can the finite the infinite search? Did the blind discover the stars? Is the thought that I think a thought, Or a throb of a brain in its bars?

For sight that my eye can discern, Your God is what you think good— Yourself flashed back from the glass When the light pours on it in flood. You preach to me to be just And this is his realm you say:

And the good are dying with hunger, And the bad gorge every day. lou say that he loveth mercy, And the famine is not yet gone; That he hateth the shedder of blood.

And he slayeth us every one. You say that my soul shall live, That the spirit can never die Why not when I have passed by? You say I must have a meaning :

so must dung, and its meaning is flowers; What if our souls are but nurture For lives that are greater than ours!

When the fish swims out of the water, When the birds soar out of the blue, Man's thought may transcend man's knowledge.
And your God be no reflex of you.
