Gov. Holt has offered a reward of $50 for the capture of O. M. Cows here, who is wanted for the murder of Sam Talley, colored, at Hickory on last Saturday.

The Standard is not a prophet and it is not an advocate of any party, but it will be long—mark you—until you will see the street swayed in operation. Remember this.

Wagon's township, in Stanley, gave the Concord Southern railroad a majority of eight votes. Fair's township voted against it; so did No. 2, in Cabarrus, which polled 41, 21 and 2 the road.

M. S. Purnear, Esq., will spend the next week in Stanley county. He would be fancy if he'd catch up with our departed friend (in spirit) Rev. Amos W. Blanton, who is said to be in these regions.

On the evening of the 23rd of October the water shall cause a prominent preacher of Concord to be put under a peace bond. He has threatened the life of a kindhearted and helpless citizen of the town.

Judge Montgomery addressed about 100 citizens of No. 2 Georgetown Wednesday night. It is stated that there were only about thirty undecided men; the balance were Democrats. The reason there were no more Third party men is because the township has but few.

Miss Clara Harris was elected first premium for largest collection in primary department ("C"), for child under 15 years. This should have appeared in the premium awards last week, but owing to an error in the committee's report the item had to be postponed until a meeting of the executive committee.

A Northern bloodsucker Republican was in Salisbury on Wednesday making himself obnoxious in his demonstrations for Weaver and Exum—it was obnoxious because of his hypocrisy. The gentleman was begged and sent on. A man has a right to belong to any party, but has no right to go into a strange counter and set an offensive hypocrite.

Edwin Newsand Observer: Some time ago a Third party club in Edgecombe county erected a fine flag pole. When the day came to pull the pole down, they were unable to get it down. It was found that the pole was not set in a hole, but was set in a hole that was filled with a substance that was so hard that it could not be pulled out. The pole was finally cut down by cutting the hole.

Rev. Dr. O. M. Payne preached at Poplar Tent Sunday evening.

The Daily Bulletin, of Hickory, is an interesting little daily paper. The little before breakfast skirmish today on the street was merely an appetizer for the gossipers.

Every Democrat must attend the township convention next Monday. Don't forget this. It is at 2 o'clock.

It's a pity Concord has no ticket office and depot commensurate with the character of the town. But let us all wait.

The biggest crowd that Concord has had for some time was here on Monday. Not many took it as far as the street parade.

The R & D is having a new platform built at the depot. The old one was too low and about given up.

Mr. Crowell tells us that that wheat he has seen in his traveling over the county, is by no means in a safe condition. He thinks if it is let lie in the bins until next spring it will be so well eaten that it will be damaged more than 50 per cent. He advises farmers to run it through wind mills at once.

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Mangum arrived on the noon train. Mr. Mangum's many friends have occasion to congratulate him—he returns well prepared to do his work better and to feel that he is peculiarly blessed. The Standard particularly congratulates him and hopes that Mrs. Mangum will like her new home.

SHES' 15 AND A HALF.

REPORTED HER FATHER AND MOTHER BOTH DEAD.

An Enchanted Father looking up the records concerning the Marriage of His Daughter—Nothing seems to stop Love—May be an Easy Case.

Mr. J. J. Overcash, of Mill Bridge, Rowan county, was in town making an investigation of some marriage records in the court house. Mr. Overcash is troubled and angry.

On Aug. 26th, while he and his wife were in Salisbury, Mr. Mitas (Sam) Overcash, of No. 1, township, Cabarrus county, took Miss Minnie Overcash, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Overcash, and struck out for license. Mr. Wooten, the Reg. later of Rowan county, refused to issue license because he knew the lady to be under 18 years of age. On being asked if he could get license in Cabarrus Mr. Wooten told him that he would have to swear falsely if he succeeded.

Mr. Mitas (or Sam as they all call him) Overcash applied to Mr. Jno. K. Patterson, our Register, for license. Mr. Patterson not knowing him, required him to get a witness.

Mr. Overcash got Mr. R. V. Smith to go with him to Register Patterson. He secured the license, which shows as follows: Mr. Overcash's name is put down Mitas and every-body calls him "Sam." Miss Minnie is put down as 20 years of age and as a resident of No. 1, Cabarrus county. And the license states further that Mitas' father and mother are both dead, but they are "in" and the Standard thinks Mr. Overcash is the liveliest corpse it ever saw.

Mr. R. V. Smith and Mr. Overcash, the groom, swore in regard to the bride as follows: "That the parties applying for license are of legal age, and so far as they are informed and believe, there is no lawful cause or impediment forbidding said marriage.

R. V. SMITH, (Groom) M. OVERCASH."

Mr. Overcash says his daughter will not be sixteen until next February and that his bible, the church, record and the census shows it.

Mr. Overcash proposes to take legal action, for he "doesn't" propose to leave anyone "on over his rights."

The ceremony was performed on the 24th of August, by C. J. M. W. Alexander, of No. 1.

Another Record Broken. The wife of Charles Billings a poor mountaineer of Ashe county, N. C., has just given birth to six boys, weighing from four to nine pounds. They are all alive and kicking.

DOG TAX

FOR Campaign Funds.

Now lay us down to sleep!

Mr. Earnhardt Plumb on. Commissioner Jesse H. Earnhardt is not at all any kin to the Third party. He thinks people have gone too far when they can't differ politically without becoming unkind and bitter towards each other. There is an awful state of affairs now. Men have lost confidence in former friends and doubt their honesty simply because they differ politically—this speaks the grand old man.

Mr. Earnhardt now endorses the Prohibition candidates and platform (national), but will, in the interest of good local government, support the ticket headed by Elias Carr.

There is a business man in Albemarle, who is so economical that he cuts his own hair.

Charlotte Observer: Mr. T. P. Wright, manager of the Charlotte Plumbing and Steam Heating Company, has completed a fine job in Mr. J. M. Odell's handsome residence in Concord.

The Standard hears of the primaries that they were largely attended all over the county and that harmony reigned supreme. Democracy is, as in the past, a winner this year.

J. Whit Barkhead, who received a complimentary vote for coroner at the primary in No. 6, showed us a root of asparagus. The ground part of this grass had 17 roots the size of a wheat straw.

DO YOU KNOW HOW TO SAVE MONEY?

Buy your Goods at Cannon's & Fitzer's One Dollar will go far there as Two Dollars do at most places.

We are distributing the surplus. Men's Pants at 50c. 75c and $1.00. If you had bought these in small lots of 10 or 15 dozen, we would have to sell at 75c, $1.00, and $1.25. But when it comes to One Hundred Dozen in a lot, we save the 25c on a pair, and give it to the customers. That's right, ain't it? Maybe you want a whole suit. Well, if you can't spare $5.00 to get one of our Black Worsted, Corkscrew suits—that are worth anywhere you find them $7.00. We sell them for $5.00. You can get a nice printed Melton for 4.00 and a good heavy Sateen for 3.00 and a nice Melton for 2.50. Now you won't believe it till you see it, but we can, and do show them every day. What? Why, a gentleman man's suit coat, pants and vest for 75c.
