MRS. RUSSELL DEAD.

Passes Away After a Year of Lingering with Dropsy—Leaves No Immediate Family.

Mrs. Russell, the widow of the late Dwight Russell, died at her home in No 1 township, on this (Thursday) morning at 7 o'clock, after a lingering illness of about one year with a dropsical affection.

She was 67 years of age. She was a consistent member of Rocky River church where her funeral will be preached by her pastor, Rev. C. Miller, and her remains will be buried Friday at 10 o'clock.

Mrs. Russell's maiden name was Davis, and she was a native of Rutherford county. Mrs. Russell had no children, and therefore leaves no member of her own family.

Mr. Harry Woodhouse Dead.

Some days ago, as noted in The Standard, Mr. Harry Woodhouse, of this place was critical ill in a hospital at Augusta, Ga. At an early hour this (Thursday) morning a telegram was received announcing that he died at 12 o'clock Wednesday night.

Mr. Woodhouse was engaged in the cotton mill business at Augusta for some time, having left here several months ago. He was a man of about 35 years of age, and of a good and quiet disposition. He was unmarried, and leaves behind his mother, Mrs. E. T. Woodhouse, and one brother, Mr. Irvin Woodhouse, and one sister, Mrs. Alida Burkhead.

The Julia Magruder Club Meets.

A very interesting and instructive meeting of the Julia Magruder Book Club was held with Mrs. Green Dusenbury on Tuesday, December 6. The topic of the afternoon being "Shakespeare" and our hostess, Mrs. Dusenbury, too, were prepared somewhat for the charming two hours before us.

Mrs. J. D. Arnold handled her subject "Shakespeare's England," in a most masterly manner. The paper was replete with rich thoughts gathered with the choicest language.

Mrs. Gowan Dusenbury's paper on "Shakespeare and his contemporary writers" showed much thought and the difficult task of condensing such a broad subject was well done and her paper interesting from beginning to end.

Mrs. Houston gave a very entertaining sketch of the author of "People for Whom Shakespeare wrote." It was well written, concise and much to the point, and was an interesting feature of the evening. Quotations from the "King of English Literature" closed the program for the afternoon.

Mrs. Dusenbury served a most elaborate and deliciously prepared menu and the evening was voted a success and great pleasure in every detail.

Mr. W. A. Penninger Hurt.

Wednesday afternoon, while leading a cow, Mr. W. A. Penninger, of Forest Hill, received a bad injury. The animal undertook to get loose from him by running. Mr. Penninger, while trying to hold it, was thrown to the ground violently, and as a result his collar bone and two ribs were broken. At this time he is resting easy.

A Negro Who Has Solved the Race Problem.

"I have a brother down in North Carolina," said Henry Hardy, a well known and intelligent colored man, who was waiting to see a member of Congress at the Elliott, "that has solved the race question, so far as he is individually concerned. He owns two good farms, and has quite a large number of horses, mules and cows. All this property he earned by steady, a ten to twelve, he takes no interest in politics. The best white people of the country are his friends, and his vote for a considerable sum is as good as the vote of any man's."

"My own observation is that the better class of whites and the respectable portion of black people, who mind their own business and have no time to loaf about, get on well together in the South. A certain class of white men, generally the sort we call poor trash, are responsible for all the cruelties that have been inflicted on innocent negroes who commit vile deeds and bring reproach on the whole race."

—Washington Post, 6th.

He Arrived at Savannah Too Late.

The First North Carolina regiment is off for Mariel, Cuba, having left some time after midnight Wednesday night. Mr. Joe Hill, who left here Wednesday night arrived there at 5 o'clock but was too late to join his brother, Capt. Edward Hill. He at once telegraphed home advising the condition of affairs.

News Obtained Through Faith.

Faith, Dec. 8.—Mr. Calvin Camp is having a handsome new residence built. Mr. Wm. Ford is putting up a nice two-story residence. Mr. Pease Holsinger has bought the house and lot of Mr. John Foster. The brass band here has learned to play quite well, and is now able to give us enjoyable serenades.

Mr. Michael Shuppig, aged 72, and Miss Nancy Lewis, aged 49, were married Sunday by Rev. J. M. L. Lyster.

Mr. J. T. Wyatt has gone to Salisbury to superintend the putting in of cross walks for the town. The granite slabs are 12 inches broad, 5 to 6 inches thick and 12 to 12 feet long. Two slabs are put in at a crossing twelve inches apart.

Mr. Wyatt, who is somewhat of an enthusiast for curiols, has a good that will hold one fourth of a bushel. Who can beat it?

The funeral services held this morning for the remains of Mr. Harry Woodhouse arrived here Thursday night, accompanied by Mrs. Woodhouse and Mr. Irvin Woodhouse, who reached Augusta before his death. The funeral was conducted at the residence of Mrs. Woodhouse, on Loan street, this (Friday) morning at 11 o'clock by Rev. W. Q. Alexander of the First Presbyterian church, after which the remains were interred in the city cemetery.

Can't the Fellows Be Captured?
It is not an uncommon thing for some persons at night to ride on the pavements with their wheels, and especially on North Main street. Generally when you see them on the pavement they are riding at break-neck speed and their hats are turned down over their face. Some nights ago one was coming at such a rate and struck Mrs. Virginia Erwin, of North Main street, almost knocking her down. This was a dangerous occurrence and it is indeed fortunate that the breaking of this law did not prove worse for Mrs. Erwin. Can't these bicyclists be caught some night when they are unaware of anyone being on their trail?

The Fire Alarm Friday.
At 6 o'clock Friday evening, the alarm of fire was given and quickly the people from the streets rushed to aid. The fire was found to be at the Morris house. The ceiling on stairs next to the chimney in the rear part of the building was burning slightly. The fire was not visible, though a good amount of smoke was emerging from the chimney.

The hose and reel company, assisted by the hook and ladder company, soon were throwing water in it. No damage was done exceptly. This was the first time the new hose of the fire company had been of use since it was purchased. It is a great improvement on the old one and there was no burning of holes when their connection was made this time.

Drying preparations simply develop dry catarrh; they dry up the mucous which adheres to the membrane and decompose, causing a far more serious trouble than the ordinary form of catarrh. Avoid all drying inhalants and use that which cleanses soothes and heals. Ely's Cream Balm is such a remedy and will cure catarrh or cold in the head easily and pleasantly. A trial size will be mailed for 10 cents, large for 50 cents. All druggists keep it. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren Street, New York.

THE NEW DEPOT

Now On the Road to Completion—A Great Improvement of Accommodation—Changes to Be Made Thereabout—The Dimensions of the Rooms.

Though the new passenger depot is not as large as some had expected it to be, still there will be a great improvement over the service rendered in the past. Ere many months, if the statements of the superintendent of that part of the work are upheld, Concord will scarcely look like herself at the depot.

The new passenger depot building is now up and almost at this time covered. The building is 70 feet and 2 inches long and 21 feet and 2 inches wide. In each end of the building is a waiting room measuring 21 by 29 feet. Between these two rooms there is an apartment 10 by 21 feet intended for the ticket agent and telegraph operators. As to whether the telegraph operators will occupy this place, it is not yet fully decided. On the side next to the railroad, at the middle of the building, is a bay window for the operator, in order that he may see approaching trains from either direction.

The roof, which is covered with slate, projects far over the edge, forming a nice shelter during rain and giving shade in the summer time.

Besides the constructing of this depot, quite a number of improvements and changes are to be made. It is the purpose of the superintendent to put a cement pavement around the depot, and to have the yard enclosed, except on the side next to the rails, by an iron fence. The timbers have already been placed near the rails to hold a walk of 400 feet in length.

The water tank, now standing near the bridge, will be torn down, and already have the foundations been built for two stand-pipes—one for engine going in each direction.

The side track between the new station and the main line will be torn away, so that there will be no track to cross to get upon the cars. A baggage room is yet to be built, too, below the passenger depot next to the Cannon mill. There will be a considerable change in the side-tracks thereabout, and as Superintendent Dudson said, "before he gets through here the large bank on the other side near the water tank will be torn away."

Mr. Dodson, who is superintendent of this part of the Southern's work, seems to be desirous of giving Concord better accommodation than she has been having, and it is hoped that soon Concord, unlike in the past, can be judged somewhat by its appearance at the depot.

His Place Is Waiting For Him.
Mr. Luther Hartzell, who will in a few weeks go to Raleigh to represent Cabarrus in the Legislature, received a plan of the Legislative hall Friday, showing him where his seat would be and his surroundings. He has an exceptionally good seat, being beside the main aisle in front of the speaker and on the second row from the front. He will be succeeded by Hon. Locke Craig, of Asheville. Mr. Hartzell will not return home until in march.

Robbed the Weaver.
A startling incident of which Mr. John Oliver, of Palmetto, was the subject, is narrated as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes swollen, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite—kept on gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying 'Electric Bitters,' and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the other victim!" No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents per bottle at P. H. Fetzler's Drug Store.

LEGISLATURE MEETS.

The Newly Elected Speaker Takes His Seat—Two Acts Presented—The One Referred to a Committee, the Other Lodged.

The first meeting of the Concord Legislature, as it is now called, met Friday night. The gentleman from the Augusta district, who was elected speaker of the House, took his seat, but informed the Assembly that his business was such that he would have to vacate the chair. The Apple Grove district's representative was elected to the chair pro tem.

The speaker, before vacating the chair, appointed as the committee on rules the three gentlemen who represent the Huckleberry, Jug Town and Georgia Cracker districts respectively.

An act entitled the "Cavim Oris Humani Act" was introduced by the Huckleberry representative, which act reads as follows: "Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Concord that every white person above 21 years of age shall present himself annually to a licensed oral surgeon or, if he is unable to do so, to a dentist, and to have his teeth upholstered. A failure to do so cheerfully present himself and to sit quietly and serenely during the operations of the said oral surgeon the same shall be fined ten dollars for each offense. The fine shall be collected by the high constable and disbursed as his wisdom may direct. This act to take effect on its ratification." After being read, a motion prevailed that the act be referred to the Agricultural Committee.

An act was also presented for the protection of our deer, rabbits and opossums. It was moved that this act be lodged. Nothing more of importance came before the house that night.

2d Grade—Sadie Presley, Shakespeare Spears, Charlie Alexander, George Moore.

REMARKS.
The conditions of being on the honor roll is that the child must not be below 90 in any study and must not be absent nor tardy any during the month. This may seem like a high standard. But there is no honor in doing what anybody can do. After a while the children will come up to the standard. More regular attendance will help much. There will be one week of vacation for holidays.

A WASHY POEM.
Three months have come and passed away
Since first we announced our opening day
And we kindly thank both great and small
For the patronage of almost all
And feel quite sure that time is near
When the people will have their
Laundry here
And will also know at an early day
That the present company has come to stay.

Our prospects, we can truly say,
Grow lighter with each recurring day,
And the work we are now able to do
Is not excelled by even the few.
We stay at the wheel day in and out,
Or we'd call to see you without a doubt.
So consider this a personal call,
When in your hands these lines shall fall.

Now here's a plan we've undertaken,
And read the terms as in a book—
We'll call to see you without a doubt,
So consider this a personal call,
When in your hands these lines shall fall.

RESTAURANT

J. L. ROGER, Proprietor.
I am still in the ring, feeling the hunger at my old stand in the brick Row near the post office, where you can get a good meal any time. Oysters stewed, fried or broiled. Birds on toast. I will have my same old cook, Wm. Moore and his wife, the best restaurateur cooks in the city. When you want anything in my line call and I guarantee you will be politely treated. Any one wishing oysters for Christmas will please leave their orders with me or at the restaurant. I hope to receive a part of your patronage.

COAL!
The delay of the mines is now over and I have four cars which have been delayed in transit. The railroad superintendent now assures me that he will AT ONCE rush the cars to their destination, so I hope to be able to supply the trade in a very few days. The delay on my part has been wholly unavoidable and I thank the people for their patience. R. L. CHAVEN.
