A commission of eight physicians This old gray-headed mundans connected with the veterinary desylvania, began last Saturday a series ing mass it is, in all the commotions, of experiments designed to show the earthquakes and phenomena goes on effect of Koch's tuberculin upon as if nobody suffered or rejoiced.

consumptive cows. "It is estimated," That is one part of the world, but said the chairman, Dr. Zuill, before there is another side. It is the part the first injections were made, "that that makes the biggest joys and the 50 per cent. of the cases of con-blackest crimes: it is the part that sumption originate from the use of shapes marble, hows stone, makes dairy products. Our plan is to spindles, manufactures and shows free the human race from the scourge life, or on the other hand it is the by removing its cause. We propose part that is born, grows, loafs, wastes to investigate the value of the lymph away and dies.

in three lines—as a curative agent, They say that this human family as a diagnosing agent, and as an agent —all colors, classes and nationalito secure immunity from disease." ties-is growing betfer, wiser, more Three cows were subjected to the industrious and kinder; some say treatment. Two of them were un- not. And the race is not! The doubtedly tuberculous, and the tu- world is no better today than last enterprise of the South even antibercle bacillus had been found in vear-not one bit better. There are their milk. The third was supposed more churches, more preachers, more to be tuberculous, and in this case Sunday school workers, more misthe tuberculin was used as a diagno- sionaries and more good men and we state the following facts: Christian women; but there are fact that all the traffic railroads It is noticeable that these experi- more people, a wider field and more ments are made in a city to which forces to contend with. The mean milk is sent from many herds of dis- people, the vices and the crimes grow eased cows. No thorough inquiry as the nice virtues do. They may which experts have been engaged in is going on and right around you.

the region surrounding Boston, has This is a funny world, my masbeen made by the sanitary authori- ters, and the people who make it Wake county, cut down a tree in ties, but the following statement are funnier still. It is a cold world which he found twenty-four live published by the Philadelphia Press -sympathy is scarce, concert of opossums, two gray squirrels, two last year, shows that the matter has action is a back number, and like some opposing forces the private "In New Jersey not long ago, in interest, the individual likes and wife in Wilkes claims that he was the milk district of this city, fifty- dislikes and the place "where the playing, and did not know the pistol three herds were found infected with bread is buttered," tend to draw was loaded. The fatal shot was the tubeculosis. They are still sup men in different directions. Boys only one in it, and the man showed plying the city with mick. The of the same father and the same Pennsylvania milk district of the this way-girls, seldom, but some points named for two years, when it number of diseased herds in the mother are some times found going ome men move down life's path-The latest conclusions of physivav, all smiles, all cheer, flinging joys to the world and making men. tuberculin do nor, unfortunately, women and children feel better for afford much ground for expectation having come in contact with themthat the commission will succeed in such are few. Some men, like powcuring cows that are clearly tuberen der, they fly up, sizz and then drop lous. For example, Dr. Gr ffi h, ot back into equilibrium. Other men, ouchy, spiteful, sour, narrow minded the Tuberculosis Commission of the University of Pennsylvania, says in and mean, explode and leave themthe recent report of the commission's selves worsted. Sadly and regretrully we believe that a few women work, under the head of generaare this way.

"No alteration for the better oc The character, that sees no good curred in the physical signs of anv in any one or anything, that looks suspiciously upon all, is to be pittied. expected in some of a number of There is nothing good in the Bible phthisical patients subjected to fa- that fits him; he is an oddity with vorable hygienic conditions. * * lots of company.

In a majority of the cases either no Now and then you see a boy get appreciable changes in the physical bigger than his father and above his signs could be detected, or the alter mother; he speaks of them as the was the Petersburg, Va., to Blakely Mr. Editor: Your experience with ations found indicated more or less your load of field pine wood redeterioration in the condition of the sleepless nights of a fond mother line, midway between the present.

follows: Whites, 1049,191; colored; wood was oak, ash, elm, linn, buck- take to show how many consumptive men shows his head above the sureye, and hickory. The buyer, whose cows there are in the herds from face of busy life. He, forgetting name was Miller, selected all the which the milk supply of Philadel- kindness, friendliness and help, lets hickory, and after taking it home, phia is procured, its work will be of his tongue strike in the dark and his ing the charter amendments thinks paid the common price, and then great service to the people, even if it actions turn traitor to the hand and it would be pretty tough to say the refused all the other grades. He shall appear that the tuberculin will life of him that did him service. was ever after called Hickory Miller! neither cure tuberculous animals nor This is a wrangling world; men Another man by the name of Sny- make sound cows proof against in pull together on some things and der contracted to cut into cord wood fection. Not until last year was pull apart on others; men fly up, J. W. Jones the secretary of the all the trees in a certain piece of there enacted in Philadelphia a mu sputter at each other and then make Southern Historical Society, of Vir- woods at fifty cents a cord. There nicipal ordinance forbidding the sale friends. They do these things in a Asheville passed from the lake to ginia, will lecture in Durham on were trees of all kinds in the clear- of milk adulterated with water, and fit of spitefulness and irritableness. next Wednsday evening, for the beu- ing, and oak, hickory and basswood this ordinance was passed with great They would be all right without the

Some men work hard and tussle all the time with the fabled "wolf have enough left to pay all the Union be made through the office of the nothing but basswood. He then vince the people that further legisla- at the door." Other men hit a few the cords he had cut, and threw up that the water with which milk is didn't seem to have much sense, the contract. That man ever after adulterated may be the only harm-much grit or much pluck. They Farmers' Alliance organizers have the cords he had cut, and threw up that the water with which milk is didn't seem to have much sense, Some men wark hard-they barely milk which is not below the standand fired on John Wilkes Booth the A young minister, calling upon and has not been adulterated live. Other men don't work-they now developed that the membership his parishoners for the first time, may carry the germs of consumption live. We all live, every one of us in some counties is nearly as great when making his call upon the to every family where it is used live, at different places, under differ- as the combined strength of two old knight of the axe, asked him, "Ar | We hope that in the course of time ont circumstances and certainly at parties. A new alliance paper is to you Basswood Snyder?" The man the sanitary authorisies of this city different homes. "One half of the be started here this springwarned the young preacher never to will take some action to prevent the world don't know how the other half lives." The addr ss of Dr. Zuitl shows

Men are too busy, too much engaged, too thoughtless to stop and spend a thought on the surround-dairy herds in the milk district of ness is not good. Collectively we their city? The facts that might may not be so.

thus be procure I would be of great | A man starts out, full-handed; value, and could scarcely fail, we he works, he plods and he plans; he should say, to exerte a popular in is bluffed and baffled and he gives terest that would compell the en- up-the strong, heavy muscled man actment of protective laws .- New with a trade gives up. He gets waker and grows trifling as age grows, then charity-the collective hand or unselfishness-takes care of Wade Hampton.
The Greenville, (S. U.) News has this to say:
Wade Hampton yesterday left the State of South Carolina after hav

State of South Carolina after hav

The Greenville, (S. U.) News has this to say:

Wade Hampton yesterday left the State of South Carolina after hav

The Greenville, (S. U.) News has this to say:

Wade Hampton yesterday left the State of South Carolina after hav

The Greenville, (S. U.) News has the crop of wheat was not lemon, but who was very friends of the paper need have no fears as to its future. Its publication is an asssured fact.

A squeezed Coon!

A squeezed Coon!

A squeezed Coon!

A colored gentleman, whose name was not lemon, but who was very much squeezed, on the Durham and brances incurred in the building of the Orange street graded school building. The loan is to be repaid to prize him up and support him. building. The loan is to be repaid night. He tried to couple some to prize him up and support him. within three years from date, with cars, but got between two of them, But that is a freak of human nature, interest at 8 per cent.

The mortgage is executed by W. and for a little bit he looked like he was a piece of cotton. The cars gotten—missed at first by the public and for a little bit he looked like he but it is strange. He is soon for-

A genuinely good man, one that night. It is said here by authorities helped and wished well, dies. Every J. S. Grant, proprietor of Grant's that he did not get hurt very much, body says "his place can not be pharmacy on South Main street, re- although those who saw him thought filled, it is a loss to the church, to ceived this week from Lehn & Finch, that he could not live. He got the community," etc. 'Tis true'. importers, New York, two visls of pinched pretty freely anyway you But the cold world outwardly for-When a man is up and staying > down-then the world kicks at him and says stay down; and too often the poor fellow does. About the meanest thing humanity has to contend with is cold selishness. But then it is a selfish up, he is all right! When he is delegates to the general conference, A bill granting universal suffrage to women passed a third reading in This decision will not be made final the Senate of Michigan.

Wade Hampton will deliver the ville almost daily concerning the Harry Herbert in the neck. The of the Methodist Church, will act address at Augusta, April 27, at the reunion of his old brigade.

THE STANDARD.

JOB WORK ---IN THE-

-ANDAT-THE LOWEST RATES. EARLY RAILROADING IN THE

NEATEST MANNER

The following item in relation to he South is found in several leading ing Facts: The first locomotive to run in the South was built in New York from plans furnished by a citizen of Charleston, S. C. It was called the Best Friend, ' and was placed on he Charleston railroad in 1835," The date named as that of the introduction of the locomotive in the South is undoubtedly a typographical error, apparent to those who know the real facts. But in the history of our progress 1835 is a long time ago, sufficiently far back thing done at that time. But the dated by several years that early period named in the paragraph

Of course it may be accepted as a used the steam locomotive. It is begun in the summer of 1828, was originally designed for horse power concerning the prevalence of tuber- not grow together, but they grow. originally designed for horse power culosis in these herds, like that in You may not see it, but the growth as far as Ellicott's mills. In 1830, the first locomotive built in Baltimore by Peter Coop r was put upon the road, and the success of the substitution of steam for horse power satisfactorily demonstrated. the South Carolina railroad, extending from Charleston to Hamburg and built between 1829 and 1831, a locomotive engine designed by Mr. E. L. Miller, of Charleston, was built by the Kembles, of New York, and was in active use between the xploded. This engine was the Best Friend" referred to in the paragraph. On this road, in 1831, was first introduced on any railroad, either in the United States or in England, the arrangement of two four wheeled trucks, and the long passenger cars as distinguished from the plan in use elsewhere of having three Concord or stage coaches grouped in a common system of trucks, but seperated from each other by high backs or partitions, with seats facing each other and extending crossways from one side door to the other, the conductors making his trips along the train on narrow plank extending along the sides of each coach, and grasping as he moved along the door posts of the conches. Another railroad in the South using the locomotive before 1835 gles of an anxious father, is no ough town of Halifax. This road good; he will make a mean man, a was 64 miles long. Blakely has out of memory, the necessity of its existence ceasing as soon as the Wilmington and Weldon and the Raleigh and Gaston roads were built, both begun, we believe, in > Another Southern road using the steam locomotive before the year 1835, was the New Orleans and Lake Pontchartrain road, certainly using steam in 1834; for at the end the city upon it, the first railroad experience he ever had,

After 1835, the progress of railroad construction in the South was comparatively rapid.—Asheville Cit-been working quietly throughout this state for several weeks past. It has

PREVALENCE OF HIL-HEALTH. Historich is a very matter-of-fact or medical treatment is as evident and cessing as any other necessity, and t is for this reason that we would calles. Irreparable injury is often may and medical science in general.

Physicians are now of the opinion that

A distinguished physician has re-cently recorded his belief, founded on the most satisfactory and reliable evidence, that "the fathful use of Ayer's Sarsopuilla will thoroughly word, the way to health is through he purification of the blood which conrishes the whole system. Try Ayer's