If his plans and efforts succeeded he is the hero of his crowd and of the people. If his plans and efforts fail he must fall without complaint. Guaged by the Northwestern standard this has become a progressive country. Rate wars mean fights for business and therefore there must be some business to fight for.

The Seaboard has been game from the beginning. She is not waiting to be kicked, but has struck the first blow at every move.

She may succumb in this fight to the odds against her. On the other hand, she may come cut of this fight as the cock of the walk, and be in the future far more important in the counsels of associate railroads that she has been in the past. The Seaboard charges that Commissioner Stahlman is the tool of other roads, and is not a judicial commissioner. His head is demanded as the price of peace.

AWFUL INCONSISTENCY.

The same thing has occurred to us. We have read in Populist newspapers fierce denunciation of the questionable customs of squandering large sums of the people's money on dead Congressmen-uselessly and unnecessarily squandering it. And vet the Legislature pays the funeral of many lives, and the poor deluded expenses of a dead Populist member. True, the amount was only $85, but homes in the South as best they the principle is the same. We're not critizing the Legislature for having done this It doubtless followed precedent-which is not elways wise, by the way; but we're pointing to the inconsistency of those who have no consistency.-Statesville Landmark.

The worst blow ever struck the University was the election of S from Laredo and other border towns, of the Charlotte Observer will have Bits. Otho Wilson as a Trustee. He is in every way unfit for the position, and his election, is a reflection upon the institution and the men who secured his election. There are Populists and Republicans who ought to be on the Board, but when a man of Wilson's calibre and standing is thus honored, the institution suffers in public estimation. It is a burning shame, and no denunciation is too severe for those who secured his election. We applaud those members of the House who refused to vote for him .- News & Observer.

ANOTHER RUMPUS ABOUT DOUG. LASS.

It turns out now that the negro enildren of Fred Douglass and his white wife have never been on good terms since the marriage. The thrifty Tanker woman, it is said, has got all the property, valued at $200,000, in her name, and the negro children are virtually cut off without a shilling.
