

THINKS THEY'RE TRUE LOOKING YET.

It was clearly manifested yesterday that the old Confederate veterans are a fine lot. A large gathering has not been seen here since the war, and they are not near so old in appearance as one might expect. Marching to martial music, with banners waving and the spirit of war in the air, they seemed young enough for duty still. G. J. G. led to just about the right degree, seasons to perfection, the old veterans re-marching in Charl. the yesterday, yet it seems soldiers in the world. It would take no very large army of them to do the needed work in Cuba - Charlotte Observer.

An Honor to Cabarrus.

It is an honor to Mr. Press Freize, son of Mr. A. M. Freize, of No. 1 township, and also to our county to know that he stood the highest examination before the State Board of Pharmacy at Charlotte some days ago. He gained the prize for the highest Materia Medica examination, which was a handsome one to one of the United States Dispensary. In the examination there were 14 candidates, and out of the number 7 passed the examination.

Rev. W. Kimball Dangerously Ill.

Mr. M. L. Black, elder came down from China Grove to this (Saturday) morning and reports that Rev. W. Kimball is seriously ill with catarrh of the stomach and other complications. It is feared he will not survive more than a few days. His daughter, Mrs. Hinton Overcash, arrived this morning from the western part of the State to attend his bedside.

Came to Chincawanna.

Capt. Danson Caldwell was up at Salisbury Friday to see his son Paul Caldwell pass through on his way to Chincawanna battle ground. The train was due to have arrived much earlier but did not come until 12 o'clock at noon Friday.

Paul was in splendid spirits and was in good health but is considerably enfeebled. He was in a sleeping car, having had his quarters with the officers.

WINE OF CARDUI
For Mothers!
This discom-forts and dangers of child-birth can be almost entirely avoided by using Wine of Cardui. It gives strength to the genital organs, and puts them in condition to do their work perfectly. That makes pregnancy less painful, shortens labor and hastens recovery after child-birth. It helps a woman bear strong healthy children.
WINE OF CARDUI
has also brought happiness to thousands of homes barren for years. A few doses often brings joy to loving hearts that long for a darling baby. No woman should neglect to try it for this trouble. It cures nine cases out of ten. All druggists sell Wine of Cardui. $1.00 per bottle.

Sale for Taxes.
As tax collector for the town of Concord and by order of the Commissioners for the town of Concord, and by authority of the laws of North Carolina, Chapter 119 of the laws of 1897, I will sell at the Court House door in Concord, N. C., on Monday, the 6th day of June, 1898, the following tracts of land and town lots in the town of Concord for the taxes due thereon, viz:
Ward No. 1.
2 houses on Spring st., 1 vacant lot on Peter st., A. B. Cook owner, tax 7.33
7 acres between Jno. Bulla and railroad, Miss R. S. Miselen owner, tax 2.21
8 acres on railroad, Wm. Miselen owner, tax 2.10
Ward No. 2.
Residence on Fourth st., J. M. Link owner, tax 4.54
Ward 4.
Lot on Happy Hill, Zm Crump owner, tax .91
Lot on Loan st., Wm. E. Harris owner, tax 3.18
Lot on Depot st., Nat. Harris owner, tax 5.47
Lot in Love Town, Jess. Koonce owner, tax 2.50
Lot in Love Town, Jimmie Kennedy owner, tax 1.33
Lot in Cleveland, Giles Miller owner, tax 1.33
Lot in rear of C. Strickler, A. M. Shu-ber owner, tax .77
Lot in Love Town, Alice Stillinger owner, tax .77
Lot in Love T. Wn. Catherine Turner owner, tax .77
JNO. K. PATTERSON,
Town Tax Collector.

TO THE PICKPOCKETS

Get in Their Work On the Train on Which the Old Veterans Went to Charlotte-Quite a Good Amount Lost.

From one of the old veterans we are reliably informed that five of the old veterans who went from his place last Thursday morning, by having their pockets picked when they were boarding the train at this place on last Thursday morning.

The following are the names of the persons whose pockets were picked and the amounts that were taken:

- S. R. Andrew, $6
- D. M. Marph, $3.20
- R. R. Holdbrooks, $2.
- Nelson Litaker, $3.
- Bill Dry, of Stanly county, $12.

It is thought that the reason for his work so soon as they boarded the train. A number from Salisbury also reported that some of their pockets were picked. It is supposed by some that there were two of them, and accompanied the crowd on the train. One of the gentlemen from this place who was robbed of a considerable amount says that when he boarded the train he saw two fellows, one on each side, who were undertaking to pass him, and these are very apt to be the fellows, as in a few minutes the man found out that his pocket was turned wrong side out.

We are also informed that Mr. Frank Corriher, of China Grove, had his pockets emptied of $41. Mr. Press Freize, of our county, had a watch chain jerked into pieces by a fellow, but as the chain broke the fellow did not succeed in getting his watch.

STATE HISTORICAL SOCIETY.

Organized Yesterday in Charlotte. Prof. Fred Penneck Was Elected President.

The North Carolina Historical Society was organized in the city hall yesterday at 10 o'clock. The following officers were present and participated in the proceedings: Rev. J. W. Stagg, Capt. John Wilkes, Prof. A. Graham, Capt. Fred Nash, Dr. George W. Graham, Mrs. E. D. Latta, Miss Carrie McLean, Dr. Joseph Graham, Chas. L. Coan, E. H. Bean, of Charlotte; Prof. Jerome Dowd, Durham; Major C. D. Davis, Asheville; Col. J. P. Thomas, Columbia, S. C.; Col. B. Cameron, Hillsboro; Maj. John W. Graham, Lincoln; Prof. T. P. Harrison, Davidson; Prof. E. W. Skyles, Wake Forest; Mr. Theo. F. Kutz, Salisbury; J. R. McCray, E. q., Lexington; Dr. E. A. Alderman, Chapel Hill, by proxy, and good wishes, and Prof. Fred Penneck, Greensboro.

Prof. Fred Penneck was chosen president of the society, and Mr. E. H. B. an secretary and treasurer. In extending the society his thanks for the honor conferred on him by being chosen president, Prof. Penneck said that the man who proposed history was just as great as the man who wrote it. He also took occasion to tell what great work his school is doing for the restoration of North Carolina history. Several names for the society were proposed but the one thought most of was "The North Carolina Historical Society," and it was chosen without dissent.

It was resolved that the president appoint a committee of three members of the society to procure a charter and draft constitution and by-laws for the society. This committee will be announced later. It was also resolved to appoint an executive committee of 12 to transact the business of the society. Four members and the president as ex-officio will constitute a quorum of this committee. This committee is to be provided for in the future constitution of the society. This committee will be announced in a few days by the president.

For the present it was suggested that all documents and historical matter be at disposal of executive committee, to be sent where they direct. It was suggested that the society might be of use to the organization of local societies. The next regular meeting of the society will be held May 20, 1898. The society requested that the State papers publish the proceedings of the organization of the society. There is no more commendable work than the work of this society, and the Observer commends it heartily. -Charlotte Observer. [THE STANDARD would simply add, "Then's my sentiments too."] -Daily of 21.

A NOTE OF THANKS

An Interesting Letter from Captain Edward Hill-The Boxes Were Received and Highly Appreciated-The Next Address.

Camp Grimes, Raleigh, N. C., May 18, 1898.

To the Friends of the Cabarrus Light Infantry:
A note, advising us of the shipment of those beautiful hams and chickens, arrived last night and put us on the quiver, so to speak, sharpened our army appetites, if such a thing were possible, and today when the boys simply caught a glimpse, sizing up the box or boxes, I should have said, there is immediately enlarged in the same proportion as the other part of their anatomy when you understand to Bill, every one, are full of thanks among other things, and only regret that your thoughtfulness did not have one thing to wish for, as it is over ten hours since the box came. I have no fatalities to report as yet.

I am anxious to tell the parents of the boys with me that I have had no time to answer their letters, and take this method to say I will do all in my power for their comfort, and will write immediately should anything happen. Things have settled down to the regular routine of army life, and we nearly feel like United States soldiers. There is no play—of course we have our pleasures—but they work us hard. It is now 11:30 o'clock, and you may imagine it will remain a very short time between this and 5.15 a. m.

An order has just reached me to pack up and be ready to move in an hour's notice. In a few moments everything will be in a great hustle, and by the time this reaches you we shall be on our way—where? Very probably Tampa. No matter, we are willing—only wish we were going via the Southern, and home, and whether to Cuba or America, we presume our friends shall not be disappointed in us.

Again thanking you all, and with love from every member of the company to their friends, your friends and our mutual friends, will say good-bye hurriedly.

EDWARD HILL.

THE FINE ARRIVED.

As announced some time ago, a beautiful banner had been ordered for the old veterans of our county, or rather for Camp 212. This flag was obtained by the Daughters of the Confederacy and some other contributions by some of our citizens.

It arrived Thursday morning but too late to float over the heads of the veterans when they went to Charlotte, but it was taken this (Friday) morning in time for the parade there. The old flag of the Six N. C. R. Regiment was also taken along by request of the old soldiers who fought under it. The flag belongs to Mrs. Col. R. A. Barrier, of this place and it was sent for from Charlotte Thursday evening.

NO FEUD-ION.

The Democrats of Cabarrus Ring Out in Unmistakable Terms. The Democratic convention of Cabarrus county met in the court house this (Saturday) at 2 p. m. Chairman A. B. Young in the chair and Mr. J. B. Sherrill being made Secretary.

Delegates were enrolled and delegates to the State judicial and congressional conventions were elected. Mr. T. A. Mewer introduced a resolution instructing these delegates in the several connections to oppose fusion or co-operation with any party or faction of a party.

After some of the most interesting discussion the vote was taken by the townships and wards and the motion was carried by every vote save the delegation from No. 10.

Not Yet Recovered.

We are sorry to learn that Mrs. J. Frank Fink, who lives only a little more than a mile from here, has not yet recovered from a sprained limb. The accident happened last Friday night four weeks ago, which was the night on which a building back in Reid town was burned. Mrs. Fink saw the blaze, and in order to see what the building was she climbed up on a ladder by the house and was looking. When she went down her foot slipped and she fell a short distance to the ground, spraining her right leg badly.

Though it has been four weeks since the accident, Mrs. Fink is not yet able to walk without crutches. S. E. Parker, Sharon Wis., writes, "I have tried DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve for itching piles and it always stops them in two minutes. I consider DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve the greatest pile cure on the market." -J. P. Gibson.

DR. WILSON'S ADDRESS.

A Choice, Chaste and Eloquent Annual Discourse—A Gem of Oratory. If the principal of the Concord High School aimed at fraying the citizens of Concord to a royal intellectual banquet, he displayed much good judgment in the selection of an annual speaker. Dr. Wilson combines pleasantness of manner with enthusiasm for the theme of his choice, forcefulness in the presentations of his ideas, sublimity in his allusions to the Divine and æsthetic grandeur in adopting the finest rhythmic selections from the great authors.

He was vain in us to attempt a production of the splendid address. We can only give the frame on which he put the literary art work that made his address one of rare beauty and solid merit. He expressed much delight with Concord and took much interest in her schools, especially the High School, of which he formed a favorable impression from the performers that preceded him.

He viewed with much satisfaction the waning friction in the educational work throughout the land and saw an era in which higher education for all professions and persuasions is being intrusted to university work. Education is higher than the forces by which it is attained. In the process of making men and women education should be real, language exact, English should be pure. The speaker gave instances of the application of good English words so awkwardly combined as to be ridiculous in meaning. He urged the adoption of good expression in proper word, with a cultivated tone of kindness and harmony, producing pleasure in those around us.

Education should be a part of the child. His actions should proceed from his education. He should do well because he knows well and the education gained in the school room should be the very basis of national perpetuity and national greatness. "The breath of the school room is the hope of the country." Talk of Spain as an enemy, of German dialism and of continental European jaundice, or even of personal alienation but nothing is so great an enemy to any of us as our ignorance and want of integrity.

The child should be taught that when it commits a crime it is to itself that it has done the very great wrong, however much or little the evil to another. Error must be compensated for within the bosom of him who commits it. Our schools are to make free men and women. Freedom does not consist in being slaves to ourselves. We are today well nigh drunk with personal liberty. We claim so many rights for ourselves that we become regardless of the rights of others and become even cruel to our selves. Education should fit us for freedom. What you have knowledge to be. To be men and women is to realize manhood and womanhood. The making of men and women is the combination of forces by the teacher. We want the education that purifies. We want the education that can be silent when it is ignorance to speak. The speaker struck some telling blows when he deprecated the habit of charging men with being bought that is with unfaithfulness. He would not trust the man in anything who believes that every man can be bought. Manhood and womanhood is yet not rare. The speaker characterized the impression in the young that life is a struggle as the most dangerous and its destroying a helm. Life is not a struggle but a grand opportunity. We should live for what we can be to others. P. Rich the right of mine, said the speaker, when that right most trample on my fellow man's. We should master ourselves to give self to our fellow man. Though the address was less than an hour in duration the speaker in his easy and engaging style seemed to cover the whole ground of ideal education and ideal life.

DR. WILSON'S ADDRESS.

A Choice, Chaste and Eloquent Annual Discourse—A Gem of Oratory. If the principal of the Concord High School aimed at fraying the citizens of Concord to a royal intellectual banquet, he displayed much good judgment in the selection of an annual speaker. Dr. Wilson combines pleasantness of manner with enthusiasm for the theme of his choice, forcefulness in the presentations of his ideas, sublimity in his allusions to the Divine and æsthetic grandeur in adopting the finest rhythmic selections from the great authors.

He was vain in us to attempt a production of the splendid address. We can only give the frame on which he put the literary art work that made his address one of rare beauty and solid merit. He expressed much delight with Concord and took much interest in her schools, especially the High School, of which he formed a favorable impression from the performers that preceded him.

He viewed with much satisfaction the waning friction in the educational work throughout the land and saw an era in which higher education for all professions and persuasions is being intrusted to university work. Education is higher than the forces by which it is attained. In the process of making men and women education should be real, language exact, English should be pure. The speaker gave instances of the application of good English words so awkwardly combined as to be ridiculous in meaning. He urged the adoption of good expression in proper word, with a cultivated tone of kindness and harmony, producing pleasure in those around us.

Education should be a part of the child. His actions should proceed from his education. He should do well because he knows well and the education gained in the school room should be the very basis of national perpetuity and national greatness. "The breath of the school room is the hope of the country." Talk of Spain as an enemy, of German dialism and of continental European jaundice, or even of personal alienation but nothing is so great an enemy to any of us as our ignorance and want of integrity.

The child should be taught that when it commits a crime it is to itself that it has done the very great wrong, however much or little the evil to another. Error must be compensated for within the bosom of him who commits it. Our schools are to make free men and women. Freedom does not consist in being slaves to ourselves. We are today well nigh drunk with personal liberty. We claim so many rights for ourselves that we become regardless of the rights of others and become even cruel to our selves. Education should fit us for freedom. What you have knowledge to be. To be men and women is to realize manhood and womanhood. The making of men and women is the combination of forces by the teacher. We want the education that purifies. We want the education that can be silent when it is ignorance to speak. The speaker struck some telling blows when he deprecated the habit of charging men with being bought that is with unfaithfulness. He would not trust the man in anything who believes that every man can be bought. Manhood and womanhood is yet not rare. The speaker characterized the impression in the young that life is a struggle as the most dangerous and its destroying a helm. Life is not a struggle but a grand opportunity. We should live for what we can be to others. P. Rich the right of mine, said the speaker, when that right most trample on my fellow man's. We should master ourselves to give self to our fellow man. Though the address was less than an hour in duration the speaker in his easy and engaging style seemed to cover the whole ground of ideal education and ideal life.

THE OREGON SAFE.

The Flying Squadron on Hand—The Movement to Cuba to Go On—Dewey to Receive Aid—What Will Succeed?

As announced by our bulletin for the Daily on Wednesday the Oregon has arrived safe from the Pacific waters and all Americans breathe easier. It was a fearful thought that the Oregon, one of our best ships, would have to cross the path of the Spanish flotilla, besides the imminent danger of her being waylaid at several points. Her arrival is a source of national joy. Now with our Flying Squadron also in the Cuban waters the movement on Cuba will begin at once.

It remains to be seen what Admiral Cervera will do about it. If he interferes with the bombardment and the landing of troops the naval test will be made. It is rather feared that he will pass out of the Caribbean Sea and will try to beat to our coast cities and do what mischief he can. Our defenses will probably be adequate, and no great fear is probably to be felt.

The Charleston sailed Wednesday with ammunition, and the City of Pekin is expected to follow Saturday with 1,000 troops for Dewey at Manila. About 24 days will be required to reach him. No fears are felt for him, though, as he is in position to command the situation. Indeed, the Admiral has taken several more vessels of various grades since the Callan. None have succeeded in running the blockade.

NO NAVAL NEWS.

But the Armies of the United States are now being mustered together in a grand array. The Spaniards are being mustered together in a grand array. Nothing especially interesting is going on on the ocean these days, as is signified by the Navy Department. The mobilization of the troops is the main work going on, and now it is found that they are not prepared as yet for the forming of the United States Army. Every day shows the officials that something is left undone, and it will take a lot of work yet to complete arrangements. It is discovered at this late moment that every regular army officer who accepted a volunteer appointment would forfeit his commission in the regulars and so become liable to fall out of the service entirely at the end of the war. This has been unknown until now by quite a lot of them.

The dispatch seems to be confirmed that the Spanish squadron arrived at Santiago de Cuba. The Charleston, which sailed from California's coast on the 19th, had to return to Mare Island on account of her condensers getting out of fix. She starts out again within 48 hours, it is thought. She is laden with ammunition and supplies for Admiral Dewey.

The London Star publishes a dispatch that the Spanish vessels have found a coaling depot at St. Pierre, off the south coast of New Foundland, at which the Cadiz squadron will coal previous to attacking the Atlantic seaboard of the United States, while the Cape Verde squadron draws off the squadrons commanded by Sampson and Schley.

From the Atlanta Journal we see that it is the aim of the officials to land 80,000 troops in Cuba at an early date. The additional call for volunteers will be made but not until the others have all been mustered in.

It is believed that when the Spanish government sees the landing of troops in Cuba in actual operation that her fleet will be forced to come into open sea and strike a blow for the protection of General Blanco.

But Griffin Honorably Discharged.

On account of his age J. L. (Baz) Griffin has been honorably discharged from the First Regiment of N. C. Volunteers. Baz is one of the youngest members of Co. L. Since his enlistment his mother and her friends have been using their influence to get him out, and today a message received from Senator Pritchard announces that the Adjutant General has ordered that he be honorably discharged—Salisbury Sun.

[This young man volunteered in Capt. Hill's company from here and is known by quite a number here.] The school of Mrs. S. V. Erwin closed Wednesday. Mrs. Erwin has had quite a well attended school. A prize had been offered for the best spelling during the session, and little Miss Lilly Sherrill gained the prize, having competed against a class of 28.

TO CHARLOTTE THEY GO.

About One Hundred of the Old Veterans Fall in Line and Attend the Reunion at Charlotte.

Early this (Thursday) morning, he people throughout our county who went to fight for their country years ago and who are gray haired now, were here to go to Charlotte where they might have another grand reunion. The company formed in front of the court house under the command of Capt. D. A. Caldwell, after which they proceeded to the depot in line of march, keeping step to the music of the drummer boys.

About 100 old veterans, with their badges, left on the train for that place. They marched to the depot under their old flag, which was presented to them in 1861 by the ladies of Concord.

Miss Ella Walter, the sponsor of the camp, and her maid, Miss Ruth Caldwell, led the column. The other maid, Miss Winona Cook, of Mt. Pleasant, did not accompany them, having taken sick.

GLADSTONE DEAD.

The Great English Statesman Passes Quietly Away at 5 o'clock This Morning.

A dispatch from Hawarden says that the great English Statesman, William Ewart Gladstone, passed quietly away this (Thursday) morning at 5 o'clock. He had reached the good ripe age of 88 years, 4 months and 20 days. His end was peaceful and the world's brightest star in the galaxy of the renowned Statesmen of the age in which that star shone so brightly sank in the shadows of the way that all flesh must pass.

If peace hath been victorious greater than war William E. Gladstone will bear the name of hero and physical nature will tire before his virtues are gathered up from the printed page.

THE HIGH SCHOOL ENTERTAINMENT.

The Concord High School rendered a programme of 13 parts in Caton's hall Thursday night to a comparatively full house. The parts were doubtless well rendered though the acoustics or something rendered much inaudible to the audience not well in front.

We wish to advert to but a few features. A group of young men with good voice and perfect training sang "Bingo was his name" to the delight of the audience that would not submit to one rendering till they reappeared.

The Borrow Family, a dialogue, was the practical hit of the night that probably did not set well with a class of disgusting, wearying borrowers that beat others out of a living under the guise of neighborly kindness, but was to the liking of those who wish to eat their own bread with quietness and singleness of heart.

The principle's report was interesting and doubtless gratifying to the parents of a number of pupils who made very fine records.

North Carolina as a closing piece, itself closing with the good old song and stirring chorus, was a suitable coronation to the evening's exercises.

Deserves a Monument.

Judge Schenck is trying to have a monument on the Guilford Battle Grounds to the memory of Jean Alexander whose heroic deed deserves such suitable commemoration. It seems that once upon a time when her father, John Alexander made a visit home from the colonial army a group of Tories headed by one "Powell" went to the home of the Alexanders to assassinate him. The door was barred and the heroic Jean, then in blooming womanhood all flow with patriotic zeal seized a two pronged pitch fork and through the unobstructed log wall stove its wrought steel prongs deep into the vitals of stately Powell. The work was done and the Tory died before his companions got him home. She was a very Jeal for that Sierra. That memorable pitch fork is in the battle ground museum says Judge Schenck and can be seen by any one. Jean Alexander was a heroine.

One Hundred Dollars for Planting the Flag.

While the ships were bombarding Cardenas when Ensign Bagley was killed the Machias made a wreck of the barracks of Diana City and Ensign Arthur L. Willard and three men went ashore and planted the stars and stripes. He has received $100 from William R. Grots as a reward for first planting the American flag on Cuban soil.

CLOSING EXERCISES.

The Concord High School Entertains in the Court House.

The closing exercises of the Concord High School was a pleasant occasion on this (Thursday) the five who finished the course were: Miss Bessie Stricker, Earl Brown, Gaston Means, Richmond Gibson and Fred Odell, and they filled the published program very creditably. The court house was comfortably filled with a flat class audience who by their cheers and the profusion of flowers with which they almost covered the performers, showed their high appreciation of the performances and their great interest in the performers. The grand feature of the day was the masterly address of Dr. Wilson, but we can not do it justice, and will not attempt it in this issue.

The school will give its closing entertainment tonight in the Caton Hall. A fee will be charged, the proceeds of which will go toward a library for the school.

COMMENCEMENT

Exercises of Mount Airy Female Seminary, May 25-June 1st.

CLASS OF 1898.

Winona Cook, North Carolina. Laura Christiana Elford, North Carolina. Florence Virginia Fray, Virginia. Lillie Long, North Carolina.

PROGRAM.

Senior Class exercises, May 28th, 8 p. m. Baccalaureate Sermon, May 29th, 11 a. m., Rev. S. T. Hallman, D. D., S. C.

Address before Missionary Society, May 29th, 8 p. m., Rev. J. A. B. Scherrer, Pa. D., Cameron, S. C. Concert, May 31st, 8 p. m.

Graduating exercises, June 1st, 10:30 a. m. Alumnae reunion, June 1st, 2:30 p. m. Drama and Reception, June 1st, 8 p. m.

The J. O. U. A. B. Lecture.

As announced, Rev. J. L. Shinn, of Mooresville, lectured Wednesday night to the two different Councils of Junior Order of United American Mechanics. The colors of red, white and blue, which are the emblematic colors of the organization, were very prominent throughout the court house, and the tables were nicely decorated.

Both Councils attended in their regalia and their number showed up well. The Daughters of Liberty were also in company with them and took a prominent position at the rostrum.

Rev. Shinn pointed out, for the benefit of those who do not belong to the organization, the aims and motives of the Junior Order, also stating some statistics. He informed the people of the fact that this Order had now reached in the United States the large number of 200,000 members, had 2,500 different Councils and was represented in 39 of our States. And yet this Order is comparatively young, as he stated.

A Personal Letter from Camp Grimes

We have been shown a letter from Jay Sims at Camp Grimes to one of his friends here. He says there were flowers at the funeral of Ensign Bagley by wagon loads and that after lying the grave, the flowers were heaped upon the grave several feet high.

He also tells a good joke on one of the raw recruits who was put on guard duty. He had heard them call out their post number, but not seeing anything but a "stob" in the ground, he was heard to call out his position as "Stob No. 7." The boys have since been using the word very frequently.

Parks-Stephens Marriage.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Miss Lucia Parks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Baxter Parks, to Mr. Fred Stephens, of Charlotte. The ceremony will take place at the home of the bride at Harrisburg on Wednesday, June 1st at 10 a. m. After the marriage they will take the southbound train and will go to Carterville, Ga., to visit the relatives of the groom.

Bishops Elected.

At the general conference of the M. E. church South, now in session in Baltimore, Dr. Warren Chandler, of Georgia, and Dr. Morrison, of Tennessee, were made bishops. In the election we see that the voting for Dr. Kilgo ran from 13 to 66. One hundred and twenty-eight votes were necessary to a choice.

Eleven persons are reported killed in a cyclone in eastern Iowa and western Illinois Wednesday afternoon.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Royal makes the food pure, wholesome and delicious.
ROYAL BAKING POWDER
Absolutely Pure
SCHEDULE SOUTHERN RAILWAY.
In Effect Mar. 1, 1898.
This condensed schedule is published as information, and is subject to change without notice to the public.
Trains Leave Concord, N. C. 9:25 p. m.—No. 35 daily for Atlanta and Charlotte and all points South and South west. Carried through Pullman drawing-room buffet sleepers between New York, Washington, Atlanta, New Orleans, Savannah and Jacksonville. Also Pullman sleeper, Charlotte to Augusta, Salisbury and Chattanooga.
8:49 a. m.—No. 37, daily, Washington and Southwestern vestibule limited for Atlanta, Birmingham, Memphis, Montgomery, Mobile and New Orleans, and all points South and Southwest. Through Pullman sleeper New York to New Orleans and New York to Memphis. Dining car, vestibule coach, between Washington and Atlanta, Pullman tourist car for San Francisco, Wednesday and Saturdays.
8:53 p. m.—No. 7, daily, from Richmond, Washington, Goldsboro, Selma, Raleigh, Greensboro, Knoxville and Asheville to Charlotte, N. C.
10:29 a. m.—No. 11, daily, for Atlanta and all points South. Solid train, Richmond to Atlanta; Pullman sleeping car, Richmond to Augusta and Norfolk to Greensboro. Dining car, vestibule coach, between Washington, Richmond, Raleigh and all points N. C. Carries Pullman drawing-room buffet sleeper, New Orleans to New York; Jacksonville to New York; Chattanooga and Salisbury to New York. Pullman tourist cars from San Francisco Thursdays.
6:27 a. m.—No. 38, daily, Washington and Southwestern vestibule limited, for Washington and all points North. Through Pullman car, Memphis to New York; New York, Augusta to Richmond. Also carries vestibule coach and dining car.
7:08 p. m.—No. 12, daily, for Richmond, Asheville, Chattanooga, Raleigh, Norfolk, and all points North. Carries Pullman sleeping car from Greensboro to Richmond and Greensboro to Norfolk via Raleigh and Selma.
6:37 a. m.—No. 8, daily, for Richmond; connects at Greensboro for Raleigh and Goldsboro; at Danville for Washington and points North at Salisbury; for Asheville, Knoxville and points West.
First sections of regular through or local freight trains carry passengers only to points where they stop according to schedule.
JOHN M. CURRY, W. A. TAYLOR, Traffic Mgr. Gen'l Pass. Agt., FRANK S. GANNON, Washington, D. C. Third Vice President and Gen'l Manager, Washington, D. C. S. H. HARDWICK, Ass't Gen'l P. Ag't Atlanta, Ga. W. H. TAYLOR, Ass't Gen'l P. Ag't Louisville, Ky. GOWAN DUSENBERY, Local Ag't Concord, N. C.
MORRISON H. CALDWELL, ATTORNEY AT LAW, CONCORD, N. C. Office in Morris building, opposite Court house.
M. B. STICKLEY, Attorney at Law, Concord N. C. SPECIAL ATTENTION GIVEN TO COLLECTIONS. Office upstairs in King building near Postoffice.
Dr. Miles' Heart Cure
Cures a Prominent Attorney.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Royal makes the food pure, wholesome and delicious.
ROYAL BAKING POWDER
Absolutely Pure
SCHEDULE SOUTHERN RAILWAY.
In Effect Mar. 1, 1898.
This condensed schedule is published as information, and is subject to change without notice to the public.
Trains Leave Concord, N. C. 9:25 p. m.—No. 35 daily for Atlanta and Charlotte and all points South and South west. Carried through Pullman drawing-room buffet sleepers between New York, Washington, Atlanta, New Orleans, Savannah and Jacksonville. Also Pullman sleeper, Charlotte to Augusta, Salisbury and Chattanooga.
8:49 a. m.—No. 37, daily, Washington and Southwestern vestibule limited for Atlanta, Birmingham, Memphis, Montgomery, Mobile and New Orleans, and all points South and Southwest. Through Pullman sleeper New York to New Orleans and New York to Memphis. Dining car, vestibule coach, between Washington and Atlanta, Pullman tourist car for San Francisco, Wednesday and Saturdays.
8:53 p. m.—No. 7, daily, from Richmond, Washington, Goldsboro, Selma, Raleigh, Greensboro, Knoxville and Asheville to Charlotte, N. C.
10:29 a. m.—No. 11, daily, for Atlanta and all points South. Solid train, Richmond to Atlanta; Pullman sleeping car, Richmond to Augusta and Norfolk to Greensboro. Dining car, vestibule coach, between Washington, Richmond, Raleigh and all points N. C. Carries Pullman drawing-room buffet sleeper, New Orleans to New York; Jacksonville to New York; Chattanooga and Salisbury to New York. Pullman tourist cars from San Francisco Thursdays.
6:27 a. m.—No. 38, daily, Washington and Southwestern vestibule limited, for Washington and all points North.