

MONEY.

NO. 7. The value of an economic quantity is another economic quantity for which it can be exchanged. Money like every other commodity can have no exchangeable value if no one will receive it.

that the value of a commodity is always estimated in terms of some other commodity. To say a thing is worth itself would have no meaning.

A GALA DAY.

Odd Fellows Will Give a Picnic August 5-Everybody Invited-Odd Fellows to Stop for the Occasion-Grand Master Lumley Will Deliver an Address.

McDonald's grove, to the north of the baseball ground at Forest Hill has been secured as the place for a big basket picnic on Monday, August 5.

It will be a gala day. Everybody is invited, bringing with them a dinner.

The Odell Manufacturing Company will close down for the occasion, giving the operatives a holiday.

The band will furnish the music, and the day will be made one of pleasure and enjoyment.

Some time in the afternoon a baseball game will be played, arrangements now being made for a picnic.

Many other amusements are being arranged at great expense. The public generally is cordially invited to participate in the event.

A full programme of the order of the day will be printed in THE STANDARD later.

The Salisbury Team's Mascot. The Salisbury team has a mule in its club-it is their mascot.

The Herald in telling of the game between Salisbury and Concord, says: "During the sixth inning a loose mule appeared on the grounds and seemed anxious to help out the Concord boys."

But as mental affections, degrees of estimation, desires vary, it follows that values placed upon the same commodity must necessarily vary.

For example, suppose that a trader has a horse which he desires to sell and for which he asks one hundred dollars.

Buyers come and examine the horse. One thinks it worth eighty dollars, another ninety dollars, whilst a third says he will give one hundred dollars for the horse.

It is evident in this supposed case, that the three buyers either did not put the same value upon the horse, or they put different degrees of value on the hundred dollars.

The next play to be on the boards by the Dramatic club is "Little Treasure," a beautiful little English comedy, composed of six characters, with a number of specialties, which will be produced next Friday night.

The club is now in training for this play, the parts to be assigned tonight.

Four Big Successes. Having the needed merit to more than make good all the advertising claimed for them, the following four remedies have reached a phenomenal sale.

Dr. King's New Discovery, for consumption, Coughs and Colds, each bottle guaranteed-Electric Bitters, the great remedy for Liver, Stomach and Kidneys.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve, the best in the world and Dr. King's New Life Pills, which are a perfect pill. All these remedies are guaranteed to do just what is claimed for them and the dealer whose name is attached herewith will be glad to tell you more of them.

COURT PROCEEDINGS.

State vs. J F Hinson and Nathan Cranford, affray; guilty.

State vs. George F Honeycutt, re-falling without license; acquitted.

State vs. Ed Haggins, carrying concealed weapon; guilty. Haggins was sentenced to work on the road for three months.

State vs. Jim Russell, carrying concealed weapon; judgement suspended on payment of cost.

State vs. Peter Fink, carrying concealed weapon; fined $10 and cost. Fink to remain in custody until fine and costs are paid.

State vs. Tom Canady, in two cases, assault with deadly weapon, he was found guilty, fined $10 and cost and four months on chain gang.

State vs. Allen Jackson, carrying concealed weapon, guilty; judgement suspended on payment of cost.

State vs. Lafayette Ury, carrying concealed weapon, guilty; fined $10 and costs.

State vs. Green Weddington, larceny, guilty; two years on chain gang.

In the case of Reed vs. Faggart for removing crop; acquitted.

State vs. Cap Meacham; judgement suspended on payment of fine of $10, Meacham to be held in custody until fine is paid.

The Hanging. Six thousand people witnessed the hanging of Whit Ferrand and Anderson Brown, at Salisbury Thursday, at 10 minutes to 12 o'clock.

Sheriff Monroe was assisted by Sheriff Smith of Mecklenburg. Every thing passed off quietly, there being no disturbance.

It was as orderly as could be; but like all public executions, it was demoralizing to the greatest degree.

The Kestler Case. Some time ago, as will be remembered, Mrs. Catharina Kestler died at the home of her son-in-law, Mr. Robert Ramsey, in this county.

Mr. Ramsey married her daughter, who is now dead. Mrs. Kestler had come on a visit to her daughter's children, and while there, and before her death, which was sudden, she made a will to the children of Robert Ramsey.

Wellington Kestler, of Rowan, Mrs. Kestler's son, suspicious foul play in the death of his mother, and had her stomach taken out and sent to Raleigh for examination by medical experts.

While this is going on, Wellington Kestler, of Rowan, comes up with a will for probate in his county, and the children of Robert Ramsey come up with theirs for probate in this county.

Some time ago a temporary injunction was issued against Wellington Kestler enjoining him from collecting or paying out any effects of the Kestler estate.

It was heard by Judge Coble last Saturday and permanently continued by him until the courts decide who had the valid will and who was entitled to the property under it.

Messrs Armfield and Turner represented Wellington Kestler, and Messrs B F Long and L C Caldwell appear for the Ramsey children.-Statesville Mascot.

[In the will probated by Wellington Kestler, a legacy of about $3,000 is left to North Carolina College at Mt. Pleasant.]

The rush of freight on the Southern was never greater. Every man of every crew is working almost day and night.

Old men are being put back, and two entirely new running crews have been added. The cause of this increased business is the fruit movement. Shipments were never before so large.

Ed. F. Green, the great praying man and the sponsor of Ida Well's platform, is gone to Gold Hill, Penn. The sincerest sympathy of the good people of this section goes out to the good people of Gold Hill.

The atmosphere in this section is now pure.

A house is being erected on the corner of Valley and Mill streets, just below the public well at Cannonville. It is to be a two-story structure.

Odell's factory will shut down next Friday, Saturday and Monday, giving their operatives a vacation of three days.

Mr. Israel Faggart, aged 78 years, died Thursday night at his home in No. 9. The funeral was conducted Friday by Rev. J. Q. Wertz.

Most of the big timber has been brought in for the new mill at Cannonville.

Miss Ivy Marks, daughter of Rev. O. A. Marks, of China Grove, is seriously ill.

Threshers made things lively Friday afternoon on the north end of Spring street.

LOCALS.

The cattle are dying near Marion, N. C.

Dr. Sol. Farr says they are dry in his community.

A hanging bee has as bad effect on the working class of people as does a circus.

Marriage licenses are now printed in GREEN ink. Let a strong proponent beware.

Green Weddington, the good old bird who has been seriously ill with fever, is better.

To run a daily paper now is a picnic-news easy and plenty of financial discussion.

Read all the advertisements in this issue. They are all reliable and offer bargains.

Miss Mollie Brachen is preparing for her semi-annual trip to the northern markets.

Merchant Jno. K Patterson entertained a hard, shaking chill Wednesday evening.

The Steele Range men will have to pay tax. That's right. They are awful pedlers at best.

THE STANDARD thanks Attorney Jerome for an invitation to the Masonic picnic at Albemarle Aug. 6.

Mr. W D Anthony has resigned as Secretary of the Veteranas Association. Too much politics in it for him, he says.

Jno. R Gentry, the fine trotter belonging to Mr. L Banks Holt, of Burlington, trotted a mile Wednesday in 2:04 at Preepoot, Ill.

Mr. J M Mabery is out again after a season of sickness. Mrs. Mabery his wife, is now quite sick, having taken seriously so Wednesday night.

Rev. J E L Winecuff, son-in-law of Mr. M M Gillon and a native of Cabarrus county, is serving a Presbyterian congregation at Blacksburg, S. C.

Rev. G. D. Bernheim, D. D., of Wilmington, at the request of a large number of German settlers at Newbern, N. C., will at an early date organize a Lutheran congregation there.

Master Sid Lentz started to Salisbury on a bicycle Wednesday night. He had gotten as far as Glasses when his wheel came to pieces.

He returned on the 10 o'clock train, carrying a wheel under each arm.

The elements grew low and the clouds wept, which superstition may declare was sadness for the doomed men. At any rate Cola Ferrand and Brown had no more taste of cool weather before going to glory.

Mr. C. F. Ritchie tells me that in a few days he will take a vacation. He will spend a month between visits to Salisbury, his old home, and Missenheimer and Lentz's Springs.

He here declares that if any man deserves a vacation, Charlie does.

Messrs. W W Morris and John S Smith had resigned their positions as salesmen at the hardware store of Bennette & Morrie. They will remain in the city for some time. What they contemplate doing will be made public later.

Recently Mr. Dan Faggart, of No. 8, sold $400 worth of cotton. He received pay in gold. He was surprised at the amount. It weighed 1.1 pounds. Had he been paid in silver it would have required a flour sack to hold it and weighed 24 pounds.

Mr. M J Freeman has an apple tree on his lot that is acting as queerly as some of the hens in the spring. He brought us in a twin apple-just as perfect as were the Siamese twins. There are many others on this tree. Shall we know it by its fruits.

This is about a native Cabarrusite and a son of the late Col. T H Robinson. The Wilkesboro Chronicle says: "Rev. C W Robinson has moved his family to the Brushy Mountain Iron & Lithia Springs, to spend the summer."

Mr. Rufus L Patterson, formerly with the Odell Mfg. Co., but now of Durham, has been appointed chief marshal for the next State Fair. Col. Jule Carr is a fine target shooter, as he shows in selecting this competent and graceful young man.

The Governor yesterday offered a reward of $200 for unknown parties who burned some mill property of J W Connelly in Caldwell county. The property having been twice destroyed by fire, the work was thought to be the work of incendiaries. The fine will be paid upon conviction.

One case Ferree vs. Cook occupied the Superior Court of Guilford county from Monday until 6 o'clock Thursday evening.

Miss Mollie Cook, sister of Mr. J Wallace Cook of this place, died at her home in Troutman's last Monday after a lingering illness.

THE STANDARD had a very pleasant call from Capt. W B Smith, of No. 3. He told us some bits of history we shall use later on.

There is to be a wedding soon. It will take place at the home of the prospective bride in this city. We will not name the day or parties concerned.

Druggist A W Moose, of Mt. Pleasant, was in the city. He will begin on the morning of August 5 to build his new drug store. The brick are on the ground.

Master Boykin, son of Judge Boykin, is taking private lessons, in Latin, from Dr. L A Bikle, He couldn't be in superior hands for thorough drill.

Rev. Mrs. W. A. Deaton, of Selwood, S. C., arrived this (Friday) morning and went out to her old home, near St. John's, on a visit to relatives.

Prof. W E Philips, of Edgecombe county, and Prof. H J Stockard have been elected principal and associate principal of the Monroe High School.

Mr. Hornbuckle is progressing at a great rate with the excavation work at the Cannon mills. It is already an immense hole and they are only about half done.

Rev. Prof. Willis, of Staunton, Va., spent Thursday here. He is principal of the Staunton Lutheran Female College. He was on his way to Columbia. He spent the evening with Rev. Scherer.

The audit brought by M M Misenheimer against the old firm of Buchanan, Barrier & Co. was stated for today. Lots of Mt. Pleasant people were here.

The Seaboard Air Line has made the payment of the taxes on all its property in North Carolina, aggregating $12,966.45 the valuation being $5,186,580.

"Have tried others, but like Ayer's best" is the statement made over and over again by those who testify to the benefit derived from the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Disease never had a greater enemy than this powerful blood-purifier. It makes the weak strong.

The Statesville Mascot, in noting the number of hangings in Iredell county, names one from Cabarrus county. A man by the name of Gallimore was, in 1846, tried for his life for stealing a negro slave. He was convicted and hanged in Statesville. His case was moved to Iredell from Cabarrus.

Effectual.-Charles J Booth, Olivewood, Cal., says: "I have used Ayer's Pills in my family for several years, and have always found them most effectual in the relief of ailments arising from a disordered stomach, torpid liver, and constipated bowels."

Doing Fine in Texas. Mr. W A Wilhelm, whose visit to this county was noted last week by THE STANDARD, gave us a pleasant call on Wednesday. He has been in from Texas for six weeks on a visit to his mother in Union county, and to old friends in No. 10, Cabarrus.

Mr. Wilhelm is a son of the late Monroe Wilhelm, and is one of the most excellent young men the county ever had.

THE STANDARD is glad Mr. Wilhelm is doing well. He is superintendent of a large oil mill and his salary is $100 per month. He gave us his subscription for THE STANDARD before leaving for his Texas home near the Indians. He goes tonight (Thursday).

From a number of gentlemen en route to Thomasville to attend the annual meeting of the Orphanage, a RECORD reporter hears that there is some talk of the removal of Rev. J. H. Mills as superintendent.

It is charged that the trustees can make all the laws they please and give all the orders they please but that Mr. Mills goes ahead in his own way and does as he sees proper.

For several years he has been elected only by one vote and it is thought this time he will fail.-Greensboro Record.

[That may be all so, but that man, "Bro. Mills," knows more about running an orphanage than the whole Board of Directors. But some fellow thinks it a fat job and possibly has begun this fight underhandedly. When Mr. Mills goes, the children will suffer-mark that.]

Whether it is a case of "she smokes her brothers" or not we may never know, but we do know that Concord has a female cigarette smoker who occasionally appears on the street.

SENDS GREETING ALMOST FROM THE GRAVE. A Union Officer on His Death Bed Asks That a Confederate Flag be Returned With Fraternal Feelings.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., July 24.-Col. Silas Titus, of the Twelfth New York Volunteers, is lying on his death bed in this city. Today he placed in the hands of his son a Confederate flag captured from a Virginia regiment at the storming of Mt. McGregor, in 1862, and said: "My son, it has ever been my fondest wish to restore this flag to the hands of the officers of the brave regiment from which it was captured. My condition, however, precludes the possibility of my doing so, and to your hands I confide it with a sacred injunction that you seek the officer of the regiment and restore to them the emblem. Say to them that from my death bed I send back the flag with my heartiest good wishes and fraternal feeling."

[There's a man. Such men deserve to live. It is such as he that we love to have come south and they are respected and always welcomed. He is none of your 2x3 knaves that to insult the best element with impurity. That dying man is great; he was a great soldier; in this fraternal feeling he has a right too to be true to the good name of his own section. Every decent man, who comes South gets along well-every decent man that goes North is treated well. It is the scum that provokes trouble.]

Senator Tillman, August 13. Senator Ben Tillman, of South Carolina, will be here August 13. His free silver speech will be delivered at 11 o'clock in the court house.

Big Fire in Greensboro. Early this morning Mr. J G Broadnax, Jr., who represents the large wholesale tobacco firm of J G Broadnax & Co., of Greensboro, received a telegram announcing that the company had been burned out last night. We could not get all the particulars, but it is said the firm carried a $10,000 stock, fully insured.

A Dog that Barks. For some time past a prominent citizen of this place has been worried and uneasy about his fine cow-and he is noted for keeping good cows-not producing the usual amount of milk in the morning. He first suspected that some one visited his cow with the milk pail before himself or servant did, but that suspicion was abandoned after more thorough investigation and watchfulness. On Wednesday the owner of the cow awakes unusually soon, proceeded to his barn, and to his surprise and amazement there stood his bird-dog robbing the cow, and doing the deed the man was about to lay at the hands of an innocent person.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.-Latest U.S. Gov't Report

Royal Baking Powder ABSOLUTELY PURE

DR. MARSDEN HOLDEN MARRIED.

His Bride was Mrs. Tabitha A. Wooley, of Montgomery county. The Ceremony Occurred Wednesday night.

Dr. Marsden Holden, of Concord, is married.

Wedding bells rang merrily and constantly at Richfield, on the Yadkin Railroad, Stanly county, Wednesday evening over the approaching ceremony that was to unite Dr. Holden, of our place, and Mrs. Tabitha A. Wooley, of Swift Island, Montgomery county, in the holy bonds of wedlock. They were married at 9 o'clock, Rev. Jos. S. Dunn, pastor of the Methodist Protestant Congregation at Forest Hill, performed the ceremony that made these two people one, so to speak, and happy.

Dr. Holden came here from Wilmington last January. He has sought chronic cases and reports say he's been successful in his treatment. He is 56 years old. His blushing bride, Mrs. Tabitha A. Wooley, has been doing a profitable business in millinery at Richfield and is but 39 years of age; and as an evidence of her popularity, all the citizens of the village assembled at Mr. G. G. Ritchie's residence to witness the marriage.

Dr. Holden returned this (Thursday) morning by private conveyance and accompanied by Rev. Dunn. Mrs. Holden will arrive on to-morrow's train, she having remained over to pack her effects. Dr. and Mrs. Holden will go to housekeeping on Church street next door to Mr. H. McNamara's.

This is rather a stealing of a march on our people, but the doctor's happiness is all the same full and complete.

Concord, at large, rises as one man in extending the usual measure of good wishes.

Elected and Accepted. T A Smoot has been elected Headmaster of Trinity High School in Randolph and has accepted.

Mr. Smoot graduated at Trinity High School recently with high honors.

He is a brother of Dr. J E Smoot, of Concord, and a cousin of the Messrs Dayvault.

A Blind Teacher of the Blind. Mr. Jonas Costner, a blind man and for 18 years a teacher in the blind asylum at Raleigh and of which he is a graduate, is spending some time at his brother-in-law's, Mr. R W Query's, near Harrisburg. He is a man of scholarly attainment. He has been blind all his life, some 40 years.

He never forgets a voice, and recognizes old friends readily. Mr. Costner is a native of Gaston county and has many relatives at Mt. Pleasant, this county.

Headquarters Moved. For several weeks the chain gang has been doing some good work around the old thunder struck iron bridge over Rocky River, where the gang camp was stationed. The dangerous places on either side the bridge have been remedied sufficient for any one to pass in perfect safety although the waters may be out of its regular course and look frightening. Manager Barnhardt moved the convict camp today (Thursday) near Faggart's Mill, in No. 11 township.

Brought in Politics. During the trial of the case, State vs. Honeycutt, for retaining without license, a lawyer ran his examination into politics &c.

The Judge has been highly commended for the rebuke he gave, indirectly, when charging the jury. Among other things he said in substance: "If any man can find the shadow of the influence of politics in any of my acts or words, either as a lawyer or as a judge, I will at once step down and out." The best element will endorse unqualifiedly the splendid sentiments and the justice embodied in Judge Norwood's remarks.

Supreme Tribunal of the M. of P. NORFOLK, Va., July 25.-The Supreme Tribunal of the Knights of Pythias convened today at Ocean View and transacted business of importance to the order, but of no interest to the public. Judge W B Gale, of Massachusetts, Supreme Representative, is in attendance. The session will be continued to-morrow.

PROMINENT PHYSICIAN COM-MITS SUICIDE.

He Had Attempted a Criminal Assault on a Respectable Married Lady.

ROCKY MOUNT, N. C., July 24.-Dr. W T Spruill, a prominent citizen and practicing physician of Hillsidarton, in this (Nash) county, committed suicide to-day at his home with a pistol shot in the brains. It is alleged that on Sunday, Spruill attempted a criminal assault on a respectable married lady in the neighborhood, and yesterday papers for his arrest were placed in the hands of the county sheriff for serving.

As soon as taken into custody this morning he fired the fatal shot.

Made to Eat 14 Biscuits. There is a man in Johnston county who made his wife eat 14 biscuits at one sitting. He did this because in cooking them she had burned them. If there is any dog about a man it's sure to growl at bad cooking.

Jno. Shoe and Jasper Weaver. These men were on trial charged with stealing from the store of Davis Barrier, of No. 6. Shoe was convicted and sentenced to the chain gang for two years. Weaver was released. Shoe claims that Weaver helped him, but he was not allowed to testify, his not being competent testimony.

Mr. S. J. Pemberton Hurt. From this week's Wilkesboro Chronicle, THE STANDARD clips this: "On his return from Ashe county last Friday, Col. S J Pemberton happened to a painful accident. He was thrown from a buggy, scarring and bruising his face and head up considerably. He has been right sick since his return to Wilkesboro."

What the Lexington Paper Says. This week's Lexington Dispatch says: "A great deal has been said in the newspapers of the State about the Shemwell verdict. A great many of them are unjust to the people of this county, and the reflections in some of the papers on the judge and jury is at least uncalled for. We have made no comment one way or the other, and shall not do so, preferring to let the whole matter drop at once and for all. As the case has been tried by a regular court and jury we think it is the duty of the people to abide by the verdict and stop talking about it."

Another Robbery. Esquire H O Cook, of near Bethel, No. 10 township, and who was the efficient foreman of the grand jury for this term of court, tells a STANDARD reporter of a similar robbery as that chronicled by us Thursday in reference to a dog doing the milking solely in this case, it was so.

The Buffalo Thread Mill is now under cover. Only a few more months and then the machinery will be turning out its products.

"For Charity Suffereth Long." Mrs. Lavinia G. Pomeroy, of Salisbury, N. C., writes: "I was troubled for years with a sore on my knee, which several physicians, who treated me, called a cancer, assuring me that nothing could be done to save my life. As a last resort, I was induced to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and, after taking a number of bottles, the sore began to disappear and my general health improve. I persisted in this treatment, until the sore was entirely healed. Since then, I use Ayer's Sarsaparilla occasionally as a tonic and blood-purifier, and, indeed, it seems as though I could not keep house without it."-Mrs. S. A. FIELDS, Bloomfield, Ia.
