

THIS 4-PAGER HAS A BIGGER CIRCULATION AT NORTH CAROLINA IN THE COUNTY, SAVE ONE, THAN ANY OTHER PAPER.

EDITOR'S DESK.

THE MAN WHO NOMINATED HIM

Hardly turns his back on Exum and the Third Party--He Gives The Reasons For The Faith That Is No Longer In Him.

The Goldsboro Daily Argus contains the following open letter to the People's party candidate for Governor:

To the Hon. W. P. Exum, People's Party candidate for Governor of North Carolina:

My Dear Sir:--After looking carefully over the field, I find every argument against the Democratic party false. I looked carefully through the "political ticker" and I find the Republican party is responsible for all the bad laws, and on'y occasionally has a Democrat voted for any of these bad laws.

The Republicans are now taking a census of the voters to find out our strength in the following way: First: To know how many People's party men we have that have been Democrats. Second: How many will return to the Democratic fold in case they give us a three cornered fight.

VOL. V.---NO. 35. CONCORD, N. C., THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER, 8 1892. WHOLE NO 242.

WHAT DO YOU THINK.

Mr. Editor: In the beginning, the Alliance claimed to be nonsectarian and nonpartisan. In other words it said that it was neither a religious sect nor a political party. It professed not to interfere with a man's religious or political convictions.

IS PROBABLY GUILTY.

Lizzie Borden is Held For The Grand Jury. Fall River, Mass., Sept. 1.--The hearing in the case of Lizzie Borden, charged with the murder of her father and step mother was closed today.

EXUM AND MAYNARD HARRANGUE AT LUMBERTON--THEY REFUSE A DIVISION OF TIME.

Lumberton, N. C., Sept. 2.--Dr. Exum, the Third party candidate for Governor, and Dr. Maynard, the Third party candidate for Congress in this district, spoke here today. They positively refused to divide time with the Democrats, but after they had finished Col. W. F. French, Hon. A. Rowland, N. A. McLean, Esq., and other prominent Democrats made telling speeches and literally demolished the unfounded arguments of these advocates of negro rule.

North Carolina Republicans.

Charlotte, N. C., Sept. 2.--At a conference between Chairman Eaves and the republican managers in Washington and New York it was decided to nominate Judge W. P. Bryum for governor of North Carolina. In an interview today with a Charlotte News reporter, Bryum, said: "I am not a candidate for that office, and will not accept that or any other nomination under any circumstances."

THE THIRD PARTY NOMINEE FOR THE SENATE.

This office has just gotten over a "big spree." The lay-out was varied and big in quantity. It came near being Washington pie than anything else if variety makes "Washington Pie." It might have been a barbecue, but it wasn't; it was merely a banquet given complimentary to Hard Times.

LOCAL MATTERS.

Depot agent spells his name S-y-m-b-a-l and pronounces it "Sim-b-l." Cleveland badges are thick around here, and Cleveland ballots will be thicker Nov. 8th.

County Sunday School Convention.

The Sunday School Convention, of Cabarrus county met at St. John's Lutheran church on Thursday, September 1. The president, Mr. W. R. O'Neil, not being present, Esq. Jno. H. Long, presided.

Call for Democratic Primaries.

All DEMOCRATS are cordially invited to meet at their customary voting places, at 2 o'clock on Monday September 19th, 1892, and elect a Township Executive Committee to serve for the next two years, to consist of five active workers; also to elect delegates to a county convention to be held at the Court House on the following Wednesday Sept. 21st at 12 o'clock noon.

With the last Sabbath night of August, the most interesting meeting was held at Goldie creek.

Rev. J. S. Medford, the pastor of the A. R. P. church at Chester, S. C., did all the preaching during the occasion. Every other day, two sermons were preached: the intervening days, one during the day, another at night, for five days.

Col. Corbett, the pugilistic brain, passed here on Sunday in a private car of a special train.

Col. Corbett, the pugilistic brain, passed here on Sunday in a private car of a special train. He goes south to fight another colony, for a $45,000 prize. It is not probable that he could ever ride on a special train and have a private car. At any rate, St. Peter would hardly have a chance at a $45,000 prize.

Col. Corbett, the pugilistic brain, passed here on Sunday in a private car of a special train.

Col. Corbett, the pugilistic brain, passed here on Sunday in a private car of a special train. He goes south to fight another colony, for a $45,000 prize. It is not probable that he could ever ride on a special train and have a private car. At any rate, St. Peter would hardly have a chance at a $45,000 prize.

Col. Corbett, the pugilistic brain, passed here on Sunday in a private car of a special train.

Col. Corbett, the pugilistic brain, passed here on Sunday in a private car of a special train. He goes south to fight another colony, for a $45,000 prize. It is not probable that he could ever ride on a special train and have a private car. At any rate, St. Peter would hardly have a chance at a $45,000 prize.

Col. Corbett, the pugilistic brain, passed here on Sunday in a private car of a special train.

Col. Corbett, the pugilistic brain, passed here on Sunday in a private car of a special train. He goes south to fight another colony, for a $45,000 prize. It is not probable that he could ever ride on a special train and have a private car. At any rate, St. Peter would hardly have a chance at a $45,000 prize.

THE THIRD PARTY NOMINEE FOR THE SENATE.

This office has just gotten over a "big spree." The lay-out was varied and big in quantity. It came near being Washington pie than anything else if variety makes "Washington Pie." It might have been a barbecue, but it wasn't; it was merely a banquet given complimentary to Hard Times.

LOCAL MATTERS.

Depot agent spells his name S-y-m-b-a-l and pronounces it "Sim-b-l." Cleveland badges are thick around here, and Cleveland ballots will be thicker Nov. 8th.

County Sunday School Convention.

The Sunday School Convention, of Cabarrus county met at St. John's Lutheran church on Thursday, September 1. The president, Mr. W. R. O'Neil, not being present, Esq. Jno. H. Long, presided.

Call for Democratic Primaries.

All DEMOCRATS are cordially invited to meet at their customary voting places, at 2 o'clock on Monday September 19th, 1892, and elect a Township Executive Committee to serve for the next two years, to consist of five active workers; also to elect delegates to a county convention to be held at the Court House on the following Wednesday Sept. 21st at 12 o'clock noon.

With the last Sabbath night of August, the most interesting meeting was held at Goldie creek.

Rev. J. S. Medford, the pastor of the A. R. P. church at Chester, S. C., did all the preaching during the occasion. Every other day, two sermons were preached: the intervening days, one during the day, another at night, for five days.

Col. Corbett, the pugilistic brain, passed here on Sunday in a private car of a special train.

Col. Corbett, the pugilistic brain, passed here on Sunday in a private car of a special train. He goes south to fight another colony, for a $45,000 prize. It is not probable that he could ever ride on a special train and have a private car. At any rate, St. Peter would hardly have a chance at a $45,000 prize.

Col. Corbett, the pugilistic brain, passed here on Sunday in a private car of a special train.

Col. Corbett, the pugilistic brain, passed here on Sunday in a private car of a special train. He goes south to fight another colony, for a $45,000 prize. It is not probable that he could ever ride on a special train and have a private car. At any rate, St. Peter would hardly have a chance at a $45,000 prize.

Col. Corbett, the pugilistic brain, passed here on Sunday in a private car of a special train.

Col. Corbett, the pugilistic brain, passed here on Sunday in a private car of a special train. He goes south to fight another colony, for a $45,000 prize. It is not probable that he could ever ride on a special train and have a private car. At any rate, St. Peter would hardly have a chance at a $45,000 prize.

Col. Corbett, the pugilistic brain, passed here on Sunday in a private car of a special train.

Col. Corbett, the pugilistic brain, passed here on Sunday in a private car of a special train. He goes south to fight another colony, for a $45,000 prize. It is not probable that he could ever ride on a special train and have a private car. At any rate, St. Peter would hardly have a chance at a $45,000 prize.

THE THIRD PARTY NOMINEE FOR THE SENATE.

This office has just gotten over a "big spree." The lay-out was varied and big in quantity. It came near being Washington pie than anything else if variety makes "Washington Pie." It might have been a barbecue, but it wasn't; it was merely a banquet given complimentary to Hard Times.

LOCAL MATTERS.

Depot agent spells his name S-y-m-b-a-l and pronounces it "Sim-b-l." Cleveland badges are thick around here, and Cleveland ballots will be thicker Nov. 8th.

County Sunday School Convention.

The Sunday School Convention, of Cabarrus county met at St. John's Lutheran church on Thursday, September 1. The president, Mr. W. R. O'Neil, not being present, Esq. Jno. H. Long, presided.

Call for Democratic Primaries.

All DEMOCRATS are cordially invited to meet at their customary voting places, at 2 o'clock on Monday September 19th, 1892, and elect a Township Executive Committee to serve for the next two years, to consist of five active workers; also to elect delegates to a county convention to be held at the Court House on the following Wednesday Sept. 21st at 12 o'clock noon.

With the last Sabbath night of August, the most interesting meeting was held at Goldie creek.

Rev. J. S. Medford, the pastor of the A. R. P. church at Chester, S. C., did all the preaching during the occasion. Every other day, two sermons were preached: the intervening days, one during the day, another at night, for five days.

Col. Corbett, the pugilistic brain, passed here on Sunday in a private car of a special train.

Col. Corbett, the pugilistic brain, passed here on Sunday in a private car of a special train. He goes south to fight another colony, for a $45,000 prize. It is not probable that he could ever ride on a special train and have a private car. At any rate, St. Peter would hardly have a chance at a $45,000 prize.

Col. Corbett, the pugilistic brain, passed here on Sunday in a private car of a special train.

Col. Corbett, the pugilistic brain, passed here on Sunday in a private car of a special train. He goes south to fight another colony, for a $45,000 prize. It is not probable that he could ever ride on a special train and have a private car. At any rate, St. Peter would hardly have a chance at a $45,000 prize.

Col. Corbett, the pugilistic brain, passed here on Sunday in a private car of a special train.

Col. Corbett, the pugilistic brain, passed here on Sunday in a private car of a special train. He goes south to fight another colony, for a $45,000 prize. It is not probable that he could ever ride on a special train and have a private car. At any rate, St. Peter would hardly have a chance at a $45,000 prize.

Col. Corbett, the pugilistic brain, passed here on Sunday in a private car of a special train.

Col. Corbett, the pugilistic brain, passed here on Sunday in a private car of a special train. He goes south to fight another colony, for a $45,000 prize. It is not probable that he could ever ride on a special train and have a private car. At any rate, St. Peter would hardly have a chance at a $45,000 prize.

THE THIRD PARTY NOMINEE FOR THE SENATE.

This office has just gotten over a "big spree." The lay-out was varied and big in quantity. It came near being Washington pie than anything else if variety makes "Washington Pie." It might have been a barbecue, but it wasn't; it was merely a banquet given complimentary to Hard Times.

LOCAL MATTERS.

Depot agent spells his name S-y-m-b-a-l and pronounces it "Sim-b-l." Cleveland badges are thick around here, and Cleveland ballots will be thicker Nov. 8th.

County Sunday School Convention.

The Sunday School Convention, of Cabarrus county met at St. John's Lutheran church on Thursday, September 1. The president, Mr. W. R. O'Neil, not being present, Esq. Jno. H. Long, presided.

Call for Democratic Primaries.

All DEMOCRATS are cordially invited to meet at their customary voting places, at 2 o'clock on Monday September 19th, 1892, and elect a Township Executive Committee to serve for the next two years, to consist of five active workers; also to elect delegates to a county convention to be held at the Court House on the following Wednesday Sept. 21st at 12 o'clock noon.

With the last Sabbath night of August, the most interesting meeting was held at Goldie creek.

Rev. J. S. Medford, the pastor of the A. R. P. church at Chester, S. C., did all the preaching during the occasion. Every other day, two sermons were preached: the intervening days, one during the day, another at night, for five days.

Col. Corbett, the pugilistic brain, passed here on Sunday in a private car of a special train.

Col. Corbett, the pugilistic brain, passed here on Sunday in a private car of a special train. He goes south to fight another colony, for a $45,000 prize. It is not probable that he could ever ride on a special train and have a private car. At any rate, St. Peter would hardly have a chance at a $45,000 prize.

Col. Corbett, the pugilistic brain, passed here on Sunday in a private car of a special train.

Col. Corbett, the pugilistic brain, passed here on Sunday in a private car of a special train. He goes south to fight another colony, for a $45,000 prize. It is not probable that he could ever ride on a special train and have a private car. At any rate, St. Peter would hardly have a chance at a $45,000 prize.

Col. Corbett, the pugilistic brain, passed here on Sunday in a private car of a special train.

Col. Corbett, the pugilistic brain, passed here on Sunday in a private car of a special train. He goes south to fight another colony, for a $45,000 prize. It is not probable that he could ever ride on a special train and have a private car. At any rate, St. Peter would hardly have a chance at a $45,000 prize.

Col. Corbett, the pugilistic brain, passed here on Sunday in a private car of a special train.

Col. Corbett, the pugilistic brain, passed here on Sunday in a private car of a special train. He goes south to fight another colony, for a $45,000 prize. It is not probable that he could ever ride on a special train and have a private car. At any rate, St. Peter would hardly have a chance at a $45,000 prize.

THE THIRD PARTY NOMINEE FOR THE SENATE.

This office has just gotten over a "big spree." The lay-out was varied and big in quantity. It came near being Washington pie than anything else if variety makes "Washington Pie." It might have been a barbecue, but it wasn't; it was merely a banquet given complimentary to Hard Times.

LOCAL MATTERS.

Depot agent spells his name S-y-m-b-a-l and pronounces it "Sim-b-l." Cleveland badges are thick around here, and Cleveland ballots will be thicker Nov. 8th.

County Sunday School Convention.

The Sunday School Convention, of Cabarrus county met at St. John's Lutheran church on Thursday, September 1. The president, Mr. W. R. O'Neil, not being present, Esq. Jno. H. Long, presided.

Call for Democratic Primaries.

All DEMOCRATS are cordially invited to meet at their customary voting places, at 2 o'clock on Monday September 19th, 1892, and elect a Township Executive Committee to serve for the next two years, to consist of five active workers; also to elect delegates to a county convention to be held at the Court House on the following Wednesday Sept. 21st at 12 o'clock noon.

With the last Sabbath night of August, the most interesting meeting was held at Goldie creek.

Rev. J. S. Medford, the pastor of the A. R. P. church at Chester, S. C., did all the preaching during the occasion. Every other day, two sermons were preached: the intervening days, one during the day, another at night, for five days.

Col. Corbett, the pugilistic brain, passed here on Sunday in a private car of a special train.

Col. Corbett, the pugilistic brain, passed here on Sunday in a private car of a special train. He goes south to fight another colony, for a $45,000 prize. It is not probable that he could ever ride on a special train and have a private car. At any rate, St. Peter would hardly have a chance at a $45,000 prize.

Col. Corbett, the pugilistic brain, passed here on Sunday in a private car of a special train.

Col. Corbett, the pugilistic brain, passed here on Sunday in a private car of a special train. He goes south to fight another colony, for a $45,000 prize. It is not probable that he could ever ride on a special train and have a private car. At any rate, St. Peter would hardly have a chance at a $45,000 prize.

Col. Corbett, the pugilistic brain, passed here on Sunday in a private car of a special train.

Col. Corbett, the pugilistic brain, passed here on Sunday in a private car of a special train. He goes south to fight another colony, for a $45,000 prize. It is not probable that he could ever ride on a special train and have a private car. At any rate, St. Peter would hardly have a chance at a $45,000 prize.

Col. Corbett, the pugilistic brain, passed here on Sunday in a private car of a special train.

Col. Corbett, the pugilistic brain, passed here on Sunday in a private car of a special train. He goes south to fight another colony, for a $45,000 prize. It is not probable that he could ever ride on a special train and have a private car. At any rate, St. Peter would hardly have a chance at a $45,000 prize.

THE THIRD PARTY NOMINEE FOR THE SENATE.

This office has just gotten over a "big spree." The lay-out was varied and big in quantity. It came near being Washington pie than anything else if variety makes "Washington Pie." It might have been a barbecue, but it wasn't; it was merely a banquet given complimentary to Hard Times.

LOCAL MATTERS.

Depot agent spells his name S-y-m-b-a-l and pronounces it "Sim-b-l." Cleveland badges are thick around here, and Cleveland ballots will be thicker Nov. 8th.

County Sunday School Convention.

The Sunday School Convention, of Cabarrus county met at St. John's Lutheran church on Thursday, September 1. The president, Mr. W. R. O'Neil, not being present, Esq. Jno. H. Long, presided.

Call for Democratic Primaries.

All DEMOCRATS are cordially invited to meet at their customary voting places, at 2 o'clock on Monday September 19th, 1892, and elect a Township Executive Committee to serve for the next two years, to consist of five active workers; also to elect delegates to a county convention to be held at the Court House on the following Wednesday Sept. 21st at 12 o'clock noon.

With the last Sabbath night of August, the most interesting meeting was held at Goldie creek.

Rev. J. S. Medford, the pastor of the A. R. P. church at Chester, S. C., did all the preaching during the occasion. Every other day, two sermons were preached: the intervening days, one during the day, another at night, for five days.

Col. Corbett, the pugilistic brain, passed here on Sunday in a private car of a special train.

Col. Corbett, the pugilistic brain, passed here on Sunday in a private car of a special train. He goes south to fight another colony, for a $45,000 prize. It is not probable that he could ever ride on a special train and have a private car. At any rate, St. Peter would hardly have a chance at a $45,000 prize.

Col. Corbett, the pugilistic brain, passed here on Sunday in a private car of a special train.

Col. Corbett, the pugilistic brain, passed here on Sunday in a private car of a special train. He goes south to fight another colony, for a $45,000 prize. It is not probable that he could ever ride on a special train and have a private car. At any rate, St. Peter would hardly have a chance at a $45,000 prize.

Col. Corbett, the pugilistic brain, passed here on Sunday in a private car of a special train.

Col. Corbett, the pugilistic brain, passed here on Sunday in a private car of a special train. He goes south to fight another colony, for a $45,000 prize. It is not probable that he could ever ride on a special train and have a private car. At any rate, St. Peter would hardly have a chance at a $45,000 prize.

Col. Corbett, the pugilistic brain, passed here on Sunday in a private car of a special train.

Col. Corbett, the pugilistic brain, passed here on Sunday in a private car of a special train. He goes south to fight another colony, for a $45,000 prize. It is not probable that he could ever ride on a special train and have a private car. At any rate, St. Peter would hardly have a chance at a $45,000 prize.

State Library

ONLY TWICE AS MUCH READING MATTER AS ANY OTHER PAPER PUBLISHED IN THIS COUNTY.

Scotia Seminary opens the 13th of October.

A little child of Henry Varner, of No. 5, died Friday night.

J. B. Winceff thinks all the cotton will open in this month.

Dr. Kamm and Marion Butler are called for Salisbury on the 10th.

Sherrif Morrison attended the speaking at Rocky River, Friday night.

R. B. Wallace, of Fairfield, threshed 48,900 bushels of grain this year.

Quite a number of people went out to St. John's to see the county Convention.

Mrs. E. R. Ransom, of Hillsboro, is in the city. Her daughter is in the music school here.

There is a show in Hillsboro, at Mrs. Miles Orton's railroad show with a fine Greenboro Sept. 10th.

Ed. Erwin brought his load of melons, and though he had a fine wagon was stowed.

Rev. Dr. Payne and Mr. C. L. White are attending the Primary at Old Ford, on the Wednesday.

Hugh Johnston reached home by 9 o'clock with a ball of new iron. He was a day behind the common.

Weekly Standard until Jan. 1, '93 for 20 cents.

At the last meeting of the high school of Concord, the members of the club of No. 11 numbered the members.

Mr. J. B. Blackwell was seen on his business that the Western Club of No. 11 numbered the members.

The Rocky River Old and New Carr Club (by sworn members) numbered 50 members. It held two thirds worked.

A gentlemen who belonged to the party that was running a fox game back and said the fox was "big as a whale."

Weekly Standard until Jan. 1, '93 for 20 cents.

Salem Academy opened with over 300 girls, on Thursday. This is the institution where Miss Maggie Nesbitt is teaching.

Rev. Z. Rush will preach on the Concord circuit in the place of Rev. J. M. Brewer, on the Second Sunday in September, at Rocky Ridge at 11 a. m. and at Center 9 p. m.

Weekly Standard until Jan. 1, '93 for 20 cents.

The balloon ascension will come off sure. The contract is such that the balloonist will win. The first and last days will witness the balloon ascension and the jumping from a height of 1500 feet.

Col. Corbett, the pugilistic brain, passed here on Sunday in a private car of a special train.

Col. Corbett, the pugilistic brain, passed here on Sunday in a private car of a special train. He goes south to fight another colony, for a $45,000 prize. It is not probable that he could ever ride on a special train and have a private car. At any rate, St. Peter would hardly have a chance at a $45,000 prize.

Col. Corbett, the pugilistic brain, passed here on Sunday in a private car of a special train.

Col. Corbett, the pugilistic brain, passed here on Sunday in a private car of a special train. He goes south to fight another colony, for a $45,000 prize. It is not probable that he could ever ride on a special train and have a private car. At any rate, St. Peter would hardly have a chance at a $45,000 prize.

Col. Corbett, the pugilistic brain, passed here on Sunday in a private car of a special train.

Col. Corbett, the pugilistic brain, passed here on Sunday in a private car of a special train. He goes south to fight another colony, for a $45,000 prize. It is not probable that he could ever ride on a special train and have a private car. At any rate, St. Peter would hardly have a chance at a $45,000 prize.

Col. Corbett, the pugilistic brain, passed here on Sunday in a private car of a special train.

Col. Corbett, the pugilistic brain, passed here on Sunday in a private car of a special train. He goes south to fight another colony, for a $45,000 prize. It is not probable that he could ever ride on a special train and have a private car. At any rate, St. Peter would hardly have a chance at a $45,000 prize.

Col. Corbett, the pugilistic brain, passed here on Sunday in a private car of a special train.

Col. Corbett, the pugilistic brain, passed here on Sunday in a private car of a special train. He goes south to fight another colony, for a $45,000 prize. It is not probable that he could ever ride on a special train and have a private car. At any rate, St. Peter would hardly have a chance at a $45,000 prize.

Col. Corbett, the pugilistic brain, passed here on Sunday in a private car of a special train.

Col. Corbett, the pugilistic brain, passed here on Sunday in a private car of a special train. He goes south to fight another colony, for a $45,000 prize. It is not probable that he could ever ride on a special train and have a private car. At any rate, St. Peter would hardly have a chance at a $45,000 prize.

Col. Corbett, the pugilistic brain, passed here on Sunday in a private car of a special train.

Col. Corbett, the pugilistic brain, passed here on Sunday in a private car of a special train. He goes south to fight another colony, for a $45,000 prize. It is not probable that he could ever ride on a special train and have a private car. At any rate, St. Peter would hardly have a chance at a $45,000 prize.

Col. Corbett, the pugilistic brain, passed here on Sunday in a private car of a special train.

Col. Corbett, the pugilistic brain, passed here on Sunday in a private car of a special train. He goes south to fight another colony, for a $45,000 prize. It is not probable that he could ever ride on a special train and have a private car. At any rate, St. Peter would hardly have a chance at a $45,000 prize.