IT'S ADAMS FOR GOVERNOR.

Republican State Convention Makes Up State Ticket—Pritchard Gets off a Great Speech.
The Republican State convention was held in Raleigh Wednesday and after a number of refusals got up the following ticket: For Governor, Spencer B. Adams; Lieutenant-Governor, Claud Dockery; Auditor, T. S. Rollins; Treasurer, L. L. Jenkins; Secretary of State, J. F. Parrott; Attorney General, Z. V. Walsler; Corporation Commissioners, C. A. Reynolds and J. Franks; Labor Commissioner, T. W. Malloy; J. J. Pritt declined the nomination for superintendent of Public Instruction and the convention endorsed N. C. English the Populist nominee.

A. H. Price and J. R. McCrary were nominated for electors at large.

Senator Pritchard was on hand, of course, and made a great speech, trying to muddy the waters after C. R. Aycock. He made Aycock's speech of acceptance his text and, with his sophistry, tried to turn the edge off. Of course he asserts that the Supreme court seeing that the amendment is directed at the ignorant negro will declare section 5, which does not disfranchise anybody, to be unconstitutional and will declare section 4, which does disfranchise people, to be constitutional and thereby illiterate white men will be disfranchised.

The Senator's speech was a gigantic effort to hold on to the kind of voters that made it possible for himself, Butler, Russell and others to hold offices in the Old North State.

To Sink an Artesian Well at the Odell Mills.

The machinery used for sinking the artesian wells has been moved from the Cannon mills to the Odell mills where work will begin at once. The machinery is being placed at the rear of the older mills near the reservoir.

Walter-Stewart Wedding.

On Wednesday evening, the 2nd, Mr. Zeb C. Walter, an employee at the bleachery, and Miss Alice Stewart, of Cannonville, were married. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Paul Barringer at the home of the bride's father, Mr. J. F. Stewart, who lives near the Second Presbyterian church. The groom also lives at Cannonville and is a son of Mrs. Geo. M. Walter. Both are from the best of families at Cannonville.

Though no invitations were issued a large number of friends and relatives were present to see the happy union.

They Begin Next Month

Beginning the first of June our people will have to answer the questions of the census enumerators of the town and county, similar to ten years ago. The enumerators have thirty days to finish their work. This will be a busy time for the enumerators as it requires quite an amount of work, making out reports, etc.

Prof. C. S. Coler Re-Elected.

Through inadvertence in some way Wednesday in giving the result of the election of teachers for next session at the graded school the name of Prof. C. S. Coler was omitted. With the list named he was elected the superintendent for another session.

Not Admitted into the State Prison.

Mr. Holke Peck returned home Wednesday night from Raleigh where he took the insane woman, Lavinia Craton, who was ordered to be put into the criminal insane department of the State prison. Mr. Peck had quite an experience before he could rid himself of his lady companion. They would not admit her into the State prison, claiming that they required time beforehand. At last he succeeded in getting her admitted into the insane asylum there. Mr. Peck had no trouble with her in the least during the trip.

Strawberries By Train Loads.

Strawberries are being shipped from about Wilmington in solid train loads. On Monday, says the Wilmington Messenger, 3,980 crates were shipped from along the Wilmington and Weldon railroad.

DAUGHTERS MEET.

Arrangements for Memorial Day Mapped Out—Hostess' Charming Entertainment.

We learn that the Dodson Ramson Chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy had a meeting Friday of unusual interest. A committee was appointed to arrange details for Memorial Day exercises on the 10th. The general outline is that the children of the graded school will march to the Confederate monument at 3 o'clock and deposit their floral offerings when a prayer will be offered and a brief address will be made. The Concord band will furnish music for the occasion.

The hostess was quite happy in the tasty and elaborate decorations with flowers and tapestry emblematic of the Lost Cause and with a menu of the season's choicest fruits.

The Daughters, with appreciative memories to be long impressed, adjourned to meet on Saturday, the 2nd of June, at which time the meeting will have for its leading feature the commemoration of the birthday of Jefferson Davis which falls on the next day, Sunday.

It seems that our baseball player, Billy Weddington, who is one of our best pitchers, fell far below Wednesday in the game between the Newberry boys and the Erskine team. He and his team went down with a score of 15 to 4 against and the next day they were defeated in a score of 6 to 5. The Observer correspondent from Erskine has the following about our ball player:

"Observer readers have read of Billy Weddington, of Roanoke College, Va. Everybody knows that he has the reputation of pitching good ball. Now we know that he is no match for Erskine's heavy hitters. Yesterday he was batted all over the field. In fact, the Erskine boys could do almost as much with his balls as they did with those of McManis, that other great pitcher of the State. The only features of the game were the heavy hitting of the home team and a pretty catch at short by Wiles, for the visitors."

Billy struck out only five men, while his competitor struck out ten men.

In An Awful Condition.

Numbers of our citizens who travel over the road leading from here to Glass are complaining quite much of the awful condition of the road. It is almost impossible to travel in a buggy otherwise than in a walk as the road bed is so full of holes. One of the citizens in that part of the county says he wishes that our people would travel it just in order to be convinced of its condition.

To Leave Concord.

Mr. E. F. Rolfe and family, who for several years has been living in Concord, will leave about the 15th of this month for Seward, Neb., where he teaches in a white parochial school, teaching as both English and German. Mr. Rolfe has had charge of a colored school here and has been a most faithful worker.

Great Tobacco Sales.

The Piedmont warehouse has disposed during the week ending today over half a million pounds of tobacco.

To be accurate they sold five hundred and twenty-five thousand pounds. On last Wednesday they sold tobacco amounting to over ten thousand dollars, or in other words, paid this amount out to the farmers for leaf tobacco.

The Winston leaf tobacco market is growing very rapidly.

This year's sales will run largely over the 20,000,000 pounds mark, a fact more than already assured.—Winston Journal.

Philadelphia Times Sold.

The Philadelphia Times has been sold to a company for the sum of about $1,200,000. The policy and the sentiment of the paper, as we understand it, will not be materially changed. It is boldly announced that the gold Standard and the permanent retention of the territory gained in the late war will be adhered to and defended.

THE CANAL BILL.

Passes the House 225 to 85—Amendment to Fortify Voted Down.

The Nicaraguan canal bill passed the House on Wednesday by a vote of 225 to 85. The amendment looking to fortifications for the canal was defeated by a vote of 31 to 87. The discussion on this bill was quite spirited. Messrs. Hepburn and Cannon became involved to the pugilistic point, the former charging the later in very uncomplimentary terms, using even the word "lie." There was no fight however.

Negroes Threaten Violence.

A special of the 3rd from Burlington to the News and Observer says:

Much excitement prevailed in our town last night over threats made by negroes, to wreak vengeance upon some young boy of Burlington, in return for the treatment accorded the negro Sellars last Tuesday morning. They threatened to burn the town also, and about fifty of our citizens remained up all night guarding the town.

No attempt in any way was made, after the whites turned out armed. The town will be guarded again tonight. As one of our prominent citizens went on guard last night he said: "Let them attempt anything and there will be several voters against the amendment hunting seats in hell." This is only another instance to show the nature of the negro, as a dangerous element in our midst.

Look at Your $20 Notes.

Mr. W. J. McManus, in charge of the Secret Service's office in this city, received information this morning from Washington of a dangerous $20 note that is now in circulation. It is printed from engraved plates, and the work upon the face and back is of a high order of excellence. It is a trifle shorter than the genuine, though this should not be used as an absolute test. The most noticeable defects in the note are in the portrait of Hamilton; the nose instead of being round on the end is brought to a sharp point; the chin instead of being double, as in the genuine, is square; the head from the back of the hair to the top of the nose, on the line of the ear, is a fraction of an inch wider than the genuine; the work on the coat gives a flat effect and merges into the background in the lower part of the portrait. In fact, the portrait as a whole does not stand out clearly, being almost a monotone with the background.—Charlotte News.

A Woman With a History.

Dr. Claribel Cone, of Baltimore, who is to deliver the sixth lecture in the Normal College Course next Saturday night, on the subject of "Careers for Women," is a woman who has made a career for herself, and by dint of hard study, assiduous work and enthusiastic pursuit of her chosen profession—that of medicine—has placed herself in the front rank of practitioners in Baltimore. She is president of the Women's Medical College, of Baltimore and is professor of Pathology in the same institution. In addition to this Dr. Cone takes an active part and is a recognized factor in the research work in the Johns Hopkins Medical School.

A woman who has made such a place for herself in the world will have much of interest and many helpful suggestions for the young, particularly for the women, as she speaks "as one having authority."—Greensboro Record.

Street Duel in Jacksonville.

A very serious shooting affair took place at Jacksonville, Fla., on Monday between ex-State Senator Williamson, editor of the Florida Journal, and C. W. Stansell, city councilman. The former had charged the latter in an editorial with selling his influence in the council for $5,000. On meeting, Stansell drew his pistol, fired four times and ran. Williamson fired two shots after him, one shot entering about the spine and making a very serious wound. Williamson was slightly wounded.

TERRIBLE FIGHT WITH FILIPINOS.

Twenty Americans Killed in a Church While They Slew 200 of the Enemy.

A terrible experience occurred to a garrison of 30 of the 49th regiment at Catubig, island of Samar, says a Manila dispatch of the 2nd.

They were attacked by an overwhelming force of the enemy and but ten survived. They repeatedly refused to surrender when summoned and continued to make havoc of the assailants. It is believed that they killed more than 200 of them.

The engagement was on for 5 days and in the meantime the Filipinos set the roof on fire which burned and fell in on the brave little band.

When well nigh the last extremity a lieutenant and 8 men arrived and helped to drive off the well nigh defeated assailants.

It is fair to presume that the enemy abandoned the siege when the little band came, through the anticipation of a greater force along near.

It was an incident of almost unprecedented courage and fortitude but is sadly attended with the loss of 20 heroic men.

Race Discrimination.

It is an ill wind that suits nobody. The denial of the right of Porto Ricans, Hawaiis and Filipinos to govern themselves—much less help by voting to govern us—necessarily silences those Northerners who would have the Africans govern the South. The principle of race discrimination is at length established, and an American citizen may now be 21 and yet be thought incapable of taking part by voting in the government of this country. Noting the progress toward a juster feeling, the Philadelphian Manufacturer says: "The 'bloody shirt' and the 'nigger vote' are phrases that awaken no response in the breasts of a generation which is growing up to Cuba, Porto Rico and the Philippines. Talk about the Southern problem, what are they compared with the Philippine problems? African negroes are nothing to compare with the wild men of Borneo." The South long ago understood the negro problem. It has always asked only to be left alone to solve it in the only practicable way. That seems at length to be conceded. Baltimore Sun.

Are for Men to Marry?

Edward Bok, writing in the May Ladies' Home Journal, on "A Boy for a Husband," contends that "no young man under twenty-five years of age is in any sense competent to take unto himself a wife. Before that age he is simply a boy who has absolutely nothing which he can offer to a girl as a safe foundation for life-happiness. He is unformed in his character, unsettled in his ideas, absolutely ignorant of the first essentials of what consideration or love for a woman means. He doesn't know himself, let alone know a woman. He is full of fancies, and it is his boyish nature to flit from one fancy to another. He is incapable of the affection upon which love is based, because he has not lived long enough to know what the feeling or even the word means. He is full of theories, each of which, when he comes to put it into practice, will fail. He is a boy, pure and simple, passing through that trying period through which every boy must pass before he becomes a man. But that period is not the marrying time, for as his opinions of life are to change, so are his fancies of the girl he esteems as the only girl in the world to make him happy. The man of thirty rarely weds the girl whom he fancied when he was twenty."

Footie Could Be Castie.

One of the best repartees on record is that of Footie, the actor. Dining with some friends, a heated dispute arose between himself and a young nobleman. The latter sought to disparage Footie by asking him what his father was.

"A tradesman," said Footie.

"Then, sir, it is a pity he did not make you one."

"And pray, let me ask, what was your father, my lord?"

"My father, Mr. Footie, was a gentleman."

"Then, my lord, it's a pity he did not make you one."—Collier's Weekly.

TOM'S CLOTHES.

He is a Deserving Little Chap, Will Fight, if Necessary, for Dignity's Sake.

The true story is told of a little boy in the Ada Mill settlement, who is just 12 years old, who works hard to support his mother. His name is Tom, and possibly that is all of his name that he wishes published here.

A little while ago it was noticed that his clothes were worn and patched beyond hope of patching. So in motherly instinct strong and in great kindness a number of little girls contributed to buying their friend a complete outfit. They bought him everything that one small boy could wear for $2.65, and for once Tom was like Reginald Wilfer—he wore new shoes when his hat was new.

The girls who made the gift sent another small boy to Tom to find out if he would accept the clothes. Their delegate soon returned and said: "Yes, he'll take 'em. Oh, he's awful good." Then after a pause he added: "But, Tom said he'd whoop anybody that threwed them clothes up to him."—Charlotte Observer.

UTAH MINE DISASTER.

More Fatal Than First Thought—Two Hundred and One Dead Taken Out.

The mine disaster at Scofield, Utah, is much worse than first dispatches indicated. It is now found that from 300 to 400 miners were in the mine when the explosion occurred. At 10.30 on Wednesday 201 bodies had been recovered. The fatalities are expected to reach 300. Among them are a number of boys.

Generosity Well Bestowed.

We note with pleasure that the ever generous Mr. A. Jones Yorke has footed the bill and selected the veteran to attend the Louisville reunion at his expense. It is the more touching, too, that the object of his generosity is one who wears the visible mark of a shot in that great war that was but a hairsbreadth from a death-dealer and one whose recent life struggle has been peculiarly envied and calculated to depress.

Spring Maxims.

On the door of success we never fail to find the one word "push."

If we were chickens and each criticism of the world robbed us of a feather, we should be naked in an hour.

Don't fear opposition. Without a foe who can make a brave fight?

Criticism is a pitiless gun, and the name of the man behind that gun is "Ignorance."

Jealousy is a fire whose best fuel is found in unworthy breasts.

It is not set nor creed nor garb that makes a priest pious. Just try to please every idiot who offers suggestions for your development of character and there will soon be only two institutions open to you—the State insane asylum or the county jail.

MARGUERITE.

Porto Rico's Civil Government.

Charles H. Allen was inaugurated at San Juan on May 1st as first civil governor of Porto Rico. The occasion was made much of, the natives joining heartily in the demonstrations contrary to some adverse influences.

Gen. Davis the retiring military speaker in the course of his speech said the principal executive offices provided by congress will be 47 and that at least 40 of these will be held by natives, the other seven will be appointments by the president.

A Small Boy Causes a Fire Alarm.

Between 1 and 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon a person not far away notified the barn of Mr. "Billy" Cook, who lives on West Depot street, was on fire. Some persons who were working nearby reached it only in time to save the barn and very probably more. The little son of Mr. Jim Cook had lighted some dry grass at the corner of the barn, not thinking of the danger of burning property. Very little damage was done to the barn. When persons came to the rescue it was already in a blaze.

LUTHERAN SYNOD.

Rev. Chas. B. Miller Elected President for the Coming Synodical Year—Routine Work Being Transacted—Other Officers Elected.

A large crowd of Lutherans from the different parts of the State arrived at Albemarle Thursday to begin the annual meeting of the Synod.

The Synod opened Thursday afternoon. After the Synodical communion service the election of officers was entered into resulting as follows: Rev. Chas. B. Miller, of this place, president; Rev. V. R. Stickley, of Enochville, vice-president; Rev. C. B. King, of Charlotte, secretary; and Mr. J. D. Heilig, of Salisbury, treasurer. Thursday night Rev. H. N. Miller, of Mt. Pleasant, delivered an address on the subject "Beneficence."

In conversation by telephone today (Friday) we learn that the morning session was taken up mostly with reports of churches, etc. Thus far nothing of special interest has transpired in the Synod.

Daily 4th.

NO MORE SMALLPOX.

The inmates of the Pest House Are Turned Out—Mr. Geo. Heglar Also Recovered.

For the last several weeks the pest house below town has been having occupants while there was also several in the house of detention. These persons were Joe Alexander, a negro, and his family, who several weeks ago were taken from their home at Silver Hill, and Marshall Miller, a negro who was broken out with it when seen here on the street.

But on Friday Dr. Young, who has been having them in charge, made them go through the necessary processes before being released and now the houses stand empty.

Mr. Geo. Heglar, who has been at his home in No. 9 township with a genuine case, has recovered also, so we can again say that Cabarrus nor Concord has any smallpox within its bounds.

From Out at the Bala Mill.

Kindly, May 4.—Mr. Brantley Little is confined to his bed by grippe.

"Father" Bass has been seriously ill—threatened with pneumonia.

The Patterson's Mill school closed Wednesday with a big picnic. All seemed to have a good time. Five wagon loads came from Sunderland Hall and the girls seemed immensely to enjoy the straw ride.

Misses McCartney and Caskie, teachers, leave next week for their homes near Pittsburg, Pa.

Mr. Martin Lefler and wife have gone to housekeeping on the Teeter farm.

Every man and boy that hasn't the grippe is planting or preparing to plant cotton or corn.

PREACHER KILLS A MAN.

Street Duel in Which He is the Better Shot.

An extremely unfortunate, if not criminal, episode in the life of a minister of the Gospel occurred on Friday at Bamberg, S. C., when the Rev. E. Johnston shot and killed W. T. Bellingier. It seems that some hot words passed between them about a middle fence when Bellingier displayed a pistol. Mr. Johnston seeming to fear the worst carried his gun with him on the streets. The two met, a few words passed and fire was opened. Bellingier fired four shots with his pistol, probably two of them after he fell mortally wounded from which he quickly died. Johnston was not hit and it seems fired but one shot. He gave himself up to the sheriff.

They Are Losing in the Strike.

If the information contained in a letter received here by a Southern Railway official from a striking operator be correct, the strikers have lost their fight against the Southern.

The letter referred to was seen by the Truth-Index representative and its writer was one among the first of the Southern operators to walk out.

The letter says in part: "I am advised by Mr. Brandon that we lose in the strike and that I had best look for a position."

He concludes by asking to be taken back to work here.

The Mr. Brandon referred to has been one of the most active organizers among the strikers since it began.

It has been apparent to the public for some time that the strikers have been steadily losing ground as the Southern has been rapidly filling all the vacant places until now well nigh all the offices are filled.—Salisbury Truth-Index.

Temperance Truths

Each glass of beer is one stone in the wall that will eventually separate us from all that is good, true and pure in life and in the hereafter.

While our board of health tacks up notices of contagious diseases, the board of excise tacks up license to sell drunkenness.

It is said that over one million of the best of God's creatures entered upon the alcoholic short line road to the pit in the last ten years. The road is still open with over 200,000 depots in the United States.

The law prohibiting liquor-selling in the army is being agitated. The President's signature would speak volumes.

"Therefore to him that knoweth to do good and doeth it not to him it is sin."

In the saloon you deposit your money and lose it, your character and lose it, your health and lose it, your strength and lose it, your home comfort and lose it, your wife's happiness and lose it, your children's happiness and lose it, your own soul—and lose it.

Truth may be bruised and laid up, but it never gets heart-failure.
