STANDARDISMS.

The Democratic and Peoples party of Kansas have formed a coalition against the Republicans.

The Oxford Day, after a suspension of three weeks, has dawned again. The Standard is glad of it

The great Cardinal Manning died so poor he had to be buried by his relatives and intimate friends, as we learn from the N. Y. Tribune.

The United States drank in nine months 465,187,732 pounds of coffee —an increase of 100,000,000 pounds. The drinking habit seems to be a growing one.

The first recorded vote of Senator Hill on any question in which silver was concerned was cast in the Senate on the 2nd. He voted with the silver men.

The funny editor of the New York Herald, in a leading article, advises the Republicans to nominate Blaine. A wise commander finds out what his enemy desires, and then declines to accommodate him.

The beauties of the McKinley tariff are illustrated in the fact that diamonds worn by the rich are taxed only 11 per cent, while clothing, worn by the poor, pay a tax of 80 per cent.

Who will succeed Frank Osborne as Solicitor for the 11th district, is the question now worrying some people. Well, the 11th has got lots of good timber and should be willing for the State—the whole State—to have Hon. Frank Osborne's services.

NEWS OF GENERAL NATURE.

The greatest coward in the world is a hero to somebody.

There are men who tire themselves almost to death looking for an easy place.

It is seldom that anybody falls down on ice. Our hardest tumbles generally come when we think we are safe.

Rev. Dr. J W North, of the North Carolina conference, died Friday night at his home in Cleveland, aged 64, and was buried Saturday at Shelby.

General Lee, Dec. 26, 1799, first applied to General Washington the phrase, "First in war, first in peace, and first in the hearts of his countrymen!"

Elisha Walton, of Jacksonville, N. C., reports to the Wilmington Star that he sheared from one sheep eleven and a half pounds of wool at one time. The sheep was 14 months and 12 days old.

An Awful Thing to Remember.

Chicago Tribune.

When a bachelor getting out of bed on a cold morning decides to keep on his night robe till the room gets warmer and then thoughtlessly hurries away to breakfast, where people smile slyly and significantly, it does not add to his joy to remember that he did not make the change in the apparel he contemplated.

Lieut. Jas. Hetherington, United States navy, who shot and killed the English banker, Robinson, on the streets of Yokohama on June 6th, has been ordered to Washington to stand a court-martial trial.

Shelby Review: Dr. R H Morrison was summoned by telegraph Friday to the bedside of his sister, Mrs. Stonewall Jackson, who is seriously sick at Asheville. Dr. Morrison, accompanied by Mrs. Morrison, left on the first train. Mrs. Jackson's friends throughout the State will be glad to learn that she has since improved.

COLLEGE FUN AND STATISTICS.

A very interesting volume called the Hellenian has just been published by the Greek Letter Fraternities, at the University. It is elegantly printed, bound and illustrated, and is full of most amusing college jokes and interesting college statistics. It is dedicated to President Winston, who is in full sympathy with college wit and humor. The editor-in-chief is Mr. J Crawford Biggs. The University colors are white and blue. The University yell is 'Rah! 'Rah! 'Rah! White and blue! Vive la! Vive la! N. C. U.

The average age of students in the University is 19 years and 9 months; average height, 5 feet 10 inches; average weight, 150 pounds; the favorite study is Mathematics; 58 per cent. prefer brunettes to blondes; 63 per cent. carry watches; the choice for next president is Cleveland; 11 per cent. wear eye glasses; 35 per cent. own dress suits; the favorite poet is Tennyson; favorite novelist, Scott; 25 per cent. have been engaged; 72 per cent. live in towns; the most intellectual man, Biggs, of Oxford; the most popular man, Hoke, of Raleigh; the hardest working man, Davis, of Tarboro; the handsomest man, W W Davies; the best athlete, Mangum; the best orator, F Harding, of Greenville; 37 per cent. play base ball, 40 per cent. foot ball; 66 per cent. tennis; 11 per cent. visit in the village. Among the faculty the students vote President Winston the most intellectual man, Professor Alexander the most popular, Professor Hume the hardest worker, and Professor Venable the handsomest; 20 per cent. of the students play on musical instruments; 31 per cent. are at the University "on their own hook;" the best prospective lawyer is J S Hill, of Duplin; the best doctor, R H Johnston, of Tarboro.

The book contains handsome full page engravings as follows: The twelve editors, President Winston, the pins and devices of each of the twelve fraternities, the Phi hall, the Di hall, the Chapel, the Glee club (sixteen members), the Old East building, the Library, the South building, the German club, the Library (interior), the Old West building, Memorial hall, and the foot ball team.

There are very many great humorous wood cuts, illustrating many phases of college life.

The names of the Fraternities at the University are: Delta Kappa Epsilon (established 1851), Phi Gamma Delta 1851, Beta Theta Pi 1852, Phi Kappa Sigma, Sigma Alpha Epsilon 1857, Zeta Psi 1858, Alpha Tau Omega 1879, Kappa Alpha 1881, Phi Delta Theta, Sigma Nu 1888, Sigma Chi 1889. There are also a Manning Legal Club, a Glee Club, a German Club, an Athletic Association, a Driving Club, a Dude Club, an Eating Club, a Bachelor's Club, a Bicycle Club, a Choir, a Chess Club, a Whist Club, Three Knights of the Round Table, and a Masher's Club. All the various organizations are described with some fun and humor mingled with history. Each class has its own history, statistics and wit. There is a racy diary and a most rare and enjoyable lot of college cuts, all free lances.

EVERYTHING AGAINST WHEAT

Accordingly Loses in Value—Hatch's Bill Causes it to Tumble.

CHICAGO, June 6.—Everything and nearly everybody was against wheat today, and the result was a very considerable loss in value. Prices started at Saturday's closing figures, went to one half lower and declined five eighths. Then reports were received from the winter wheat country to the effect that bright, warm weather on flood soaked fields was producing rust in wheat. This caused free buying and a rally of seven-eighths at the top, however. The fact became known that the Hatch anti-option bill had passed the house of representatives by a large majority. This was unexpected, and caused a rush to sell, which carried prices down to one and five-eighths. Later consideration, however, led to the belief that the bill would be defeated in the Senate, and there was a rally. The fluctuations thereafter were narrow, and the close was easy at the decline.

Corn was weak from the start, and closed near the bottom. The weakening factors were the passage of the Hatch bill, better weather, heavy estimated receipts for tomorrow, unexpected large receipts and free selling by the longs. The close shows a loss of two and five-eighths and two and three fourths for futures, the nearby months suffering most.

The Problem Solved.

The Bellefontain (Ohio) Examiner comes to the front with a new proposition on female suffrage. It says: "In lieu of suffrage, we suggest that the men be permitted to cast two votes each. That is, each man to cast one vote for himself, and, if married, another for his wife. Young men to vote for their best girls, and widowers and old bachelors to make their selections from the widows and spinsters. If more votes are needed to run the country satisfactorily, we ask that our plan receive the consideration it so obviously merits."

JAMES G. BLAINE.

Tenders His Resignation as Secretary of the State.

Washington, June 4.—Secretary Blaine has resigned the secretaryship of state, and the resignation has been accepted by the President. The following correspondence explains itself:

DEPARTMENT OF STATE.

Washington, June 3, '92, 12:15 p. m.

To the president:—I respectfully beg leave to submit my resignation of the office of Secretary of State of the United States, to which I was appointed by you on the 5th of March, 1889. The condition of public business in the department of state justifies me in requesting that my resignation may be accepted immediately. I have the ho or to be respectfully,

Your obedient servant,
JAMES G BLAINE.

EXECUTIVE MANSION,
Washington, June 4, 1892.

To the Secretary of State:

Your letter of this date, tendering your resignation of the office of Secretary of State of the United States has been received. The terms in which you state your desires are such as to leave me no choice but to accede to your wishes at once. Your resignation is therefore accepted.

Very respectfully yours.
BENJAMIN HARRISON.

To Hon. James G Blaine.

As soon as the resignation of Mr. Blaine has been accepted, an official telegram was sent from the Executive Mansion to the several departments announcing the fact to the several secretaries. The news of Mr. Blaine's resignation created the most intense excitement throughout the city. It was a surprise so big that few would at first believe it. Mr. Blaine's most intimate friends did not anticipate it, and were perhaps more surprised than the general public, who have been unable to see how Mr. Blaine could remain in the cabinet occupying the attitude to the republican nomination that he did. The opinion here is that Mr. Blaine has thrown down the gauntlet and that his resignation is a declaration that he is now an avowed candidate.

The State Chronicle of Sunday says: The zeal manifested in behalf of the Secretary by his friends at Minneapolis leave the inference that he has "stripped for the race" If he does appear before the convention it is very probable that his nomination will be assured on the first ballot. No man in the republican party has so strong a hold upon the masses of his party as Mr. Blaine. In statesmanship he has no equal in his party, and his nomination would mean a brilliant, vigorous and aggressive campaign.

There will be no regret among democrats at Mr. Harrison's defeat. This exponent of force bills, high tariffs, and champion of the pampered protectionists of the North will then pass into political obscurity, unwept, unhonored and unsung.

No Longer the Organ.

The Progressive Farmer is no longer the organ of the State Alliance. Here is Col. Polk's withdrawal:

May 31, 1892.

Hon. S. B. Alexander, President Executive Board North Carolina State Alliance:

Dear Sir and Brother—Having learned that your executive board at its recent session in Raleigh, N. C. expressed its dissatisfaction with the attitude of the Progressive Farmer in its last preceding issue toward the people's party, I hereby tender the resignation of that paper as the official organ of the State Alliance of North Carolina. While it will remain as true and loyal to the Alliance organization and its principles as it has ever been, it cannot and will not be circumscribed in its advocacy of the methods which only can bring relief to our suffering people, and which have been so overwhelmingly endorsed by them. In thus severing its official connection with the State Alliance, it in no measure abates its allegiance to the principles of our order, and will ever stand ready and willing to extend its full and hearty co-operation to all the officers and the brotherhood for promoting and maintaining the principles which we have espoused.

Fraternally yours,
L. L. POLK,
Editor Progressive Farmer.

Rev. Tom Dixon Arrested for Criminal Libel in New York.

New York, June 3.—Rev. Thomas Dixon, Jr., arrested on a charge of libel, preferred by President Koch, of the excise board, was arraigned before Justice Grady in Jefferson today and released on bail. He declined to be interviewed, but his lawyer, Mr. Moss, said that Mr. Dixon in preaching the sermon was not actuated by any personal feeling against Excise Commissioner Koch. The remarks were directed against the city government, and Mr. Koch was only referred to incidentally. His examination was set down for June 8.

NEWS NOTES.

Somehow it is awfully hard to believe that a hero can be made of the man next door.

True happiness is to be possessed of no ambition for the future and no regrets for the past.

A Shelby firm is making 3,000,000 vitrified bricks, to be used at Asheville in street paving.

For the first time in a great many years there were no honorary degrees conferred at the University.

There are very few people who live to be sixty who do not look as if they were tired of living and afraid to die.

The Savannah Morning News says that the Third party is withering because it has no competent leaders in the field.

The Jew is a great power in France, and generally unmolested. Two of Napoleon's most eminent marshals, Soult and Massena, were of the remnant of Israel.

The Russian captain who saved the Czar's life in 1866, has died of delirium tremens. He was loyal to his Emperor and too much attached to wine of the country.

One man claims to have found in cotton seed a substitute for Indian rubber and another has patented a device to make the oil a superior lubricant and gastronomic blessing. The King is very much alive.

Judy Burris, a young woman, was placed in jail in Stanly county Thursday. Sometime ago she and Alex. Whitley left that county together for the west. Whitley was arrested of the murder of D B Tucker, and the return of Judy Burris gave rise to suspicion, and the charges made against her, the News says, place her in peculiar circumstances.

HE LIVED IN GRAND STYLE.

And When His Creditors Made a Run He Skipped.

Salisbury Herald.

There is a sensation at the mountain town of Marion with a very sad ending. The last legislature chartered the Marion Banking and Industrial Company. One W H Roberts, of New York, came along and took charge. The home people who had lent their names saw the fraud and dropped out. Roberts used stationery already printed and victimized many persons in various parts of the country. He was searched for, but is in New York. A few days since his wife, who had for a time lived in handsome style at Marion, returned there, John J Stevens, who was ostensibly the secretary of the so-called banking company, being with her. She is a lady of refinement and education and of a wealthy family and married Roberts eighteen months ago. For several months he had been in New York, ostensibly engaged as banker, while she remained with her parents in Savannah, Ga.

She knew nothing of the troubles at Marion when she arrived and has no knowledge of her husband's business. She had had her rooms there furnished in costly style. The creditors made a run, attachments were served against the furniture and when she called for the articles given her by her mother and found that she could not move them, her grief was distressing. She has now entirely lost her mind, is restless and imagines she is going to be arrested and tried. The sad news was telegraphed her parents and they have arrived. Stevens was arrested but made his escape from the officers and attempted to get to South Carolina. He was caught a few miles from Marion. The charge against him was embezzlement, but he proved he had sent the money he collected to Roberts at New York. He is Roberts cat's paw and dupe. As soon as released, Stevens again fled and when there were some later developments and fresh warrants were issued he could not be found.

Colored Excursionists Killed in a Wreck.

Louisville, Ky., June 6.—Near South Carrollton, yesterday, the regular north-bound passenger train on the Nashville & Owensboro railroad collided with an excursion train filled with negroes. Hugh Bailey, fireman of the excursion train, and three negroes were killed, and twenty-five were injured, several dangerously.

A Midnight Conference.

Washington, D C June 6.—At one o'clock this morning Secretaries Elkins and Rusk held a conference with President Harrison in the White House.

They conferred with the leaders of the Harrison boom by the President's private wire direct to Minneapolis.

What passed between them is not known, as all refuse to talk.

Secretary Blaine and family will go to New York tomorrow.

It is not the tallest tree that bears the most fruit.

POISONED BY ICE CREAM.

Serious Ending of a Regular Function in Piedmont—Sixty Sick and Physicians Kept Busy.

PIEDMONT, S. C., June 6.—An ice cream festival given here Saturday night under the auspices of the Presbyterian church resulted in a wholesale poisoning of its customers. It is said that the cream was made on Friday and, remaining in the cans over night, had developed a tasteless but dangerous power. The evening passed off merrily, pleasant to the guests and profitable to the church, but a short time after their return home about sixty of those who had partaken of the unhealthy dish began to exhibit symptoms of acute poisoning and the physicians of the place were overwhelmed with urgent calls. Many of the cases were severe, and but for prompt attention would certainly have resulted fatally. This event will doubtless establish the fact in this community that ice cream and tin cans can not be left together with safety.

Killed by Lightning.

Asheville, N. C., June 6.—During a thunder storm today lightning struck the partially completed graded school building, on Valley street, instantly killing Will Bradford, formerly of Caldwell county. No bruises could be found except a very slight one on the neck. His body was completely blackened. Jack Thomson and Will Black, negroes, were knocked down and stunned. Black's shoes were completely demolished.

The chaplaincy in the United States army must be a pretty nice soft berth, when there are 4,000 applications on file for three vacancies.

THE PLATFORM.

Adopted by the State Convention at Raleigh Wednesday.

Resolved 1. That the Democracy of North Carolina reaffirm the principles of the Democratic party, both State and national, and particularly favor the free coinage of silver and an increase of the currency, and the repeal of the internal revenue system. And we denounce the McKinley tariff bill as unjust to the consumers of the country, and leading to the formation of trusts, combines and monopolies which have oppressed the people; and especially do we denounce the unnecessary and burdensome increase in the tax on cotton ties and on tin, so largely used by the poorer portion of the people. We likewise denounce the iniquitous force bill, which is not yet abandoned by the Republican party, but is being urged as a measure to be adopted as soon as they regain control of the House of Representatives, the purpose and effect of which measure will be to establish a second period of reconstruction in the Southern States, to subvert the the liberties of our people and inflame a new race antagonism and sectional animosities.

2 That we demand financial reform, and the enactment of laws that will remove the burdens of the people relative to the existing agricultural depression, and do full and ample justice to the farmers and laborers of our country.

3. That we demand the abolition of national banks, and the substitution of legal tender Treasury notes, in lieu of national bank notes, issued in sufficient volume to do the business of the country on a cash system, regulating the amount needed on a per capita basis as the business interests of the country expand, and that all money issued by the government shall be legal tender in payment of all debts, both public and private.

4. That we demand that Congress shall pass such laws as shall effectually prevent the dealing in futures of all agricultural and mechanical productions; providing such stringent system of procedure in trials as shall secure prompt conviction and imposing such penalties as shall secure most perfect compliance with the law.

5. That we demand the free and unlimited coinage of silver.

6. That we demand the passage of laws prohibiting the alien owners alike of land, and that Congress take early steps to devise some plan to obtain all lands now owned by alien and foreign syndicates; and that all lands now held by railroads and other corporations, in excess of such as is actually used and needed by them, be reclaimed by the government and held for actual settlers only.

7. Believing in the doctrine of "equal rights to all and special privileges to none," we demand that taxation, national or State, shall not be used to build up one interest or class at the expense of another. We believe that the money of the country should be kept as much as possible in the hands of the people, and hence we demand that all revenue, national, State or county, shall be limited to the necessary expenses of the government, economically administered.

8. That Congress issue a sufficient amount of fractional paper currency to facilitate the exchange through the medium of the United States mail.

9. That the General Assembly pass such laws as will make the public school system more effective, that the blessings of education may be extended to all the people of the State alike.

Mr. McDonald, of Cabarrus, moved that the platform be adopted by acclamation. The following amendment was offered and accepted.

Resolved, That we favor a graduated tax on incomes.

THE TEACHERS' ASSEMBLY.

Useful Information for Teachers and the Public.

In reply to a great many letters of inquiry received every day by the officers of the Teachers' Assembly concerning the arrangements which have been made with the railroads in regard to the assembly certificates this season, Hugh Morson, president, and E. G. Harrell, secretary, gave the desired information to the public as follows: The railroad rates are the same as heretofore; only about one and a quarter cents a mile. Tickets are on sale from June 18th to July 3d, good to return until July 15th. The annual fees for membership $2 for males and $1 for females. These amounts are not to be sent to the secretary, as heretofore, but at his special request the railroads have added a membership coupon to the railroad ticket, and all who attend the assembly pay the fee to the railroad agent with the price of the ticket. When you reach Morehead City the secretary will take up the coupon and issue an official "certificate of membership" without charge, which will secure for the holders the rate of $1 per day for board at the Atlantic Hotel and free admission to all the exercises of the assembly, special lectures and entertainments. To all female members of the assembly who have paid $2 to the railroad for certificate coupon the secretary will return $1 when ticket is presented at Morehead City.

The programme has been prepared with a special view to interest, benefit and entertain both the teachers and the public. The assembly opens on June 21 and continues in session two weeks.

Two Republican Convention.

McKinley, of Ohio, is chairman.

The feeling between the Blaine and Harrison factions is getting warm.
