'SHOVING THE QUEER'

Counterfeiters Working the Towns Around Charlotte. The Good Installation of the $5 and $10 Treasury Notes and Silver Certificates. Charitable business men had better be on the lookout as to the $5 and $10 bills they take in these days.

It seems that there is an organized gang of counterfeiters working in the country towns around Charlotte. So far they have confined their work for the most part to upper South Carolina, but day by day they appear to be getting nearer this city.

For the past two or three weeks a number of $5 and $10 treasury notes have been in circulation just across the line. These who have seen them say that they are almost a perfect reproduction of the old treasury note. The color is very defective but even the signature of "J. Fount Tillman, register of the treasury," indicates the work of a skilled artist. This money first made its appearance in Atlanta about two months ago. An officer of the secret service got on the trail of the counterfeiters and they left Atlanta for parts unknown. The next time this money was detected was in Greenwood, S. C. The merchants at that place took in a number of spurious bills. The handlers of it learned that the Greenwood seignior were on to their game and they again mysteriously disappeared.

They next turned up at Greenville, S. C., where they passed several hundred dollars of the $5 and $10 notes and a counterfeit $1 was also placed in circulation, it is supposed by these same people.

The latter is a reproduction of the last silver certificate issued. In many respects it is a poor counterfeit but can be easily passed on unsuspecting people. The genuine bill has a half old woman lying almost at full length with her left hand upraised. At her back a boy is standing. The city of Washington in the background and the Washington monument is very prominent.

The counterfeit bill is in most respects like this but one grave blunder the counterfeiters made was in leaving the monument entirely out. In taking in this denomination of paper money it will be well for our business men to look for the monument.

The defects of the $5 and $10 notes are much less noticeable. In fact no one would suspect for one moment that there were other than Uncle Sam's issue. A close inspection will reveal the fact that the little red and white strings that are to be always found in the genuine article are conspicuous by their absence. The lettering also is a give away if closely observed. The News has so far heard of none of this money in Charlotte but this warning will stand the merchants well in hand should these same men cross over in North Carolina.—Charlotte News.

WAS IT A WILD CAT?

Five Little Town Boys Attached White in the Woods Friday Night. Gaston and Brandon Means Will and Gas Archibald and Baron Cook went opossum hunting Friday night and while in the woods, they had an exciting experience.

They were in No. 5 township, near Mt. Gilead church, when their dogs treed something, thought to be an opossum. The young boys were joyous over their luck and after Gaston Means had climbed the little sapling on which was perched the strange animal, and as he began to shake the limb, the animal jumped and clawed him on the ear, cutting a small gash. When it fell to the ground it attacked the other members of the party, and frightened the dogs, which would not go near it. The boys made an unsuccessful attempt to kill it. The animal was black, and was just a size larger than the ordinary cat. It was very likely a catamount.

A Cow Dies of Hydrophobia. The Jacksonville Times says a valuable cow belonging to Sheriff Hargett died last Thursday night from what was believed to be hydrophobia. The cow has refused to eat for some time; would not allow herself to be milked and was inclined to be vicious, not only towards other cattle, but also to her attendants. The viciousness increased, until she was confined where she could do no harm; convulsions followed in rapid succession until death relieved her of her suffering. It is said that the cow was bitten about three months ago by a dog which had rabies.

Ran in the Hood. The ordinary of a Georgia county invited all the war veterans to meet at his office on a certain day. When the day arrived he was surprised at the number of young men who put in an appearance.

"Gentlemen," said he, "there must be some mistake, I wanted to meet war veterans and I am here confronted with a majority of the young men of the country."

"Ordinary," spoke up one tall, stocky fellow, "it's true we never done no fighting, but our families did, an' ef we don't inherit the darned war I'd like to know who does."—Atlanta Constitution.

A Rattle Snake Adventure. Mr. J. T. McEnnis, of Robeson county, tells us of a very thrilling adventure with a large rattle snake last week. He was in his low grounds, and as he stepped over a log he felt something under his foot, and on looking down, he was horrified to see that he was on a large rattler. But for the fact that the snake had just swallowed a rabbit, which prevented him from striking, Mr. McEnnis would have had trouble. The snake had 18 rattles, and was the largest ever killed in this section, says the hero of the story.—Fayetteville Observer.

COMING HOME.

Barneys Who Went to Liberia Will Return to America. Liverpool, Sept. 28.—Olley Waite and five children, and G. W. Farmer and wife, all colored, who belong to a party of 315 emigrants who left Savannah for Liberia, by the steamer, Labrador, in March, 1896, have just arrived here from Liberia. The Farmers are destitute, and the Waites have only enough money to enable them to reach the United States.

All the adult members of the party described the condition of those whom they left in Liberia as being most pitiable. They say the land promised them by the Liberian agents in the United States turned out to be absolutely no good. They claim there is no gold or diamonds there, and further assert that more than half the Labrador's party are dead, and the rest of them are trying to reach the United States. The Waite and Farmer say in conclusion that the Liberian government did nothing for them, and that the climate of the Republic of Liberia is most unhealthy.

Complaint is filed in the case of the State treasurer against Stewart Bros., of Winston, ex-State printers. It sets forth that they have been paid by the State $10,000 in excess of the amount really due for work. The charge is a very serious one.

The former State printer—Stewart Bros., of Winston, have, it is estimated, about $6,000 worth of paper belonging to the State.

The State wants the paper, but the Stewarts, it seems, do not propose to let it have it just at present. At any rate Auditor Ayer sent Mr. Guy V. Barnes, who has been given all the State's job-printing, to Winston, to get this paper. He came back without it, but brought a letter from the Stewarts saying that their attorney was out of town and therefore they couldn't comply with the auditor's request.

It will be remembered that the auditor is paid an extra $30 a month to look after the printing. It will also be remembered that Stewart still claims to be printer and therefore contends he is entitled to the paper.—Free Press.

Year Without Summer. Seventy-nine years ago was the year without a summer says an exchange. Frost occurred every month in the year 1816. Ice formed a half inch thick in May. Snow fell to the depth of three inches in New York, and also in Massachusetts in June. Ice was formed of the thickness of a common window glass throughout New York on the 5th day of July. Indian corn was so frozen that the greater part was cut in August and dried for fodder, and the farmers supplied themselves from the corn produced in 1815 for the spring 1817.

Insured for $600. Mr. Florence Wallace, who had the misfortune to lose his dwelling house and outbuildings several days since had an insurance policy in the Cabarrus County Branch of Farmers' Mutual Fire Insurance Association for $600.

The Farmers' Mutual was organized in this county about a year and half ago and this is the first loss that has occurred since it was organized. The members of the Association will be assessed pro rata to pay Mr. Wallace's loss.

Mr. Kirkman and Family Here. Mr. Thomas Kirkman and family arrived in the city Friday night from Williamstown, Mass., and will make Concord their future home.

Mr. Kirkman has been employed by the Odell Manufacturing Company and will superintend the work at the bleachery, he being an experienced man in the business.

Mr. Kirkman will live on Spring street, in the house formerly occupied by Mr. R. A. Brower.

For Over Fifty Years. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over fifty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for Diarrhoea. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Beware and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind.

While attempting to cross the street in front of his home in Salisbury last Thursday, Master George Bernhard was run over by a heavy vehicle, loaded with people. The little fellow's shoulder blade was broken and he was otherwise injured, though not fatally.

RAMBLER DELIGHTED.

Hearing a Public Lecture and a Captivating Recitation. MR. EDITOR:—Rambling last evening, it was my pleasure to drop in at North Carolina College. I found the chapel crowded, and was told that Prof. Ludwig would lecture before the Atheneum Club of the college. By the kindness of the students I got a seat and remained to hear the Professor. His subject was, "B-o-o-k-s, When to Read, How to Read and What to Read." He surpassed himself, and if he did not inspire the boys with a desire to store their minds with useful knowledge by close attentive reading, it was not his fault.

Dismissing his hearers with the remark, "read whenever you want to, but be sure that you want to," we all repaired to the Philadelphia Hall, where Miss Gertrude Sieber, the accomplished teacher of elocution in Mont Anna Female Seminary, of Mt. Pleasant, N. C., recited "Franz's Song," to the delight and great satisfaction of us all. The breathless silence, which was almost painful because unusual, bespoke how well the rendition was enjoyed and appreciated. Being heartily applauded, she gave us something to ligh about in "That Old Sweetheart of Mine." To be frank, the writer has heard quite a number of persons recite, but Miss Sieber surpasses them all. Dr. Miller is to be congratulated in securing so accomplished an instructor in elocution, and if she can but impart some of her gifts to her pupils, parents will have made no mistake in sending their daughters to Mont Anna.

RIOT AMONG MINERS.

A Bloody Battle—Nine Men Fatally Injured and Two Score More Seriously Wounded—An Outcome of the Hazelton Trouble. Girardville, Pa., September 27.—At least nine men received fatal injuries and possibly two score others were more or less seriously wounded in a bloody riot here late last night and early this morning. The battle was the outcome of a quarrel over the Hazelton trouble. Thirty-six men are known to have been wounded, and about fifty more are being searched by their friends through fright that they will be sent to jail.

The story of the riot is as follows: Several hundred Poles boarded at William Calucabbe's hotel, on Second street. Joseph Cavandish is proprietor of a hotel at the east end of the town, where several hundred more Poles make their headquarters. Bad blood has existed between them for a long time, and the recent strike troubles at Hazelton embittered them still more. Last night matters came to a crisis.

Calucabbe, it is charged, and his followers, to the number of several hundred, arming themselves with guns, revolvers, knives, axes and clubs, marched to Cavandish's hotel, where several hundred of their enemies are celebrating pay day. The Cavandish men ascertained that their foes were marching on them and arming themselves hurriedly, awaited their arrival. After a demonstrative march the Calucabbe contingent arrived and immediately stormed the saloon. Then a bloody battle ensued. The men fought like demons, the shooting was fast and furious, and axes, knives, clubs, and other weapons were used with deadly effect. The battle lasted almost an hour, when the Calucabbe was routed, leaving several wounded behind.

After the routed rioters had returned to their headquarters, the Cavandish gang armed themselves and marched to their enemies' rendezvous, where a battle still bloodier than the first ensued. The police force and the constables of the surrounding region were called to the scene, but were unable to cope with the rioting crowd which continued hostilities until this morning.

Blooming Girls Run a Harveymoon. Four young women clad in bloomers walked into the fields of Lassen county last week and asked permission to work the harvest. They were Orra Dowell, Gerlie Sawyer, Lillie Dowell and Follie Packwood. It was granted them and they proceeded to action. One of them climbed to the driver's seat and began to guide the twenty-six horses around the field, another attended the binder, a third took charge of the sack sewing, and the fourth ran the separator. A whole morning was spent in this interesting occupation, and then, without mishap or adventure, they retired, leaving the astonished men in possession.—San Francisco Chronicle.

Profitable Peach Tree. Mr. S. W. Boyles, of State, Stokes county, has the most profitable peach tree yet reported. It bears annually two fine crops of fruit.

He has just gathered the second crop this year and it was larger and finer than the first one.—Greensboro Record.

THE PLACE TO SELL COTTON.

Under the above caption the Charlotte News comments as follows on the traffic and trade among the cotton buyers of Concord and Charlotte:

"Something must be done to convince the farmers that this is the place to sell their cotton.

"There is only one way to do it and that is to pay them as much for it here as they get elsewhere.

"Concord buyers can't afford to pay more for cotton than Charlotte buyers.

"Concord mills can't afford to pay more for cotton than Charlotte merchants.

"If Charlotte buyers can't afford to pay what Concord merchants pay, Charlotte merchants can, and the sooner they go to it the better for them, and for Charlotte."

Nothing has to be done to convince the farmers that Concord is the place to sell their cotton—that fact is well established; all the farmers know it. And what has convinced the farmers of this fact is that our cotton buyers pay the highest prices.

Concord buyers do pay more for cotton than Charlotte buyers, and have for many years.

The Concord cotton mills consume all the cotton they can buy and they pay the farmer what they would pay for freight charges if they bought cotton from other markets.

Concord merchants can pay high prices for cotton and then sell goods as cheap as the cheapest—they compete with the State.

If Charlotte buyers can't afford to pay what Concord buyers do for cotton it is not natural and right for the farmers to know it and reap whatever the advantages may be.

All the farmers are invited to bring their cotton here. No one will treat them better than the Concord people.

"To Concord or Bust."

And to Concord he came. A gentleman in conversation with a STANDARD reporter said that a Mecklenburg county farmer had his cotton ginned in Charlotte, and before leaving that city had a placard painted, and placed on the side of his wagon, on which were these words: "To Concord or Bust."

The man who brings his cotton to this market doesn't "bust," and this particular one will tell you so.

Concord Got One Prize. The bicycle races at Salisbury Thursday were a success in every particular, financially, especially, Charlotte's crack riders won most of the prizes, and Salisbury, like Concord, wasn't in it.

The Concord boys were awarded one prize. It was the second prize in the one-mile team race. It was "dead easy" for our boys to win the second place in this race, for only two teams entered.

A Great Wreck at a Bridge. Bognay, Sept. 25.—Recent advices from the scene of the wreck of the bridge of the Bangor-Mystre Railroad, near Maddur, indicate that 150 persons were killed and 14 injured. Seventy persons succeeded in making their escape.

Royal makes the food pure, wholesome and delicious.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER
ABSOLUTELY PURE

Celebrated for its great leavening strength and healthfulness. Assures the food against alum and all forms of adulteration common to the cheap brands.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., New York.

Reflections of a Bachelor. An engaged girl may feel awfully sure of everything, but she doesn't eat many onions till after she gets married.

After a girl has once decided that she won't have a man if he asks her, she will never forgive him for not asking her.

No man ever respected a girl much till he made her lose her temper.

When a rich girl's hair looks like streaked molasses candy, it is said to be of the color of spun gold.

Down at the bottom of every woman's prayer is a reminder to the Lord that he knows she has to put up with so much from her husband. N. Y. Press.

They Surrendered. Birds in the immediate vicinity of Greensboro have some kind of sense. A large covey of them came up into the yard of Mr. W. S. Hill yesterday and surrendered at once. They no doubt knew it was no use to fool about it, for whenever Mr. Hill should get his gun the jig would be up, he is such a good shot.

By the way, somebody is fixing to get into trouble. Whenever you see birds coming into town in this way, somebody has been after them, trying to shoot them. The time when shooting can be done is November 1st, so that a sharp lookout had better be kept, or there will be trouble.—Greensboro Record.

In Haywood Superior Court Miss Maggie McCracken sued Dentist Henry Snaithers alleging that a tooth he had pulled for her had caused her to suffer for a long time as a result of the dentist's work. The verdict was for the plaintiff, giving her judgment for $775 and costs.
