MERRAR FOR AMERICA.

At last Grover Cleveland has risen e the narrow confines of a petfogging partisan and at one leap Levinia Pence for suphas reached the high plane of patriotism. It makes no differece to the American people what the politics of the occupant of the White Katie Furr, same, House may be when the nation is S N Johnson for coffin facing a crisis. It is only important that the President shall be Sandy Garmon for suprepresentative of all the people in their views, and above all else broad minded liberal, patriotic, and an American through and through.

President Cleveland's message voices the sentiment of the people. Jesse Earnhardt for peas It is an able state paper. His analysis of the Monroe doctrine is so clear that a child may understand D H McEachren for work it. His maintenance of the rights of America is firm, dignified and Betsy Barringer for supmanly. It is of little importance that some people can see in it only a W L Winecoff for coffin bid for a third term. Political con- J S Hill for feeding prise siderations may or may not have actuated the President. He has risen to the dignity of his great office and has so bravely faced the issue that much may be forgiven

The message will be read and its J B sentiments re-echoed by every man N I Bakke for medicine in the United States. When the President of the United States acts F W Glars for timber for for all the people in a grave emer-public road
M L Julian for work on gency, when he drops the cloak of the partisan, he should have and will Samuel Sloop & Son for have the unfaltering support of eyery one who values country above of the country beautiful for country borner.

It is a pleasure for the Morning Advertiser to be able to agree with President Cleveland, and we heartily Dove & Bost for proviscongratulate him upon his manly American utterance which is today the talk of the civilized world.

It is good to be an American! It J Doye for material for is good to have an American Prestdent! It is good to be in the right! And it is good to have an Executive E G Life for hay for who, knowing the right, dares maintain it! We are first and above all Capt. Wilkes for bolts, else Americans and patriots!

The above is from the New York Morning Advertiser, that has cussed Emeline Davis for sup-Cleveland, vilified the South and saw J S Turner for services nothing good in anything but Republicans, even going so far as cull- Wm Propet same ing the Populists the "scums of the Jos. W Foil for services earth" or words to that effect.

TELEGRAPHIC BRIEFS

French papers are jubilant over England's dilemma, The Louisiana State Democratic convention is meeting in Shreyeport, The National Christian Conference met in the Moody tabernacle at Atlanta on December 18th.

The Atlanta committee in charge of arrangements for colored people's Harriet McCorkle for day at the fair, December 26th, request colored ministers to preach on the importance of the colored exhibit on Sunday, December 22nd, and arge the race to attend. . .

· The Georgia State Populist convention met in Atlanta on Decems ber 18th to elect delegates to the national ; convention. The reason it met before the national convention was called was because of the cheap rates to Atlanta. The usual Populistic platform was adopted, Coxey was not allowed to address the body. The convention favored . . upholding the Monroe doctrine.

Weds a North Carolinian LYNCHBURG, Va., Dec. 19.-Miss Carrie Warkick Daniel, daughter of Senator John W Daniel, was married at neon to-day to Mr. Frederick Harper, of Wilmington, N. C. The marriage took place at Westerly, the country bouse of the bride's parents, in the suburbs of this city. Rev. T M Carson, rector of St. Paul's church, officiated. The parlors, hall and stairway were beautifully decorated with evergreens, palms, roses and smilax. Much of the work was done by the fair hands of the bride.

Judge Thurman's Will.
