JULY 23, 1896.

MINORITIES ROLL.

Paradoxical as this may seem to be it is nevertheless true in many instances. When the Wilson bill was pending in Congress a small number held the balance of power and forced the shape of the bill out of Democratic symmetry.

Paradoxical as this may seem to be it is nevertheless true in many instances.

The action of those two conventions may well be watched with bated breath. Without cooperation, of course, they are incapable of affecting anything but the defeat of free coinage, the very thing they seem to want above all things.

SOUTH CAROLINA'S SHARE.

The humiliation of the once grand old State of South Carolina is in a fair way to become complete, thanks to the efforts of the Hon. Benjamin Revolutionary Tillman and his imitators.

What is Wealth.

By suggestion of one of our exchanges we reprint this from a back number: Does wealth consist in money, houses, lands, stocks, railroad bonds, etc., alone?

As Aged Lady Dies.

Mrs. Martin A. Ludwig, quite an aged lady, of No. 8 township, St. John's neighborhood, died Tuesday night at her home of typhoid fever.

Great Potato Eaters.

The greatest potato eaters are the people of Germany and Belgium. Their consumption of this vegetable averages 100 pounds per annum for each person.—Exchange.

Five Fingers and No More.

There is one curious fact respecting the animal creation with which one will never become acquainted if he depends on text books for information. It is this: No living representative of the animal kingdom has more than five toes, fingers or claws to each foot, hand or limb.

BUCK KITCHEN BOLTS.

And now he leaves his party again. He seems to quaff gall at every fountain. Now he is down on Mr. Butler and Mr. Skinner. He seems to think they want office. Well we like to have the old man's vote as we would any other that would count one in the box.

GOOD OF AIR BRYAN.

It is quite in order to be talking about William J. Bryan now and James Creelman, the bold and dashing correspondent of the New York World, says some things about the nominee that are very pleasing to hear.

NEWS ITEMS.

It is painful to read of the fact falling vitality, evidently from old age, of Justice Field, of the Supreme Court, one of the ablest jurists our country has ever produced.

Men run to the devil and creep toward God.

Little troubles are big troubles to little men. There is no sin that dies a harder death than pride.
