THE CLIMAX OF INPAMY.

The action of the House in passing a resolution that when it adjourned it should do so out of respect to Fred Douglass (and his white wife) has created a sensation in every part of the country. We can understand how it should excite surprise everywhere except in North Carolina, but it ought not to have occasioned any surprise or consternation here. In fact, it ought to have been expected. other acts of this Legislature. It turned down another maimed soldier, and made him accept a subordinate place be nothing of importance done hereunder the negro, which he would not after, except to pass appropriation have done but for his extreme poverty. It elected a negro politician from Cumberland, to whom the Lieut. Governor, every Senator and employe has to go to get an order for his per diem or wages. The House has passed an election law framed with the purpose of enabling negro voters to repeat without fear of detection. It has gone from step to step along this line of Africanizing the State until the negroes, who share the feelings of the Richmond county darkey, are all fully satisfied, "I'se seed down to Rolly," said he, "a sight Is'e long been a-wantin' to see, and that is white men a-workin' un der a nigger." The resolution of adjournment in honor of the negro who married a white wife, and thus proved himself an enemy to both races and the peace of both, is worse a thousand times than either of the others. It is the climax of it all, State, but also disgust every negro who has are race pride or self re-
