

LOCALS.

Court convenes at Albemarle this week.

The wife of Mr. J. M. Ballard is critically ill at Forest Hill.

Monday was a legal holiday—Labor Day. It was not observed here.

Rev. J. O. Alderman has returned from a pleasant and profitable vacation.

Mr. Jno. Eddleman, a cotton machinery man, is off for a long business trip in South Carolina.

Charlotte had a new bale of cotton. It was shipped there from Anson county. It brought 81 cents.

Dr. J. Y. Allison, who has been suffering with a very severe cold, is able to sit up. THE STANDARD is glad to note.

Mr. J. E. Dorton was in the city on his way home from a trip to Rowan county where he had been spending some time.

THE STANDARD is glad to hear that the genial Will Robbins, at Forest Hill, who has really one time been "puny and pale," is convalescent.

There were only one dozen marriage licenses issued by Register Wedington during the month of August, ten to whites and two to blacks.

STANDARD parishioner County Surveyor Long brought us some nice peaches. If this thing keeps up, the currency question can't hurt us much.

Miss Bettie Ferrall, a young woman about 18 years of age, died at her home at Forest Hill Monday afternoon, of typhoid fever. She lived in new town.

Mrs. Monroe Voils, of Mooresville, has suffered a second stroke of paralysis and her condition is alarming. There was no hope for her recovery Monday.

His many friends will regret to learn that Mr. David Parish is in very feeble health. His son-in-law, Mr. Lark Bonds, is sick, too, with pneumonia.

A tinker, with his family and shop on his wagon, has been mending umbrellas and doing soldering from house to house in all parts of the city for several days.

Rev. Dr. J. B. Fox, pastor of the second Lutheran church of Newberry, S. C., was in the city Saturday enroute to Boston, where he went to visit his uncle, Mr. Martin Best.

The rotten bridge at the Cannon factory on mill street, has been torn away and a new one is being built. There are other bad bridges and dangerous places in the city that need attention.

It is very likely that Miss Blanche Kerr will succeed J. O. Witherspoon, deceased, as postmaster at Coddle Creek. Efforts are being made to secure her appointment.

Mr. Samuel C. Taylor, formerly of Cabarrus county died last Thursday at the age of 70 years, in Cobb county, Georgia. He had many friends in this and Cabarrus county.—Charlotte Observer.

The two applicants Cabarrus had for medical license were: Dr. F. E. Hartell and C. H. Barnhardt. They passed successfully. Among the applicants were four colored men, two of whom failed. Five whites also failed.

Messrs. Tom and Will Heglar, Marshall Dorton and Robert Best cast their net in the pond at Best's Mill last Friday and in their hauls produced 140 pounds of carp, ranging in size from two to ten and a half pounds.

The election for County Superintendent of Health of Mecklenburg resulted for Dr. Wilder and 18 for Dr. J. C. Montgomery. THE STANDARD had hoped that Concord's native would sweep things, but as it is the vote gotten is indeed very handsome.

Dr. Ashmore, of Greenville, S. C., was in the city Saturday with a view to finding a suitable location. He has not fully decided to come here, but it is very probable that he will, and live near the Cabarrus mills, with his office in Walter's building, on Depot street.

Several nights ago three boys from the city raided the melon patch on the Odell farm, between town and the Buffalo mill. Instead of getting watermelons, they carried away three large citrons. The feast was postponed till another tempting opportunity presents itself.

The Wilmington Messenger of Sunday says: "Dr. J. H. Dreher will leave today for his old home at Mt. Pleasant, N. C., to attend the wedding of his sister, Miss Mae Dreher. Louis Swink, a young lawyer of Winston. The wedding is to take place next Tuesday evening at 6 o'clock."

Mr. Noah P. Correll is quite sick at her home on Church street.

Several tracts of land were sold at the court house today (Monday).

Most of the Graded Schools in the State opened on Monday.

Capt. W. S. Bingham issues a call to Company G in this paper. See notice.

It looks probable that the B. & O. Railway Company will get control of the Roanoke & Southern.

Master Archey Goodman has returned from Charlotte, where his eyes were being treated by a specialist.

Mr. R. W. Query, of Harrisburg, lost a fine horse Saturday night. It had been sick from Wednesday before.

Rev. J. Q. Wertz is conducting a series of meetings at St. John's. Several visiting preachers are assisting him.

Mr. C. F. Ritchie, of Salisbury, spent Sunday here. Charlie likes Concord so well that we may expect often to see him.

Rev. C. L. T. Fisher, principal of Mount Anson Seminary, by invitation of Rev. B. F. Davis, preached in the Reformed church Sunday.

Miss Lillie Cook, who was so low with typhoid fever, and who was about well and suffered a relapse, is greatly improved. She is able to sit up.

Mt. Pleasant is ready for a brilliant marriage, Tuesday night. The contracting parties are Miss Mae Dreher and Lawyer Louis M. Swink, of Winston.

Lester Rogers and John Parks, two young men of Forest Hill, got into a dispute Sunday night, a fist-cuff ensued and accordingly the town treasury swelled.

Mr. Parks King has gone to Mecklenburg county to spend ten days before returning to Davidson college, where he will resume studies for another year.

Machinist John Willeford has just completed a pea-threshing machine for Mr. R. W. Allison, to be sent to his farm in Alabama. It is an odd looking piece of machinery.

Mr. J. Wiley Cook, of No. 5 township, was in the city and reports that rain is needed very badly in his neighborhood.

A moonlight picnic will take place tonight at Mr. John Freeze's, in No. 4 township. Several will attend from the city.

Tuesday night there was a meeting of the members of the old corner band to consider reorganization. A full attendance was not present.

The call extended Rev. H. M. McConough, of Leesville, S. C., to the St. Andrews (Lutheran) parsonage, will in all probability be accepted. Rev. J. D. Shealy, pastor resigned, will return to his old home in South Carolina the first of October.

A dummy line accident occurred on Main street this morning that caused the downfall of a wagon. One of the hind wheels struck the railing, and being so sudden, the axle was broken. A scuffling was secured and the injured body dragged off.

Mr. D. M. Stallings, of this county, who is principal of Sunshine Institute, at Sunshine, N. C., will leave this (Wednesday) evening for the University at Chapel Hill, where he will take a post-graduate course this fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis M. Swink, the young couple that were last night united in marriage in Holy Trinity church at Mt. Pleasant, passed through the city en route to Winston, their home, this (Wednesday) morning.

On their way to town this (Wednesday) morning Messrs Geo. and Frank Best found the remnants of a dead calf along the railroad about twenty feet below the Morrison crossing. It had been killed by a train.

The Washington Gazette tells of a theft of $914 from Mr. Aron Mizell near the Beaufort county line. He had saved up that amount, placed it in a tin bucket, wrapped the bucket in tow sacks and hid it in his smoke house, and from there some one stole it. There is not even a suspicion to who the thief was.

See elsewhere the advertisement of Mr. S. Wittkowsky, of Charlotte, assignee of H. Baruch, whose "push, pluck and perseverance" has won for him the distinction of being one of North Carolina's most progressive business men. He offers suggestions to the out-of-town people that may be of benefit to you. Read it.

HE HAS HYDROPHOBIA.

A Fourteen-Year-Old Boy Near Pineville Develops It After Being Bitten Four Years Ago.

In Pineville township, not far from the town of Pineville, can be seen a sad and touching sight—a young boy about fourteen years old, stricken with hydrophobia. A few days ago while at school he became suddenly sick and was taken home. Now he lies suffering and biting at everything that comes about him. He seems to be in perfect agony at times. The attack comes on him by spells; caused by a current of air or a change of any kind tending to bring on excitement.

About four years ago the boy was bitten by a little dog that had been bitten by a mad-dog.

The boy's name is Arthur Satterfield, a son of Mr. Leon Satterfield.—Charlotte Observer.

Weather Report for August.

The Station, at Mt. Pleasant is managed by Dr. Ludwig and he kindly furnishes us with the following:

Table with 2 columns: Day, Temperature. Includes entries for Highest temperature (94 degrees on 29th), Lowest Temperature (55 degrees on 2nd), Average temperature for the month (77 degrees), etc.

RAIN FELL FOR THE YEAR.

Table with 2 columns: Month, Rainfall. Includes entries for January (6.74), February (2.25), March (5.82), April (6.33), May (2.93), June (5.00), July (4.12), August (4.97).

The Murderer of Welch.

Sheriff J. M. Hood, of Lancaster county, S. C., got requisition papers from Governor Carr, of this State, for Chas. Lloyd, who was arrested at Monroe for killing young Welch near the Halle gold mine, and went to Monroe Friday for his man, but when he reached there he found a mob of 30 or 40 ready to take the negro and lynch him. The would-be lynchers came from Kershaw, S. C., and a few joined in from the town. But by the shrewdness of Sheriff Hood, Chief of Police Ashcraft and Sheriff Ben Horn, the prisoner's life was saved. He was slipped from the jail and brought by a round-about way to Charlotte. Leaving there at 4 o'clock they reached here at 10 o'clock yesterday morning. Soon after, Sheriff Hood boarded the train for Columbia with his bird.—Charlotte Observer.

Baseball.

It was disappointing Saturday when it was learned that Forest Hill couldn't play Concord. The boys had arranged to defeat the boys on the hill, if such is possible. A game was had, nevertheless, between the first nine and the Stars, which resulted, according to the score card, in a victory of 38 to 18 in favor of the little fellows. Though the playing was bum on either side, it was full of fun and the large crowd perched on the bleachers enjoyed immensely the contortion act of Smith and the pretty plays of J. O. Frank.

On Friday the "amate baseball boys" of New York, will arrive in the city, when a game will occur between them and a home team.

Central Hotel to Change.

Sunday morning's Charlotte Observer is the authority for quite a business surprise. The Central hotel, which has been so ably and successfully managed for years by Messrs Eccles and Ryan, is to change hands the 1st of the year. E. R. Thornton, of New York, and G. C. Campbell, of Maine, are the men who have leased it for ten years.

Lightning Storm.

Saturday night about 8:30 o'clock a small cloud full of thunder and electricity hung over Concord. The flashes of lightning were quick and numerous, and the peals of thunder intensely loud. The lightning struck the cupola on the home of Mr. M. J. Freeman, on South Main street. It knocked off shingles, shattered the window sash and splintered up a floor. The house is lighted by electricity and the wires enter near the roof. Here the lightning left the roof and followed the wires, with the result of burning lights out in other parts of town. Had it not been for those wires it is believed that the damage would have been much greater if not the house burnt. No one was hurt. It is reported that a lady was stung at the Cabarrus Mills and is now prostrated. A graduate of Heidelberg, Germany, was in the city today.

CHARLES MATTHEW COOKE

is Secretary of State, By Gov. Carr's Appointment.

RALEIGH, N. C., Sept. 2, 4 p. m.—Gov. Carr has appointed ex-Secretary of State Cooke's successor. The appointment was made by the Governor today and Hon. Charles Matthew Cooke, of Franklin county, is the man.

The names of Messrs. T. W. Mason, Sam A. Ashe, E. C. Smith and others had been prominently spoken of, with odds in favor of Mason. Cooke's name was not at all mentioned as a probable success. Gov. Carr rivals Cleveland in surprises.

Dr. S. N. Young Elected County Physician.

At the court house today (Monday) the election of county physician took place. There were only two names presented, those of Dr. S. N. Young, of this city, and C. C. Wilson, of Harrisburg. Dr. Young's vote stood 14, while Dr. Wilson received 1.

Friday's Sport.

The announcement of the coming of the women baseball team to this city on next Friday is an event that has been more generally discussed than the great money problem or the rise in the price of cotton. It will be an interesting game, with the following corps of handsome young gentlemen as their antagonists: Caldwell, G.; Fisher, J.; Brumley, F.; Smith, L.; Caldwell, W. A.; Cook, H.; Keeler, R. L.; Beard, B.; Frank, A.; with W. W. Morris as umpire and J. A. Deaton as scorer. All of the above nine have signified their willingness to play with the exception of Mr. Beard, who has not yet been consulted.

High in the Air.

Mr. W. R. Odell and Contractor R. A. Brown left today (Tuesday) for Bessemer city, where Mr. Brown is to do some brick work for Capt. J. M. Odell on the unfinished factory at that place.

A smoke-stack one hundred and fifty feet high will be built, which will make it twenty-five feet higher than the one at the Odell mills at this place. An engine house will be built, also. Mr. Brown will remove his brick machines to that place in a few weeks.

In order to catch up with his work, Mr. Brown is banking brick at night. From 7 to 12 o'clock Monday night 15,000 bricks were made at the yard. About one half million of brick will be required to do the work at Bessemer city.

Col. Smothers' Luck.

EDITOR STANDARD—I have just read with a great deal of interest Col. Smothers' communication in last Wednesday's STANDARD, and also the editorial note accompanying it. As one of the surviving members of the Concord Lyceum, once favorably known to your readers as "A Mother of Thirteen," and having been more or less intimate with Col. Smothers at that time, I think I am in a position to offer an explanation of the mystery which he describes with his accustomed candor of statement.

There are two points in the narrative which place the occurrence within the realm of the occult, as will be seen in the analysis of the details of the story as Col. Smothers himself tells it—first, that he invariably stepped into the mud hole with his left foot, and second, that out of thirteen possible times he should have failed once to get into it. Knowing what I do of the Col's personal history I am able to give a plausible explanation of the first point. It is a matter of record, in the archives of the state, that Col. Smothers was on the way to the battle of Bentonville in company with others of the North Carolina Reserves who arrived too late to do their country service on that occasion, and I have often heard him speak, in thrilling details, of the hardships of that march and the fearful possibility of arriving on the field, while the battle was in progress, which that attachment of the reserves were compelled to face that day. Ever since the military training which he received at that time it is the invariable habit of the Colonel to step off with the left foot first bringing the hollow of the right to the heel of the left and in this way it is perfectly natural that he should always get into the mud hole left foot foremost.

The second point of mystery is more difficult to explain but I think the key to its solution lies in the Colonel's statement that this always happened as he "went down town at night." It does not appear at all from the narrative that he even reached the point of attempting the trip back at night and it seems clear that his habit was "not to go home till morning" when the conditions were more favorable for walk. This seems to me to account for the fact that he missed the mud hole on one trip down town. The mystery would have been harder to explain had he missed it on the way back the same night.

If there are others who have a more satisfactory explanation to offer I am sure the Colonel's many friends will be glad to give them a hearing.

A SCRIVENER OF THE LYCOUM.

THREE NEW CHURCHES.

South Yadkin Association—Salisbury Graded Schools Opened—Miss Addie Williams Better.

SALISBURY, N. C., Sept. 3.—The South Yadkin Association, which met in the Baptist church here Friday night, closed about noon yesterday. There were about seventy-five delegates in attendance and the sessions were interesting throughout. Three new churches organized during the year past, made application and were received into the association. The Biblical Recorder, the North Carolina Baptist and Baptist Orphanage, Baptist papers, were represented at the meeting. The association now comprises about twenty-one churches with a membership of 2,000 or more. The city churches were supplied Sunday by preachers from the association. The city schools opened yesterday. The enrollment at the white graded school was 281, colored graded 141; the private schools opened favorably.

The female baseball players are expected to strike Salisbury Saturday afternoon.

Miss Addie Williams, the Charlotte Observer's bright and gifted local editor, who has been sick at the home of Mr. M. O. Quinn here is much improved and hopes to be able to be out in a day or two.

Mr. N. B. McCauley returned yesterday morning from Boston and other points north where he went to purchase machinery for the Keeler Manufacturing Company, the new mill to be built here.

Why Bloomers are so Called.

A correspondent to the Raleigh News and Observer says: "In last Sunday's paper, I notice that you say you do not know why 'bloomers' are so called.

Taking the liberty to suppose that you would like to know, and having been informed, I take pleasure in telling you that 'bloomers' are so called because buds and blossoms in society wear them."

"Baldy" Williams Seriously Ill.

It was learned in Concord that Hon. A. H. Williams, better known among his friends as "Baldy," was very sick at Chase City, Va., where he has been spending some time with the hope of recuperating his much impaired health. His brother, Mr. H. G. Williams, of Washington, D. C., was telegraphed for and arrived at his brother's bedside last night. Mr. Williams, who is ill, is suffering from Bright's disease and is in a very precarious condition.

Two Concord Items.

Raleigh News and Observer has these personal items of interest to Concord: Mr. Charles M. Cooke, Jr., of Louisville, spent yesterday in the city on his way to Concord where he will enter the Odell Manufacturing Co. in order to learn the cotton business.

Miss Lucy Montgomery, who has been visiting friends and relatives in this city, left yesterday for her home in Concord.

Fruit Acknowledgments.

THE STANDARD was remembered today by two parishioners, to whom we extend the heartiest thanks.

Mr. A. F. Laffer brought us a sack of nice pears. They were extremely fine.

Mr. William O. Petrea, of St. John's, brought a dozen apples, the largest ever produced in this county. The dozen weighed ten pounds. Mr. Petrea did not remember the variety. This dozen would make apple dumplings for a large family for a whole week.

Another Kind of Fusion.

The Raleigh correspondent of the Charlotte Observer says: "Assurances are given tonight that the movement for the co-operation of the Democrats and Populists is unquestionably spreading. A prominent man assures me that Senator Butler favors this arrangement—is, in fact, desirous of seeing it effected. It is alleged that Otto Wilson also is favoring it. It is also said that some Populists are expressing disapproval of Russell as the gubernatorial candidate because they say that during the last session of the Legislature he produced the introduction of a bill to provide for the lease of the North Carolina Railroad.

Stabbed by Italians.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., September 2.—Last night a lot of drunken Italians, who are engaged in working on the Charleston, Clendenin and Sultana railroad, went into a small saloon at Porter Creek and assaulted George W. Logan and his brother, Jack Logan, and Bernie Cobb.

The men were at the mercy of the Italians, about seventy-five all told. George Logan was shot in the thigh and literally hacked to pieces. His brother Jack Logan and Bernie Cobb were horribly out.

The wounded men were brought to the hospital in this city. Twenty-eight of the Italians are in jail here. The officers are after the others.

PATH OF THE EARTHQUAKE.

It Shook Things Up in New York State—The General Duration South-west.

TARRYTOWN, N. Y., Sept. 2.—Tarrytown, Pocatonghills, Irvington, and Scarborough, were in the path of the earthquake early Sunday morning. Buildings in the different villages trembled perceptibly. Glass and china rattled on their shelves, and in several instances was broken to pieces. Suspended objects away for some time after the vibration had ceased. The seismic disturbance occurred at 6:10 a. m., and the general direction was from the southwest.

In some districts cracks were made in the walls of a number of houses. The section of Irvington and Dobbs Ferry was generally shaken while Hastings felt but little of the shock.

WINSTED, Conn., Sept. 2.—An earthquake shock, lasting several seconds, was felt here and in Norwalk shortly after 8 o'clock yesterday morning.

Robbed Masonic Temple.

CHICAGO, Sept. 2.—Five hundred people chased a thief through State street today and aided in his capture.

The prisoner who gave his name as James Williams, of San Francisco was charged with robbing the till of the Masonic Temple Association of a large sum. He started down the crowded thoroughfare on the run but was easily captured owing to the crowd gathered to see the labor day parade.

The prisoner, at police headquarters, was identified as John B. Gordon, of Louisville.

Will Now Eat Even "Cold Crow."

A correspondent to the Raleigh News and Observer from Nashville, N. C. says:

I send you an extract from the speech of W. R. Henry made here in 1892. It is a substance and almost the exact language used by him on that occasion:

"If one drop of Populist blood should fall into the bottom of a well and that well filled with dirt and rammed with a maul, and grass should grow over it, and a sheep should eat that grass, I would not eat the mutton for fear of being tainted with Populism."

Lord's Constabulary.

Manager Barnhardt, of the chain gang was in the city Monday. He says that work on the bridge at Lip-pards mill, on Buffalo creek, is progressing rapidly. He says, too, that Charley Lord, a convict from Davidson county and a cousin to the desperado, Charley Lord, was released from the chain gang on that day.

Jefferson's Ten Rules.

- 1. Take things always by the smooth handle.
2. Never spend your money before you have earned it.
3. We seldom repent of having eaten too little.
4. Pride costs more than hunger, thirst and cold.
5. Nothing is troublesome that we do willingly.
6. Never put off until tomorrow what you can do today.
7. Never buy what you do not want because it is cheap.
8. How much pain the evils have cost us that have never happened.
9. When angry, count ten before you speak; if very angry, count one hundred.

The Pope Appealed to By Chicago Methodists.

CHICAGO, Ill., Sept. 2.—The committee appointed by the Chicago Methodist ministers to appeal to Pope Leo XIII. in the interest of religious liberty in those South American countries where the Roman Catholic religion is dominant, made its report at the regular meeting of the ministers today. After sixteen months of labor the members of the committee report that they have succeeded in having the matter taken up by the authorities of the Church of Rome. What is asked of the Pope by the ministers is that the Protestants of Peru, Ecuador and Bolivia be given the same religious liberties as the Catholics in the United States.

Morris Arrested and Taken to Charlotte.

Jep Morris, the man that claimed to have eaten so much watermelon one night last week, was arrested this morning by Chief of Police Boger on a capias sent over from authorities at Charlotte for carrying a concealed weapon. It will be remembered that Morris was badly out in a general melee at Belmont springs, near Charlotte, on Easter Sunday last. It appears that Morris was not so successful in concealing his pistol as he was in concealing watermelons.

Castoria is Dr. Samuel Pitcher's prescription for Infants and Children. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance. It is a harmless substitute for Paregoric, Drops, Soothing Syrups, and Castor Oil.

Castoria is an excellent medicine for children. Mothers have repeatedly told me of its good effect upon their children. Dr. G. C. Osouon, Lowell, Mass. 'Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones...

MAKES ANOTHER LEAP.

The Manayunk Boy Jumps Off a Railroad Bridge into a River, a Distance of Seventy Feet.

NORRISTOWN, September 2.—At 3 o'clock this afternoon Hugh Murphy, the Manayunk bridge jumper, made one of his famous dives off the Trenton cut-off bridge of the Pennsylvania Railroad, one mile below this borough. Murphy and a crowd of his Manayunk friends appeared on the bridge near this side of the river. He wore a pair of swimming pants, a coat and a slouch hat. Below was a boat awaiting him in case of an accident.

After taking a drink from a bottle Murphy gave the word and an instant later his body shot through the air as if from a catapult. Two two seconds later he had disappeared below the surface of the water and reappeared in a few seconds entirely uninjured. The fact was witnessed by over five hundred people from Norris town, Bridgeport and the vicinity. The distance from the bridge to the water was 73 feet.

A MYSTERIOUS SHOOTING.

After His Murderous Deed Allen called for Tobacco and a Match.

DECATUR, Ill., Sept. 2.—Geo. Allen this morning shot his wife and stepdaughter, Minnie Deffenbaugh. The latter's wound is fatal, but his wife will recover. Allen sat on his porch after the shooting and kept his neighbors off with a revolver for an hour. Finally he called for tobacco and a match. They were taken to him and as he lighted his pipe he was overpowered and is now in jail.

He refuses to say why he tried to kill the women. Friends who know him and who say he is industrious and peaceable, state that he was overhated last week. They think he is now insane. He moved from East St. Louis six months ago.

Knights of the Macabees.

The State Commander writes us from Lincoln, Neb., as follows: "After trying other medicines for what seemed to be a very obstinate cough in our two children we tried Dr. King's New Discovery and at the end of two days the cough entirely left them. We will not be without it hereafter, as our experience proves that it cures where all other remedies fail."—Signed F. W. Stevens, State Com.—Why not give this great medicine a trial, as it is guaranteed and trial bottles are free at Fetter's Drug Store. Regular size 50c. and $1.00.

A Horse Fell and Broke Its Neck.

Mr. F. S. Saffit, of No. 6 township, today (Wednesday) hauled a load of wood to the brick yard of Mr. R. A. Brown, just below the depot, and on his way to town, after unloading, while crossing the bridge over the railroad one of his horses became frightened at a puffing engine beneath it. The horse started to run and in the attempt fell and broke its neck. The remains of the dead animal were hauled some distance beyond town. It was valued at about $60.

For Over Fifty Years.
