Foretold Her Own Death While in Good Health.

Miss Ella Graham, aged 39 years, a proof reader in a printing establishment in this city, just one week ago yesterday called on two friends and asked if they would be pall-bearers at her funeral. She said she would be dead in a week. They were amazed at her proposition and tried to make her forget all about her proposition of approaching death. She was in splendid health at the time.
Two days later she was taken suddenly ill with what developed into pleuro-pneumonia. She died on Thursday afternoon last and was buried yesterday, the list of pall-bearers including the two friends she had invited to her funeral.—New Haven, Conn.,

A Bit of Cheer.

Purchase you feel like sighing, dear,
Just check the sigh and smile,
And cheer some wayworn wanderers O'er many a weary mile.
A kindly word, a loving smile, Great blessings doth bestow;
The power have they to charm away,
A heavy load of woe.

Alas! the many aching hearts, Alone the circling years, Though there be dearth of all things else,
Is never dearth of tears.
Then put aside thy griefs, dear heart, Nor grudge a smile to dole;
'Twill cheer thine own sad lot, and bless
As well thy neighbor's soul.

For there was One whose spirit oft Was wrapped, methinks, in gloom.

Before Him rose dark Calvary's cross,
The agony of the tomb,
And still He ever strove to cheer The wayworn pilgrim lone; Jesus! Imperial Prince of Peace, From Heaven's eternal throne!

'Tis not the costly grief bestowed
That cheers the aching heart,
It is the kindly sympathy,
It is love's magic art.
And blessed shall thy memory be, Though naught thou hast to give But kindly words and loving smiles:
And lo! thy soul shall live—

THE IMPEACHMENT TRIAL.

Judge Clark on the Stand—Testimony

All In—Major Guthrie Pleads.

Judge Clark was a witness in the impeachment case Thursday and contrary to expectations there was nothing especially sensational. His testimony did not agree with that of Judge Montgomery, but it was in good style.

Judge Allen was also sworn and testified on the part of the prosecuting committee as to the form and nature of the oath administered to Judge Montgomery, who claimed that before the sub-committee he was not sworn to tell the whole truth. The further testimony indicates that there was at least a misunderstanding and that the oath included the words "the whole truth."

Major Guthrie began the pleadings for the prosecution at 11:15 and with a dinner recess excepted spoke till six o'clock when court adjourned with his speech unfinished.

Singular Incident.

A very singular incident is told in the press dispatch from Grand Rapids, Mich., under date of the 19th. A Mrs. Lambert was believed to be a widow.
She was recently stricken down with disease. She got to calling for her husband.
Some days later an old gentleman drove up who proved to be her husband and the father of Mrs. Lambert's daughter who was devoted to the care of her mother. The old gentleman was so overcome that he became faint several times and died. He was buried without letting the wife know. On him was found a good bit of money and some valuable papers. He was a Western ranchman. The story does not tell the cause of separation or account for her calling for him or his appearance on the scene.

It's an ill wind that blows the doctor good.

AWFUL DEED OF INSANE MOTHER.

Kills Her Six Children and Cuts Her Own Throat.

At Cold Brook, Mass., says a dispatch of the 21st, Mrs. Lizzie Noramore killed her six children and then attempted to cut her own throat while evidently in a condition of temporary insanity.
She locked and barred the doors and killed them in different rooms, laying them on beds.
She was found by a delivery man and was cared for. Later in the day she told friends how she did the bloody deed and seemed almost rational and somewhat sorry. Her condition is critical and she is hardly expected to recover.

Gen. Harrison's Will.

Indianapolis, March 10.—The will of General Harrison was filed for probate to day. He bequeaths to the Union Trust Company, as trustee, $125,000 to be invested, the interest to be paid to his wife during the term of her life. To his wife he also leaves $15,000; to his daughter Elizabeth $10,000, to be paid to his wife as trustee. He leaves $10,000 to be invested for his grandson, Benjamin Harrison McKee. To each of his grandchildren, Mary Lodge McKee, Marthena Harrison and William Henry Harrison, he leaves the sum of $2,500.

Item 16 of the will reads as follows.

"If another child should be born to me of my present marriage I give and bequeath to such child the sum of $10,000. If a boy shall be born to me, he shall bear my name, and my sword and sash shall be given to him instead of my son Russell."

Russell Harrison's debts to his father are remitted. The residuary estate is equally divided among the children of Russell Harrison and General Harrison's two daughters.

Big Game Reserve.

Last night in Baltimore a deal was closed between an English company by which 25,000 acres of land at the around Spout Springs passed into control of the Englishman. This gentleman, whose name is Johnson, and who is one of the principal owners in one of the trans-Atlantic steamship lines, came down to Spout Springs several days ago with his friend, Mr.
Samuel Spencer, president of the Southern railroad, and they were met by Mr. McRobinson, of this city, the attorney for the Consolidated Lumber Company, the owners of the property in question, and from there the party went to Baltimore, where the deal was closed last night.
It is proposed by this Englishman and his son to make a great game preserve on this property.
This son was fox hunting in the Spout Springs neighborhood before last with a party of Greensboro sportsmen, and so pleased was he with the country that when he went back to England he told his father of the possibilities of the place as a game preserve, with the result that Mr. Johnson came over himself and was also so impres-sioned that he decided to purchase the whole tract. Mr. Duncan Shaw went to Baltimore last night, carrying the seal of the Consolidated Lumber Company, which Mr. Robinson had left behind, and which it was necessary to have in making the transfer.

A man who had smoked 25,000 packages of cigarettes, sent the empty boxes to the manufacturwould give him. They declined to give him a reward for that, but to show that they were not entirely unappreciative of his industry wrote him that if he would smoke 25,000 more they would present him with a handsome metallic casket.—Greens-

FATHER'S HORRID DEED.

In a Fit of Despondency Kills His Three Children.

A Clinton, Me., dispatch of the 21st says Jacob D. Marr was despondent but his wife did not suspect the terrible deed till he came into the house and struck down his daughter, 13 years old, while at the sink washing dishes. The mother saw the horrid deed and ran screaming to Mr. Marr's father's room. When the senior Mr. Marr arrived the son had killed two other children and was washing his hands. On being asked why he did it he answered, "I don't know." He was placed under arrest.

Newton Enterprise On the Legislature.

The most felicitous editorial we have seen on the late Legislature is that of the Newton Enterprise of the 22nd. The editor sees in the free criticism of the body a healthy condition of public sentiment not divided along strictly political lines while these sharp criticisms probably did much to eliminate objectionable parts of the original revenue bill, which however the Enterprise thinks suffered from not being clearly understood. It hopes that the bill as it is will be generally approved and that it will meet the expectation of those who had the difficult task of framing it.

We clip the following able paragraphs from the Enterprise:

"The Legislature had in both houses some very strong men; men who were progressive, and not afraid to do their duty regardless of criticism. This is the kind of men the State should be proud of. In the Senate the two men who made the best records were H. A. London, of Chatham, and John S. Henderson, of Rowan. Mr. London was the genius and conservative force of the finance committee. He was also the champion and representative of the Confederate veterans and the State press. His pension bill and libel bill will live as garlands around his name. Mr. Henderson fought everything that was wild, unjust and revolutionary. He killed more bad bills and got in more good amendments to bills that could not be killed than any other man in either house. The reputation as a wise legislator that he made in Congress was fully sustained in the Legislature. In the House there were also some strong and conservative men, but some of the members were very wild.

"Among the things we especially endorse are the liberal appropriations to the State public institutions; the increased appropriation to public schools and the manner of its distribution; the increased pensions to Confederate veterans; the killing of the State primary election bill."

LOCAL OPTION LAW.

Under Chapter 32 of the Code as Amended By Chapter 215 Laws of 1887 and Chapter 375 Laws of 1889.

It shall be the duty of the board of commissioners of any county, upon petition of one fourth of such voters whose names appear upon the registrabooks of any county or township, in their respective counties, to order an election to be held on the first Monday in June to ascertain whether or not intoxicating liquors may be sold in said county, town or township, but no election shall be held oftener than once every two years.

Sec. 3114. Such county, town or township election when so ordered, shall be held under the same rules and regulations as prescribed for holding elections for members of the General Assembly, so far as the same may be applicable, and the returns made to the board of county commissioners, who shall meet on Wednesday following said election, and who shall canvass the returns of the same, have result entered upon their minutes, and declare the results in the same manner as is now required by the boards of county commissioners in elections for General Assembly.

When such election is held for any city, county, town or township, the board of canvassers shall consist of one member from each ward or precinct, and if there is but one voting place in such city, town or township no canvass other than that made by the judges appointed to hold the election shall be necessary, but such judges shall make such proclamation of the result of the election as is required of boards of county commissioners in elections for members of the General Assembly.

Any person allowed to vote for member of the General Assembly shall have the right to vote at such elections at the place where he is allowed to vote, and every such voter who favors the prohibition of the sale of intoxicating liquors in the county, town or township, as the case may be, shall vote a ticket on which shall be written or printed the word Prohibition, and every such voter who favors such sale shall vote a ticket on which shall be written or printed the word License.

Section 3116 as amended by Sec. 3, chapter 215, laws of 1897.
If the majority of the votes cast at any such election in any city, county, town or township shall have written or printed thereon "No License" it shall not be lawful for the board of commissioners of such county to grant license to any person for the sale of intoxicating liquors and for no person to sell any intoxicating liquors within such county, city, town or township in violation of the provisions of this section the person so offending shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and fined or imprisoned or both at the discretion of the court.

No druggist shall sell or otherwise dispose of any intoxicating liquors except for bona fide medical purposes and upon the prescription of a physician licensed by the State board of medical examiners known to such druggist to be of reputable standing in his profession, or recommended as such by a physician who is known, which prescription shall be in writing signed by such physician, and shall specify the name of the person to be supplied and quantity of dose, and no physician shall give a prescription to any druggist in which he is financially interested.
Nothing contained in this section shall be construed as authorizing, under the penalty contained in section six of this act, any druggist to refill any prescription for intoxicating liquors.

Any druggist who shall violate the provisions of this section and any physician or other person who shall give, procure or aid in procuring any false or fraudulent prescription for any intoxicating liquors in violation of the provisions of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and on conviction shall be fined or imprisoned at the discretion of the Court.

Section 6, chapter 375—That the possession by any person engaged in any mercantile pursuits whatsoever of intoxicating liquors in bottles, flasks, casks, kegs, barrels or other vessels, shall be prima facie evidence of intent to dispose of the same contrary to the provisions of this act; and in all prosecutions for a violation of this section the person convicted shall be fined not more than fifty dollars or imprisoned not more than 30 days, in the discretion of the court.

Section 7—That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

Give Him Heart Failure.

The resort hotels at Southern Pines and Pinehurst are crowded and they have to turn away hundreds of guests. The Raleigh Times says the prices at the Carroll are sky high, the lowest rate being five dollars a day.
A gentleman went there a few days ago, a plain, blunt man who had been used to stopping at $2 a day hotels, and registered without asking the price. He stayed there a few days and when they sent in his bill for $25, and a few dollars extra on the side, he had a severe case of heart failure. But there are plenty of Northern brethren who pay the prices without a murmur, and beg for the privilege.—Durham
