

THE WILD STATE OF THE PUBLIC MIND.

Since the name of Judge Russel has been mentioned as Fusion candidate for Governor, we have been thinking what a state the public mind has gotten into.

The Arrington committee at Raleigh is making a greater exhibition of itself than ever. The Legislature which created it and the committee itself finds defenders among Christian men, Church officers, formerly the solid men of the State, who have run off with the Populist folly.

What's the matter with the national Democratic money plank? As the Durham Sun says, in a very cute manner, 'it has never been used and it is just as new and just as strong now as it was the day it was made.'

Richmond and Atlanta both desire the honor of having the memorial museum for the establishment of which Mr. Charles Broadway Rouse, of New York, subscribed $100,000.

The increase of Concord's population since 1890 has been phenomenal as every one knows; but what is the exact increase no one knows but all would be glad to know.

There is a beautiful old legend that at creation's dawn an angel came down seeking something to take back with it to heaven.

There is nothing on earth pure enough for heaven but a mother's love! What a sublime thought and holy moral this old legend illustrates and to mortal creatures.

The author of "Labor and Other Capital," originally published in 1848, is coming out in a new edition. It affords an insight into the issues of a half century ago, and it convinces us all that a sudden leap is not wise.

Judge Timberlake weighs only 130 pounds, but he's large enough to make a stir in Albemarle. It was all about people going without a coat into the court's presence.

getting worse and the country is going to the dogs."

This is the chronicle the Populist made, in 1848, in his description of affairs in the United States nearly a half century ago.

In 1848—the 16 to 1 was the trouble; in 1895—the lack of 16 to 1 is playing havoc!

These are times that angels wouldn't know what to do if they were North Carolina voters.

In these times of political vagaries, politicians and their admirers are pulling like see-saw.

In the words of Mr. Jacob Littles, of Cabarrus, some people are getting "mighty hifoluntin."

It would take a line of cradles extended entirely around the globe to accommodate the 37,000,000 babies that are born into this world every year.

A man, while playing "drop the handkerchief" in Hillsboro, Ill., broke his nose in a collision.

Holmes has started a literary bureau, which offers the newspaper reader a field of high clover. It may sidetrack the financial bureau.

The Goldboro Headlight has entered upon its eighth year. The Headlight is a great success and Bro. Roscower has a "fine bank account."

After carefully deliberating a California jury called to act in the case of four men who were hanged by a mob found that they had "died by strangulation."

Sam Jones has stopped long enough to declare that he is a gold bug. Sam couldn't get an audience of two dozen in No. 10 township to hear him, but Sam has his eye on more populous places.

Dr. Kingsbury has more religious editorial in his Sunday Messenger than most church papers have in a month—decidedly more religion and truth than found in the New York Independent.

In another column we publish the weather report for August. Prof. Ludwig holds the strings and if the weather doesn't suit you, see him about it.

You can't talk about everybody with impunity and then expect every one to think sweet things about you or have your tombstone inscribed with "None knew him but to love him."

A town is like a large family. We are all interested in each other's welfare or should be. A cut throat, every man for himself policy, means ruin to any community.

The report comes out from Raleigh that a fusion of Democrats and Populists is about to materialize. It takes our breath! It has been rumored, rumored and now rumored again.

newspapers in a ratio of 16 to 1. From present indications, it looks that thoughtful laymen are pleased with the action of the directors in the ratio of 16 to 1.

If the Charlotte Observer's old man keeps on the boys of the quill will envy the stir he's getting up. Senator Jarvis flung at it and this distinguishing Tar Heeler is joined by the Wilmington Dispatch which is flinging up too at the cool and deliberate gentleman that makes the Observer speak his honest sentiments.

A Pennsylvania Englishman, professing to know everything, was asked the plain every day meaning of "Six Semper Tyrannus."

Standing with one foot on Summer's deck and the other on Winter's, we are reminded that— Summer, winter, night and noon, is the same old expense tune.

Senator Jarvis: "I will go to the silver convention if it is a good thing." There's where the rub comes in. Who can tell, until it has been done and went and done it. Just now Senator Jarvis' purposes and designs are more knotty than the financial question itself.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.
