A LITTLE EARLY.

The Concord Standard is making a vigorous effort for a reform school. But the Standard is a little early. Mr. Cook should remember that he should not purchase a spring wagon in the fall of the year.

The reform school should comeand come at the first opportunity. But when we remember that the legislature is a long ways off-when we know that to secure a reformatory it takes legislative action-why, advocate the question now.

After the legislature has been elected; after we know to whom to tax collector, but the United States direct our efforts, then the Globe will howl loud and long for such as robbery by means of the nefarious on deposit to $1 in the land of al-Mr. Cook proposes.

RIGHT SMART STUFF.

Miss Ruth Cleveland, the oldest and only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grover Cleveland, is attracting coneiderable attention. It is possibly more than has been accorded to any female kid before. It is a little tiresome. Our county pride makes us somewhat jealous; there are many kids in this county just as pretty and lovely as Miss Ruth.

The climax, in this crazy laudation and newspaper notoriety-freak. is reached by the "Once a Week" magazine. The first page shows Mrs. Cleveland in a sitting posture with the kid, Miss Ruth, on her lap. This is no harm, 'tis true; but the picture shows the kid to have a suite of hair, thick and about three inches long. This is overdrawn, for we know some men forty years of age who have no hair at all.

HERE'S YOUR NATIONAL TAX.

The United States levies a tax of $7.41 per espita. This is the Standard's text today. This amount means that the government of this country cost an amount equivalent to $7.41 for every man, woman and child, of all colors That is just what it means. It may mean that a man, who has

But Mr. Edison found the country too far from Menlo Park, and, conworld for a civilized man of his style than in gold.

There are some other things to which Mr. Edison might possibly turn his attention with beneficial results. There are some things more valuable even than iron, though there isn't as much money in them, and it might be well, even for so important an individual as Mr. Edison, to put a little spare time in and veracity.

We hope that Tom will take our advice kindly and show that he means to profit by it in subscribing to the Standard, where he will always find these virtues taught.

WHERE IS GREATNESS?

In these degenerate days-these days when the living howl over the graves of those who are dead-well, it makes some people tired.

In the matter of the Grady monument there was an exhibition which was at best a parody on what peo ple generally believe to be the right thing.

The editor of the Globe, with as our readers as well, and which was printed in that paper Saturday morning.

Did Governor Hill mean to insinuate that there were no people in Georgia, and did the esteemed Con-Hill's presence?

Was Grady in it, or was his memory in it? It must be rememcontributed to the fund which made "Bull Head," Green county; "Fly," Georgia had assembled, presumably, son if the post office was named for to do honor to the gifted son who him) had died, and whose memory-in bronze and granite-was to be commemorated; that Governor Hill only left his State in the hands of Jones, who pays the freight, as an invited guest, and not as the star actor in a Duplin county; "Zion," Yadkin political gathering. When we remember that Grady was beloved and honored in Georgia above all men within the confines of his State; when we remember that Grady was known in that State, where Hill the rudiments, at least, of civility had not been mentioned, I want to know if, indeed, the event was an honor to Hill or an honor to the late Henry W.
